

RIOTING IN PARIS.

In Protest Against Execution of Ferrer in Spain.

BICYCLE POLICEMAN IS SHOT.

Bullet Was Intended For Prefect of Police—Mounted Men Charge Repeatedly on the Mob of Anarchists.

Paris, Oct. 14.—A manifestation in protest against the execution of Professor Francisco Ferrer in Spain gave rise to rioting here. A bicycle policeman was killed by a shot intended for Prefect of Police Lepine. A woman also was killed, and about 200 rioters were wounded.

A mass meeting of anarchists had been summoned by Deputy Jaure's newspaper, Humanite, and Herve's organ, the Social War, calling on every one to meet in the Place de Clichy and proceed to the house of the Spanish ambassador. Herve's appeal was worded with more than his customary violence. He said:

"The royal young idiot, whose heart has not been touched by Ferrer's daughter's tears or the indignant protests of the civilized world, is an assassin. He will end like his neighbor, Portugal's royal hog. He signed his own condemnation to death this morning, and when he dies like a dog no man of heart in the whole world will shed a tear over the royal carrion."

The article concluded with an appeal to all Unionists, Socialists and anarchists to join in a demonstration of protest.

A procession of many thousands of persons, crying "Assassin!" "Vive Ferrer!" and "A bas la Calotte!" and singing the "Internationale," started at a brisk rate from the Place de Clichy. The block in which the Spanish ambassador's house is situated had been cordoned. Municipal guards barred the Boulevard de Courcelles and the Place de Clichy.

When the procession arrived within fifty yards of the municipal guards the latter advanced smartly to meet them. Five revolver shots were fired from the ranks of the procession. Immediately re-enforcements of mounted men and police hurried up and drove back the crowd a hundred yards with blows from their sheathed swords.

The rioting then became general. The crowd broke all the gas lamps in the surrounding streets. The mounted men charged repeatedly. The mob stopped three automobiles within 200 yards of each other in the Rue Tocqueville and set them on fire.

An attempt was made to form a barricade with lamp posts which were torn down. An order was given to draw sabers, and the mounted men, numbering sixty, followed by the police, made a savage charge, hitting men and women indiscriminately.

HOTEL MAN'S STRANGE DEATH

Mrs. Hippolyte Dubois Says Husband Committed Suicide.

Hackensack, N. J., Oct. 14.—Hippolyte Dubois, who for several years conducted a hotel in New York, died on a lonely part of Hudson terrace, near Fort Lee, under peculiar circumstances.

Mrs. Ella Dubois, his wife, was with him at the time he died, and her attempt to escape to New York without having notified the authorities landed the woman in the detention room of the Hackensack jail.

It was near midnight when Mrs. Dubois stopped an automobile that was travelling toward the Edgewater ferry for New York. She asked for a ride.

"My husband has just committed suicide on the roadside," said Mrs. Dubois to the autoist, and the latter notified the Edgewater police when he reached the ferry.

Policemen Goulet and Allison intercepted Mrs. Dubois as she boarded the ferry and prevailed upon her to return to the spot where she left her husband. Sure enough, there lay Dubois dead. An empty bottle from which Mrs. Dubois said he drank lay in the road near him.

When asked by Coroner Tracey why she tried to get to New York instead of returning to the Villa Richard at Coytesville, where they had been stopping for a week, Mrs. Dubois could make no satisfactory reply. The boarding house is not four blocks from where Dubois was found.

MANY ABANDONED FARMS.

Secretary Wilson Sees Examples of Poor Farming in New York State.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson is making an automobile tour of New York state for the purpose of discovering if possible why there are so many abandoned farms in the state and what plan can be adopted to remedy this condition, which appears to be alarming.

Secretary Wilson said that in the trip from Albany to Utica he had never seen so many examples of poor farming. The farms were all right, he was convinced, but the farmers were wrong.

