"It appears therefore that no danger to the powers or instrumentalities | Telegraph-Cable company, says that of the states is to be apprehended from the adoption of the amendment.

"It would be cause for regret if the amendment were rejected by the legislature of New York.

"It is said that a very large part of any income tax under the amendment would be paid by citizens of New and the reports he received were York. That is undoubtedly true, but that what the public wanted was not there is all the more reason why our a deferred service but an instantanelegislature should take special care to our service; the result being that the exclude every narrow and selfish motive from influence upon its action and should consider the proposal in a spirit of broad national patriotism and should act upon it for the best interests of the whole country.

The circumstances that originally justified the establishment of the rule of apportionment in the constitution have long since passed away. It is universally conceded that its application to existing conditions would be so unjust and inequitable as to be impossible. The power of taxation which the rule makes it impossible for the nation to exercise may be again, as it has once been, vital to the preservation of national existence. It would be most unfortunate if the several states of the Union were to insist upon the continuance of this unjust and useless limitation upon the necessary powers originally and wisely granted to the national government."

RAILROAD OPPOSES SALOONS.

Pennsylvania Enters Protest Against

Granting More Licenses. Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 1 .- The Pennsylvania Ralirond company has taken an active part in the fight against increasing the number of liquor licenses in this county by filing remonstrances against a number of applicants who want to conduct saloons in towns close to the line of the railway.

Assistant Trainmaster Andrew Newberry said the railroad company was opposed to more saloons because it destred to curtail the liquor traffic as pruch as possible in order to prevent weldents along the road.

ABOUT CIGARETTES.

There isn't room for cigarettes on the campus at the University of Pittsburg, and Joseph H. Thompson, track and football coach, is leading the fight for the extermination of the deadly "pills" among the students.

"Cigarettes will do a young man more harm than whiskey," declares Thompson, emphatically, when warn-"I don't ing an undergraduate. care whether a man is an athlete or not, cigarettes will injure him."

Thompson will not permit a cigarette smoker on any of the athletic teams, and has asked all the students to cease smoking the nails. He puts his request on the broad grounds that the sight of the others smoking is a temptation to the athletes.

Chancellor S. B. McCormick and other university officials are supporting Thompson enthusiastically in his crusade. "If eigarettes will stain a smoker's fingers a dark yellow, what do they do to his stomach?" Thompson demands, when arguing. "The skin of the hands and fingers is tougher than on any other part of the body,

"Cigarette smoking is one of the most dangerous habits our youth contract. Maybe three or four eigarettes a day won't do much harm-I'm not a crank on this-but how many stop at three or four? Some smoke as many as 40 a day. I haven't much to say against cigars, for they are not so harmful, but tobacco in any form is had for an athlete."

Thompson says he never drank intoxicants or smoked. He played football for eight years and was never injured in a game, although he was a star halfback for five years.

Smashing on the window pane, Little zephyrs here and there Lifting roofs high in the air. Blowing hats from A to Z; Raising thunder on the sea Filling all the air with dust, On their mad boreal bust, Now and then we hear the hum Of the blizzards frolicsome, As about the land they tack, Giving early spring a whack; Filling all the ways with snow Setting plumbers' hearts aglow Raising thunder with the car Of the trolleys near and far. Now and then a robin's peep Tells us somewhere life is "cheap. And the rose gives us the laugh At nine dollars and a naif. WARNED AGAINST SMALLPOX.

Board to be on Guard.

State Commissioner of Health Samuel C. Dixon has issued a warning to health officers and physicians in general all over the State to guard against a possible outbreak of smallpox. He especially emphasizes unusual care in examination of cases that might be supposed to be other diseases.

Eighty-four cases of smallpox in a mild form are now existent in the State. All are believed to have been imported from other states. The two latest reported were returned last Friday from Moosic, Lackawanna county "The first symptoms of all these said Dr. Dixon Friday night, very greatly resemble an ordinary attack of la grippe. Because of this resemblance physicians and others are apt to be careless and infection will thus be spread. Dr. Dixon points to the great re cord of Pennsylvania in its almost absolute freedom from the disease during the last two years. "I cannot urge too strongely," he concludes, "the necessity of all on their guard for the first symptoms of the disease."

ROOSEVELT IS HOMESICK.

Will Be Glad to See Sandy Hook After All His Travels.

