

CORRESPONDENTS' COLUMNS THE MOST RELIABLE MEDIUM FOR SPREADING INFORMATION

MAPLEWOOD. A blizzard struck here yesterday (Christmas) and has continued until to-night. The roads are drifted full and railroad traffic is at a stand still.

The Christmas exercises at the Grace church were well attended, considering the weather. The committees in charge are to be congratulated on the excellent programme.

Owing to the good people of this place and surrounding town, F. S. Keene has his family housed, and enjoyed a bountiful Christmas dinner provided by the many friends, in the house of Wm. Sharpe, where they are living.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Black have been looking after the home of W. S. Gibbs while they spent Christmas with their son, Fred S. Gibbs, in Scranton.

Our station agent, Leslie Brown, is back at his post after a week's vacation. Ernest Kizer of Varden, has joined his brother Leslie in the store here.

FALLSDALE.

New Year's greeting to The Citizen and its readers.

Roads have been fine but with little snow. A heavy fall Christmas put them in fine shape for sleighing.

The Sunday school gave its usual Xmas exercises with a tree on Friday eve. Two loads of our young people went to Beach Lake Saturday evening.

Miss Maud Noble is home from West Chester Normal for the holidays; also Miss Media Reynolds from Stroudsburg, Misses Inez Decker and Stella Noble from Waymart, and Miss Lilly Sheard from Bloomsburg.

W. H. Rose, Master of Labor Grange, accompanied by his wife, attended the State Grange at State College; Mrs. H. E. Decker also attended. M. G. Noble, Ward Wall and Miss Alma Noble have gone to the same place to attend the farmers' meeting this week.

Mrs. C. R. Jackson has returned to her home in Binghamton after a visit of several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lybolt. Mrs. Isaac Lovelass is caring for her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Burcher, of Scranton. We are sorry to report Mrs. Burcher's health no better.

W. D. Orr is on the sick list. Judson Schoonmaker is able to sit up after an attack of typhoid fever.

A card from Mrs. O. N. Bates, who recently moved from here to Worcester, N. Y., reports Mr. Bates ill with a bad cold. All pleased with their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard will visit home folks next week in Chenango county, N. Y.

No services at the Union church on Sunday owing to the funeral of Mrs. Henry Brigham of Damascus.

CENTERVILLE.

Mrs. John Becker, Mrs. S. R. Kimble, Mrs. J. T. Walker and daughter Anna, attended the Ladies' Aid at Mrs. Philip Kreiger's Wednesday, Dec. 15th.

Ernest Chapman, of Little Chapel, visited Centerville school on Wednesday, Dec. 15th.

Homer Bell, of Little Chapel, was a pleasant caller at David Patterson's Sunday.

Jennie Marshall, who has been visiting in Scranton the past few weeks, returned home Friday, Dec. 24th.

Bridget and William Garrity visited their sister, Mrs. John Lane, of Scranton, a few days last week.

Patrons' Day was observed at Centerville school on Friday afternoon.

John Ryan returned to his home in this place after spending the past few days in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Fowler and son, Carl, spent Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Walker.

Robert Marshall spent a few days in Scranton last week.

Mrs. J. F. Walker and daughter, Anna, spent Thursday in Newfoundland.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Patterson spent Christmas day with the former's parents, David Patterson and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Walker, daughters Anna and Loretta, T. J. Garrity, Anna Garrity, U. J. Laird, Mae Sterner, Mr. and Mrs. John Becker, son Fred, daughter Edna, John, Nettie and Marjorie Kimble, William and Margaret Marshall and May Lane, all of this place, attended the Christmas tree exercises at Ledgedale school house on Thursday evening, Dec. 23. Mrs. Bridget Ryan.

Fred and John Beischer of Newfoundland, called on Centerville friends recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Uri Everitts of Ariel, spent Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Becker. David Patterson and daughter Florence, of Dunmore, visited friends in this place a few days recently.

Mrs. Alice Gallagher, of New York, spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Bridget Pigan.

B. J. Scally made a business trip to Ledgedale on Friday.

Wm. Simons is working at his lumber contract; he has employed Wm. Marshall, W. J. Lane, E. C. Maines and John Ryan.

Elmer Faulkrod has gone into the creamery business. He received fifty cents per pound for his butter.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stermer spent Xmas with T. J. Garrity.

GALILEE.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Rutledge spent Xmas at Callicoon as the guests of her brother, Willis Blackwell, and being storm-stayed, did not return until Monday.

Miss Ada Gregg, of Cochecton, is visiting at the home of her father, S. N. Gregg.

