PENROSE TO LEAD STATE CHAIRMAN THE BUTTER FIGHT

Pennsylvania Senator Champion Republican Headquarters Opened of Dairy Interests.

TO FOLLOW TARIFF VICTORY BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR VICTORY

Republican Leader of the Keystone State to Lead the Forces of the Agricultural Interests at the Next Session of the National Congress.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 7. Reports from every section of the state confirm the predictions that the farmers of Pennsylvania would be found standing loyally by the Republican party in the present state campaign.

In the framing of the tariff bill. which was recently passed at Washington, the interests of the farmers and dairymen of the Keystone State were carefully looked after by the Republican representatives in congress. and by also conserving the welfare of the wage earners and capitalists identified with great industrial concerns. the same Republican representatives promoted the general good.

The farmers thrive when their fellow countrymen are employed at remunerative wages, for the great army of workers in the factories and mines and in commercial life are the purchasers of the products of the farms.

From every quarter comes the news of revival of business and the religinting of the fires of the coke ovens and the furnaces of great manufacturing plants as the direct result of the pas sage of a Republican tariff bill.

To Lead Fight For Farmers.

Senator Penrose, who filled a most important role as a leading member of the United States senate's finance committee in drafting the tariff act. had the hearty co-operation of his colleague, the junior United States Senator George T. Oliver, and every one of the Republican members of the house from Pennsylvania.

Now that the tariff issue has been settled prominent factors among the grangers and the dairymen of this state have inaugurated a movement for national protection for the butter makers against the sale of oleomargarine and other similar products in imitation of butter.

As he did in the tariff agitation. Senator Penrose has come to the front as the champion of the dairy interests of his native state and the country at large as well.

He has recognized the numerous defects in federal statutes which govern the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine, butterine, renovated or process butter and adulterated butter and he has agreed to co-operate with the prominent leaders of the Grange, Dutter Protective Association the National Dairy Union and kindred agricultural organizations that wish to see these evils corrected at the session of the Sixty-first congress, which convenes in December next.

To Draft a New Bill.

Senator Penrose has requested a committee of the State Grange of Pennsylvania, the Pennsylvania state department of agriculture and the Pure Butter Protective association of Pennsylvania, with A. H. Woodward, of Clearfield, and Assistant United States Attorney Walter C. Douglas, Jr., as attorneys, to prepare a bill which Senator Penrose will introduce as soon as congress shall reconvene. Senator Penrose says the defective character of the national laws works great injury to dairymen, farmers, merchants and consumers. The proposed measure is to be drafted with the greatest care, and while it will not prevent the legal manufacture and sale of oleomargarine and other butter substitutes, it will certainly prevent the sale of these products for butter.

Farmers, dairymen and all fairminded people do not object to the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine for what it is, but they do very properly oppose the marketing of this commodity as the genuine product of Statistics from the Pennsylvania department of agriculture show that about 90 per cent of oleomargarine sold at retail is represented by the venders to be pure butter.

Deception of this kind is a great detriment to the dairyman, and it also enables unscrupulous dealers to defraud consumers who are induced to pay a price for oleomargarine considerably in excess of its real market

It is held that the word "knowingly" should be omitted from the oleomargarine laws because in many cases it has been found impossible to secure convictions on account of inability to prove that the offender knowingly violated the law. It is also held that the definition of oleomargarine should be so changed that butter, with or without coloring matter, could not be used in its manufacture, and that stamps should be visible and a record kent of the serial numbers so that every packnee may be traced to the dealer or manufacturer.

An Important Campaign.

While this to many is what is termed an "off year," Colonel Andrews does not intend that it shall be an "off year" as far as the work at state committee headquarters are concerned.

He is proceeding upon the line that this is but a preliminary campaign for the election of a Republican governor and the election of a solid Republican delegation to congress next year. VICTORY OVER TEMPTATION.

The reason why one man overcomes temptation and another does not is not so much because of difference in circumstances, but because of the difference in personality. BETTY AN' THE BEAR.

'Twas on a summer morning fair
While Betty made the fire
And Bill snored in the rocking chair
And dreamed he was the squire,
A bear knocked down the cabin door
And jumped for Betty with a roar,
While Bill leaped from his easy chair—
Not at the bear, but no the stair. Not at the bear, but up the stair And quickly pulled the stair up there,

Oh, what a stare did Betty fair Get from that hungry, savage bear! He reached to catch her golden hair, But Betty's ax swung through the air And split his solar plexus square, While Bill, safe in the loft o'ernead, Yelled: "Betty, kill 'im dead! Give 'im a good one in the eye! Hit 'im ag'in an' he will die!"

When Bill was sure the bear was dead He scrambled down from overhead, And, strutting to the slaughtered bear, He stood upon him lying there. And, waving his arms in the air, He shouted: "Betty, didn't we kill the bear?

Oh, didn't he roar around and rare?
Oh, didn't we hit 'im fair an' square?
Betty, didn't we uns kill that bear?"

Oh, why didn't Betty hit Bill there As he got off such redhot air? Why didn't she whack him on the snout And kick the measly coward out? Go ask those women of today. Whom man deserts in life's fierce fray,

And when alone they've slain the bear The coward chump gets off the air, "Betty, didn't we uns sill that bear?" C. M. BARNITZ.

The Era of New Mixed Paints!

This year opens with a deluge of new mixed paints. A condition brought about by our enterprising dealers to get some kind of a mixed paint that would supplant CHILTON'S MIXED PAINTS. Their compounds, being new and heavily advertised, may find a sale with the unwary.

THE ONLY PLACE IN HONESDALE CHILTON'S MIXED PAINTS IS JADWIN'S PHARMACY.

There are reasons for the pre-eminence of CHILTON PAINTS. 1st-No one can mix a better mixed paint. 2d-The painters declare that it works easily and has wonderful covering qualities. 3d-Chilton stands back of it, and will agree to repaint, at his own expense, every surface painted with Chilton Paint that proves defective.

4th-Those who have used it are perfectly satisfied with it, and recommend its use to others.