"It was a beautiful country that we passed through," he said, "but the farms generally did not show prosperity. I saw hardly any sheep on the hillsides. Next to the cow the sheep is the most profitable domestic animal. Many of the districts looked depopulated. We saw plenty of children in the villages, but few in the rural regions. The country looks deserted. In fact, interest in agriculture appears to have declined in New York state to a great extent."

MARCH ON ZELAYA'S CAPITAL.

Nicaraguan Coast Towns in Insurgents' Hands.

Colon, Oct. 14 (By wireless from Bluefields).—The revolution against President Zelaya was accomplished without the firing of a shot, so far as Bluefields is concerned, but at Greytown there was fighting between a body of rebels commanded by Colonel Ugarte and the government troops.

Some rebels arrived at Greytown before the main body of the insurgent force commanded by General Chamorro Estrada and demanded the surrender of the town. This was refused by the Zelayists, and a skirmish followed, which ended in the capture of the town by Ugarte.

The entire force of rebels is now en route to the interior. Fighting is expected at Castillo. The insurgents in the interior have captured Corinto, Rivas, Reverte and other places.

The entire country is aroused, and the indications are that President Zelaya, who was last heard of at Cape Gracias, will be forced to flee from Nicaragua.

BANK OFFICERS CAGED.

Bandit Gets Money, but Commits Suicide When Pursued by posse.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—A fashionably dressed bandit who robbed the savings bank of D. H. Erskine & Co. in Highland Park, an aristocratic suburb on the lake shore, committed suicide by shooting himself in the mouth when driven to bay by the marshal and a posse of citizens.

A companion of the robber who had driven him to the bank in an automobile was captured immediately following the robbery, forcing the principal perpetrator of the daring daylight crime to flee on foot. He was engaged in a running duel with Town Marshal John Sheehan, who was the target for many bullets from the fugitive bandit's revolver, one of which went through the sleeve of his coat.

The robbery was conducted in a deliberate and spectacular manner, the bandit securing about $500 in gold coin and bills after he had forced John C. Duffy, cashier of the bank; Miss Nellie Fitzgerald, the bookkeeper, and Joseph F. Richards, the receiving teller, into the cashier's cage.

NEW BALLOON RECORD.

Forbes and Fleischman Win Lahm Cup by Flight of 731 Miles.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 14.—Winning the Lahm cup for the longest flight made in a balloon under the auspices of the Aero Club of America and breaking all speed records for long distance flights, A. Holland Forbes of New York and former Mayor Max C. Fleischman of Cincinnati landed near here. The trip from St. Louis was made in the balloon New York, in which Forbes won the duration contest in the Indianapolis contest.

The distance, 731 1/4 miles, was made in 19 hours 15 minutes at an average rate of thirty-eight miles an hour.

WOMEN'S CRUSADE

Mrs. Clarence Mackay Out Against Militant Methods.

PUTS BAN ON MRS. PANKHURST

Says It Is Not Necessary to Go Out on Street Corners and Shriek Out Propaganda to the Passerby.

New York, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Equal Franchise society, announces that she will refuse to introduce Mrs. Pankhurst, the English suffragette, when the latter appears in Carnegie hall to advocate an aggressive crusade for woman suffrage.

Mrs. Mackay at the same time issued a statement defining the purposes and the position of the Equal Franchise society, in which she deplores militant methods and declares that the movement for franchise for women is not a fight for rights, but merely the logical evolution of justice. The statement in part says:

"We feel that to secure the franchise for women it is not necessary for us to imitate methods which are being used in other countries. We shall achieve our aim without sensationalism. I will not endorse the militant methods. It has not seemed necessary in the past and I do not think it will be necessary in the future for us to go out to the street corners and shriek out the propaganda to the passerby.

"We do not think that as an organization we have a right to demand an expression of opinion from the candidates at this coming election. We prefer to leave politics alone until our sex is sharing the responsibility with the other sex. I feel that the main reason for suffrage is community of interest between the sexes. It is not in any sense a fight for rights, but the logical evolution of justice.

"It has been repeatedly said to me by men in public life and men in private life that when the women of the United States unite in demanding the vote they will get it. And I think that is perfectly true and that therefore what is needed to further the suffrage cause is to give all sorts and kinds of women the opportunity of listening to speakers who will explain just what the suffrage will mean to us all.

