It is their intention to hunt deer and have a good time generally and judging from their stock of supplies they do not intend to be dry or hungry. Neither Wayne or Pike counties have voted "Dry" and it is not the intention of these campers to go away out in the wilds of Pike county and not take any antidote for snake bites along. Sensational Arrest.

A sensational arrest was made in Scranton last week when the police took into custody William DeGaris, alias "Dickson," who claims Cortland, N. Y., as his residence. DeGaris is charged with carrying on the white slave traffic and of having procured two Scranton girls. The warrant for his arrest was issued at the instance of Charles Williams, whose sister DeGaris is alleged to have induced to leave Scranton and go to Cortland. The man was cleverly trapped. When he attempted to lure away a second Williams girl, she went to her mother with the story and the two plotted to have the man meet the girl at the railroad station, presumably to go to New York. When the appointment arrived, an officer arrived with it and collared DeGaris. The latter claims he is a farmer by occupation and 53 years old. He was released on Friday last on $1,000 bail.

ROUGHLY TREATED IN ASYLUM.

Inmate in Trenton Insane Asylum Has Broken Ribs.

A dispatch from Trenton, N. J., says: Henry D. Crusen, the Trenton letter carrier recently committed to the State Hospital for the Insane, after he had become deranged by religion, is dead from half a dozen broken ribs and other injuries. Ill treatment at the hands of attending nurses is intimated, and Coroner Grove is investigating. Clinton J. Swartz, Republican leader in Common Council, has been chosen as foreman of the Coroner's jury, and a thorough inquiry is promised.

The outcome may be a complete investigation of the institution. It is not believed that any scandal in "high places" will be developed, but there may be need of reform in the nursing forces.

Dr. Henry A. Cotton, the new medical director, recently issued an order releasing from chains and other close detention all violent patients, and it is thought the nursing force may be too small to cope with the situation.

Dr. Cotton believes there can be no hope of recovery for patients who are kept tied up continually, or even closely confined to their rooms. He is a believer in the gentler, calmer methods and insists there shall be no rough treatment.

It is reported, however, that many of the attendants are not in sympathy with his reform ideas, and possibly these men and women may be venting their spite on the patients when he is not present. It is admitted at the asylum that Crusen was unruly and hard to manage.

ZELAYA GENERAL IN A TRAP.

Insurgent Leader Has Greytown Cut Off by Land and Sea.

Bluefields, Nicaragua, Nov. 16.—General Chamorro, commanding the rebel forces, after destroying a number of river boats and harbor tugs has evacuated Greytown, which is now occupied by General Toledo with 2,000 government troops.

Chamorro, however, with the gunboat Ometepe and several converted war vessels is maintaining an effective blockade of the port.

The government forces are in a dangerous position, as the only exit from Greytown now is by sea. Zelaya's forces are bottled up after being outmaneuvered by the rebels.

Chamorro is expected to lay siege to Greytown, and in that event General Toledo will have to capitulate. Provisions in the town are scarce, and none are allowed to enter by the rebel forces.

SIX FOOT PIE FOR TAFT.

Thanksgiving Givers Are Looking For an Oven Fit to Bake It In.

New York, Nov. 9.—President Wallerstein of the Pie Salesmen's union, which has decided to present a mammoth mince pie to President Taft on Thanksgiving day, has appointed a committee to select a suitable oven for baking the pie. He explains that a big pie, unlike a monster loaf, cannot be baked in sections.

The union will make the pie two days before Thanksgiving day, so that it will be in prime shape to be eaten. The largest pie ever previously baked was built by a Brooklyn pie baking concern. It was rectangular, about three and a half feet wide and eight feet long.

"We want a circular pie for the president six feet in diameter," Mr. Wallerstein said. "We want a homemade pie highly magnified. We don't want a monstrosity."

FRAUD IN DRIED SAUSAGE.

Diseased Meats Sometimes Used as Well as Dog and Cat Flesh.

Paris.—A member of the Pure Food Congress here said that much of the Italian, German, and French dried sausage commonly used in hors d'oeuvres is made of the flesh of horses and donkeys.

"There is no objection to this in principle," he added, "but in some cases the flesh of diseased horses, dogs, and cats is so used, and more stringent measures should be taken to prevent this practice."
