

CENT A WORD COLUMN

BOARDERS WANTED at B. F. Polley's, Seelyville. 65t4

$2300 BUYS a house and lot on the corner of West and 13th street. Inquire at the Citizen office.

HARD WOOD, for stoves and grates, for sale at Frank Hollenbeck's, Prompton. 65t4

FOR SALE or exchange for stock, one pair good work horses. Cash price for pair, $60. Forrest A. Taylor, Torrey, Pa. 65t2

THE Peck-Alexander reunion will be held at Carpenter's Grove, Uniondale, Friday, Aug. 27, 1909. 2t

FOR SALE—The Philip Monaghan property on West street. Large lot, good house, small barn. Inquire of W. T. Moore. 64t4

BRAMAN has some splendid native and western horses for sale, all in excellent condition at Allen House barn. 25t4

SPECIAL attention given to children at Charlesworth's Studio. 28

FOR SALE—Ray house, on East Extension street. Large lot with sixty feet front. M. E. Simons. 38cent.

LOCAL MENTION.

—There are 1,301,406 school children in this state and a grand total of $6,970,144.25 is now being distributed to the schools by the Department of Public Instruction.

—The All-Honesdale base ball team went to Ariel on Saturday and was defeated by the team of that place by the score of 12 to 0. Crago, the local's pitcher, was not in his usual good form and was hit hard.

—Scranton papers intimate that the death of Bruce Keeney at Orson, this county, might not have been accidental, and claim that a much closer investigation should be had, than that which the coroner jury made. Mr. Kenney was buried on Thursday.

—The Athletic committee of the Old Home Week celebration has arranged the following games for that week: Monday, Sept. 6th, St. John's of Scranton, two games; Tuesday and Wednesday, the strong Milford team will be the attraction; and on Thursday Port Jervis will be here.

—Excursion rates on the Erie two cents a mile from any station as far north as Binghamton and south to Middletown; also on all stations on Erie and Wyoming Division from Scranton to Hawley. Special train will arrive in Honesdale at 11 a. m. and one leave at 6 p. m. each day.

—Excursion rates for Old Home Week on the D. & H. from Wilkes-Barre and all stations to and including Yatesville $1.25 for the round trip; from Pittston and all stations to, and including Archbald $1.00; from Jermy and Mayfield and Carbondale, 75 cents. Special train leaves Honesdale at 9:15 p. m. on Sept. 7, 8, and 9.

—The Carbondale Leader of last Saturday states that a boy named Floyd Roberts of Varden, Wayne county, was found on the streets of Carbondale in a destitute condition by Officer McAndrews, a good hearted policeman, who furnished the boy with a good square meal, introduced him to Foreman Barrett of the D. & H. shops, who furnished him with a job where he can earn his living.

—N. E. Hause, chief clerk of the Auditor General's department at Harrisburg, has been selected by Governor Stuart to represent this state at the third International Tax Conference to be held at Louisville, Ky., September 21-24. The membership of the conference is composed of a delegate from each state in the Union. They meet each year and consider questions respecting taxation.

—The members of the Hawley Fire department have accepted the invitation extended to them by Alert Fire company of Honesdale to be their guests on Firemen's Day during Old Home Week celebration. The local fire ladders will leave there about forty strong on a special train Wednesday morning, Sept. 8, to take part in the parade on that date. They will be accompanied by scores of friends and one of the best bands obtainable.

—The Privilege committee for the "Old Home Week" celebration held a meeting on Friday afternoon, Aug. 20th, at which time the matter of privilege for the selling of refreshments, etc., was discussed. The committee decided to give Honesdale dealers first preference for location. All persons wishing to secure space for the sale of refreshments, etc., can address Martin Caulfield, Chairman of the Privilege Committee.

—Congressman Pratt is home, since Congress adjourned. He has purchased a large new touring car, and next winter it will be seen on the avenues at Washington. Our representative was very fortunate in being placed on two very important committees—committee on Agriculture and on Expenditure in the department of Commerce and Labor. The place on the committee on Agriculture is one of the most sought for assignments in the gift of the Speaker, and we congratulate Mr. Pratt.

Henry Knorr was taken to the Danville asylum on Saturday.

—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pethlick, of Eight street, on Monday, a son.

—J. Berj, Dimulek is expected to be one of the speakers Home Coming Week.

