DEATHS.

At Knoxville, Iowa, June 9, 1910, Melena M. Grant, aged 63 years, 6 months and 28 days.

REVIVAL WAS SUCCESSFUL.

Blind Evangelist Accomplishes Much Good During Stay of 10 Days. The revival meetings which have been in progress the last 10 days at the Rileyville Presbyterian church under the direction of the blind evangelist, Rev. Thomas Houston, came to a close Sunday evening.

Unusually large congregations have assembled night after night and much interest has been manifested. Several new members have been added to the roll of the church. The spiritual life of the membership has been strengthened and the entire community has been benefited. The collection amounted to $42.03.

ODD FELLOWS PICNIC.

There'll Be a Dinner and a Band and a Ball Game and an Oration This Year. The Fourth of July picnic of Wallen-Paupack lodge, No. 478, I. O. O. F., will be held in Dr. Simon's grove, near the Odd Fellows hall. There will be enough to eat, as usual, and the musical feature of the occasion will be supplied by the Tannersville cornet band, which has contracted to be on the grounds all day.

Then there will be a ball game, too, for Odd Fellows and their friends who like to see a snappy tussle on the diamond. At 10 in the forenoon South Sterling and Scranton will cross bats. These teams are all right baseballwise. The game will be the cardinal morning feature of the outing.

The principal part of the literary exercises will be the address of Dr. John Wilkinson of Philadelphia, grand guardian of the order in this state, who is a patriotic talker and whose platform capability is known in the Quaker City and outside.

The picnic committee is made up of P. D. Waltz, Robert J. Whittaker and Dr. A. J. Simon. They have the details well in hand and are working hard to make this 1910 picnic a hummer. The attendance is bound to be large and the fun plentiful.

Mr. Kubbach Vice-president.

President, W. J. Davis, Scranton; vice-president, John Kubbach, Honesdale; treasurer, Dr. F. J. Bishop; secretary, J. Sanderson Trump; Finance committee, Valentine Bliss and F. W. Wollerton, Scranton, and Geo. W. Kipp, of Towanda; underwriting committee, Adam Spitzer, Dr. F. J. Bishop, Anthony Probst and J. Sanderson Trump; appraisal committee, John Benore, Adam Spitzer and Dr. F. J. Bishop.

The company has a capital of $200,000, is in good shape, and reports an excellent state of business.

STEGNER—BUERKET.

Two Well-Known Young People Joined at Church Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Susie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Buerket of River street, to Frank X. Stegner of Church street was solemnized at Mary Magdalen's church Tuesday at 4 o'clock, Rev. William Dassel performing the ceremony.

The couple were attended by John Stegner, brother of the groom, Joseph Buerket, brother of the bride, Mary Buerket, sister of the bride, and Martha Brunner. A wedding dinner followed the ceremony at the bride's home.

Mrs. Stegner received a number of beautiful and most useful gifts. They will occupy a newly-furnished home on Church street. The bride is one of Honesdale's most highly respected young women. The groom is a popular clerk in his father's grocery store and has a large circle of friends. Many friends extend Mr. and Mrs. Stegner their best wishes for a happy and prosperous married life.

Had Visited in Hopedale.

Mrs. William Ocksenreider, who died Thursday in Green Ridge, was buried Saturday. Miss Fanny Bennett, a sister, went from Honesdale to attend the funeral. The deceased was 79 years old and was a well known woman, having paid a number of visits to her Honesdale sister.

A Preacher From Allentown.

The preacher at the German Lutheran church morning and evening Sunday was Rev. Prof. J. E. Ocksenford of Allentown, teacher of English in the college, who delivered two excellent sermons. Although this clergyman supplies a great many churches of his denomination in this state, he does not always preach in German, and he said Sunday that his ability to use that language extemporaneously was growing a trifle rusty, but his congregations did not notice this. Mr. Ocksenford says Allentown is busy and her people are prosperous. The 1900 census gave the city 35,000. The 1910 count, he says, will show nearer 60,000.

