

VILLAGE, HAMLET, FARM.

Doings in Rural Wayne.

Interesting Items Picked Up by Our Staff of Wide-Awake Correspondents

ALDENVILLE.
Miss Jessie Nelson, of Siko, and Miss Mae Stevens, of Portland, Oregon, were visitors at the home of C. H. Wilmarth, last Friday.

Mrs. C. H. Howell, of South Preston, and Mr. A. W. Larrabee and wife and two children, of Starrucca, are guests at the home of Warren Bunting.

Miss Mary Bates, of Scranton, and Miss Bertha Balabauh, of Wilkes-Barre, are guests at the home of John Derrick.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stanton attended a funeral at Pink last Wednesday.

Mrs. S. M. Martrick and Raymond E. Smith leave this morning on a trip to Elk Hill where they expect to spend Sunday.

T. Everett Rainey left last Friday on a trip to New York City.
Aug. 21, 1909.

SOUTH CANAAN.

The Consolidated Telephone Co. have a number of their phones now in operation in this place. Although they meet with considerable opposition in getting through, they finally have succeeded in connecting.

James Hasen, who has been visiting friends in Pottsville, Pittston and Wilkes-Barre, has returned home.

William Marshall and son, Alfred, of Carbondale visited their old home in this place last Sunday.

John Decker has the foundation laid for his new store, and expects to have the same built in the near future. It goes without saying that his success is assured, as a store in this locality is very much needed.

Miss Blanche Arnold, of Carbondale, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bronson last week.

LAKEVILLE.

Miss Melva Hoshier, of Pittston, returned home last week after spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. Peter Daniels.

George Killen, of Dunmore, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Brook. He returned on Friday.

Charles Daniels is some better at this writing.

Mrs. Sarah Kimble and daughter, Lottie, of Hawley, are the guest of their daughter, Mrs. C. Locklin, of this place.

G. L. James is entertaining H. A. Dupuy, of Dunmore who is at this place on a fishing trip.

Miss Lucy Sheeley is spending her vacation at Port Jervis, N. Y.

Mrs. Della Evans and four children, of Scranton, spent a few days recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Loveless.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Goble, Philip Sheeley, Mrs. W. B. Foss and son, Russell, Miss Ada Morris, Miss Grace James, Mr. and Mrs. Minigan spent Sunday on the Wallen Paupae river, and enjoyed the day's outing immensely.

Miss Elizabeth Alpha is in Scranton on her vacation.

Miss Kate Daniel left on Sunday to visit friends and relatives at Scranton and Pittston.

STEENE.

Constable Frank Baker has moved from Prompton to Carbondale.

Samuel Found is visiting his son at Scranton.

Mrs. Samuel Found and daughter, Mrs. Stephens, start out Tuesday, the 24th, for a ten days' vacation at Ocean Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. William Renny, of Carbondale, are spending their vacation at Steene at the home of Mrs. Minnie Hill.

Within the last three weeks John Van Burskirk has lost two valuable horses.

The Prompton borough fathers have decided to build this fall a half mile of crushed stone road. Let the good work go on.

After a two weeks' vacation, our mail carrier, Mr. Gilpin, is again on duty.

Thomas Arthur is on the sick list this week.

It is rumored that wedding bells will soon be ringing here at Steene.

KELLAM AND BRAMAN.

The much-needed rains has come and forty-eight hours moderate rain has revived all vegetation and settled the dust.

The Sunday school picnic at Braman was largely attended and a great success, both socially and financially. About $50 was raised for the church.

Mrs. H. Weitzer returned to-day from New York.

Hattie Rosengrass, who has been visiting at this place and Lookout, returned to her home in Hawley to-day.

Lillie Farbox, from Sherman, is the guest of Emma Stalker.

Mrs. Frances Kent, son and two daughters, returned to their home in Port Jervis last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Layton, from Mill Rift, who lived in this place several years, are spending some time with relatives and friends.

Ina McClure, from Deposit, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wells Keys.

Rev. W. Empleton leaves next

Monday for a three weeks' vacation. The first Sunday the pulpit will be filled by a minister from New York and the next Sunday Rev. Timsley, who was our pastor for two years, will preach.
Aug. 21, 1909.

LOOKOUT.

Mrs. Peter H. Coles is sick with appendicitis.

Lydia, daughter of John H. Flynn, is sick with typhoid fever.

Elijah Teeple, our efficient postmaster, has sent his resignation to Washington. For over twenty years he has faithfully performed his duties.

STERLING.

Picnics and reunions are of daily occurrence and Friday, the 27th, the Odd Fellows will celebrate the occasion on the ground above the church.

