LOCAL MENTION.

Work has been begun on the Martin F. Heft building on Sixteenth street. Frank H. Varcoe is the contractor for excavating and building foundation.

Captain James Ham Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will meet on Friday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. I. H. Ball on Ridge street. A full attendance is desired.

C. C. Jadwin, who has just celebrated the anniversary of his seventy-fifth birthday, has concluded to retire from active business. Rumor has it that Fred Spencer, former employee, is to succeed him.

W. H. Hulsizer, D. D. G. M., of Honesdale, paid a fraternal visit to Milford Lodge, Milford, Pa., last week. He expressed himself as much pleased with the prospective new Lodge room, and congratulated the brethren on the possession of such an attractive place for meeting.

Rev. C. A. Benjamin, formerly of Honesdale, and who has been located at Philadelphia for some years, has recently been appointed to the First Methodist Episcopal church at Allentown. This is one of the largest churches in the conference and the many friends of Rev. Benjamin will be pleased to learn of his success.

The Independent mentions E. R. Bodie as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative. The same paper is out flat-footed for Ex-Senator Joel Hill as candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Senator and incidentally mentions Representative Feurth as also desiring to have a nomination for the same office.

William Freund, son of Henry Freund, of this place, received word on Friday last that he had successfully passed examinations to become a clerk in the census office at Washington, D. C. Mr. Freund took the examinations in Wilkes-Barre last fall, and is to be congratulated upon his success and his high percentage which was 92 per cent.

The Honesdale stockholders in the Mineral Hill Copper Company, after six years of patient waiting, are now very much elated. This company has been driving a tunnel through their property for over five years, and have been meeting obstacles of all kinds, lack of funds being one, and now their perseverance has been rewarded by opening up an immense vein of copper ore which assays $101 per ton. There is at least 20,000 shares of this stock owned in Honesdale.

It is generally understood that the contract between the D. & H. and Erie railroads, whereby the D. & H. agree to deliver one million tons of coal to the Erie railroad at Honesdale, has come to an end, and that a contract has been made whereby the O. & W. railroad will take the place of the Erie, the D. & H. delivering the coal to the O. & W. at Sidney. The custom has been for the Erie to carry this coal to the docks at Weehawken for distribution. The operator's office at Farview will be abandoned. There is some talk of the Erie establishing a coal station at East Honesdale to supply consumers with coal. Capt. May, who is general superintendent of all the Erie coal mines, was in Honesdale on Thursday last.

—Jos. Schiessler has purchased the Irving Cliff Bottling Works.

—"Bob" Dorin, who was employed at the National Elevator Works, has resigned.

—A number of glass cutters are leaving Honesdale, having obtained positions in other cities.

—Fifteen persons united with the Methodist church Sunday morning. Nine received the rite of baptism.

—The Midnight Sons have issued invitations for a dance to be held at the Lyric Hall Friday evening, April 15th.

—Percy Cole, who for 19 years has been an efficient clerk for Druggist C. C. Jadwin, tendered his resignation on Saturday.

—There is a petition being circulated for Warren E. Perham to again enter the list as a candidate for nomination for Representative.

—Miss Dorothy H. Menner entertained a number of her friends at a card party at her home on Church street on Monday afternoon.

—Cashier C. A. Emery, of the Farmers and Mechanics Bank, has joined the ranks of the automobilists and will soon be driving a Stanley steamer.

—There is considerable pressure being brought to bear upon Buel Dodge to have him enter the lists as a candidate for nomination for Representative.

—Orchard Inspector W. H. Bullock, who was taken sick with pneumonia while on one of his trips, is improving. He is still at Sugar Notch. Mrs. Bullock is with him.

—Easter lilies joined the ranks of the high price brigade and the only reason advanced was "not the tariff," but the scarcity of the flower. The consignments from Bermuda were smaller than in many years.

—Krietner Bros. have the contracts for building Martin Heft's house on Sixteenth street, and Mrs. John Driscoll's on Ridge, and also for altering John H. Weaver's lately purchased property on Park street.

—Miss Stella Vanaan of Carbondale, greatly pleased the large congregations as soloist at Grace Episcopal church on Easter morning. She has an exceptionally fine voice and showed it to the best advantage.

—Dr. Surface, the State Zoologist, who has been on trial on charges preferred against him by a former assistant, has come out of the contest with flying colors. The charges were trivial, and should never have been entertained.

—A train of freight cars went through the new Erie Cut last week. This cut will do away with the necessity of using the tunnel under Bergen hill, in going into and out of Jersey City on the Erie railroad. The cut will be ready for passenger service some time after June 1st, this year.

—Next month a practical demonstration will be given in orchard treatment and development by practical teachers, at the following places: Monday, April 4, at Charles McKinney's, Gravit; April 6th, at J. P. Warwick's, Inglehart; April 11th, at Hull Bros., Waymart. More information along this line in next issue.

—We are glad to announce that A. W. Dickson, one of Scranton's best men, who was stricken with paralysis, is on the road to recovery, and will soon be attending to his business. Mr. Dickson was a former Honesdale and we all know him to be an upright, straight-forward, conscientious man in every walk of life. We need men of that stamp to keep things moving aright.

—If the weather man ever showed his good disposition, or his love for a well-dressed community, he did on Easter Sunday. He had good support from the sun and the mercury. There was scarcely a thing that could have added to the beauty of Easter day, and that is a remarkable record even for the weather which has established many uncontested marks in its day. In the afternoon the streets were filled with promenaders—all were happy; it was Easter. Some men ventured forth with carnations in the lapels of their coats, but ordinarily they were the personification of Job in all his meekness.

