LOCAL MENTION.

—A marriage license has been granted to David W. Hause of Newfoundland, and Eleanor D. Angel of Angers, Pa.

—Friday, November 19th, is Pennsylvania Day at the State College and it is the next biggest day to commencement.

—The rumor that reached us on Friday that ex-President Roosevelt had been shot by an English officer, has proven to be a rumor started in Wall street by the bulls and bears to stampede the sheep.

—A move has been started in Waverly to build a dam in the Susquehanna river at that place for the purpose of supplying a body of water for pleasure purposes. A vote will be taken on the proposition.

—The town council on Thursday appropriated about $600 as the first installment towards the establishment of a new fire company to be stationed at the lower end of the borough and to be called Hose Company No. 1.

—Did you ever know that gray squirrels lay aside no store of nuts for winter, but depend upon digging through the snow for provisions. Sometimes hunters say they also rob their cousins, the red squirrel, but not often as the latter can defeat in a fair battle.

—A New Jersey man who a few days ago opened a Bible that was given to him by his aunt thirty-five years ago, found tucked away within its leaves about $5,000 in currency. And now he is sorry that he had not searched the Scriptures more closely in the days of his youth.

—A clever swindler was circulating about in Scranton musical circles, parading himself as the representative of a musical society. He secured many membership subscriptions. Among his dupes was Arnold Lohmann, a prominent musician, who endorsed the man's check for $165.

—The gentlemen of the M. E. church of Hawley give their annual supper in Odd Fellows' hall, Thursday evening, Nov. 18. Each year these caterers endeavor to put up a new bill of fare. This year will be no exception only in respect to additional dishes. Further notice later, but this so you can be planning to be present.

—The Ladies' Aid society of Seelyville, maintained their well-earned reputation as caterers by serving a chicken pie supper on Friday evening last that was a feast fit for epicurians of the most refined taste. A large number of Honesdalers attended together with those from near and far and the receipts amounting to $100 were very gratifying to the society.

—It is stated that in Tunkhannock, Pa., the Hallow'en celebration has put a damage suit for $20,000 on that borough's hands, some boys having stretched a wire across the sidewalk which threw a passing lady, breaking one of her limbs. The perpetrators of such foolish pranks should be sent to the penitentiary, whether in this place or any other place.

—Mart King, who was the chief entertainer at the Exchange Club banquet, held at the Allen House on Thursday evening, is a whole programme in himself. His dry humor is a sure cure for dyspepsia. His sparkling wit kept his audience in a "fizz" all the evening, while his impersonations were the real thing. An evening with Mart is an enjoyable treat and the laughter he creates is a most excellent tonic to chase away dull care.

—Fifty thousand dollars for a story of 42,000 words is a new high record even in this country, but this is what Commander Robert E. Peary is to receive from a magazine for the story of his record-breaking dash to the North Pole. The contracts have already been signed and the story is to run as a serial for the next eight months. The pictures which will accompany the story will give the American public its first intimation of just what Peary and his men went through.

—There is a Teachers' Training School held every Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian chapel. Everybody invited. Meetings are very entertaining.

—Master Mechanic McAndrew of the D. & H. R. R. has resigned and is succeeded by J. J. Reid, former M. M. of the Missouri & Pacific R. R. at Fort Worth.

—Teachers are using the entrance on Eleventh street, through the old brick building, on account of the workmen putting in new tiling in the vestibules in the new building.

—In our last issue the word chimney was omitted from the item regarding the High school building. The additional ten foot was placed on the chimney and not on the building.

—Robert Marsh, of Honesdale, and Anna D. Shoots, of Jeanette, were married at the Presbyterian parsonage Saturday, Nov. 6th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Swift.

—Port Jervis made a pretty clean sweep electing the entire Republican ticket. The board of aldermen will stand six Republican and two Democrats, and three of the four supervisors are Republican.

—Hancock, Cadasia, Tustin, Never-sink and Bethel all decided to go or remain dry, at the last election, while Liberty, Highland, Fallsburgh and Rockland decided to retain the license.

—Annual supper and sale of needlework suitable for Christmas gifts will be held by the Parish Aid Society of Grace church in Sunday school rooms, Thursday, Nov. 18th.

—Wayne County Pomona Grange No. 41, will meet with Pleasant Valley Grange, at Dyberry, Pa., on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 17 and 18. Election of officers will also take place at this time.