Mrs. Koger Rose, of Long Island, is the guest of her parents, L. K. Suttiff and wife.

The oyster supper on Wednesday evening of last week was not as largely attended as was hoped for. The proceeds were about $20.

Dr. F. E. Minshul, formerly of Brooklyn, but for the last two years an inmate of the home of Mrs. Geo. Clauson, died on Thursday morning. The body was sent to Middletown for interment.

Miss Josephine Dilworth entertained her sisters from New York during the holidays.

M. E. Lavo, of Bethany, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Amos Rutledge.

The Big Eddy Telephone Central has been removed from the store of Frank Rutledge to the home of Mrs. Bertha Rutledge who will in the future take charge of it.

The many friends of Mrs. Sarah Brigham of Damascus, were sorry to hear of her death on Thursday last. She was a sister of A. D. Rutledge of this place.

The Keesler school, with Miss Bessie Betts as teacher, had a Xmas entertainment and tree on Friday afternoon. The pupils reflected credit on themselves as well as the teacher.

A tree, well filled with gifts for all was a pleasing finish to the afternoon's exercises.

Miss Louise Rutledge and William Canfield were married at the home of the bride's mother on Xmas eve.

On Thursday Milo Baldwin suffered the loss of an eye by the knife he was using penetrating the eye ball. He was taken to a hospital the same day.

CLINTON.

The united entertainment of the Curtis Valley and Clinton Center Sunday schools was a decided success. Mrs. Santa Claus' concert giving pleasure to all who were so fortunate as to hear it, and of course the tree was a delight to all. In a very pleasing manner Fannie Varcoe presented pastor Rainey a bag of candy, containing also gold and silver coins and to Mrs. F. N. Rude, the Center Sunday school superintendent, a fine breast pin.

Raymond Smith, teacher of the Farno school, had a Christmas tree Friday afternoon for his scholars, as also did Lloyd Clemons for the scholars of the Curtis Valley school.

The descendants of Francis Griswold had their annual Christmas gathering at George Curtis'. There were also numerous other gatherings too numerous to mention separately, as the people of Clinton are given to home gathering of absent ones and friends at Christmas time.

Among those who spent part or all of holiday week at home, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gardner and son Robert, of Carbondale; John S. Lee, of Chester Normal; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stanton an son Lester of Dundaff; Edyth Dann of Carbondale; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vandenberg, Charles Sanders of Syracuse, N. Y.; Warren Norton and Claud Arnold of Keystone Academy, Factoryville; Elwin Norton, of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia; Irene Curtis of Bloomsburg State Normal School, and Edna Hounstine of Glenwood, N. J.

On December 19th, the remains of Joseph Warren Stanton were laid at rest in the Clinton cemetery beside his wife who died many years ago. Mr. Stanton was born in Clinton nearly 75 years ago, where the early portion of his life was spent. Later he removed to Pleasant Mount and the last year of his life his home was with his only child and son, Arthur Stanton, of Carbondale, where he died. He frequently spent long periods of time with his brother, Franklin, who resides on his boyhood home and who still survives him, as also does one sister, Mrs. Kathrine Leonard, of South Clinton.

Mrs. George Munson, of Canaan, was a recent guest of Mrs. Miron Norton.

Amanda Norton is passing this week at Waymart.

The Aldenville High School Alumni meet for their annual gathering tonight at P. H. Kennedy.

SHERMAN.

The Christmas entertainment was a success. The tree was loaded with presents for the little ones and we often noticed the names of those farther along in years were not forgotten. A handsome couch was given Rev. and Mrs. Moon in appreciation of their labors here among us.

The recitations by the children were fine. The Shepherd boys, Ross Clearwater and Guy Harrison, were especially worthy of note, and ending with the hymn, "Ninety and Nine," by Mrs. Moon, will not soon be forgotten.

Family gatherings were very numerous; time and space will not allow us to make mention of them, but many homes were made happy on Christmas day by the home coming of children who had been absent for a long time.

Clarence Schmitz and Della Price were married in Deposit on Christmas eve. Fine sleighing at this writing.

MILANVILLE.

Many of our young people are with us for the holidays and we are always pleased to welcome them.

Henry and Louis Hocker, students at the West Chester Normal school, are spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hocker.

Merlin Illman, a student at Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa., and Paul Illman of Buffalo, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Abigail Illman.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves Samson have returned from New York. Mrs. Samson had a cancer removed from her face. We are very glad to say that the operation was successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Tyler are enjoying the holidays with relatives at Cortland, N. Y.

The Fulbom Dairy Company will begin harvesting from the river this week.

Miss Minnie Gay will spend this week in Dunmore, as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Horace Carr.

