

CENT A WORD COLUMN

WANTED—A competent young man to act as city and vicinity reporter for this paper.

FOR SALE—One 2-year-old Orange county Holstein bull.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Set bath room fixtures, tub, lavatory and closet; also two doors and one platform spring delivery wagon.

ALL persons are forbidden trespassing on my property at Adams Lake, Genungtown, under penalty of law.

PARTNER WANTED—The undersigned offers half interest in the Tavares Herald office, Tavares, Fla.

DESIRABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE—Residence of the late H. C. Hand, located at the corner of Church and Eleventh streets.

STOVE WOOD—Will deliver in Honesdale hard wood, split, at $2 per cord.

FOR SALE—Honesdale National Bank stock, 23 shares, or any part thereof, at $165 per share.

TWELVE muslin trespass notices for $1.00; six for seventy-five cents.

FOR SALE—A walnut upholstered parlor set of furniture consisting of sofa and two large chairs.

ALL KINDS of legal blanks, notes, leases, deeds, warrants, bonds, summonses, constable bonds, etc.

LOCAL MENTION.

Rev. A. L. Whittaker will hold services in the Indian Orchard school house, Sunday at 2:30 P. M.

Hon. Leopold Feurth is in Allentown at the Democratic state convention on the proxy of Joel Hill.

Entertainment and social in the German Lutheran church parlors Tuesday evening next.

Charles E. Dodge has entered the employ of Krantz, Smith & Co., the glass cutters, as traveling salesman.

Wm. Rockwell of Scott and Peter E. Cole of Manchester were among the township assessors who were called to Honesdale to testify in the D. & H. and Erie R. R. appeal cases this week.

The White Ribboners will meet with Mrs. A. J. Rebbin on East street Tuesday evening, June 21, 7:30.

Chas. Welles Esq. of Welles & Torrey and C. B. Little of Scranton were in Honesdale this week, representing the Erie & D. & H. R. R. companies.

Manager Benj. H. Dittrich of the Lyric left Wednesday for Laurel Lake, where he will spend the summer camping on the shores by the beautiful body of water.

The acousticon temporarily installed in the Presbyterian church has become permanent, the trustees having adopted the new arrangement for the benefit of deaf members.

Dr. Richard Gibbons of New York city performed an operation for appendicitis on Father Shanley of Sayre, Pa. at the French hospital, New York, on Wednesday.

John H. Bodenwaldt, a glassworker, and Florence M. Smith were married at noon yesterday by Rev. A. L. Whittaker at the Episcopal rectory.

Amos Edwards was in Honesdale this week, having been called here on business.

Merle Eldred has returned to Honesdale after spending a few days with Margaretta Davis of Carbondale.

Stephen Susefeld, who recently spent a few days with friends in town returned to his duties at Titusville, Pa.

Miss Lillian Heydt of New York city is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Searle of Upper Main street.

Mrs. H. S. Fisher and daughter and Mr. White of Whites Valley were callers at The Citizen office Wednesday.

There will be a cake sale on Friday afternoon at the Baptist church, starting at 3 o'clock.

Miss Lenore Rude and Thomas Howard Quincy of Honesdale were married in New York last Sunday.

White Mills vs Honesdale will be the Sunday ball game at White Mills. The game will be called at 3:30.

Rev. G. S. Wendell will conduct public worship and preach at the Berlin Baptist church Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

The annual excursion of the Boot and Shoe Workers union will take place at Lake Ladore on Tuesday, Aug. 9th.

Grace Episcopal church, Sunday, June 19: 8 A. M. communion and service; 10:30 A. M. morning prayer and sermon; 12 M. Sunday school and Bible classes; 7:30 P. M. evening prayer and sermon.

One of the four jurymen in room 16 at the Hotel Wayne dropped his roll of more than $100 in his room yesterday.

Children's day exercises will be held by the Bible school at the First Baptist church Sunday morning next at 10:30.

Emmet Welsh, formerly of Honesdale, employed by Kelly & Steinman, this village, has purchased through the agency of L. A. Curtis, the U. G. Sent house Wheeler street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Doyle and their two children, from Denver, Col., are at the home of Mrs. James M. Spencer in Preston for a stay of some weeks.

S. A. Suedeker of Aldenville, J. E. Varcoe of Waymart, W. R. Jones of Carbondale and H. C. Curtis of South Canaan were registered at Hotel Wayne on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. McGrannigan, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Flives, Mrs. William Bracey, Morris Murray, Mrs. John Curney of Spring street attended the funeral of Miss Mary Haggerty of Whites Valley.

David Crowley of New York city, at one time a noted detective and engaged in some of the big cases in New York city and elsewhere, passed through Honesdale Tuesday on his way from New York to Scranton.

Mrs. John Seitz and daughter, Josephine, and Mrs. Wm. Seitz and daughter, Evelyn, of East street left Wednesday for a month's visit with relatives.