—The ballot this year in New York was 4 feet long, 13 inches wide and contained 20 columns of different party emblems. Gaynor was nominated by 8 factions and Barnard by 4. It surpassed for size anything heretofore used. It put ours in the shade several degrees.

—There was a bad mixup in the Sullivan county (N. Y.) ballots on the local option question. Through an error of the printer the towns of Thompson, Forrestburg and Fremont were debarred from deciding this question, so that a special election will be necessary to give the people of these towns an opportunity of settling the local option issue.

—Reifer & Sons at Tanners' Falls have their acid factories in full blast. They average a shipment of one car load of charcoal per day. As soon as the state road is finished in Dyberry township, they will consider the proposition to use a traction engine, which will do the work of ten teams in hauling to and from the depot at Honesdale to their factory.

—Feast and your friends are many; fast and they cut you dead; they'll not get mad if you treat them bad, so long as their stomachs are fed. Steal if you get a million, for then you can furnish bail; it's the great big thief who gets out on leave, while the little ones get to jail. Advertise and the dollars come to you; quit and they fail to come in, for what care the men who have money to spend, for the men who don't care to see them.

—Adolph Moskowitz, of Manayunk, an Odd Fellow, was sent to prison for contempt of court. He was plaintiff in a case and was suing his former employers for money due. The defense was he was dishonest and had stolen more money than the firm owed him. He succeeded in getting a verdict, but was caught by the judge and lawyer of the defendants, giving secret sign of distress used by the Odd Fellows to the jury. When questioned he admitted he had done so and gave as his excuse that he was in distress and needed the help of the jury.

—The New York Sun started a discussion on the question, "What is a gentleman?" It has proved to be very interesting and animated. One correspondent sent in the following definition, which does not seem to have been surpassed thus far: "A man that's clean inside and out; neither looks up to the rich nor down to the poor; who can lose without squealing and who can win without bragging; who is considerate of women, children and old people; who is too brave to lie, too generous to cheat, and who takes his share of the world and lets other people have theirs."

—Former County Treasurer of Lackawanna was drowned at Locklin Lake, Lakeville, this county, on last Thursday. It appears while fishing he landed a large fish and in doing so fell into the lake and was drowned. His companion, a Mr. Short, was also thrown into the water, but clung to the boat which had been capsized and was saved by the efforts of Oliver and Alfred Locklin who attracted by his cries came to the rescue.

—Tie a string about a yard long to a common door key and take the string in the right hand, holding it so the key would clear the floor four or five inches. If you can hold the string steady enough the key will begin to swing back and forth in a straight line. Let another person take your left hand in his and the motion of the key will change from the pendulumlike swing to a circular swing. If a third person will place his hand on the shoulder of the second person the key will stop. Try it and then explain if you can.

—The National Elevator and Machine company is working night and day.

—"The Girl of the Golden West" at the Lyric Theatre on Saturday evening.

—The Amity Social Club have issued invitations for their annual ball which will take place on Thanksgiving evening.

—The Wayne county teachers seem to be a jolly crowd this year—like they always are. May their stay be beneficial to them.

—The Prompton Ladies' Aid Society's supper was a decided success in every way. Quite a number of Honesdale and Seelyville people attended.

—On Thursday evening a crowd of young people from this place went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Copeland of Siko and spent the evening very pleasantly.

—The printer of the Pike county ballots had Sober as the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, instead of Stober. Sober failed to carry that county. "What's in a name."

—While drilling an artesian well at Scranton, to supply the Lackawanna Railroad with water, the drillers brought up from a distance of 315 feet below the surface a live frog. His nibs was found in a pocket of sand.

—The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church have arranged with Rev. D. E. Fries to give a lecture on Alaska on Sunday evening, Nov. 14th. The stereopticon pictures used as illustrations are of a high degree of excellence.

—Mrs. Fred K. Derby and her four-year-old son Kenneth, were both killed last week by falling down an elevator shaft in the Dime Bank building in Scranton. They were riding on the elevator; the boy got on, and attempted to get back again and fell into the shaft, the mother jumped after him.

—A petition signed by a number of the taxpayers was presented to the town council objecting to George Genung serving as councilman, on the ground that he is a director in the Electric Light and Gas Company, and according to law was serving illegally. The matter was referred to the attorney, Henry Wilson. Councilman Genung has made a very efficient councilman.