—Levi Patterson won both races at Cortland in which his horses were entered.

—Charles Taft, cousin of President Taft, was killed by lightning at Prior, Colorado.

—Impressive services were held at the funeral of Col. F. J. Fitzsimmons on Friday, at Carbondale.

—The Girdland and Rileyville postoffices will be discontinued after August 31st, and the patrons will be served by Honesdale Rural Free Delivery No. 3.

—The Wayne County convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Hamilton Sept. 7th and 8th. Miss Lillian Phelps will be the speaker.

—The Honesdale Methodist Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at Oliver's Grove next Saturday.

—We are going to have a Vacuum cleaning machine. Charles E. Thomas is the owner, and machine is expected in a few days.

—The new concrete bridge at East Honesdale was opened for traffic on Wednesday. The work is in charge of contractor F. J. Varcoe.

—Cyrus Barnes, 5 years old, son of Wallace Barnes of Beach Lake, fell from an apple and broke his arm on Thursday last. He was brought to Honesdale for treatment.

—The Munich Bros. Five, Drum and Bugle Corps, of Port Jervis, will accompany Excelsior Hose Co. No. 5, on their visit here to attend Firemen's Day of Old Home Coming Week.

—The Scranton Tribune man had Mr. Ed. Bader married to Miss Ruth Lord, but Ed. says he married Miss Mary Jayne, and Miss Lord corroborates this statement by announcing she is still single.

—The Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of Calkins will hold an ice cream social Wednesday evening, August 25, on Mrs. H. E. Decker's lawn. Proceeds for the benefit of the church at Calkins.

—The Erie Railroad has over one hundred men at work on their Jefferson branch between Carbondale and Lanesboro, placing the track and roadbed in good condition for the heavy coal traffic which they expect this fall.

—The vault of the National Union Bank at Monticello was opened last Wednesday after nearly a week of labor by mechanics and experts. All the contents were found intact having withstood the intense heat of the conflagration.

—Amos Oliver and wife, while attending the Oliver reunion, met with a mishap, and were very fortunate in not being dangerously injured; as it was their buggy was upset and Mrs. Oliver injured severely. Mr. Oliver escaping with some slight bruises.

—The decorating committee of the Old Home Week celebration is making extensive preparations for a carnival on Park lake two evenings during the celebration. The town will also be artistically decorated during the week.

—Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Ward, of Bethany, was severely bitten by a dog Monday afternoon. The boy was walking along the street when a neighbor called to him. He went into the yard, and as he was approaching the house a large dog fastened its teeth into his arm. Mr. Ward brought his son to this place and Dr. Searles gave the case proper attention.

—The State Highway Commission has sent to the supervisor and county commissioners the cost of roads in Texas township. The preparation of the plans for this work has gone forward as rapidly as possible from the time the work was taken up by the department. This piece of road extends from the borough line to the Cherry Ridge township. An effort is being made to have the state build the road.

—On Thursday evening about ten o'clock Miss Gertrude Roegner, of West street, and cousin, Miss Dora Roegner, of Williamsport, had an exciting experience. The young ladies were returning home. Near the house some person, dressed in white, ran from the yard and across the street. The young ladies became frightened and ran down the street screaming. The people of the neighborhood came from their homes but the ghost could not be found. Late in the evening a young lady hearing of the trouble she had caused, called at the Roegner home and explained matters. It appears that she was spending the evening with a friend and upon hearing the young ladies approaching she ran across the street.

—Raymond Greeley and his mother, Mrs. I. L. Greeley, of Chicago, but formerly of Scranton, who have been visiting the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, going from thence to California, have decided to spend the winter in Los Angeles. It is quite possible they will make that city their permanent home, as he is already established in a very desirable position. The week in which they reached there was that in which the meetings of the State Pharmaceutical society and the National Pharmaceutical association succeeded each other, at both of which he was registered.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Kate Bracey and Rose Flynn spent several days with relatives in Carbondale.

Mrs. Fred Keen and daughter, Rena, have returned home after a visit in Scranton.

Miss Cora Robinson, of Fortena, will teach at the Autumn Leaves school.

John T. Watkins and George B. Brandon were visitors in town on Thursday.

Mrs. Josephine D. Whitney and Miss Antoinette Durland are at Asbury Park.

Misses Gertrude Duff and Susie McGraw are spending the week in Port Jervis.

