

SPREADING INFORMATION

STEENE.

The Rev. Mr. Davis, of Waymart, preached his farewell sermon here on March 27th, at 2:30 p. m. to a large number of listeners. Mr. Davis took for his text John 6th chapter, and the 67 and 68 verses: "Then said Jesus unto the twelve, will ye also go away?" Then Simon Peter answered them, "Lord, to whom shall we go, thou hast the words of eternal life?" After the services, the Sabbath school was reorganized for the coming year, and the following officers were elected: Superintendent, J. E. Haley; assistant superintendent, Mrs. Minnie Mill; secretary, H. Wood; treasurer, Leslie Mill; organist, Miss Florence Dennie.

Mrs. O. W. Chapman and daughter, Mrs. Lenora Foster, of Carbondale, are moving here on the former's small farm.

George Chapman, of Carbondale, is making some repairs on his mother's farm here at Steene.

The Bobolink has wound up his sap bush and is now testing the strength of his span of colts on the plow. Forty-five gallons of A No. 1 syrup is the "Link's" crop this season.

Miss Margaret Haley, of Honesdale, visited her parents here on Surday, March 27th.

Elmer Hamlin, of Honesdale, visited friends at Steene on Sunday.

Mr. John Smith says that when the bobolinks begin to sing, he will give the "Link" a true happening of 65 years ago, something that will surprise our readers.

Four-week old pigs are bringing eight dollars per pair, veal calves seven cents per pound live weight. butter 28 cents per pound, eggs 24 cents per dozen, and still the average farmer is crying hard times.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Found, of Prompton, attended the services at the chapel here on Sunday, Mar. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylen Perry, of Carbondale, visited friends here on Sunday.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Isaac Ball at Honesdale, is much improved from her long and serious illness, so much so that she is now helping her daughter with the house work.

Albert O'Dell has rented his farm on the Aldenville road and has moved to Prompton. Mr. O'Dell rented all stock and tools, except his team of horses, which he sold for four hundred dollars.

Richard Clift has sold his span of black horses, and will start out in a few days in quest of another pair.

Merchant Snediker and wife returned home yesterday after visiting a few days with friends in Pittston. Mrs. George Bates had charge of the store in their absence.

STERLING.

Mr. James M. Gilpin is able to be out doors again, but not strong enough for work.

Mr. Chas. Homen is the first to have city people in this place. At present he has eight.