—The following people from out of town attended the funeral of Mrs. Carrie Deming on Sunday last: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stearnes, Mrs. Harry Enterline, Mr. and Mrs. N. Fox, Miss Marie Reutechuber of Wilkes-Barre; Mr. and Mrs. Judd Bunnell, Mrs. Verne Ludlow, of Clarks Summit; Mrs. Jennie Smith and daughter, Bessie, of Yonkers; Mrs. Henry Bunnell of Carbondale, and Mrs. Reed Burns of Scranton.

—The following transfers of real estate have been recorded: Eva K. Dills and Samuel K. Dills of Berlin, to Cornelius Van Eastenbridge, 5 acres of land in Berlin township; consideration $42.50; Laura A. Smith of Scott, to Ella Gammell of Scott, fifty acres; consideration $50; Charles B. Wood, of Berlin, to Harold Hill of Welcome Lake, 2½ acres of land; consideration $25; Jackson Cook, of Jefferson township, Lackawanna county, and J. W. Cook of Lake township, to Levent Chapman, of Salem, piece of land; consideration $12.50; George Kingsley, of New York, to Joseph Simpson, of Preston township, one hundred perches of land; consideration $1,252.

—The Exchange Club banquet which was held at the Allen House on Thursday evening last was well attended, and was a success from every point of view. The menu was all that could be desired and Lord-Lord deserves great credit for the manner in which he performed his part of the program. The food was excellently prepared and nicely served. The speaking was just what was needed to top off the evening's enjoyment and sent everybody home with a higher appreciation of the brotherhood of man. President Dorflinger, Toastmaster Kimble, Judge Searle and Homer Greene were the speakers of the evening, while Mart King was the funmaker and did his part well. Mr. Madden, of Scranton, who led the singing and rendered several solos added much to the evening's pleasure. Nearly 100 members and friends were present. The committee in charge of the affair, consisting of Chas. W. Dorflinger, Milton Salmon and W. F. Heft are to be congratulated on the result of their efforts.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Anna Brown was a recent visitor in Carbondale.

Miss Helen Oaks spent Sunday with her aunt in Hawley.

A. W. Larabee, of Starrucca, was a caller in town last week.

E. J. Neary, of Carbondale, was a business man in town Friday.

Miss Hazel Penwarden spent Sunday at her home in Carbondale.

Miss Vera Moll has returned home after a visit with friends in Carbondale.

James Kilroe, of New York City, is visiting his mother at Tanners Falls.

Miss Dorothy Baumann spent several days last week with relatives in Scranton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Salmon spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Port Jervis.

Mrs. Frank Newberger of Jeffersonville, is visiting her brother, Benj. Dittich, on West street.

Misses Margaret McGettigan and Anna Keen, trained nurses, of Scranton, are visiting at the home of the former's mother at this place.

Walter Healy, a member of last year's graduation class, is attending the Institute. Mr. Healy is teacher of the school at Stevens Point.

Miss Mary Disch, Harold Rowland and Edward Katz attended the Senior class dance of the Carbondale High school held in that city last Friday evening.

Our Teachers.

The requirements of the country teacher are not many. She must be a primary, intermediate, grammar grade, high school teacher combined; she must be able to build fires, adjust fallen stove pipes, put in window panes, sweep, dust, split kindling, drive a horse, keep out the neighboring quarrels, know how and where to whip a bad boy, understand the school laws, raise money for libraries, keep all kinds of records, plant trees on Arbor day, be of good moral character, and pass an examination in the branches of modern education. For these accomplishments she receives $50 a month. Out of this she pays her board, buys her clothes, attends the summer schools, buys educational papers and books, attends county conventions, and furnishes slate pencils for the pupils. What is left she adds to her bank account, or starts a bank if she prefers. Unless something is done to reduce the wages, school teachers will have a monopoly of the wealth of the country and we will find in our midst a labor organization which will menace our free institutions and enslave our tax payers.

THE TOWN COUNCIL.

