PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 1. Shall Section Eight of Article Four of the Constitution be Amended so as to Read as Follows?

He shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate, appoint a Secretary of the Commonwealth and an Attorney General during pleasure, a Superintendent of Public Instruction for four years, and such other officers of the Commonwealth as he is or may be authorized by the Constitution or by law to appoint; he shall have power to fill all vacancies that may happen, in offices to which he may appoint, during the recess of the Senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session; he shall have power to fill any vacancy that may happen, during the recess of the Senate, in the office of Auditor General, State Treasurer, Secretary of Internal Affairs, or Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a judicial office, or in any other elective office which he is or may be authorized to fill; if the vacancy shall happen during the session of the Senate, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate, before their final adjournment, a person to fill said vacancy; but in any such case of vacancy, in an elective office, a person shall be chosen to said office on the next election day appropriate to such office, according to the provisions of this Constitution, unless the vacancy shall happen within two calendar months immediately preceding such election day, in which case the election for said office shall be held on the second succeeding election day appropriate to such office. In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall be entered on the journal.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 2. Shall Section Twenty-one of Article Four of the Constitution be Amended so as to Read as Follows?

The terms of the Secretary of Internal Affairs, the Auditor General, and the State Treasurer shall each be four years; and they shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State at general elections; but a State Treasurer, elected in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, shall serve for three years, and his successors shall be elected at the general election in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and in every fourth year thereafter. No person elected to the office of Auditor General or State Treasurer shall be capable of holding the same office for two consecutive terms.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 3. Shall Section Eleven of Article Five of the Constitution be Amended so as to Read as Follows?

Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, justices of the peace or aldermen shall be elected in the several wards, districts, boroughs or townships, by the qualified electors thereof, at the municipal election, in such manner as shall be directed by law, and shall be commissioned by the Governor for a term of six years. No township, ward, district or borough shall elect more than two justices of the peace or aldermen without the consent of a majority of the qualified electors within such township, ward or borough; no person shall be elected to such office unless he shall have resided within the township, borough, ward or district for one year next preceding his election. In cities containing over fifty thousand inhabitants, not more than one alderman shall be elected in each ward or district.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 4. Shall Section Twelve of Article Five of the Constitution be Amended so as to Read as Follows?

In Philadelphia there shall be established, for each thirty thousand inhabitants, one court, not of record, of police and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be six years, and they shall be elected on general ticket at the municipal election, by the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds the number of persons to be elected when more than one are to be chosen; they shall be compensated only by fixed salaries, to be paid by said county; and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, as may be conferred on them by law, as exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes, not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or conferring political duties, as may be made by law. In Philadelphia the office of alderman is abolished.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 5. Shall Section Two of Article Eight of the Constitution be Amended so as to Read as Follows?

The general election shall be held biennially on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each even-numbered year, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto; Provided, That such election shall always be held in an even-numbered year.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 6. Shall Section Three of Article Eight of the Constitution be Amended so as to Read as Follows?

All judges elected by the electors of the State at large may be elected at either a general or municipal election, as circumstances may require. All elections for judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and for county, city, ward, borough, and township officers for regular terms of service, shall be held on the municipal election day; namely, the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November in each odd-numbered year, but the General Assembly may by law fix a different day, two-thirds of all the members of each House consenting thereto; Provided, That such election shall always be held in an odd-numbered year.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 7. Shall Section Fourteen of Article Eight of the Constitution be Amended so as to Read as Follows?

District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen by the citizens at the municipal election; but the General Assembly may require said boards to be appointed in such manner as it may by law provide. Laws regulating the appointment of said boards may be enacted to apply to cities only; Provided, That such laws be uniform for cities of the same class. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, and each inspector shall appoint one clerk. The first election board for any new district shall be selected, and vacancies in election boards filled, as shall be provided by law. Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record, or judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their terms of service.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 8. Shall Section One of Article Twelve of the Constitution be Amended so as to Read as Follows?

Officers, whose selection is not provided for in this constitution, shall be elected or appointed as may be directed by law; Provided, That elections of State officers shall be held on a general election day, and elections of local officers shall be held on a municipal election day, except upon warrant of a court of record, or judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their terms of service.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 9. Shall Section Two of Article Fourteen of the Constitution be Amended so as to Read as Follows?

County officers shall be elected at the municipal elections and shall hold their offices for the term of four years, beginning on the first Monday of January next after their election, and until their successors shall be duly qualified; all vacancies not otherwise provided for, shall be filled in such manner as may be provided by law.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 10. Shall Section Seven of Article Fourteen of the Constitution be Amended so as to Read as Follows?

Three county commissioners and three county auditors shall be elected in each county, whose terms shall be as follows: In the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven and every fourth year thereafter; and in the election of said officers each qualified elector shall vote for no more than two persons, and the three persons having the highest number of votes shall be elected; any casual vacancies in the office of county commissioner or county auditor shall be filled by the court of common pleas of the county in which such vacancy shall occur, by the appointment of an elector of the proper county who shall have voted for the commissioner or auditor whose place is to be filled.

