

CENT A WORD COLUMN

WANTED—To rent a farm near Honesdale. Address B. L., Box E, Honesdale.

FOR RENT—First floor of house No. 1227, Dyberry Place, to small family. Inquire of Mrs. H. Wilson, 307 Fifteenth street.

LOCAL MENTION.

—March came in like a lamb. Will she go out like a lion? Let's all hope that she will not.

—The hearing in C. C. Shinn bankruptcy case will take place in W. W. Lee's office, referee in bankruptcy, on March 2.

—On Thursday last Mrs. Joan D. Weston entertained a party of sixteen to a sleigh-ride and dinner at L. O. Mumford's at Dyberry.

—Milk from Hartford Dairy Company's plant has been shut out of New York City market owing to the fact that a case of scarlet fever exists in the family of the Superintendent.

—Arthur O'Connor, of Goshen, formerly of Hawley, was taken seriously ill at his cut glass factory in Goshen, and was removed to his home. He is at last accounts seriously ill.

—The Auto Transportation Co. organized on Thursday evening by electing A. M. Leine, John Erk, W. T. Moore, Emanuel Freeman, Lawrence Weniger and Frank Schuerholz directors. The capital of the company will be $10,000. The attorneys of the company were instructed to procure a charter.

—The Pennsylvania law requires that every automobile shall carry during the period from one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise two lights showing a white light visible at least one hundred feet in the direction toward which the vehicle is proceeding, and also exhibit one red light visible in the reverse direction.

—An article in an issue of the New York World last week, devoted to the description of the State constabulary and their work, stated that the last strike that they had quelled was at Honesdale, Pa., and that quite a number of the strikers were injured, etc. This is news to our people, who have always had common sense enough to settle any differences of opinion that arose between them, without resorting to violence.

—County Detective N. B. Spencer broke up a gang of coal thieves at Hawley last Thursday. In company with J. R. Ralp, Erie Railroad police officer, N. R. Hentz, an Erie detective, and an officer of the Pennsylvania Coal Co., they arrested Howard Huff, Martin Nee, J. Daushauer, John Vandemark, and two other boys, on charges of stealing five tons of coal from railroad cars. The prisoners were brought before Justice of the Peace Smith and fined $5 each and costs. Two of the boys paid their fines. The others were held.

—On February 28, 1902, we had the big ice jam, which caused the banks of the Lackawaxen to overflow with water and large cakes of ice. Portions of Honesdale were covered with water, and it filled many cellars. The bridge spanning the river at Main street was carried away, also a portion of the Farnham and Goodman bridges. Monday, the anniversary of this event, the water backed up so that the river was level with Park and Twelfth street, but at 3 p. m. the ice loosened up and went out without doing any damage.

—The graduation class of the High school have made their arrangements for commencement night, as follows: Vaudestorian, Miss Grace F. Haulan; salutatorian, Clarence Bodie; Misses Lucelle Rowland, Dortha Reichenbaker, Beatrice Rehbein, Harriet Arnold, Ralph Brown, William Pethick and Conrad Hiller. Class night—Misses Elizabeth Burger, Rose Durlam, Katherine Nicholson, Lillian Barberi, Helen Tryon, Mervin Bunnell, David Peterson, and Lloyd Schuller will take part. The class of 1910 is composed of eighteen members. The class colors are maroon and white, while the motto, "Proceed, not recede."

—George Doherty, a glass cutter, about forty-five years of age, who has been stopping at the American House on Lower Main street, met with an accident which resulted in his death on Monday morning about 11:45 o'clock. He started to go to his room which was on the upper floor of the hotel, and in some unaccountable way he fell down one flight of stairs, fracturing his skull at the base. The hotel proprietor, Mr. T. J. O'Connell, heard the fall and at once went to his assistance, finding him badly injured. Dr. McConville was summoned, who, on examination, stated that his skull was fractured. Everything that was possible was done for the sufferer but he expired at 5 p. m. He formerly lived in Walton, N. Y. The cause of his fall will never be known. He was not intoxicated, it is supposed that a fit of dizziness overcame him, or he might have stumbled, tripped and fell. He was a steady worker and had been employed by Meyer's Cut Glass Co., until they closed down and had also been employed at the round house. His relatives and friends at Walton have been notified of his death.