"We have but to plead our cause without raising our voice to those men and women who are not with us. We can always assume that they are not willfully ignorant of what woman suffrage should mean. We want them to appreciate the fact that throughout this country the strongest suffragists are these women who devote their best energies toward the developing of their children in order to make them citizens worthy of our great country.

"Among the most recent additions to our membership are Mrs. William Schieffelin, Mrs. Milton Barger, Mrs. Rudolph Schirmer, Mrs. Archibald Alexander, Mrs. Everett Colby, Mrs. Richard Stevens, Mrs. Walter Maynard, Miss Spence, Mrs. Paul Morton, Miss Elizabeth Burchenal and Miss Dorothy Whitney."

DARTMOUTH'S INAUGURATION.

Professor Ernest F. Nichols Installed as College's Tenth President.

Hanover, N. H., Oct. 14.—With nearly a century and a half behind her—140 years to be exact—Dartmouth college today brought to the inauguration of her tenth president, Ernest F. Nichols, traditions and customs fully as unique if not as historic as those of Harvard.

The ceremonies began with a service in Rollins chapel under the direction of Professor John K. Lord, after which the academy procession formed and marched to Webster hall for the inauguration exercises.

Delegates from more than 200 colleges and universities were present. In the group were President (emeritus) Elliot and President Lowell of Harvard, President Hadley of Yale and the presidents of Columbia, Pennsylvania and Johns Hopkins. Ambassador Bryce and Governor Quinby of New Hampshire were also present.

The cornerstone of the new gymnasium was afterward laid by President Nichols, and the address was given by Professor Edwin J. Bartlett of the college faculty and a son of an honored president of Dartmouth.

Craig Wadsworth Resigns.

London, Oct. 14.—Craig Wadsworth, second secretary of the American embassy here, has resigned. He is going to some warm climate to recover from the neuritis from which he has been suffering for some time.

ATLANTIC CITY'S RIOT.

Justice Trenchard Blames Police and Calls For Indictments.

Mays Landing, N. J., Oct. 14.—Justice Thomas Trenchard in his charge to the grand jury, of which Captain John L. Young, the Atlantic City financier and hotel man, is foreman, said:

"There can be no excuse for failure to enforce the law in Atlantic City. A refusal of the grand jury to indict all offenders breeds contempt for the administration of justice, which is a forerunner of anarchy and tends to the destruction of civil liberty.

"The prosecutor will present to you evidence of gambling in Atlantic City. Much of it relates to gambling houses conducted so openly as to be notorious. He will exhibit to you faro and roulette wheels, chips and other gambling instruments seized on raiding the houses; he will show you the actual money in large sums which the gamblers were using in their play. Such evidence will require indictments at your hands.

"It will also be your duty to investigate a riot which occurred in Atlantic City. There will be evidence tending to show that state detectives employed by the prosecution were mobbed on the public streets by rioters armed with revolvers and clubs.

"The prosecutor's men were pursued through five city blocks by the mob, and many shots were fired. The prosecutor has evidence that the mob was incited and led by members of the Atlantic City police force. The gravity of this charge is apparent.

"If the police of Atlantic City are to be permitted to drive out officers engaged in executing state warrants what is to become of the personal security and property of citizens?"

STRANDED STEAMER ON FIRE.

Six of the Stone's Crew Drowned While Trying to Reach Shore.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 14.—Caught in the gale on Lake Erie, the steamer George Stone ran on Grubbs reef, caught fire and is a total loss. Six of the crew, including Captain Paul Howell of Erie, Pa., were drowned while trying to make shore in a small boat. Two of these in the yawl clung to it until it was carried to shoal water and then struggled ashore. Ten who remained on the steamer were taken off by the steamer F. M. Osborne and landed at Detroit.

Hardly had those brought to land by the steamer Osborne been landed than they were set upon by union men or their sympathizers, and one was knocked into the river. He was rescued by the harbor master.

