LAKEVILLE.

Rev. W. Walker, wife and daughter, Olive, of Narrowsburg, are visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Louise and Abram Miller, of Hawley, spent Sunday with their parents, S. Miller and family.

An excellent sermon was delivered on Sunday evening at the M. E. church at this place by Rev. W. Walker, of Narrowsburg, N. Y., who was assisted in the services by Rev. Purkess, of Plymouth, Pa. Text from Phil. 4: 3.

Harry L. James of East Orange, N. J., who recently spent a week with his uncle, Lafayette James, and family, left for Honesdale on Tuesday to visit relatives at that place.

Born, on Sunday, Nov. 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. Burton Daniels, a daughter.

Mrs. L. James, who has been under the care of Dr. A. C. Voigt, of Hawley, is convalescing nicely.

On Thursday afternoon of last week there occurred a very sad accident here. Mr. George Kinback and Mr. Stephen Short, of Scranton, came to D. A. Locklin's to spend a time fishing in the lake. The high winds made the lake somewhat rough and after they had been some time engaged in fishing near the head of the lake, by some means the boat was overturned, and the occupants thrown into the water. Mr. Short could not swim but Mr. Kinback could not. Mr. Short succeeded in getting Mr. Kinback back into the boat which was partly filled with water. Mr. Kinback then cut one of the anchor ropes while Mr. Short lifted the other out of the water into the boat. In their efforts to reach a stump, some twenty feet distance, Mr. Short swimming and pushing the boat, it was again capsized and Mr. Kinback was again thrown into the water. It was learned from Mr. Short that Mr. Kinback at once gave up all hopes of being rescued and not without standing the brave efforts of Mr. Short he gave up. Mr. Short's call for help was heard at Lakeville, more than a mile away, and by Miss Hazel James, whose people live along the lake. Oliver Locklin took a boat and went in answer to the call of Mr. Short, though they did not realize that it was so serious a matter. Soon after Alfred Locklin followed and they reached Mr. Short just as he was losing consciousness. He was taken from the water and they together started for the home of Lafayette James, who also had started with a boat for the scene, accompanied by his nephew, Harry James of East Orange, N. J. With this addition he was easily carried to the James residence where members of the family and neighbors assisted in restoring him. Their faithful labors were rewarded, for he regained consciousness within two hours. Dr. White, of Ariel, came in answer to a hurry call and ministered to the needs of the unfortunate man. Oliver Locklin and Harry James went back to recover the body of Mr. Kinback, which they succeeded in doing, and it was taken in a boat to the home of D. A. Locklin. A Mr. Vosburg, of Scranton, prepared the body for shipment. Undertaker Teeter, of Hawley, took charge of the remains which were removed to Hawley for shipment to his home at Scranton. A party from Scranton consisting of Charles Rosar, an assistant of Mr. Kinback's in the hotel business, and Herman Dimerich, a son-in-law of Mr. Short, arrived in an automobile about 11 o'clock p. m. and gave directions relating to the care of the body and in interest to Mr. Short. On Friday Mr. Short was able to accompany the party conveying the remains to Scranton. Mr. George Kinback was born in Germany in 1850, and came to this country in 1866; he has resided in Scranton, in which city he has been interested in business for many years. He served one term as Treasurer of Lackawanna county and has been a politician of some prominence. In 1890 he was married to Miss Katherine Schmidt, of Jeffersonville, N. Y., who, with his four children—George, Jr., of Syracuse University; Katherine, John and Car—survive him.

Our teachers who are in attendance at the Wayne County Teachers' Institute at Honesdale this week are to be congratulated on the splendid programme arranged for their pleasure and benefit. We hope they will cull many new ideas from the lectures and absorb much benefit from the association with their fellow workers.

The Rev. Mr. Davis of Waymart, preached a very interesting sermon to a large number of listeners here Sunday afternoon, taking for his text, Isaiah 28th chapter and the 17th verse: "Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plumbets; and the hall shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place."

On account of the dry weather, there hasn't been much in farming the last two years, but the Bobolink hasn't as yet shown any sign of discouragement, and keeps as happy as his mate.

Since the demise of David Wonnacott, John Quinland, an old gravity employee, has charge of the D. & H. station here.

ARLINGTON.

We were pained to hear of the accident that happened on October 30, to Alton Chapman, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Chapman, who, while hunting in the woods, was shot and instantly killed. He was in company with three other men. They had hunted the woods over and came out at the outlet of the Daton Pond. Alton had his foot on a bait box, and his gun by the side of him. The jar from his foot slipping off caused the gun to go off. The hammer being up, the charge from the gun also set his clothing on fire. He was a bright and indulgent boy, and would have been twelve years old his next birthday. Our deepest sympathy is with his parents. He leaves to mourn his loss, father and mother, and one little sister two years old. The funeral obsequies were held in the Chapmantom church on Tuesday at 11 o'clock, and a fine, comforting discourse was given by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Van Seiver. The text selected was from St. John, the 14th Chapter and 18th verse—"I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you." A large concourse of friends were in attendance to pay the last tribute of respect. Four of his little comrades carried his body to his last resting place; interment was made in the Chapman cemetery.

Mrs. Reuben Kimble and two children from Clark's Summit, have returned home after a few days' visit with Mrs. Wm. Altemeyer. She also called on other friends and relatives. She visited the old homestead that she left thirty years ago, and said it still looked natural to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hattir and two children returned to their home in Scranton, after a few days' visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Simons.

A surprise party was given on Thursday night, Oct. 18, in honor of Miss Cora Rallison of Arlington. About 20 were present, and all reported a very good time. At about 11 o'clock, a delightful lunch of cake and coffee was served, after which they returned to their homes wishing Miss Cora many happy returns of the day.