Miss Anna Seaman of East street and Miss Carrie B. Stephens, teachers of the Honesdale graded schools, left yesterday on their western trip.

Howard Erk attended the hill climbing contest in Wilkes-Barre on Monday.

N. C. Howe of Sterling was at the county seat Wednesday on business.

H. E. Benson of Scranton was a business caller in Honesdale on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wood of Beach Lake were Honesdale visitors Tuesday.

William Schloss will return to-day from the Red Men's convention in Reading.

W. E. Chumard and C. J. Pelton of Hamlin were visitors in town Wednesday.

Miss Hattie Arnold has as her guest Miss Ruth Keller of Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Mary Menner attended the Coan-Barr nuptials of Carbondale on Wednesday.

Earl Schenck and Florence Dunning of State College are home for the summer.

Amos Edwards of Lake Como was registered at the Hotel Wayne on Wednesday.

August Rickert and bride of New York are visiting at the home of George Rickert.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Holmes are entertaining two of their granddaughters, Misses Daisy and Helen Mills of Brookline, Mass.

Mrs. Joseph Fryer of Thirteenth St. left yesterday for a visit with her sister at Port Jervis, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Keleher have gone to Towanda, where they will make their future home.

Merle Eldred has returned to Honesdale after spending a few days with Margaretta Davis of Carbondale.

Miss Kathryn Knoll is the guest of Scranton friends this week.

Ray Carr was one of the Scrantonians here on business Wednesday.

Miss Marguerite Dolmetsch of Wells college is at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. Z. Russell of Church street.

Miss Lucy Russell of Aurdendale, Mass. and Milton Russell of West Newton, Mass., are home for their summer vacations.

William Ferber and Fletcher Bunell left Wednesday morning for a trip down the Erie and up the Delaware on business.

Mrs. Charles Spettigne of East street left yesterday for St. Marys, Pa. where she will make an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Davis.

Mrs. R. H. Brown and Mrs. E. T. Brown left Wednesday to attend the graduation exercises of Wilkesley college the former's daughter, Miss Florence, being one of the graduates.

Misses Pearl Bryant, a teacher in Brown college, Brooklyn N. Y. and Olive Bryant a student at Smith college, arrived Wednesday evening to spend their summer vacation here.

Mrs. Alma G. Dix, one of the teachers in the Honesdale High school, has gone to Spokane, Wash., to visit her daughter, Alice, who is the wife of R. M. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Doyle and their two children, from Denver, Col., are at the home of Mrs. James M. Spencer in Preston for a stay of some weeks.

S. A. Suedeker of Aldenville, J. E. Varcoe of Waymart, W. R. Jones of Carbondale and H. C. Curtis of South Canaan were registered at Hotel Wayne on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. McGrannigan, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Flives, Mrs. William Bracey, Morris Murray, Mrs. John Curney of Spring street attended the funeral of Miss Mary Haggerty of Whites Valley.

David Crowley of New York city, at one time a noted detective and engaged in some of the big cases in New York city and elsewhere, passed through Honesdale Tuesday on his way from New York to Scranton.

Mrs. John Seitz and daughter, Josephine, and Mrs. Wm. Seitz and daughter, Evelyn, of East street left Wednesday for a month's visit with relatives.

Miss Anna Seaman of East street and Miss Carrie B. Stephens, teachers of the Honesdale graded schools, left yesterday on their western trip.

Howard Erk attended the hill climbing contest in Wilkes-Barre on Monday.

N. C. Howe of Sterling was at the county seat Wednesday on business.

H. E. Benson of Scranton was a business caller in Honesdale on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wood of Beach Lake were Honesdale visitors Tuesday.

William Schloss will return to-day from the Red Men's convention in Reading.

W. E. Chumard and C. J. Pelton of Hamlin were visitors in town Wednesday.

Miss Hattie Arnold has as her guest Miss Ruth Keller of Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Mary Menner attended the Coan-Barr nuptials of Carbondale on Wednesday.

Earl Schenck and Florence Dunning of State College are home for the summer.

Amos Edwards of Lake Como was registered at the Hotel Wayne on Wednesday.

August Rickert and bride of New York are visiting at the home of George Rickert.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Holmes are entertaining two of their granddaughters, Misses Daisy and Helen Mills of Brookline, Mass.

Mrs. Joseph Fryer of Thirteenth St. left yesterday for a visit with her sister at Port Jervis, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Keleher have gone to Towanda, where they will make their future home.

Merle Eldred has returned to Honesdale after spending a few days with Margaretta Davis of Carbondale.

We Stock Up the State! Dr. J. J. Reitz received last week four large cans of fish from the Wayne county state fishery.

There is nothing more pathetic on earth than the urchin who stands outside the big tent, views his companions blithely pass before him to enter paradise.

So ashamed of wanting to go that you make the excuse that you are just going to take care of the children.

Howe's Great London Shows will exhibit in Honesdale on Tuesday, June 28.

Results of Games Played in National and American Leagues.