Others of the crew were attacked upon the street, and several of them were roughly handled. The crew was escorted to the Wabash depot by the police.

Captain Grubb of the Pelee light went out in a gasoline boat and picked up the yawl from the Stone and also recovered three of the bodies. It is said the boiler went wrong in the gale, causing the Stone to become unmanageable. Her anchors were dropped, but failed to hold her. She caught fire forward, and her cabins were burned off.

CRANE'S FATHER ANGRY.

Says Son's Dismissal Was a "Frame-up" on Secretary Knox's Part.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Richard T. Crane, president of the Crane company and father of the deposed minister to China, Charles H. Crane, denounces the discharge of his son as an outrage and the result of a plot.

"It is the most outrageous thing I ever heard of," said Mr. Crane. "It is absolutely unreasonableness and a burning shame. They never even gave the boy a decent chance. He had no instructions whatever. There is certainly something behind it. The reasons advanced for requesting Charles's resignation are not the real ones, I am convinced. It is surely a plot of some kind.

"Yes," he continued as some one suggested the word to him, "it must be a 'frame-up.' That's all there is to it."

HANNA'S GRANDSON MARRIED

Wedding Was on July 30, but Announcement is Only Just Made.

New York, Oct. 14.—Announcement is made of the marriage on July 30 last of Gertrude Jerome Leavitt, daughter of the late Edward Leavitt of Woodbury, Conn., and young Carl H. Hanna, grandson of the late Senator Marcus A. Hanna and son of Daniel R. Hanna. The marriage ceremony was performed at Bridgeburg, Ont., by the Rev. Robert McIntyre. The bridegroom is nineteen years old.

Mr. Hanna is the second son of Dan R. Hanna, only son of the senator. His mother was May Harrington, Mr. Hanna's first wife, who obtained a divorce in 1898 and who is now the wife of Edmund K. Swallow of New York.

Rioting by Mob in Genoa.
London, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from Genoa states that rioting is going on there and that the police are firing on the mob.

TEN TO FOUR ON JOHNSON.

Even Money That He Will Knock Out Ketchel in Fifteen Rounds.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—Both Jack Johnson and Stanley Ketchel have finished training for the championship fight on Saturday afternoon. Johnson will weigh 195 pounds in the ring, which is lighter than he was in the fight with Burns. Ketchel will weigh 175 pounds.

Some of Ketchel's admirers fear he is carrying too much weight, but Willie Britt says Ketchel was never better in wind than now.

While Ketchel is much stronger than in his last fight with Papke, Sam Fitzpatrick, who has kept his eyes open during the negro's training, said: "Jack was never in better condition than now. Yet these people who talk about a short fight are mistaken. Johnson is naturally cautious, and he won't take any chances with such a powerful hitter as Ketchel. I should not be surprised to see the fight go beyond fifteen rounds, and, though Ketchel is sure to be cut up, Johnson may win only on points."

Betting on the fight remains the same as for the last ten days, 10 to 4 on the result and even money that Johnson will knock out Ketchel inside of fifteen rounds. Although there are many who claim to like Ketchel's chances, they do not come up with their coin.

JOINS IN ACCUSING GAYNOR.

Assistant District Attorney Says Judge Aided Race Track Men.

New York, Oct. 14.—In a signed statement Assistant District Attorney Robert H. Elder of Brooklyn corroborated the charge made by William M. Irvin that Justice Gaynor, Democratic candidate for mayor, conspired and consulted with Senator Patrick H. McCarren and Eugene Wood to nullify the race track anti-gambling law.

Elder charges that Justice Gaynor plotted with Wood, a political lobbyist, and McCarren, political boss and race track patron, to bring up an "arranged," or test, case on a habeas corpus writ to be heard before Gaynor, on which a decision would be handed down legalizing the laying down of bets.

That the efforts of Elder and his assistants to have a real case on which to obtain a decision were foiled by the race track forces is charged by Elder, who tells in detail of the plotters' struggle to have Gaynor personally pass upon any "arranged" action.

