PARTICIONE POR PARTICIO DE PORTE POR PARTICIO DE PART

I am offering for sale desirable Honesdale residences and Wayne county farms at prices that should make them go like an express train through a corn field. See me before buying a place. DORIN, the real estate man.

WANTED-We are now ready to take in winter apples; highest cash price paid; will take them either in barrels or in bulk. C. A. Cortright & Son.

PIANO LESSONS given at home of pupil in Honesdale by Genevieve Lord, graduate Drew Seminary. Further information call at Jenkins' 79t2 Music Store.

WANTED-A cook wanted at Hotel Wayne.

LOST OR STOLEN-All persons are hereby cautioned against ceiving or negotiating Interest Department bank book No. 4721 issued by the Honesdale National Bank to Margaret A. McDonald, as said book has been lost or stolen, payment has been stopped, and I have made application for the issue of a new book. MARGARET A. McDONALD.

Honesdale, Pa., Sept. 21, 1909. 76eoi3

FOR SALE-Ray house, on East Extension street. Large lot with sixty feet front. M. E. Simons.

LOST OR STOLEN-All persons are hereby cautioned against receiving or negotiating Interest Department bank book No. 4579 issued by the Honesdale National Bank to James F. McDonald, as said book has been lost or stolen, payment has been stopped, and I have made application for the issue of a new book.

JAMES F. McDONALD. 76eo13 Honesdale, Pa., Sept. 21, 1909.

MISS HARDENBERGH, teacher of piano, all grades, from the kindergarten to the graduate; also theory and harmony. Scranton Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays; Honesdale, Fridays, Saturdays and Mondays.

LOCAL MINTION.

-Rev. A. L. Whittaker will hold service in White Mills on Sunday next, at 3 p. m.

—Mrs. Jos. Taylor has purchased from Miss May Weston a lot on Park avenue, adjoining the residence of Miss Weston.

-Stanley Nazarko and Thomas Willis, murderers, will be hanged in the jail yard at Wilkes-Barre tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

-At Grace Church (Episcopal) there will be Holy Communion at 8 a. m., morning and evening services at 10:30 and 7:30. Sunday school at 12 o'clock.

-The Irving Cut Glass Co. have sold a lot on East Extension street to J. Burcher, who previously owned same, having sold it to the Irving Cut Glass Co.

-Benjamin Whitney of Poyntelle was admitted to a Carbondale hospital Friday, suffering with a badly contused leg, the result of becoming tangled in a herd of cattle.

-Hunters report a scarcity of game in our county. Quail and pheasant have all nearly disappeared, gray squirrels are seldom seen, and rabbits are not numerous.

-The ceremony of conferring the dignity of Monsignore upon the Rev. J. P. O'Malley took place last Sunday at St. John's church, Pittston Right Rev. M. J. Hoban officiating. Previous to the investiture of the Reverend Sir with the insignia of his dignity, a pontificial mass was celebrated at which a number of priests assisted.

-The Farview gravity station, which has never been used since the road was abandoned ten years ago, has been secured from the D. & H. company by the Farview hospital commission for their headquarters during the construction of the state buildings at that place. It is to be refitted and adapted for the commission's uses.

-A petition to have E. H. Ledyard, of Pleasant Mount, appointed director of the Northeastern Telephone Co. to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Fred Kennedy. being circulated. As the petition is meeting with great favor it is very lively Mr. Ledyard will be appointed and as he is a progressive, successful farmer and a conservative business man the company can be congratulated on having him as a director.

-The 91st anniversary service of the Pennsylvania Bible Society in Wayne County will be held in the Grace Episcopal church on Wednesday, October 13, 7:30 p. m. This will be a union service. In addition to short reports by the superintendent, Rev. H. G. Howard, of Scranton, and the treasurer, Mr. Andrew Thompson, there will be five minute addresses by Rev. W. H. Hiller and Rev. H. G. Coenen. Rev. Dr. Swift will take part in the service with the Rector and will read the lesson.'

-The following new officers have been elected by the Wayne County Agricultural Society: Directors, R. Martin, of Hawley; R. J. Murray, of Honesdale; and E. E. Kinsman, of Carbondale, were elected for three by the defendant's counsel.—Scranyears from Jan. 1, 1910.

-The next important day we have will be Thanksgiving.

-The box bowling apparatus now installed at Riechenbacker's.

-A. J. Miller, who now resides in Walden, has sold his River street property to M. Krommis.

-The gross proceeds from the county fair amounted to $3,800; the gate receipts netted $2,544.

-Judge A. T. Searle is sitting in Part 3, Lackawanna court. This is his first appearance as Judge.