—Marks, the cattle buyer from Red Bank, New Jersey, has been in town buying cows and stock for several days. He shipped a car-load on Saturday.

—Hay will be at a premium very soon, so the many farmers who visit our office. The poor crop last year and the severe winter are to blame.

—The beautiful cut glass set, consisting of 1100 pieces, which is in use at the White House, is the product of Dorringer & Son's factory at White Mills.

—Miss Caroline L. Petersen will address the Eastern Conference of Federated Women at Reading next month. The subject will be "Village Improvement."

—The McMahon Mercantile Syndicate of Pittsburg, have purchased the entire stock of the Boston Store and will offer these goods at prices which ought to tempt buyers. Their advertisement on our last page will give you some idea of the prices that they are offering goods for.

—On Monday the ice in the west branch of the Lackawaxen broke up and came down to Honesdale, forming a jam at the dam in Park Lake. The water continued to rise until at places the banks were overflowed, but before any considerable damage was done, the jam was broken and the ice proceeded on its way down toward the Delaware.

—Rev. E. E. Davidson, the noted New England revivalist, is now at Wellsboro, Tioga county, Pa., conducting a most interesting series of religious services, with the result of a large number of conversions. Mr. Davidson is well known in Honesdale, the result of his labors still being witnessed in our midst.

—The engineers, firemen and telegraphers employed by the D. and H. company have demanded a daily increase in wages, ranging from five to seven per cent., making an average demanded increase of twenty-five per cent. of the wages paid by the company, but the company has refused to give them an increase in wages.

—The special preachers at Grace Episcopal church will be Rev. Wm. Bartlett Beach of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Scranton, on Wednesday, at 7:30 p. m., and Rev. W. W. Williams of St. Luke's church, Scranton, Friday at 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited. The Thursday afternoon service will for this week only, be omitted.

—The C. I. T. U. club met at the home of Miss Bessie Bunnell, East Honesdale, Thursday evening. Games were played and refreshments served. The young ladies met at the home of Miss Ruth Lord and enjoyed a sleigh-ride to Miss Bunnell's home. Those present were: Ruth Lord, Martha Kimble, Laura Cortright, Mary Bodie, Hattie Smith, Florence Eldred and Bessie Bunnell.

—The revival meetings are growing in interest and there is a constantly increasing attendance. The singing under the leadership of Rev. Geo. Wendell, is becoming more spirited, the favorite tunes being sung with great fervor. Revs. Swift, Hiller and Wendell alternate in preaching. Services all this week in the Baptist church. Last Sunday evening this church was filled to overflowing to listen to Rev. Mr. Hiller, who preached a powerful sermon.

—Jesse Wood, who resides at Waymart, met with a serious accident at Carbondale on Saturday. He attempted to board a car near Beeler's store on Canaan street, and as he stepped out in the street he came in contact with a team of horses attached to a sleigh, and was knocked down and run over by the sleigh and his right leg was fractured. He was taken to the City Private Hospital where the fracture was reduced, and his friends notified of his accident.

—There is a "tempest in a teapot" over the fact that some of the ministers of Scranton are lovers of the weed, and go a little smoking on the side for which the Rev. McCullough took them to task. The sermon on the Mount, which has been the Sunday school topic for the last six weeks was lost sight of in the remarks which were used pro and con. The Rev. McCullough's wife had her say in the discussion, and was called a pest. At last accounts there is a "wish I hadn't said so and so" feeling existing among a few of our Scranton friends. Brethren, never contract any habit you are not willing your children should copy.

—The wife of Sigel W. Seeman, of the firm of Seeman Bros., of New York City, while laboring under a severe nervous strain, committed suicide. Mr. Seeman lives at Bayonne, N. J. Mrs. Seeman being in ill health had been placed in the private sanitarium of Miss Patmore at 124 West Seventy-first street, New York, that she might have the best of care. She was supposed to be improving and it was expected that she would return to her home, but early on Saturday morning she eluded the night nurses and locked herself in the bathroom. When the nurses missed her they searched, and being unable to open the bathroom finally got in by means of a fire escape. Mrs. Seeman had detached a tube from a water heater and fastened it in her mouth had seated herself in the tub. Dr. E. H. Quinn, of 108 West Seventy-first street said she had been dead about half an hour. She left no message. Mr. Seeman, who has been living with his brother Joseph, at 160 West Seventy-sixth street since his wife's illness, ascribed her act to her nervous trouble.