Elder says further that he heard from two sources, one of which, he says, is a public official, that Gaynor had been in conference with McCarren and Wood and that Gaynor's actions in cases antedating the race track litigation made Elder suspicious of the justice's interest in the litigation.

SUIT CASE MYSTERY CLEWS.

Marks on Dead Girl's Foot Lead to Partial Identification.

Tiverton, R. I., Oct. 14.—The suit case tragedy of Bulger Marsh road is now nearer solution, as developments tend to clear up the mystery should the clews on which the police are working prove fruitful.

All the detached members of the body of the victim of the crime except the head have now been found hidden in the underbrush of the lonely road through the marsh.

From marks on the right foot it is believed that the body may prove to be that of Miss Gertrude Edwards, a seventeen-year-old girl of South Scituate, Mass. This girl has been missing since Saturday last, when she left her home in the company of a young man who had been paying attention to her. They left in an automobile.

The police of Providence have been notified to make a close search for the automobile and the young man.

An autopsy was performed by physicians from Newport, at the close of which it was announced that the immediate cause of death was strangulation. The girl was about to become a mother, and herein lies the evident motive for the murder.

VANDERBILT CONTROL STANDS

Harriman's Place in Central Board Taken by Hughtitt.

New York, Oct. 14.—Three corporations with which E. H. Harriman was connected as a director elected successors to him. On the Pacific Coast board John I. Waterbury was chosen. Mr. Waterbury is president of the Manhattan Trust company, the Chase National bank, the International Mercantile Marine and Louisville and Nashville.

In Western Union the three new directors are Alvin W. Krech, Edward T. Jeffery and Kingdon Gould. Significant of the extent of Mr. Harriman's personal influence and its passing with him was the election of Marvin Hughtitt as his successor in New York Central.

M'CARREN SINKING

Brooklyn Senator Very Low After Operation.

IS SEIZED WITH APPENDICITIS.

He Is Hurried From His Headquarters to a Hospital and the Doctors Say That They Fear the Worst.

New York, Oct. 14.—State Senator Patrick H. McCarren, the Democratic party leader of Brooklyn, has been suddenly eliminated from further participation in the heated political campaign by an acute attack of appendicitis which required an immediate operation.

He was taken ill while at work in his headquarters at the Clarendon hotel and was removed at once to St. Catherine's hospital in Brooklyn, where an operation was performed.

SENATOR P. H. M'CARREN.

His condition is extremely critical, and the doctors say they fear he cannot recover.

Senator McCarren had been very conspicuous in the political fights now on, and his loss to the Democrats as a campaign manager is very serious.

McCarren's lieutenants were shocked at the suddenness of his attack, and realizing the importance of having an immediate substitute to take up the leadership Arthur C. Salmon, treasurer of the Kings county Democratic committee, issued a call for a meeting of the county executive committee today to take action on the matter.

Senator McCarren had not been well for three or four days, but had kept the fact from all but his most intimate friends. To most of his political associates he had declared he "never felt better in his life."

After attending a meeting of the Democratic executive committee the senator was taken very ill at his hotel. Dr. Bierwirth made a quick examination and diagnosed the trouble as acute appendicitis. Senator McCarren then asked that his personal physician, Dr. Peter Hughes, be sent for. Dr. Hughes corroborated Dr. Bierwirth's diagnosis, and the two physicians together advised that an operation be performed immediately.

A taxicab was called and Senator McCarren placed inside and driven to the St. Catherine's hospital. The physicians at the hospital agreed with those who had previously examined the senator that an operation was urgent.

The senator's mother, Mrs. Mary McCarren, who is now eighty-four years old, lives in the family home at 87 Berry street, Brooklyn. She has been ill and falling rapidly for a long time, and the family did not think it advisable to tell her of her son's illness. An aunt of the senator, Mrs. Bernard J. McCann, and his nephews, David and Edward McCarron, with their sister, went to the hospital and remained there waiting for news.

Senator McCarren is in his sixty-first year. He was born on July 18, 1849.
