All have had the privilege of seeing Halley's comet, if they have taken pains to cast their eyes heavenward. Hope all will do so now who are anxious to see it and not get up in the night as did a Westmoreland county lady, who in her haste and excitement tripped and broke her arm; nor as the poor old man did that I have just read about. He felt so bad that he had not seen the comet that it caused his death. One of our elderly neighbors tells me the next time this comet makes its appearance he will not get up to see it. None of us doubt his word.

Our pastor gave us a good sermon last Sabbath. All of the old veterans had been specially invited to attend, and three out of the four surviving ones were there—Charles K. REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR NOMINATION FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

FRED C. REICHENBACHER, Druggist, Honesdale, Pa.

Was born at Honesdale in 1864 and has always been a resident of the borough. He was educated in the Honesdale high school and learned the druggist's business in the pharmacy of C. C. Jadwin, and is still engaged in that calling. He has always been an active and consistent Republican, is well versed in and an able exponent of the principles of the party and wholly devoted to its interests. Mr. Reichenbacher is a member of the American Federation of Musicians. He was placed in nomination for state senator of the 14th district by the conferees of Wayne at Stroudsburg in 1908 and during the deadlock had the highest vote of any candidate; but notwithstanding the nomination belonged to Wayne, his name was withdrawn on the fifty-second ballot and the nomination went to Carbon county. Turn out to Primaries Saturday, June 4, 1910.

☐ We wish to secure a good correspondent in every town in Wayne county. Don't be afraid to write this office for paper and stamped envelopes. We will gladly furnish them.