Misses Margaret Welsh and Beatrice Ford, of Scranton, were visitors in town Monday.

Charles Huck is confined to his home on Green street with an attack of typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schupper and daughter, Anna, were visitors in Scranton on Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. William H. Swift are at Minniwaska Lake for the remainder of their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kriener left Friday for a trip to Chicago and other western cities.

Miss Cora Sears has returned from Tyler Hill where she has been the guest of Mrs. Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Teeple, of Lookout, was in Honesdale, on Friday and made us a visit.

James A. Robinson started his large woolen factory in the Liberty Hall building on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Eberhardt, of Upper Main street, are entertaining Miss Lizzie H. Keefer, of Scranton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Varcoe, of Honesdale, spent Sunday in town with their son, E. P. Varcoe and family.

Miss Gertrude Murrman, of High street is going to teach at the Fairmont school, Scott Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin attended the funeral of Horace Chapman Hand at Honesdale on Thursday.

Miss Florence Gran of Boston, Mass., is being entertained at the home of Mrs. S. Mathey on Ridge street.

Mrs. C. E. Decker, of Berkley, Cal., is spending a month at the home of Mr. G. W. Decker, on Fifteenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Schenck, of Terrace street, are entertaining Mrs. Maud Schenck and brother, of West Pittston.

Miss Annie Drew, of Meridan, Conn., is the guest of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kelly, of Wood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hanlon attended the reunion of the Mansfield Alumni at Luna Park, Scranton, on Friday.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Webster Mears, of Scranton, and party passed through Honesdale in their touring car on Saturday.

Misses Alice Donohue and Helen Judge, of Wilkes-Barre, are the guests of the former's brother, Wm. Donohue, of this place.

Miss Bertha Gibbons of New York City, has returned to her home after a visit with Mrs. John M. Lyons on Park street.

Miss Bertha Lane and Ella Sharpsteen, both of whom are employed at the Wayne County Savings Bank, are off on their vacations.

Mr. Wm. H. Gregory and family, and Mr. S. Gregory and family, all of Brooklyn, N. Y., were viewing the beauties of Honesdale on Friday.

Miss Helen Parry, of Haverstraw-on-the-Hudson, returned home Friday after a visit of two weeks with her friend, Miss Mollie Menner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weston, of Carbondale, made their usual week-end visit at their Honesdale home, coming over Saturday of last week.

Misses Anna Brown, Ruth and Gladys Ruppert and Miss Florence Moore, of Carbondale, left yesterday to spend the week at Twin Lake.

Orville Wright claims that his next flying machine will fly 1000 miles without stopping, maintaining a speed of 40 miles per hour.

Mrs. William Stuman, Misses Mary Coleman, Anna Seaman and Edith Swift left Monday to spend the week at the Menner cottage at Elk Lake.

Misses Jennie and Elizabeth Court-right and Miss Lizzie Bassett returned home Monday from a pleasant visit at the Brown cottage at Elk Lake.

Miss Sadie Coleman has returned to Philadelphia, after a three weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman, of South Church street.

Hon. and Mrs. W. T. Creasy, of Catawissa, Pa., returned home Friday, after spending some days in town, the guests of Hon. and Mrs. Leopold Puertch.

Harry Potter, who has been employed in one of Honesdale's meat shops for several weeks, has resigned his position, and returned to Scranton.

Mr. Frank Steinman and family went to Liberty and Monticello, N. Y., for Saturday and Sunday last, returning Sunday night. The run was made in their touring car.

Mrs. Andrew Thompson, accompanied by her granddaughters, Emily and Frances, went to New York on Friday, where the children were met by their father, Mr. Augustus P. Thompson, of Andover, Mass.

John Brown is spending his vacation in Scranton.

Miss Madge Monaghan is visiting relatives at this place.

Raymond Bodie, of Scranton, was a visitor in town Friday.

Miss Margaret Griffin was a visitor in Scranton on Thursday.

William Mathey, of Scranton, was a visitor in town on Sunday.

Miss Adelaide Place, of Tunkhannock, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Marie Bracey is spending two weeks with relatives in Scranton.

L. L. Woodley, of Scranton, was a business caller in town on Monday.

Misses Angie and May Finnerty spent Sunday with friends in Scranton.

Miss Anantha Sweeney is visiting at the home of her parents on Fourth street.