-A meeting of those interested in the Schoonover burial grounds, was held at Mrs. S. N. Decker on Court street on Monday.

-Comrade George E. Miller, of Carbondale, was in evidence at the county fair. George is 80 years old and never misses attending Wayne county's fair.

-The following marriage licenses have been granted: Wesley Bennett and Mary E. Albrecht, both of Hawley; Clark Kimble and Ethel Bodie, both of Dyberry.

-Dr. Smith, of Scranton, assisted by Dr. Ely and Powell of Honesdale, performed an operation on Henry Smith of South Main street. Miss Hattler is the nurse.

-Run Away Mike, sometimes called Michael McMahon, celebrated his arrival in town by getting drunk. Mayor Kuhbach fined him $4.00 which was four times as much as it cost him to get drunk.

-The town council having received a portion of the tax levy amounting to $3,500 and not knowing what to do with the money, have agreed to furnish a hose cart and 400 feet of hose to be stationed down town.

-The Peary-Cook controversy and the Hudson-Fulton celebration have been cast in the shade down in Pike county by a bear fight which tice of our last week in town. On her family. The offer of the land occurred in McKean's Valley on October 4th. We print the story for those 24 for 25 cents we have deelsewhere.

-Excavation has begun for J. H. Strongman's new house on West Park street and it is proposed to erect a house 29x48 feet. The upper floor will contain seven rooms, and the lower six. The apartments will have all the modern improvements.

-On Thursday evening the Oslek Tribe, No. 318, Improved Order of Red Men elected the following officers: Sachem, Wm. Bader; senior Sagamore, Harry Deck; junior sagamore, Stephen Bergman; prophet, Augustus Barthlemes; trustee, L. Blumenthal.

-The "Isle of Spice," which will be presented in this place very shortly, is credited with more song hits than any other musical comedy ever written. Some of them are: "The Attorned Goo Goo Man," "Peggy Brady," ton, was business." Sam's Marines," "You and I," "Little Maid of Nicobar," and "How Can You Tell Till You Try."

-On Saturday, October 16, the Republican candidates, A. E. Sisson sister, Mrs. McElhenny, on Broad and J. A. Stober, for Auditor General and State Treasurer, will be in Honesdale. They will be accompanied by Alexander McDougall, clerk of the National House of Representatives, and J. D. Cox, speaker of the House at Harrisburg. It will be in was in town this well as ever. cans of our borough to step up and get acquainted with the gentlemen whom they will by their votes help to elect to fill the positions for which they aspire. Let everybody look pleasant.

-The trial of Amos C. Blakslee, charged with the murder of Garrett Secor spent Sunday at the home of Berry, at the home of Mrs. Blakslee James B. Keen, of Keene. at 720 Adams avenue, Scranton, on the night of April 20, was begun before Judge H. M. Edwards, in Scranton, on Monday morning. District Attorney O'Brien appeared for the commonwealth, Attorney Scragg appeared for Mrs. Berry and Attorneys Thayer and Powell represented the defence. The prisoner appeared in court neatly attired in a blue suit and made a very good appearance. Blakslee will be the principal witness for the defence, which is the 'unwritten law."

-Auditor General Robert Young's recent prediction that the state revenues for this year would break records appears to be coming true as last week the amount of collections made by this department went over the $25,000,000 mark, the income for the day being, $201, 000 in round numbers. The general's department has sixty days in which to best the record of $26 .-425866 of actual receipts in 1907 daughter, Mrs. L. B. Landau, of or $27,027,132 gross because of 437 the sale of bonds. The total of the Truth. income to date is about $2,000,000 ahead of the same day last year. There are some big accounts outstanding and the receipts the reremainder of the fiscal year will be

-Judge A. T. Searle, of Wayne county, appointed recently to fill out the term of Judge Purdy, who died, made his debut on the bench in court in Scranton on Monday and made a noteworthy start. He directed that John O'Hara be acquitted of a charge of pointing firearms, for lack of evidence. The new judge looks the part of the man "born to the ermine." He presided over his only case like a judge in his second or third term. His rulings came direct. He addressed the jury in the fashion of a judge who charges juries daily, and in the opinion of lawyers who attended his court, he is right at home. In the O'Hara case he diof Cherry Ridge. T. B. Clark of rected the jury to acquit, although Honesdale, and Frank Hollenback no motion had been made to that end ton Tribune.

-Work on Rickards concrete double house on Court street is being pushed rapidly to a finish. It will be a well appearing, substantial dwelling.

-Fred Rickard started the new star route to Hoadley's on Monday. If you miss your train for Scranton Fred will take you to Hoadleys if you will notify him.