—Miss Mary Menner will take a much needed vacation from school work. Miss Grace Jadwin will fill the position until her return.

—P. S. Bass of Pleasant Mount, and Miss Jessie Nelson, of Siko, have sent in correct answers to puzzle, "What's in the Alphabet."

—Dr. B. Golden, eyesight specialist of Carbondale, will be at the Allen House on Wednesday of this week and at Park View Hotel, Hawley, all day Thursday.

—A former Honesdaler was elected alderman in Scranton lately. His name is George F. Kellow. He left here in 1872 and settled in Scranton when he was about 23 years of age.

—Storms and Signs, a booklet published by J. A. Coles and edited by U. C. Coles, is at hand and is one of the most useful and instructive pamphlets that comes to the Citizen.

—The union revival meetings are well attended, and there is every indication of a deep-seated interest by those who attend these services. The meetings will be held every evening this week except Saturday, in the Baptist church.

—J. W. Farley, of Equinunk, was a caller at the Citizen office on Monday. Mr. Farley is an Electrical Engineer, and though giving his attention to the business of his father, the late Hon. H. N. Farley, has erected a telephone line along the south branch that is said to be the best built telephone line in Wayne county. Mr. Farley is a graduate of Syracuse University.

—The New York World of Feb. 28th has a lengthy article regarding the Arkansas diamond mines of which our townsman, Jas. T. Fuller, is chief engineer. Two hundred thousand dollars of new machinery is now being installed. Mr. Fuller has been offered his old position of Chief Engineer of the South African mines, but has concluded to remain in Arkansas, as he considers the outlook for diamond mining more promising at this new camp.

—Detective Nick Spencer has been busy rounding up a number of people in Hawley who have been charged with stealing coal from the Erie Railroad cars. Up to the present time thirty have been arrested and in many instances the cellars of the houses where they reside are filled with coal which the special officers of the Erie claim has been stolen from that company. Coal intended for tide water is stored at Hawley and it is a very easy matter to carry coal away in bags and other ways under cover of darkness. Over 200 tons of coal in a month has been missed and most of it is supposed to have been lost at Hawley by theft.

—The following transfers of real estate were recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds last week: F. N. Rude and wife to Clinton Cemetery association, one and one-fourth acres in Clinton township; consideration, $117.50; Clarence E. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

MRS. JENKS' RESENTMENT.

New York, Feb. 24.—Bitterness, which had grown in her heart for nearly thirty years is to be carried to the grave this afternoon with the body of Mrs. May Jenks. To-day an advertisement dictated to her daughter an hour before her death, carries the pitiful story of her suffering: "Died.—On Sunday, February 20, of a broken heart, May, the unbeloved wife of Thomas Jenks."

Clad in a silken robe as near like her wedding dress, as near as she could arrange before her death, but with the wedding ring, which she had treasured for more than a quarter of a century, stripped from her finger, the body of the woman awaits burial. The story of the long sad years is told by her daughter.

The couple were married in England and came to this country twenty-nine years ago. Their first three children died, and a gradual drawing away of the parents followed.

HAVE YOU EVER TRIED ONE OF THOSE LITTLE ADS?

HYMENEAL.

FASSHAUER — FITCH — On Thursday evening, Feb. 24th, Arthur Fasshauer was united in marriage to Miss Mary Fitch, at the Presbyterian manse, by the Rev. W. H. Swift, pastor of the bride. The affair was a very quiet one. Both parties are well known here and have a large circle of friends who wish them many years of happiness.

GRECCO—ROOSA—C. C. Grecco, a well known glass cutter of Honesdale, and Miss Ada B. Roosa, also of Honesdale, were united in marriage at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Baptist parsonage, at Carbondale. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Percival H. Lynch, and Miss Beatrice McPadden, of Carbondale, was the only attendant.