Met at the town hall on Thursday evening. All members were present; also H. Wilson, the borough attorney. Chief Engineer Lyons and President Wood of Protection Engine were present as a committee from that company. Mr. Lyons reported that he was one of committee appointed by the Engine Co. to purchase two hose carts to be equipped with 500 feet of hose each, and to be placed at such places as the council might suggest, these hose carts to be paid for by Protection Engine company. Mr. Wood stated that the members of Protection Engine company felt that the proposed formation of another fire company by the Town Council was a reflection upon their efficiency as a fire company. He stated that Protection Co. had been very efficient in the past; that they occupied a central position in the borough and could reach any portion of it, in five minutes with a light-running hose cart, and in furnishing these two new hose carts at their own expense, they hoped to still further increase their efficiency and save the taxpayers the unnecessary expense of equipping and maintaining another fire company. The question of Electric Light service was taken up and discussed and committee continued. Scrip was issued to T. B. Clark, Patrick Dunningan, and Fred Krietner. Permission was granted to W. W. Wood to use the large room of the town hall to drill the Boys' Brigade.

The salary of the policeman was raised $10 per month. Treasurer reported $5,029.31 on hand, which included the sum of $281.42 being the State appropriation towards the Firemen's Relief Fund. A com. was appointed to have the old D. & H. office building repaired and put in order for the new fire company. It was resolved to buy 400 feet of hose at 95 cents a foot and also a hose cart for the use of the new fire company to be located down town.

A petition was presented objecting to Councilman Genung serving on the board. Same was referred to the borough's attorney.

A motion to restrict the costs of meals to 60 cents per day for prisoners, was adopted. A number of bills were presented and ordered paid. Other business of minor importance was transacted after which meeting adjourned.

PACKY MCFARLAND WINS.

He Lands Innumerable Blows on Thompson in Ten Rounds.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—A fighter and a boxer—and the fighter into the discard. Such was the result of the Packy McFarland-Thompson bout in the Hippodrome here. After ten rounds of savage fighting and some very clever work with his hands and feet by McFarland Referee Coffey gave the decision to the latter. The decision was just.

In the ten rounds of the fight McFarland landed enough punches to win seventeen lightweight championships. There never was a round that he did not land right and left at will—sometimes they were straight, sometimes they were hooks—and always a dozen savage right uppercuts in each round.

Thompson put up the same fight in the last round that he did in the first one, and apparently he was just as strong. He was always willing to receive anything Packy had to deal.

New $17,000,000 Corporation.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 9.—The Great Falls Power company was incorporated here, with an authorized capital stock of $17,000,000. The incorporators are W. C. Parker, L. J. Reilyea and F. E. Grillwald.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Carrie Deming died at Dr. Burns' private hospital, Scranton, on Friday, after a lingering illness. The deceased was fifty-seven years of age. She was born in Honesdale, being a daughter of B. B. Smith, and was the widow of Lee Deming, of Wilkes-Barre. The remains were brought to this place on Saturday and taken to the home of the Misses Brown of Park street. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, services conducted at the house, Rev. W. H. Swift, D. D., officiating. The pallbearers were O. M. Spettigue, J. A. Bodie, R. H. Brown, O. T. Chambers, J. N. Welch and E. T. Smith.

Mrs. Edna Walker Ball, wife of Le Grand Ball, died suddenly at her home in Passaic, N. J., aged 22 years. The deceased was born in Waymart and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Walker. The family moved to Matamoras, several years ago, and have since made their home in that borough. On June 12, 1909, deceased was united in marriage to Mr. Le Grand Ball of Matamoras, and afterwards they made their home in Passaic, N. J. Mrs. Ball was an excellent Christian woman, a member of Hope church, Matamoras, and was held in high esteem by many friends. The surviving relatives are her husband of Passaic; her parents, and one brother, Burton L. Walker, of Matamoras and one sister, Mabel, wife of Herman Sly, of Middletown. The remains were brought to Port Jervis on Monday. Interment was made at Matamoras.

Laymen Hold Meeting.

A number of the laymen and ministers of the various churches of Honesdale held a meeting Monday morning at the Presbyterian chapel. Arrangements were made for the large and enthusiastic local option convention which will be held on Friday, November 19, under the auspices of the Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon league. Mr. Young, of Kentucky, the ecclesiastical Henry Clay of the United States, who made Kentucky dry, will be one of the prominent speakers. Addresses will also be made by State Superintendent Nicholson and District Superintendent H. C. Brant. Two sessions will be held, afternoon and evening.