Gondokoro, Sudan, March 1.- Before sailing hence on the steamer Del for Khartum, where he is due March 15, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt said:

"I want to get home as quickly as possible. While I was in the jungle I didn't really allow myself to think of home or business. But now that the bunt is practically over I am get ting anxious to see Sandy Hook. "My plans for visiting Berlin, Paris

"A cable from Mrs. Roosevelt made me realize how near home I am getting. I expected a bully time, but it has been several times more pleasurable than I anticipated. Twenty years from now it will be impossible to have such a hunt."

Colonel Roosevelt considers that the killing of the giant clands in his recent excursion along the upper reach es of the Nile was a fitting ending of a marvelously successful trip. The results generally from the standpoint of the hunter and the scientist have exceeded all expectations.

Colonel Roosevelt and his son Kermit have killed some 500 specimens of large mammals. The bag includes the potami. 9 giraffes, 3 leopards. tabs 3 clant clands, 3 sables, 1 sita-

All these were killed in the interest of science, and the specimens will be disposed of accordingly, the greater number going to the Smithsonian institution. Mr. Roosevelt will retain not more than six trophies for himself.

Just Going to Say That.

A son of Erin who had the misfortune to get mixed up in an accident was immediately conveyed to a hospital, where it was found that his only injury was a slight wound. The house surgeon carefully examined him, after which he thus stated the case to the

"As subcutaneous abrasion is not observable, I think there is little reason to apprehend tegumental eleatrization of the wound. What do you think yourself?' he asked Pat, with a mischievous smile.

"Sure, doctor," replied Pat, "You're a wonderful thought reader. You took the very words out of my mouth. I was just going to say that." - Tit-Bits,

A Case of Too Much Children. In a volume of reminiscences a very funny story is told of the late Bishop Bloomfield, who, having a family by his first wife, married a second time. This Mrs. Bloomfield was a widow with a brood of her own, and in due course a third family arrived on the scene. One day the bishop was disturbed by his wife running into his study in a great state of excitement. "What is it, dear?" he testily inquired. "Oh, bishop!" was her agonized reply. "Quick, quick! There's not a moment to lose! Your children are sliding with my children and are murdering our children!"

To Make Sleep Come.

If you cannot get to sleep try a sponge bath thus: Into eight ounces of alcohol put two of ammonia and two of camphor. Shake thoroughly, health officers and physicians being and when well mixed add four ounces of sea salt and enough hot water to fill a quart bottle. To apply it pour a little of the liquid in a shallow dish, moisten the whole body a little at a time by dipping a small sponge in it. Rub on only very little, then finish with a vigorous rubbing with a coarse crash towel. Get into bed, and we'll insure the quick arrival of "Nature's quick restorer, balmy sleep."-Family Doctor.

Comparatively few persons have ever heard of the belis of the Bastille, yet they are still in existence. After the destruction of the prison, says the Gentlewoman, they found their way to the great foundry in Romilly, but the manager of the works disobeyed the orders he received and did not destroy them.

Now they are back in Paris, in a private house in the Avenue d'Eylan. On each bell is engraved, "Made by Louis Cheron for the Reyal Bastille, in the year 1761," and they are further ornamented with the royal arms and a huge cross.

Advises "Back to the Land." There is just one way for the people of the city to find it possible to buy eggs, chickens, meat and flour for less money—that is for some of them to leave the city and go back to raising more hens, more cattle, and growing more wheat. The fact is that the country is getting top-heavy. The cities are calling too heavily on the producing areas. Farming is getting to be one of the most profitable buisiness in the country, because the proportion of non-producers is getting so large. It is all a matter of supply and demand; just now the demand for foodstuffs is larger than it has ever been in proportion to the supply .-Denver Republican.

The Era of New Mixed Paints

This year opens with a deluge of new mixed paints. A co-dition brought about by our enterprising dealers to get some kin of a mixed paint that would supplant CHILTON'S MIXE PAINTS. Their compounds, being new and heavily advertise may find a sale with the unwary.

THE ONLY PLACE IN HONESDALE CHILTON'S MIXED PAIN AUTHORIZED TO HANDLE

Is JADWIN'S PHARMACY.

There are reasons for the pre-eminence of CHILTON PAIN 1st-No one can mix a better mixed paint.

2d-The painters declare that it works easily and has we derful covering qualities. 3d-Chilton stands back of it, and will agree to repaint, at own expense, every surface painted with Chilton Paint th