Edward Fasshauer, of Carbondale, spent Sunday at his home in this place.

Thomas Kelly and Chris. Buerkert spent Sunday at Lake Huntingdon.

Miss Lucy Delaney, of Port Jervis, is the guest of Miss Mary Ennis, of Ridge street.

Miss Edna Cheesman has returned to her home in Flushing after a visit with relatives in Bethany.

Misses Florence and Josephine Allen, of Elkin, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buerkert, of Main street.

Misses Jennie and Gertrude Gallagher have returned to their home in New York city after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Ennis, of Main street.

W. T. Mitchell will have charge of the wood work in George Rickert's new concrete dwelling on Court street. The foundation of the building is being laid.

Joseph Gerrity has returned to Scranton after spending the past two weeks in Honesdale and vicinity in the interest of the International Correspondence Schools.

Mrs. Thomas C. Key and daughter Bessie, after an extended visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hawken, returned to their home at Wilkes-Barre.

Hugh Gallagher of Carbondale, was a visitor in town Sunday. Mr. Gallagher was formerly express messenger on the Honesdale branch of the Delaware & Hudson railroad.

Miss Jim T. Rabbitt, stenographer for the Scranton Loan Co., is spending a two weeks' vacation at her home here. She has as her guests Misses Katherine Mellen, of Wilkes-Barre, and Zeta Murray, of Scranton.

Mrs. Emma J. Martin, of Marion, Ohio, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. S. Spettigue, for several weeks, left Saturday last for a visit with another sister, Mrs. W. B. Coleman, at Nyack, N. Y.

Miss Mabel G. Seor had a very delightful trip with Carbondale friends on the excursion to Albany, Saratoga Springs and Lake George; also going down the Hudson for a few days to New York, returning Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Connor, and children, Emerson and Foster, returned to their home in New York on Monday morning, after spending a week at the home of Mrs. Connor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Bodie on Main street.

James A. N. Williams, of Bennington, Vermont, was a caller at The Citizen office Friday. Mr. Williams was born in Honesdale seventy years ago, and was a member of the famous Vermont Brigade of the Sixth Army Corps. He was on his way home after attending the Seven County Veteran reunion at Scranton.

Mrs. Sara Dills and son, Duane Dills, of Scranton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Gray on West street last week. Mr. Dills is superintendent of the Boys' Industrial Association of Scranton. This is an organization of Saint Luke's church, destined to make self-respecting men out of the city walf, and is un denominational.

Old Home Coming Week

PROGRAM
MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 6th.
 Reception and Labor Day; baseball games morning and afternoon.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7th.
 Grand Civic and Military parade with numerous floats, representing local industries; addresses by speakers of national reputation.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8th.
 Firemen's Day. Stupendous parade with firemen and bands from neighboring cities and towns.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 9th.
 Dedication of the new High School building; address by State Superintendent N. C. Schaeffer, and speeches by former principals of the school.

One continuous round of pleasure. Band concerts, carnival companies, fireworks, base ball, etc., etc.

Excursion rates on D. & H. Railroad from Wilkes-Barre to Yatesville inclusive, $1.25; Pittston to Archbald inclusive, $1.00; Jermy to Carbondale inclusive, 75 cents. Tickets good on all trains. Special train leaves on Sept. 7th, 8th, and 9th at 9:15 p. m.

Excursion rates on the Erie Railroad: Two cents per mile from any station from Binghamton down and from Middletown up; also on the Erie and Wyoming Division from Scranton and all stations to Hawley. Special train will arrive in Honesdale at 11 a. m. each day. Special train will leave at 6 p. m. each day.

HEADQUARTERS
 for Flags, Bunting and all kinds of Decorations for Old Home Week.

KATZ BROS.

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY
 August 28th Only
FAMILY SCALES to weigh 24 lbs. by oz.
 Regular Price, $1. Sale Price, 70c.
O. M. SPETTIGUE.

Henry Snyder & Son.
 602 & 604 Lackawanna Ave., Scranton, Pa.
PAY HIGHEST MARKET PRICES FOR
 Poultry, Eggs, Butter, Lambs, Calves and Live Stock.
Apples in Season
A SQUARE DEAL FOR THE FARMER.
 Old Phone 588 B New Phone 1123

LAW BRIEFS
 PRINTED AT THIS OFFICE