LORDS AGAINST COMMONS.

Reject Government Measure to End Plural Voting in London.

London, Nov. 9.—The house of lords by a vote of 157 to 40 rejected another bill which had passed the house of commons.

The measure which went to defeat was known as the London elections bill. It provided for the abolition of plural voting in the metropolis.

The opposition contended that the bill would have put London on an inferior plane as compared with the provinces.

Mrs. Astor in Seclusion.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—Under the name of Mrs. Clara Austin of Red Bank, N. J., Mrs. John Jacob Astor has been spending several days at French Lick Springs. She was accompanied to the health resort by L. I. Thompson and wife of Red Bank. Mrs. Astor has kept in complete seclusion since arriving at the Indiana town.

Tariff Nothing to do With High Prices.

Senator Lodge made a tariff speech a few days ago up in Boston which ought to cause Democratic free traders, and those who influenced by their plausible arguments continually talk about reducing the tariff to pause and ponder and take new bearings. The tariff tinkers complain that the tariff has increased the cost of living and that for the sake of the working man it should be reduced in order that the necessities of life can be reduced. Senator Lodge shows the fallacy of such argument from the fact that the tariff is not responsible for the high prices of necessities. He says:

Do not be misled by the cry about high prices. High prices are not made by the tariff. If they were they would be easily dealt with. The world's prices have been advancing for the last fifteen years. Study Sauerbeck's tables which appear monthly in the London Times, and you will find that with a few exceptions, like sugar, where there is overproduction, all the world's prices have been advancing, partly from increased demand, largely from the increased production of gold, which means a cheapening of gold and a corresponding increase in everything measured by or bought with gold.

Fuel and food staples are comparatively cheaper here than anywhere; they are not affected by the tariff, but they have advanced just the same because the world's price has advanced. In the manufactured articles some are cheaper here than abroad because investive skill and domestic competition have brought them down.

Other articles made here cost more than elsewhere because the labor costs more, and just there is the whole tariff question. If you destroy the protective duties, as the Democratic party in this state proposes, you must either stop making the protected articles, which means throwing thousands out of employment, or you must bring your wages to the foreign level. There is no other place where a reduction can be made except on wages. Capital will not be invested without a fair return.

NEWS OF THE COURT.

A Few Cases Being Argued Before Judge Searle This Week.

Argument court was held on Monday, Judge A. T. Searle presiding.

The Scranton Trust company was appointed guardian of George and Wesley Adams, minor children of John Adams, late of Hawleyboro., deceased; bonds filed and approved.

In the case of Lena Schwarz vs. Alexa Walker: Rule granted on plaintiff to show cause why new trial should not be granted.

In the case of Eva R. Brune, libellant, vs. Joseph J. Brune, respondent: Libellant is allowed $5 a week alimony, $40 council fees and $30 for expenses.

The case of Honesdale Cruelty to Animal Society vs. Susan Hirt, was argued. On May 5 Mrs. Hirt brought a horse to the hotel of V. Mizler, at that time proprietor of the Half Way House. She tied the animal to a post in front of the hotel and it remained there for twenty-seven hours without anything to eat or drink. N. B. Spencer was notified to take charge of the horse. It was brought to Honesdale and since that time has been cared for by Seymour Barnes, at the expense of the society. Mrs. Hirt was arrested on the charge of cruelty to animals. The defendant claims that Mr. Mizler traded the horse with her husband and gave two and one-half dollars and another horse in exchange. Mrs. Hirt claimed her husband did not own the horse as the animal belonged to her and that her husband was intoxicated when he made the trade. The horse he secured was of no use so she brought the animal to Mr. Mezler's place and told him to take care of it and the latter refused. Witnesses testified to seeing the horse tied to a post in front of Mr. Mezler's place.

To Benefit Its Patrons.

The new time tables issued by the Erie Railroad have a blank sheet attached on which passengers are asked to write their criticisms of the service, and forward the same to the management of the company. The fact illustrates the confidence of the management in the quality of service which the road renders to its patrons. If there were many points of criticisms the management would hardly dare to take the course which it has adopted. A few years ago such an invitation extended to all passengers would have brought to the passenger thousands of complaints, and jests at the expense of the road's service. But the Erie service is no longer a joke. The trains are run promptly on time and the commuters are satisfied.—New York Wall Street Journal.