-Honesdale Council, Royal Arcanum, will banquet the grand Vice Regent of the state, M. R. Thompson of Carlisle, Pa., at Hotel Heumann at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

-Honesdale Lodge, No. 218, Free and Accepted Masons, have been invited to participate in the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Salem Lodge, No. 330, on October 27th. A number from this place expect to be in attendance.

-The 66th anniversary of the founding of Freedom Lodge, No. 88, I. O. O. F., will be observed in their lodge rooms on Monday evening, October 18th. All Odd Fellows are invited to be present. A good time

-A new sickness has developed caused evidently by the excessive use of the automobile. The first case in this vicinity came to the notice of constable Mang, who discovered in the small hours of the morning, a young woman in a comatose state near the St. John's Catholic church who claimed her condition was due to an automobile ride which she had taken with two men, and which ended by her being shipwrecked near where she was found. It is but fair to state that the automobile does not belong in Honesdale, hailing from a town not over ten miles from here.

about the reports you hear that we fully acknowledged the town's debt have left town. We will give noaccount of the increasing demand was made in the following letter: cided to stay a while longer.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Angie Finnerty is reported sick with typhoid fever.

Maurice Church of Montrose, was a visitor in town last week.

Daniel Coleman was visiting his friends in Scranton on Sunday.

Mrs. James Lindsay and daughter, were Scranton visitors on Friday. Dr. John Finnerty, of Buffalo, is visiting his parents on Main street. Harry Cassidy of Newark, N. J., is visiting friends in the Maple City. Mrs. Garrison, of Orange, N. J., is visiting the Misses Brown on Park street.

Attorney Louis Grambs of Scranton, was in town Saturday on legal Sunday from a brief visit with friends above mentioned gift of Stephen at Troy, N. Y.

Miss Delia Gibbons is visiting her street, Pittston. Mrs. Dibble and son, Lawrence, and daughters. Ruth and Alice, came home on Saturday. T. D. Brennan, of Pleasant Mount, was in town this week. He is look-Mrs. William Rippel and sons, memory of Major Jason Torrey." George and Edward, spent Sunday with Carbondale friends.

James McDonough of Scranton, and G. H. Thomas of Middleton, N. Y., were in town Monday. Misses Mabel, Blanche and Helen

C. W. Spettigue will enter employ of O. M. Spettigue, everything in hardware store. Dr. W. A. Smith of Scranton, ar rived in town and is the guest of Dr.

H. B. Elv. on Court street. Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Evans of West street, entertained the former's in the borough are indebted for the father, Mr. Evans of Wilkes-Barre site upon which its house of worover Sunday.

Dr. D. A. Webb of Scranton, who has been in consultation with Dr. P. Griffin of this place, left for his home this morning.

Mrs. George Sampson, of Ariel, who has been visiting the Misses Kimble on Court street, returned home on Thursday.

Dr. Warren Schoonover, of New York City, is spending a few days with his sisters, Mrs. John P. Kimble and Mrs. S. M. Decker.

Mrs. Morris Freeman, of Honesdale, is visiting at the home of her Taylor avenue. —Scranton Harry T. Bidleman, whose home is in Tunkhannock, but who is traveling for a medicine concern of Scranton, spent Friday and Saturday in this place. C. W. Spettigue and wife, of Wilcox, Pa., arrived Wednesday night and will be the guests of the former's brother on East street for the next two weeks. Bob Ferber and sister, Emma, together with the two Misses Hanlan's, reached home on Saturday after a pleasant sojourn with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Synar, at Poughkeepsie. Mrs. Maude Kelly will no doubt succeed Mrs. Russell Whitney as organist of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Whitney contemplates moving to Scranton, where Mr. Whitney is employed. R. T. Whitney of this place has ton and entered upon his duties on gift under consideration. Monday. It is rumored he will move to Scranton.

Richard Bracey spent Sunday in Scranton.

Miss Florence Bryant is visiting relatives in Scranton.

Thomas Tuman, of Scranton, is visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Sigmund Katz left Monday for a visit with relatives in Scranton. Attorney E. A. DeLany of Carbondale, was a business caller in town on Tuesday. Mrs. John Coleman and son Daniel survive. Funeral services attended the funeral of a relative in Scranton on Sunday.

Walter and Thomas Wrenn, of Bloomsburg, spent several days with Honesdale relatives.