Advance Car's The Thing.

Advance Car No. 2 of Howe's London shows, the circus that comes here June 28, pulled into the station on the 7.31 D. & H. train Monday night and was cut off and left in the local yard. Grownpuns and juveniles gazed at the red car that night and the youngsters have been hanging around it ever since. From this car the Honesdale territory will be billed, and the boys on board are already driving over the Wayne county roads with loads of gay-colored pictures to post.

The contract for the construction of the new cut glass industry of William Gibbs of Hawley, which will locate in Stroudsburg, has been awarded to Shiffer Bros., they being the lowest bidders.

Co. A to Hold Reunion.

The 9th annual reunion of Co. A, 144th New York Volunteers, better known as the Ellsworth Avengers, will be held at Cannonsville, Delaware county, N. Y., Thursday, June 23. All veterans of the regiment are particularly invited to participate with them. Northern Wayne had 57 men in this command, scattered through companies A, C, E, F and K.

W. J. ADAMS MAKING GOOD.

Concern He Heads Now Does Business of $250,000 a Year.

Walter J. Adams, who was foreman of the foundry of the Honesdale Iron Works when that concern was under the management of W. W. Wood, was in town Saturday. Mr. Adams came to Honesdale in 1892 from Kingston, N. Y., and took charge of the foundry, then making store tools and school desks for the Newark and New York public schools. While here he was married to Miss Minnie Whitney. He left Honesdale to take a position with Obermeyer & Co. and became manager of the Milwaukee branch of that concern. Under his supervision the business increased nearly four-fold. Afterward, in company with two other men, he formed the Federal Foundry Supply Co., of which he is president. They manufacture a core compound, the ingredients and compounding of which are a secret. They do a business of more than $250,000 per year and are considered one of the leading concerns in the foundry supply business.

Mr. Adams has contributed greatly to the increased business of the concern. His ability as a salesman is recognized as of the order that wins customers by straightforward methods.

Mr. Adams was a welcome caller on many of his old friends and fellow workmen.

HYMENEAL.

LEE—BENNETT—Married at the M. E. parsonage, New Milford, Susquehanna county, June 7, 1910, by Rev. L. E. Sanford, Earl H. Lee of Starucca, and Miss Daisy Bennett of Shehawken, Scott township.

Ball Game at White Mills.

The White Mills and Honesdale teams will play Sunday afternoon at 3.30 at White Mills.

Old Home Week Ideas. Some of the best "pushers" in Stroudsburg came here yesterday afternoon for a talk with those who took leading parts in last year's Old Home week. They came seeking "pointers," and claim they got them, besides being nicely entertained for a few hours. They received some helpful information as a result of the talks they had with Mrs. W. G. Creveling, Dr. C. M. Williams and Mr. George F. Snyder. The visitors included Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Keller, Miss Grace Kane, Mrs. C. L. Walz, and N. A. Frantz. Mr. Keller is chairman of the general committee, Mr. Frantz is secretary and Miss Kane is the indispensable press lady.—Washington (N. J.) Star.

That Eclipse Came in 1909. The Citizen has noticed a number of its exchanges have published an item that there is to be an eclipse of the sun June 17th. Somebody evidently looked in the wrong almanac. That eclipse was last year. This year the next eclipse is a partial one of the sun on Nov. 1, visible in Japan and Alaska.

THEORY AND PRACTICE

Telephone service in theory is that great system of communication which knows neither time nor distance, which serves every purpose and does its work well---year in and year out.

BELL TELEPHONE SERVICE, in practice, is the system that does reach every nook and corner of the American business world, the system that brings distant cities to your door in an instant, does your traveling and letter-writing, and serves in the household as an ever ready factotum in domestic and social duties. For the greatest accomplishments

USE THE BELL

It will never disappoint you.