—A team belonging to Henry Hartung and driven by George Harvey, became frightened on the East Honesdale road, and started at a mad gallop for Honesdale. When near Charles Meyer's place, the wagon was upset and Harvey spilled out. The team continued to race until they were stopped by Fred Walters at the corner of Main and Fifth street. One of the horses was cut badly on one leg, blood flowing freely. They were taken to T. O'Connell's blacksmith shop where Peter Manger stopped the flow of blood by bandaging the limb. Mr. Harvey was only slightly injured.

—The man with the big voice is back again at his old job of Station Master at the Scranton D. & H. R. station. Pat Spellman is his name, and he is known to Honesdalers who visit Scranton. People who now go to Scranton, and become tired out doing their shopping, can, if they reach the station ahead of time, take a nap without any fear of losing their train, as Pat's voice is strong enough to awaken the dead. When the D. L. & W. R. R. Co. had their old station opposite the D. & H. station, Pat's voice would ring out so clearly that passengers in the D. L. & W. station not conversant with the English language, would rush out and board the wrong train. That is one of the many reasons why the Phoebe Snow Road built their new station so far up town.

—The station now known as Sandy Hill, on the Saratoga Division of the D. & H. Railroad, has been changed to Hudson Falls.

—Fred C. Riechenbacher has filed his papers as a candidate for the nomination of Representative on the Republican ticket.

—There are so many chicken farms inside the borough limits that it is expected that the "Lime Kiln Club" will be reorganized.

—Rents for residences in Scranton have decreased at least 20 per cent. over last year. Wish we could say this of Honesdale.

—The seventeenth anniversary of Violet Rebekah Lodge, No. 119, I. O. O. F., will be held in Independent Hall Thursday evening, March 31st.

—On account of pastor Hiller attending conference at Binghamton, there will be no services at the Methodist church on Sunday next.

—The Bakery sale of the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church which was held in the Reese Cash Grocery store, on Saturday, netted $95.00.

—Dr. A. W. Smith, of Scranton, assisted by Dr. H. B. Ely, of this place, performed an operation on Mrs. Eugene Habbitt Monday for intestinal trouble.

—Freedom Lodge of Odd Fellows elected the following officers on Monday night: John Fisher, noble grand; Charles E. Cade, vice grand; G. W. Penwarden, trustee.

—Another man has gone chicken mad; exactly same as others have. Frank Scherholz is now the owner of two hens and a rooster, and hopes to buy an automobile with the product of their labor.

—An operation for appendicitis was performed on Walter M. Whitney by Dr. Gibbons at the French hospital in New York city. Mr. Whitney is now at his home and coming around nicely.

—Samuel T. Wright and wife of Rockville Center, N. Y., were in town last week. They talk of buying property and opening up a summer boarding house. Mr. Wright is clerk of the Surrogate Court of Nassau county.

—Over 100 people assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Downing at South Canaan on Saturday last, it being the 50th anniversary of their wedding. In our next issue a more complete account will be given of the occasion.

—Sigmund Katz, of the Katz Underwear Co., has purchased the Hamlin house, corner Main and Fifteenth street. Mr. Katz has been the lessee of this house for several years and by purchasing same becomes the owner of the best built and best planned residence in Honesdale.

—On Thursday evening of last week a number of friends of Dr. W. T. McConville surprised him with a banquet at his home on Church street. A solid oak card and reading table was presented to the doctor. The affair was given in honor of his 10th anniversary as a resident of the Maple City.

—Special services were held in the churches Easter Sunday. Attendance was unusually large at each service. Churches were profusely decorated with greens and flowers and the extra music was greatly appreciated. Mrs. H. Rockwell's solo at the Presbyterian church in the morning, was rendered most effectively. Miss Krantz, at the evening service, sang "Lo, the Tomb is Empty," very sweetly.

—Special Census Enumerator Cortright started on Tuesday to gather the called for information from the factories. We would suggest to manufacturers that as soon as they receive their blanks by mail to get together the data which the government requires and thus be able to furnish the same when the enumerator calls. Read your blanks over carefully; get acquainted with what information you are to impart and thus save much time.

—What came near being a bad accident occurred Sunday night near Dyberry road, when Mrs. F. Dillemath, her daughter, Emma, and Miss Mabel Hartman were returning from church in a buckboard. Miss Dillemath was standing up holding to the back of the seat when she lost her balance. To save herself from a fall she grasped at the seat, knocking a lantern from the vehicle and frightening the horse. All three were thrown out. Mrs. Dillemath was quite seriously injured while the young ladies were bruised.

OBITUARY.

DUPPIUS—Mrs. Frank Duppius (nee Hannah McKenna) of Reading, Pa., died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ann McKenna of this place on Good Friday, March 25th, after a lingering illness of heart trouble. Deceased was about 41 years old. Beside her husband and mother, she is survived by the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. M. J. Kelly, Josephine, Kate, Alice, John J., and Frank P., all of this place. Funeral was held on Monday morning at 10 o'clock from St. John's church; interment in St. John's Catholic cemetery.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

On Thursday, Judge Searle heard the application of S. C. Silsbee for hotel license at Orson. Remonstrance had been filed against granting this license. A large number of witnesses were heard for both sides and the evidence was quite contradictory. Remonstrance was filed upon the ground that applicant sold liquor to minors, to persons of known intemperate habits and was himself not a proper man to keep a hotel. On Saturday morning, Judge Searle declined to grant the application.

On Friday petition was presented to have guardian appointed for Marian L., Loo J. and Camilla Connolly, minor children of John Connolly, and John Erk was appointed their guardian.

Proceedings taken under Act 1895 as amended by Act 1901 were heard in court and a decree entered in accordance therewith and Wm. B. Holmes appointed guardian of Charles F. Rockwell.

Saturday morning Judge Searle held court and the libel of Lucy A. Rieder against Henry Rieder, divorce, was presented, and Homer Greene was appointed master.