Misses Marion Wilder and Jennie Lee have returned home after a visit with friends in Scranton. George Heycock, clerk at Hotel

Allen, is confined to his home in Carbondale with an attack of typhoid Henry Bussa, of Allentown, is visiting relatives at this place. Mr. Bussa is recuperating after a several

-The New Electric Road. If the proposed electric road from Hawley to Honesdale was completed, how convenient it would be for the many people who would like to get some of those fine 24 for 25 cent photographs at Brown's Studio, weeks' illness,

Leine's drug store.

TORREY PARK.

Name of Honesdale's New Park, Land of Which Was Donated by Mrs. Andrew Thompson

Council in accepting the donation of a new park site from Mrs. An--Haven't gone yet. Never mind drew Thompson recently, very graceto her and the past generations of "Mrs. Andrew Thompson desires in this informal way to offer to the chief burgess and assistant burgess and town council of the borough of Honesdale the accompanying deed. believing that its acceptance will contribute to the pleasure of Honesdale residents, and make our town more attractive to its visitors.

"Mrs. Thompson begs leavé state that the fence enclosing the herein described land, is reserved by the previous owners for use elsewhere and will be removed at their earliest convenience.

"A kindly desire expressed by "The Citizen," to recognize the giver in the selection of a name for this park. leads Mrs. Thompson to give expression to her wish, that if no borough action has reserved the name of Torrey park for the plot of land donated by Stephen Torrey at the intersection of North Main and West streets, that this name be applied to this new park, and that the Miss Bessie Healy returned home name North park be retained for the Torrey, as seems to have been his desire. This appears the more desirable, as at a meeting of your council held March 5, 1888, you passed resolutions accepting Stephen Torrey's gift with its designation as you kindly investigate this matter and if possible consider the donor's dedicate the September 28, 1909, a motion was made and seconded that the following resolutions, be drawn up and that the same be spread on minutes ment made.

of council:

'Whereas, Honesdale is deeply indebted to Jason Torrey and his de- and 400 acres of land bordering on scendants, not only for the original establishment of the municipality as the metropolis and county seat of Wayne, but its subsequent development and prosperity, and,

"Whereas, To the religious and moral trend of the Torrey family, from the advent of its founder to the present day, many of the churches ship was built and its 'God's acre' respected; and

Whereas, The public educational institutions of the borough are under admitted obligations to the same source for gifts of many of the lots upon which their buildings were erected; and

"Whereas, Central park and the court house grounds were the joint gift of Jason Torrey and the Delaware and Hudson Canal company, while Riverside and North parks were presented to the borough by his honored son, the late Rev. Stephen Torrey, and another descendant, Mrs. Andrew Thompson, daughter of the late Hon. John Torrey, has now generously tendered to the borough the gift of the valuable plot between West Park street and Park lake as an additional public park, thus adding another and permanent feature to the attraction of the borough, therefore be it

Resolved, By the burgess and the town council of the borough of Honesdale, in regular session assembled, on this seventh day of October. 1909, that the gift from Mrs. Andrew Thompson of the plot above price repertoire companies. mentioned, conditioned upon its maintenance by the municipal authorities as a public park, is hereby thankfully accepted; and further "Resolved, that a copy of these preambles and resolutions be presented the donor, and the same be spread upon the minutes of the council as a durable record by the official performance will commence at 2:30 board of their appreciation of the benefactions heretofore bestowed accepted a position with the well upon the town by the Torrey family, known firm of F. L. Crane in Scran- and now crowned by the generous

> "Resolved, That this park be called Torrey park."

OBITUARY.

ABBEY-R. G. Abbey, formerly of Hamlinton, this county, died at Secret.' the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. A. Raymond, of Plum Place, Green Ridge, on Friday morning. Death was caused by pneumonia.

SCHOONOVER- Mrs. Schoonover died at her home on Vine street Wednesday night, aged 58 years. A large family of children conducted at her late home Friday evening, and the remains wer taken to Clemo for interment on S urday.

SPRUKS-Thomas H. Spr ks. former Honesdaler, died on inday at 4 p. m. at his residence, 9 Poplar street, Scranton. He is s by one son and one daughte Spruks and Mrs. Henry Shu his mother, Mrs. John Spru four brothers, David, Henry, Stephen and Charles, and by three sisters, Mrs. William Huber, Mrs. Edward Huber, and Mrs. Charles Muller.