Several years ago Charles Mcgargle died and since then, most of the time, his widow has resided with a daughter, Mrs. Orta Fessenden, at Hollisterville, who has very kindly cared for her in her declining years and on the 21st she breathed her last and will be laid to rest to-day beside her husband in the M. E. cemetery. Her eldest son, Amasa, recently died at the age of 68 years, so we think Mrs. Ann Wilcox Mcgargle was nearly 90 years old.

Next Friday evening, the 27th, Rev. Frankie, of Newfoundland, will give an illustrated lecture in the church and we predict it will be worth seeing and hearing.

Anyone who drives over our road can easily see what an improvement it would be if the many loose stones were thrown out, as the law requires.

Paul Debler, a veteran of the sixties, who spent most of his life in Sterling, but who now makes his home with his only daughter, Mrs. Wademan, at La Anna, is spending a few days in this section and attended the Post meeting on the 21st.

Mrs. Eliza Simons Shaffer, of Pittsburg, with her mother, are guests at Mrs. R. W. Bartheson's.

Royal and Floyd Cross played ball as usual with the Lake Ariel team on the 21st. Score was 12 to 0 in favor of Lake Ariel. Honesdale couldn't see the ball at all.

C. E. Swingle and wife, of Scranton, are guests at Mr. Leshler's.

S. N. Cross is now on his way to the P. O. S. of A. state camp that meets this week at Washington, Penna.

Mrs. A. J. Cross and son, Milton, are now at Mrs. Cross' parents at Columbia, N. J.

Master George Cross has just returned from a visit to New Jersey.

ORSON.

The seventeenth annual reunion of the Hine family was held in Palmer's Grove on August 9th with an attendance of about one hundred and seventy-five of the members present. The day was a pleasant one, and long to be remembered.

From early in the morning until after the noon train arrived the guests came in great numbers, all with smiling faces and baskets of provisions. Until noon the time was spent in friendly greetings and in visiting. After an hour spent in doing justice to a feast that included all the delicacies of the season, the president, D. J. Hine, called the friends together and a program consisting of vocal and instrumental music and recitations was carried out. The Orson Cornet Band was also present and added much to the pleasure of all with their well-selected music. Secretary N. F. Hine read the minutes of last year's reunion, and reported five deaths, two births and seven marriages during the year. The following officers were then elected: President, D. J. Hine; vice president, Mrs. Daniel Tuthill, of La-Plume and Mrs. Elvira Tallman, of Winwood; secretary, N. F. Hine, of Scranton; treasurer, Mrs. D. P. Hine, of Orson.

After the business session supper was served under the trees in the grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hine extended an invitation to all present to spend the evening at their home which was accepted, and a very pleasant time enjoyed by all. Many out-of-town guests were present and added greatly to the pleasure of the others by their contributions of vocal and instrumental music. Most pleasing was a vocal solo sung by Master Reah Drake, of Binghamton, N. Y., accompanied by his mother at the piano; also a piano and violin duet, played by Miss Grace Hall of Orson and Dr. H. A. Evans, of Edwardsville. About eleven o'clock, with fond adieus the friends departed to their homes.

The Orson M. E. Sunday school spent a very pleasant day with the Thompson Sunday school at Coxton Lake on Saturday last.

Mrs. Charles Young and little daughter, Madela, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Palmer. Miss Nellie Mores, of Long Island is making an extended visit with relatives at this place.

Mrs. Jay Walling, of Deposit, has returned home after spending a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Hine.

W. R. Belknap and wife, are visiting at Deposit.

Mrs. Fred Soules, of Lestershire, and Mrs. Temperton and son of Forest City, are visitors at the home of S. H. Lee.

On August 28th the veterans of the Civil war, in this vicinity, and their friends will hold a basket picnic in Palmer's Grove. Rev. M. D. Fuller of Carbondale, and other speakers are expected to be present; also the Orson Cornet Band. All lovers of their country's freedom are invited to be present.

SALEM.

The Salem Grange will hold a picnic on the campground here on Thursday, Aug. 26th. At 2 p. m. Rev. John Johnson, Chaplain of the State Grange, will deliver an address. Members of neighboring Granges are cordially invited.

INDIAN ORCHARD.

The cool nights of late, leads many to believe that we will have an early autumn.

A great many in this vicinity are repairing and building new stables. L. R. Garrett has laid a stone walk from his house to the road. He took the stone from his quarry and cut the same himself.