Schedule for the Amendments. Section 12. That no inconvenience may arise from the changes in the Constitution of the Commonwealth, and in order to carry the same into complete operation, it is hereby declared that—

In the case of officers elected by the people, all terms of office fixed by act of Assembly at an odd number of years shall each be lengthened one year, but the Legislature may change the length of the term, provided the terms for which such officers are elected shall always be for an even number of years. The above extension of official terms shall not affect officers elected at the general election of one thousand nine hundred and eight; nor any city, ward, borough, township, or election division officers, whose terms of office, under existing law, end in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten. In the year one thousand nine hundred and ten the municipal election shall be held on the third Tuesday of February, as heretofore; but all officers chosen at that election to an office the regular term of which is two years, and all election officers and assessors chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven. All officers chosen at that election to offices the term of which is now four years, or is made four years by the operation of these amendments or this schedule, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen. All justices of the peace, magistrates, and aldermen, chosen at that election, shall serve until the first Monday of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen. After the year nineteen hundred and ten, and until the Legislature shall otherwise provide, all terms of city, ward, borough, township, and election division officers shall begin on the first Monday of December in an odd-numbered year. All city, ward, borough, and township officers holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of December of that year.

All judges of the courts for the several judicial districts, and also all county officers, holding office at the date of the approval of these amendments, whose terms of office may end in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, shall continue to hold their offices until the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

LAWS RELATING TO ELECTIONS.

And I, the said Sheriff, do further make known and give notice of the following provisions of law relating to said elections:

OF THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS. Constitution of Pennsylvania—Article VIII.

Section 1.—Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: First—He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second—He shall have resided in the State one year, (or if having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election.

Third—He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

Fourth—If twenty-two years of age, or upwards, he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

Section 13.—For the purpose of voting no person shall be deemed to have gained a residence by reason of his presence, or lost it by reason of his absence, while employed in the service either civil or military, of this State, or of the United States, nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of the State, or of the United States, or on the high seas, nor while a student in any institution of learning, nor while kept in any poor house or other asylum at the public expense nor while confined in a public prison.

OF ELECTION OFFICERS. Constitution of Pennsylvania—Art. VIII.

Section 14.—District election boards shall consist of a judge and two inspectors, who shall be chosen annually by the citizens. Each elector shall have the right to vote for the judge and one inspector, and each inspector shall appoint one inspector. All inspectors shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record or judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace.

Section 15.—No person shall be qualified to serve as an election officer who shall hold, or shall within two months have held any office, appointment or employment under the government of the United States or of this State, or of any city or county or of any municipal board, commission or trust in any city, save only justices of the peace and aldermen, notaries public and persons in military service of the State; nor shall any election officer be eligible to any civil office to be filed by any election at which he shall serve, save only to such subordinate municipal or local offices below the grade of city or county offices as shall be designated by general law.

ACT OF JUNE 26, 1885, SECTION 10.

Every person excepting justices of the peace who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of his state, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this state, or of the United States of America, or of any city or incorporated district, and also every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the select or of common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of the commonwealth, and no inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for, except that of an election officer.

ACT 2 JULY, 1839.

Section 16.—If any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, and qualified voters of the township, ward or district, for which such officer shall have been elected present at the place of election, shall select one of their number to fill such vacancy.

ACT 30 JANUARY, 1874.

Section 9.—All judges, inspectors, clerks and overseers of any election held under this act, shall before entering upon their duties be duly sworn or affirmed in the presence of each other. The judge shall be sworn by the minority inspector, if there shall be such minority inspector, and in case there be no minority inspector, then by a justice of the peace or an alderman, and the inspectors, overseers and clerks shall be sworn by the judge. Certificates of such swearing or affirming shall be duly made out and signed by the officers so sworn, and attested by the officer who administered the oath.

PRIVILEGES OF ELECTORS AND OFFICERS. Constitution of Pennsylvania—ARTICLE VII.

Section 5.—Electors shall in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of surety of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance on elections and in going to and returning therefrom.

Section 14.—Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon days of election, and while engaged in making up and transmitting returns, except upon warrant of a court of record or judge thereof, for an election fraud, for felony, or for wanton breach of the peace.

OF THE CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS Act 30 January, 1874.

Section 5.—At all elections hereafter held under the laws of this Commonwealth, the polls shall be opened at 7 o'clock a. m. and closed at 7 o'clock p. m.

Section 8.—At the opening of the polls at all elections, it shall be the duty of the judges of elections for their respective districts to designate one of the inspectors, whose duty it shall be to receive and the registry of the voters, and to make the entries therein required by law and it shall be the duty of the other said inspector to receive and number the ballots presented at said election.

OF THE ELECTION RETURNS Act 30 January, 1874.

Section 13.—As soon as the polls shall close the officers of the election shall proceed to count all the votes cast for each candidate voted for, and make a full return of the same in triplicate, with a return sheet in addition, in all of which the votes received by each candidate shall be given after his name, first in words and again in figures, and shall be signed by all the said officers and by overseers if any, or if not so certified the overseers and officers refusing to sign or certify, or either of them, shall write upon each of the returns his or their reasons for not signing or certifying them. The vote, as soon as counted, shall be publicly and fully declared from the window to the citizens present, and a brief statement showing the votes received by each candidate shall be made and signed by the election officer as soon as the votes are counted, and the same shall be immediately posted upon the door of the election house for information of the public. The triplicate returns shall be enclosed in envelopes and sealed in the presence of the officers, and one envelope with the unsealed return sheet given to the judge, which shall contain one list of voters, tally papers and oath of officers, and another of said envelopes shall be given to the minority inspector. All judges living within twelve miles of the prothonotary office, or within twenty-four miles, if their residence be in a town, city or village upon the line of a railroad leading to the county seat, shall before two o'clock past meridian of the day after the election, and all other judges shall before twelve o'clock meridian of the second day after the election deliver said return, together with return sheet to the prothonotary of the county, which said return shall be filed, and the day and the hour of filing marked thereon, and shall be preserved by the prothonotary for public inspection.

Given under my hand at Honesdale this 19th day of October, 1909, and in the 134th year of the Independence of the United States.
