HAWLEY AND WILSONVILLE.

The funeral of the late C. H. Woodward was held last Wednesday afternoon at the house. A large delegation of Junior Mechanics, of which order he was a member, and many other sorrowing friends were present.

Gertrude Drake began her first term of teaching the Bone Ridge school on Monday of last week. The remains of Mrs. Spears, of Brooklyn, formerly of Hawley, were brought here last Wednesday for burial.

Lewis Runyon and John Kruger of Ledgedale, have secured employment with the Keystone Cut Glass Co.

Mrs. Joseph Pennell was a weekend visitor of relatives at Ariel. Damages have been settled by the boys whose Hallowe'en pranks proved so destructive on the school grounds at Winding Hill.

Charles Marshall is very ill with typhoid fever. Despite the fact that there was a bumper potato crop and prices ranging low, there is a certain man at White Mills who is thinking that it is possible just one of them is a great luxury and this is how it came about.

A short time ago he received notice that there was an express package at the office for him, charges $1.00, which he cheerfully paid thinking some kind friend was about to present him with a fine gift. Taking the package home, upon opening it found four fine specimens of North Dakota potatoes each weighing one pound which the sender desired he should distribute to other members of the family keeping one for himself; therefore, one was sent to Hawley and no doubt so much does the recipient prize this tuber that it may be seen on his sideboard reposing in the most expensive cut glass bowl in the house, the X-ray. The other two were sent to Honesdale. And now this White Mills gentleman is wondering how he will even up jokes with the family before April 1st, 1910.

DREHER.

Hon. Joseph W. Hunter, State Highway Commissioner of Harrisburg, will pay the state road tax in Dreher an official visit on Nov. 24th. Edgar Cross shot a large red fox on November 18th.

The daily mail between Greentown, Pike county, and Gouldsboro, will, on November 22nd, be allowed to travel over the State road from Haag's Mill to the township line of Dreher and Lehigh, thus shortening the distance and making a much pleasanter drive.

November 16th was not so pleasant as we might wish for but it did not seem to interfere with the good feeling that prevailed at the home of A. C. Angel and family where there was gathered a happy company of relatives and friends to witness the marriage of Miss Eleanor Irene Angel to Mr. David W. Hause. It was high noon when Miss Alice Cross took her place at the organ and to the sweet strains of the wedding march the bride and groom, accompanied by Miss Rose Angel, twin sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Mr. Raymond Hause as best man, and they were attended by Misses Verna Hazelton, Mamie Hause and Messrs. Maurice Gilpin, A. E. Hause and Miss Elva Angel, sister of the bride, was ring bearer. The bride was attired in blue chiffon, taffeta silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. The attendants wore Alice blue and carried bouquets of chrysanthemums, lilies, carnations and roses. The groom was attired in a handsome black suit, but not the conventional black. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. B. Belias, of Reyburn, Pa., beneath a horse shoe of laurel, beautifully trimmed with sweet briar buds with other decorations suited to the occasion. It was by the impressive ring service of the M. P. church that the happy couple were made man and wife. Congratulations were in order while the kind friends in charge of the cuisine were busy getting the good things ready for the inner man. It is needless to add here that we were all well fed on good, wholesome food. An inspection of the spare room gave evidence in the amount and variety of gifts that the bride and groom were loved and respected by both relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hause were accompanied by their attendants to Gouldsboro where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hause over night and the following forenoon they went to Harrisburg to visit N. E. Hause and family. They start in wedded life with the best wishes of a host of relatives and friends. Among the many gifts on the wedding day was a deed of fifty acres of land near Angel's postoffice, from Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Angel.

FALLSDALE.

Last Thursday evening while E. F. Noble and Samuel Skinner were returning from Honesdale, when near J. B. Eighth's, the horses became frightened by the wagon tongue coming loose from the neck yoke. Mr. Skinner jumped from the wagon, undoubtedly with the intention of taking the horses by the head, but fell with such force as to render him unconscious. He was assisted to Mr. Eighth's house and Dr. Peterson summoned, but life was extinct before the physician arrived.

Mr. Noble escaped with slight bruises and the team was unhurt, although both horses were thrown in the ditch in the attempt to stop them. Such an accident is always a shock to a community and one to be regretted when as in this case it removes a resident and neighbor. Mr. Skinner was born and lived his life among us and was a kind neighbor and a friend to anyone in trouble. He is survived by his wife and one brother, John, and a half brother, Simeon, of this place. The funeral was held Sunday at the Union church, services conducted by Rev. Coleman. was thought to be on the gain last week, has had a relapse and is now lying very low without any hopes of his recovery.

It was suggested to Mr. Odell that Mr. Roosevelt on his return to this country in April next was expected to seek to succeed Mr. Dewey as United States senator. Mr. Roosevelt has frequently stated that he wanted to go to the senate from New York state.

"That may be all right," replied Mr. Odell, "but my information is to the contrary and that Roosevelt will be nominated for governor."

"Can he get the nomination?" "According to the present condition of affairs," replied Mr. Odell, "he can get the nomination by lifting his little finger."