Nicholas Houth, the pathmaster, who resides at Swamp Brook, assisted by several in this vicinity, put the road leading from Chas. Carhuff's to the Mast Hope road in a fine condition on Thursday last. Mr. H. is the right man in the right place. All the roads worked by him are in a first-class condition and he is being highly complimented by those who travel over them.

A picnic will be held in Buckingham's grove on Wednesday, Sept. 1st, proceeds of which will be applied on minister's salary.

Earl C. Ham has put a concrete floor in Victor Smith's stable.

Mr. Reese and family, of Carbondale, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henshaw and Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Henshaw.

All grangers should attend the meeting to be held at their hall on Saturday evening next.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Crosby were recent visitors at the home of Arthur Oliver and wife of East Honesdale.

When completed Ernest Harvey will have the best cow barn in this vicinity. It will be made of concrete blocks made by himself.

S. K. Dills and family are entertaining several relatives from the valley.

Mrs. Richard Ham spent Wednesday last at the home of Joseph Tuman and wife of White Mills.

Cora Wood, of Beach Lake, spent Saturday last with Alletta Marshall.

Several from here attended the party at the home of M. J. Connor on Friday evening last. All report a grand time.

USWICK AND LAKEVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Woodward and two children from Dunmore, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Carfoot at Lakeville.

Mrs. Kate Roberts returned to her employment on Sunday, the 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haney have been entertaining the former's sister, Mrs. D. Ross and son; also Mrs. Muras, of Ashley. The latter is Mr. Haney's niece. They returned home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Haney called on Mrs. Daniel Smith on Sunday, the 15th, at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. James, at Lakeville.

Mr. Byron Tuttle, of Wilsonville, is moving his family to Ashley, where he has secured employment.

The stork has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Curtis of Ariel, and left them a fine baby girl. Congratulations on their first born. The mother was formerly Miss Sadie Pennell, of Uswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Heichelbeck, of Andell, are the happy parents of a young daughter. We also congratulate them on their first born.

Joseph Herzog, of Lakeville, run a needle in his foot. A physician from Hawley took it out.

Mrs. Davis returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., on Wednesday after visiting her mother, Mrs. Lempert, for a couple of weeks. Her two sisters returned to Brooklyn with her.

STEENE.

The Ladies' Aid will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alon Wood on Wednesday, September 1st. All are invited to be present.

A few days ago the bobolink discovered that his corn was being badly treated by some unknown enemy. Thinking it was the crows that was tearing off the ears by the score, he set several traps, around through his corn field. The first morning after setting the traps he had two chipmunks; the next morning one of his traps was holding a large 20-pound coon. The corn has been holding its own since.

The Lake Lodore Ice company are busy this week surveying their grounds around and about Lake Lodore.

The school house at Steene is being treated to a new roof. The schools will open in this section on September 14th.

Harris Short, of Carbondale, was a visitor at Steene over Sunday.

The recent rains have revived the late planted potatoes so that a fair crop is expected.

Several of the farmers in this vicinity will have to dispose of about one-half of their stock this fall on account of the scarcity of fodder.

Prompton is minus a constable as constable Baker has moved to Carbondale.

GALILEE.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Berry, who have been visiting in Scranton, have returned home accompanied by their two grandchildren, Helen and Alice, children of Mrs. Garret Berry.

Mr. Swain, of Brooklyn, who has spent the last two summers in this vicinity, died very suddenly at the home of S. N. Gregg, where he had been boarding, on Saturday last. The body will be sent to Brooklyn for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sheridan, of Brooklyn, are spending their vacation at Irving Rutledge's.

The schools will be opened Sept. 7th. Much needed repairs are being made on the Keesler school house; also a coat of paint inside as well as outside. Miss Bessie Betts, a normal school graduate, will have charge of the school.

Miss Margaret Loy will go to Easton and Miss Grace St. John will teach at Rutledgeville.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Philip Burke at St. Joseph's church, near Rileyville, on Saturday last. Mr. Burke's death was very sudden as he had been ill but a short time. He leaves a wife and five children.

SHERMAN.

E. J. Whitmore spent last week in Binghamton.

Miss Katherine Kroley, of New York, is boarding at W. O. Curtis'. Amelia and Wallace Freed, of Bendon, Pa., are visiting friends in town.

Miss Hattie Arneke is spending a few days in Binghamton.

Ed. Barlow has a very sore hand caused by a blister from chopping wood.

Mrs. Clarence Gardner has friends visiting her from New York.

Mrs. Enoch Sylvester is very sick. Dr. Hitecock is the attending physician.

The Sherman boys got quite a bang Saturday afterday playing ball. They played two games, one with the Roads Creek nine, score 18 to 6 in favor of Sherman, and one with Maple Grove, score 8 to 7 in favor of Sherman.