BAIRD-Mrs. Anna Baird, aged eighty-one years, of Ridge street, this place, died Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock of old age, after being confined to her bed for ten days. She is survived by seven children, all married: Mrs. Mary Loftus of Honesdale; John Baird of East Honesdale; William Baird of Winona, Minn., James Baird of Port Jervis, Mrs. Annie Bishop, of Scranton, Edward Baird of Carbondale, and Joseph, who is a sailor in the U.S. navy. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock Saturday morning with a high mass of requiem, Father Hanley officiating. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

CONGDON .- Carrie L. Congdon, wife of John Congdon, died at her home on East street, Saturday, Oct. 9, 1909, after a long and painful illness. Carrie L. Swingle, daughter of Paul Swingle, was born in South Canaan township, May 5, 1864, and on September 19, 1883, married John Congdon of the same township. After a few months they moved to Honesdale where they have since resided. Mrs. Congdon became a member of the Honesdale Presbyterian church in 1887, and up to the time of her sickness was a helpful member. The funeral was held from her late residence yesterday afternoon at 2 p. m. Besides her husband and two daughters, Estelle and Doris, she leaves the following sisters and brothers: Mary, wife of Andrew Swingle. and Estella, wife of G. A. Carman, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Jennie, wife of David Hand, of Dunmore; Velma, wife of George V. Howell, of Scranton; Calvin, Ellsworth and Nelson of Scranton; Eugene, of South Canaan; and William, of Ariel.

LAKE ARIEL TO BE SOLD.

Syndicate Headed by W. L. Connell Will Likely Become the Pur-

Friday the option held by a syn- STORE dicate headed by William L. Conother financiers on the Lake Ariel OUESTION North park and a copy of this reso- property of Mrs. Charles H. Schadt lution is filed with his papers. Will expired, but the option has been extended for the purpose of purchase. The consideration is in the neighborhood of $90,000.

> When the option expired the representatives of Mr. Connell and party and Mrs. Schadt talked the matter over and a satisfactory arrange

The Lake Ariel property contains 400 acres of ground under the lake the lake. There are three hotels, the Lake House, the Old Pine and the the Lake House, the Old Pine and the tion. The ice privileges are very visit to this store. We Columbia, all in pretty good condivaluable and are worth many thous ands of dollars annually.

The property was purchased by the late Sheriff Charles H. Schadt, P. J. Horan and M. J. Healey and subsequently the two latter sold out to Erie, owing to an accident on a single track road to Greenwood Lake decided to discontinue excursions on single track roads, and Lake Ariel fell under the ban with other re- Dlack. sorts. The property deteriorated somewhat after that, and of late but one hotel, the Lake House, has been open to guests. With the construction of an electric road either of the Our Ladies' third rail type or of a high power overhead trolley kind the lake would become a valuable piece of property, and many regard it is a moneymaker of the first water.

The Weber Stock Company.

The Weber Stock Co. opened its Monday evening to a well pleased drama entitled "We Are King" and it was rendered in a very fine man-Kittle Cosgriff who became popular with the Gardner-Vincent Stock Co. last spring. Mr. Eugene Weber proved to be an artist far above the aver- at the lowest prices. age actor now appearing in popular Are King" was given a complete staging, the scenery and incidentals all being appropriate to the play.

"A Man of Mystery" will be preand no doubt the Lyric will have one that it has had in some time. The children under ten years of age and 20 cents for adults.

On Wednesday evening "The Danites" will be the offering and on other nights during the week the following plays will be given by this clever company: "Lynnwood," "Sealed Lips," and "Lady Audley's

Valuable building lots are being given away at each performance which fact alone ought to pack the Advertised Letters. The following letters are advertised at the Honesdale postoffice:

Mrs. Harrison Cole. Miss Esther M. Grey. Mrs. M. L. Pethick. Mr. Edw. Smith.

Mr. Mathew Smith.

-You are a wise man or woman if you will add your name to the Citizen's subscription list.

YRIC THEATRE BENJ. H. DITTRICH, LESSEE and MANAGER Week of OCT. 11--16 Eugene Weber

Following with the strongest line of pieces ever given. "The Man of Mystery." "The Danites," "Lynwood." "Lady Audley's Secret," "Camile" and "Sealed Lips."

PRICES 10, 20 AND 30 CENTS  SEAT SALE opens at the box office at 9 a. m., Monday, Oct. 11th.

have such a splendid, complete selection of Silk, Mr. Schadt. Some years ago the Lisle, Kid, Golf and Cashmere Suede in colors and are well worth your atweek engagement at the Lyric on tention in Knit and Musdrama entitled "We Are King" and lin Underwear, Corsets ner by a capable cast, including Miss and Hosiery. We carry here while filling an engagement the best selected stock

Furnishings

Tell your friends when they want Ready-made sented as the Wednesday matinee bill Garments to visit our of the largest matinee audiences store, where they find ANYTHING and EVERYand the prices will be 10 cents for THING that's NEW in wearing apparel.

KATZ BROS.