At New York—New York, 5; Pittsburgh, 1. Batteries—Mathewson and Meyers; Lefield and Gibson.

At Philadelphia—Cincinnati, 3; Philadelphia, 3. Batteries—Rowan, Clarke and McLean; McQuillen, Moore, Jacklitsch and Moran.

At Cleveland—New York, 3; Cleveland, 0. Batteries—Ford and Sweeney; Young and Easterly.

At Chicago (fourteen innings)—Chicago, 4; Philadelphia, 3. Batteries—Walsh and Payne; Morgan, Plank and Lapp.

At Detroit—Boston, 8; Detroit, 3. Batteries—Karger and Carrigan; Mullin and Stange.

At St. Louis—St. Louis, 5; Washington, 4. Batteries—Lake and Stephens; Walker, Street and Hardy.

At Boston—Boston, 2; St. Louis, 0. Batteries—Mattern and Graham; Willis, Harmon and Phelps.

At Philadelphia—Cincinnati, 3; Philadelphia, 3. Batteries—Rowan, Clarke and McLean; McQuillen, Moore, Jacklitsch and Moran.

At Cleveland—New York, 3; Cleveland, 0. Batteries—Ford and Sweeney; Young and Easterly.

At Chicago (fourteen innings)—Chicago, 4; Philadelphia, 3. Batteries—Walsh and Payne; Morgan, Plank and Lapp.

At Detroit—Boston, 8; Detroit, 3. Batteries—Karger and Carrigan; Mullin and Stange.

At St. Louis—St. Louis, 5; Washington, 4. Batteries—Lake and Stephens; Walker, Street and Hardy.

At Boston—Boston, 2; St. Louis, 0. Batteries—Mattern and Graham; Willis, Harmon and Phelps.

At Philadelphia—Cincinnati, 3; Philadelphia, 3. Batteries—Rowan, Clarke and McLean; McQuillen, Moore, Jacklitsch and Moran.

At Cleveland—New York, 3; Cleveland, 0. Batteries—Ford and Sweeney; Young and Easterly.

At Chicago (fourteen innings)—Chicago, 4; Philadelphia, 3. Batteries—Walsh and Payne; Morgan, Plank and Lapp.

At Detroit—Boston, 8; Detroit, 3. Batteries—Karger and Carrigan; Mullin and Stange.

At St. Louis—St. Louis, 5; Washington, 4. Batteries—Lake and Stephens; Walker, Street and Hardy.

At Boston—Boston, 2; St. Louis, 0. Batteries—Mattern and Graham; Willis, Harmon and Phelps.

At Philadelphia—Cincinnati, 3; Philadelphia, 3. Batteries—Rowan, Clarke and McLean; McQuillen, Moore, Jacklitsch and Moran.

At Cleveland—New York, 3; Cleveland, 0. Batteries—Ford and Sweeney; Young and Easterly.

At Chicago (fourteen innings)—Chicago, 4; Philadelphia, 3. Batteries—Walsh and Payne; Morgan, Plank and Lapp.

At Detroit—Boston, 8; Detroit, 3. Batteries—Karger and Carrigan; Mullin and Stange.

At St. Louis—St. Louis, 5; Washington, 4. Batteries—Lake and Stephens; Walker, Street and Hardy.

At Boston—Boston, 2; St. Louis, 0. Batteries—Mattern and Graham; Willis, Harmon and Phelps.

Coming Wedding in Hamlin. Miss Laura C. Boyce, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Boyce of Hamlin, and J. Lee Roy VanSickle of Scranton, are to be married in the Methodist Episcopal church of Hamlin, Wednesday, June 29, at 11 o'clock.

What Manner of Bird Is This? T. D. O'Connell has not yet found any man, woman or child able to put a name to the red bird a couple of boys caught this week on the cliff and sold to the landlord of the American house.

Bucknell's Commencement. Degrees will be conferred upon a graduating class of 95 at Bucknell's sixtieth annual commencement, June 22.

The alumni anniversary will include reunions of the classes of '60, '70, '80, '85, '90, '95, 1900 and 1905.

The orator will be William B. Sheddan, '95 of Princeton and poet Miss Olive C. Richards '08, of Scranton.

At the corporation dinner Hon. Simon P. Wolverton, '60, of Sunbury will give the annual address.

Advertisement for Atlas E-Z Seal jars. It features an illustration of a jar and text describing the benefits of the Atlas E-Z Seal Jar, including its ability to preserve fruits like peaches and its ease of use.

Advertisement for Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania. It promotes the company's telephone service, highlighting its reliability and reach, and includes the slogan 'USE THE BELL. It will never disappoint you.'

Large advertisement for KATZ BROS. Inc. announcing a 'SEMI-ANNUAL MUSLIN UNDERWEAR SALE WILL BEGIN MONDAY, JUNE 20th'. The ad emphasizes the quality and variety of their muslin underwear and states that their sales are always occasions of interest to ladies.