Prothonotary M. J. Hanlon has accepted invitations to deliver addresses at the following places: Grange picnic at Torrey, Aug. 25; Veterans' reunion, Orson, Aug. 28; the Tri-County gathering, Uniondale, Sept. 1.

A PLEASANT TIME.

According to previous arrangement the members of Thompson M. E. and P. W. B. Sunday schools, with the members of Orson M. E. Sunday school to the number of 250 scholars, officers and teachers, met at Gelat's Grove, Coxton Lake, on Saturday, Aug. 14th, where a sumptuous dinner was served to over 400 persons, the extra 150 scholars being picnic scholars. However, we were glad to see them all.

After dinner a fine program was rendered, consisting of addresses, solos, duets, recitations, and music by the Orson band. The superintendents of the schools take this way of thanking all who helped to make the occasion a complete success, especially E. E. Gelatt and wife, and others at Lake Coxton for opening their homes and grounds, for our enjoyment.

STEADY ACCUMULATION

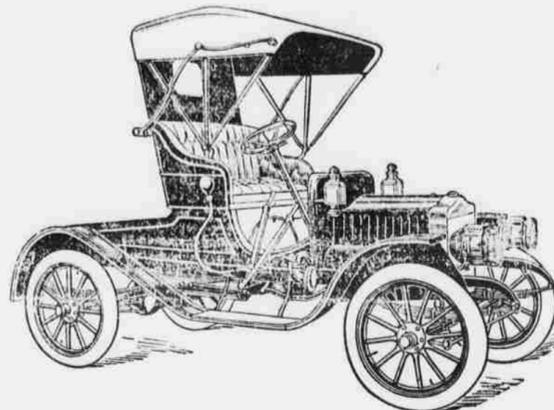

of funds will wear away the hardest rock adversity plants in your path. Dollars, dollars and yet dollars, slowly but surely deposited with us will slowly, but regularly and surely win 3 per cent. interest each year, with its compounding.

FARMERS & MECHANICS BANK

Honesdale, Pa.

This Maxwell Auto Model D. R. has climbed every hill about White Mills and vicinity

The Maxwell ranges in price from $500 to $1,750

When you want a dependable motor car, call or write our White Mills Agency, White Mills, Pa.

MAXWELL-BRISCOE MOTOR CO.

The Proper Celebration of "OLD HOME WEEK" will afford Honesdale people a rare opportunity to test the assertion that the best bargains are always to be found at home.

Nearly every family in town will have one or more guests during the coming celebration, and every household should be prepared to entertain its visitors in a truly hospitable manner. One of the necessities of the sideboard will be good Wines and Liquors, and these the undersigned pledges himself to supply at prices and quality not to be approached by outside dealers.

Look at These Figures on goods PERSONALLY GUARANTEED to be in strict accordance with the PURE FOOD LAWS:

Private Stock, Spring 1902, one of the finest Whiskies that ever came down the Pike . . .	$3.50 gal.
King Leo, none better, 1903,	$3.50 gal.
Early Times, none purer, 1903,	$3.50 gal.
Early Times, none purer, 1905,	$3.00 gal.
Finch's Golden Wedding, 1904,	$3.50 gal.
Finch's Golden Wedding, 1905,	$3.25 gal.
Outerbridge Horsey 1904,	$3.50 gal.
Oakland 1905,	$3.00 gal.
El Bedford 1905,	$3.00 gal.
Silverbrook 1905,	$3.00 gal.
Automobile 1905,	$3.00 gal.
Jackson Square 1905,	$3.00 gal.
Victoria
Cresent Club 1906,	$2.50 gal.
Jockey Club	$2.00 gal.
Ben Chance	$2.00 gal.
Shooting Club	$2.00 gal.
Red Rye	$2.00 gal.
Shaw's Pure malt

WINES

Grand Imperial Sec. comparing favorable with the best imported wines.
Sparkling Burgundy Claret
Burgundy
Rhine Wine
Benedictine
Chartreuse
Curacao
Maraschino
Absinthe
Vermouth
Creme de Mint
Creme de Rose
Creme de Vanille
Creme de Violet
Hava Cocktails
Kirschwasser
Zwitschenwasser
Slivowitz

Having in my stock 1000 gallons of California Port and Sherry Wines, the regular price of which is 50c per quart, I will supply all customers up to September 15th with these choice and pure goods at just HALF PRICE.

$1.00 Per Gallon

ORDERS TAKEN FOR PABST MILWAUKEE BEER.

L. FUERTH,

Wholesale and Retail dealer in Wines and Liquors.