WAYMART.

The Consolidated Telephone Co. has a large force of linemen at work running two additional copper toll line circuits between Carbondale and Waymart to take care of the rapidly increasing toll business due to the growth of the Waymart Exchange of the Consolidated Telephone Co. and of the South Canaan Exchange of the Wayne County Telephone Co. recently established. Ten-pin arms are being put on the poles, so that three more circuits can be added at any time as the needs of the business may demand. The entire pole line is being straightened and carefully overhauled and the service is improved.

RUTLEDGEDALE.

Scott Rutledge and sister, Miss Elma, visited Miss Boyce at Hamlington recently.

STERLING.

Occasionally we have a little shower, but a right good rain that would start the springs and fill up the wells would come very acceptable.

Harvey Megargle leaves for Springfield, Mass., tomorrow and expects to spend some time there with his relatives.

Rev. Webster intends to hold extra meetings at South Sterling four evenings this week.

All of the Sterling teachers are now in Honesdale attending the county institute and the pupils are enjoying a vacation.

A good deal of powder is being burnt and shot scattered broadcast but game is scarce—and it is not to be wondered at, the way they are hunted year after year. It is useless to comment on the carelessness of many amateur sportsmen.

For a week past Mrs. Victoria Noble, of Tracyville, has been at her brother's, Albert E. Bortree, and last Wednesday evening over forty of their friends spent a very pleasant evening with them, and after refreshments were served reluctantly retired. Such gatherings are very enjoyable and recall again the "scenes of our childhood" and gently admonish us that "we are growing old."

So far as we are aware there is now no one sick in this neighborhood.

—Haven't gone yet. Never mind about the reports you hear that we have left town. We will give notice of our last week in town. On account of the increasing demand for those 24 for 25 cents we have decided to stay a while longer.

Tests were made with cars driven by steam, electric and gasoline engines but so far the gasoline car has shown the best results in economy of operation and durability. Although the question must still be regarded as somewhat in the experimental stage, the experience thus far gained indicates that the gasoline motor will be the propelling power for districts where a frequent rather than a heavy service is necessary.

The Erie has several branch lines and divisions where even ordinary passenger trains are unprofitable that with a motor, efficient service can be given, making the necessary daily trips, thereby giving the public opportunities for journeys and at a lessened loss to the railroad.

Gasoline motors are in use on the Wyoming Division between Salamanca, N. Y., and Bradford, Pa., and between Attica and Avon, N. Y. On the Wyoming Division, the motor car is a handsome vehicle with baggage and smoking rooms besides a room for ladies. It is equipped with six cylinder gasoline engine and is making punctual trips. Another on the Attica and Avon route is smaller, having no baggage compartment.

The Erie, having a year ago electrified its Rochester Division between Mt. Morris and Rochester, has inaugurated the triple forces of steam, electricity and gasoline for a motive power.

—The New Electric Road. If the proposed electric road from Hawley to Honesdale was completed, how convenient it would be for the many people who would like to get some of those fine 24 for 25 cent photographs at Brown's Studio, over Leine's drug store.

Getting Rid of Croton Bugs.

"Is there any way of getting rid of croton bugs?" was a question put to the State Department of Health by a Northampton county man. The question was referred to State Zoologist Surface, who replied as follows: "Your letter addressed to the State Department of Health, making inquiry as to how to get rid of the croton bug, has been sent to me for reply. I beg to say that there are several methods of instituting warfare against this pest.

First. You can use a proprietary substance, sold in various stores under the name of Roach Paste, which is merely placed where the bugs will find it.

Second. You can kill these pests by the use of powdered sugar and plaster of Paris, equal parts. Put the dry powdered mixture where they can get it.

Third. Mix one part of arsenical poison with ten parts of powdered sugar, and ten parts of flour. Set where they can eat it.

Fourth. Blow powdered borax into the parts they infest.

Fifth. Fumigate with carbon bisulfide, or hydrocyanic acid gas, and thus kill these as well as all other insect pests in the rooms thus fumigated."

Keeping Weeds Down. We plow our land in November with a sulky plow, from eight to ten inches deep. In the spring we harrow with a spring tooth harrow several times, and furrow on the sod, and it is easy planting. We put all the fertilizer in the hill, using barnyard manure, hen manure and fertilizer in every hill we plant. We cultivate and hoe and keep every weed down.

Spray for Apple Trees. One of the most successful apple growers of Ohio uses arsenate of lead in the Bordeaux mixture to kill the different fungi, as well as to keep in check the codling moth, spraying at least four times after the bloom falls. His formula for the Bordeaux is 3 pounds of sulphate of copper, 5 pounds of lime, 50 gallons of water.

Downy Mildew. Downy mildew is the most destructive disease of cucumbers. It can be recognized by the yellow leaves in the center of the plants, and later by the angular spots that occur on all the leaves. The remedy is to spray with bordeaux mixture.

Muen't Serve Drinks. Saginaw, Mich.—Hotel bellboys in Michigan will have to stop carrying intoxicating beverages to guests' rooms, according to Deputy Frank Wood, of Lansing. "There is a statute which makes it an offense to hire boys to do anything which demoralizes their characters," he said, "and we are preparing to notify hotel proprietors that boys under twenty-one years of age must not be allowed to serve drinks."

DEMAND BIG WAGE ADVANCE. Railroad Men Want Increases as High as 100 Per Cent. Chicago, Nov. 11.—A simultaneous demand for a sweeping wage increase has been made by locomotive firemen and trainmen on forty-two railroad systems west of Chicago.

Advances ranging from 20 to 100 per cent are included in the demands, and the possibilities of a gigantic strike unless their demands are granted are admitted by prominent railroad officials.