Mrs. John Sherwood has returned from a month's sojourn with relatives in Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Tegeler and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Price and daughters, enjoyed a family dinner Christmas at Corwin Valentine's at Damascus.

Miss Edna Joscelyn of this place, and Hiram W. Decker of Narrowsburg, were united in marriage by Rev. Tutthill, Dec. 15th, at Beach Lake. Congratulations.

The children were delighted with the entertainment and Christmas tree given by the school, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. W. H. Connor and Mrs. A. S. Nichols are entertaining their friend, Miss Sue Rockwell of Jersey City.

Miss Edna Skinner spent Thursday at Port Jervis.

Walter Samson has returned from a visit in Brooklyn and New York.

SPERLING.

It will hardly be necessary to say that we now have about eighteen inches of snow and it is about all a team can do to wallow through it in places and a number were obliged to shovel this morning before the mail could get through. But he made the trip from Ledgedale to Moscow and returned.

Yesterday was a very quiet day, an excellent time for rest, reading and loafing. We improved the day reading an excellent book through that our Sunday school class kindly gave us as a Christmas reminder.

Perhaps for the first time in ten years our church was not open.

A number are sick and a health officer (Mr. White) has forbidden us holding Sabbath school or any other meetings. Measles is the contagious disease and T. E. Stevens and family, J. S. McLain's children, Ben. Lee's children, Thomas Mungrave's children, a boy of H. H. Robacker and R. B. Simons' daughter are sick, but we hope no one of them is seriously ill.

On the 23d R. B. Simons got a beef bone in his throat and as he could not remove it and it was very annoying Dr. Simons took him to Scranton to-day.

George Gilpin attended the State Grange at the State College last week, and as he is one of the High school teachers he dismissed school for the week and so the vacation is "continued," to use a court term, this week. Prof. Creveling is very pleasantly spending his vacation in town.

Our children are all with us this week, viz: Royal and David Cross, from Cornell; Floyd and Stella Cross from Wyoming Seminary; Earl Cross from Perkiomen Seminary, and Grace Gilpin from Bloomsburg State Normal; Miss Susan Cross is also home from Moscow and Margaret Howe from Hollisterville. George Howe spent Sunday at home and Willard McLain also.

N. J. Frantz, of East Stroudsburg, has been a guest at J. E. Cross' for a few days past.

Sunday school exercises were held at the Maple Grove school house on the 23d and at Jericho on the 24th, but the Sterling M. E. Sunday school exercises were postponed until a "more convenient season."

Harry and Muri Cross are working at Cherry Ridge and Prompton, and they also spent Christmas at home.

STENE.

A very fine programme was rendered at the chapel here at Steene on Christmas eve, the program being in charge of Miss Ruth Nichols and the Superintendent of the Sabbath school, J. E. Haley. After the exercises, a vote of thanks was tendered to Miss Nichols for the faithful performances of drilling the boys and girls, as every recitation and dialogue all through the exercises were perfect.

Following was the program: 1. Singing, "Joy to the World,"—School. 2. Trouble in the Doll's House—Kathryn Wood. 3. Hard Times for George,—Walter Duffy. 4. Christmas Time—Russell Swingle.

5. Christmas Day—Beatrice Counterman. 6. Joyous Song—School. 7. Popping Corn—Mildred Hogenkamp. 8. Christmas Wish—Mildred Cole. 9. The Way to Christmas Land—Sunday School. 10. The Night Before Christmas—Dorothy Gundsands. 11. Stocking Drill—Eight Boys. 12. King of Heaven—Glen Cole. 13. I'm Glad I am a Little Girl—Edith Haley. 14. Christmas at Possum's Flat—Milton Hogenkamp. 15. Santa's Cake—Mary Hayduck. 16. Santa Claus—Carl Cole. 17. Snow Flakes—School. 18. Sammy Jones—Alfred Hogenkamp. 19. Under the Mistletoe—Carrile Cole. 20. The Village Santa—David Counterman. 21. How the Fairies Play—Eight Little Girls. 22. Light of Christmas—Elsie Cole. 23. Better Late Than Not at All—Minnie Counterman. 24. As Mother Always Does—Ruth Cole. 25. Evergreen Drill—Eight Girls. 26. What Grandpa Knows—Leon Short. 27. Whistling Solo—Kathryn Wood. 28. The Plan that Failed—School Exercise. 29. The Brownies—Mike Hayduck. 30. If There Were no Santa Claus—Florence Wood. 31. Yacop on Lookout Mountain—William Harris. 32. Christmas—Annie Mogelick. 33. Song—Ruth and Elsie Cole. 34. Recitation—Florence Dennie. 35. What the Mother Goose Children Want for Xmas—Muriel Duffy. 36. What I Got for Christmas—Andrew Mozellak. 37. When Good Old Chris Comes Around—School. 38. Santa's Accident—Angus Wood. 39. A Stocking for the Poor—Ethel Duffy. 40. John Henry Paul Brown—William Nichols. 41. Letters to Santa—School. 42. Christmas Fairies—Francis Cole. 43. Christmas Stockings—Exercises.

At the close of No. 43 Santa Claus made his appearance which pleased the boys and girls most of all as they seemed to be willing listeners. He explained to them the necessity of attending the Sabbath school regularly at the same time impressing upon the minds of the boys and girls why Christmas should be made merry.

At the close of Santa's talk, the work of distributing the presents began. Besides their presents every boy and girl received a large bag of candy and nuts.

Mrs. Amos Hurd of Seelyville, spent Christmas with friends at Carbondale.

The Bobolink and mate spent Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. William Wright, in Carbondale.

John Wesley Arnold is spending the holidays with his brother, at Middletown, N. Y.

The writer wishes every reader The Citizen a Happy New Year.

HAMLINTON.

A liberal supply of snow in this vicinity. Present indications seem to incline one to the belief that we are to be permitted to enjoy one of those "good, old-fashioned winters" that we read so much about and that sounds so well in print, but that are really, well, not quite so enjoyable in reality.

Miss Claire Simons is entertaining Loraine McKee of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wolfe and two children of Uniondale, Pa., are spending the holiday season with Mrs. Wolfe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stocker.

At about half past ten Thursday night, Dec. 23, our little village was startled by a considerable jar and the cry of "Fire." The jar was caused by the explosion of gas in the cellar of C. L. Simons' residence which set the house on fire. A number of men gathered at once and soon succeeded in extinguishing the flames. Mr. Simons used acetylene gas for lighting his store and house, and the tank was located in one corner of the house cellar. The explosion was thought to be due to escaping gas coming in contact with the furnace. Fortunately no one was injured. Mr. Simons' house was severely damaged. Portions of the outside walls were blown out completely, and some of the furniture was utterly destroyed, while all of it was more or less injured. The family will not be able to occupy it before spring.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chumard on Dec. 26th, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Simons entertained at dinner on Christmas Day Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pelton, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Simons of Peckville, Mrs. C. B. Gale and little son, of Scranton, and Mr. and Mrs. Friend Simons and family of Ledgedale.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Williams was buried on Monday, Dec. 27th.

Roy Van Sickle is visiting at the M. E. parsonage.

E. B. Williams and H. M. Simons of Scranton, spent Christmas in town.

A. O. BLAKE, AUCTIONEER. You will make money by having me. BELL PHONE 9-U Bethany, Pa.

Cruel Women! The tramp narrated to fellow wanderer the story of an intensely tragic occurrence. "Fus," he said, "there was a beautiful lawn in front of the case, nicely kept, and it looked a real good chance for getting a bit of honest sympathy. So I walks in, gets down on me 'ands and knees, and starts chewin' the grass. Out comes a kindly-looking a lady as I ever seed, and wanted to know wot I was doin'. Told her I 'adn't 'ad grub fer weeks, and was obliged to eat grass. She looked very symperthetically at me, and then said: 'My pore man. Come around behind the house. The grass is longer there!'"

Do You Suffer from Splitting Headaches?

If headache sufferers would do a little hard thinking, they would surely learn that headaches of all kinds are simply results — warning signals — of far more serious trouble. Usually headache means that the blood and nerves are poisoned by an inactive and sluggish liver. Don't become one of the habitual headache sufferers who explain their condition by saying: "Oh, I am subject to headaches. I always get headache if I get excited or it is too noisy." There is no need of it either. Stop taking dangerous headache powders, and put your liver in good shape, so that it will carry off foul secretions and remove properly the bile elements from the blood by taking Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills.

These little pills are Nature's true laxative, and a positive cure for a torpid liver. They assist digestion, unload the bile ducts, and cure headache by first removing the cause. Physicians use and recommend. They form no habit. You should always keep them on hand. These little Vegetable Pills will ward off many ills.

To Cure Constipation Bilioussness and Sick Headache in a Night, use

SMITH'S For Sick Kidneys. BILIOUSNESS, RHEUMATISM, the one best remedy. Reliable, endorsed by leading physicians; safe, effective. Results lasting. On the market 16 years. Have cured thousands. 100 pills in original glass package, 50 cents. Trial boxes, 50 pills, 25 cents. All druggists sell and recommend.
