WEDNESDAY, JUNE 22, 1910.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For Congress, C. C. PRATT.

For State Senator, WINFRED D. LEWIS.

COUNTY.

Representative, H. C. JACKSON.

Leave the Keystone state alone for originality! At a Harrisburg comet party the other day Halley's had a tail.

The latest report says Col. TEDDY, on disembarking, will go right straight to Oyster Bay and there proceed to be mum as an oyster. Now, from what you've read in the newspapers about him the past 15 years, do you believe that?

As the result of a country senator's GRIM determination to land the Pennsylvania governorship, Democrats in the western counties now know there's such a spot as Bucks county and that Doylestown, that happy hamlet in the hills, is its capital.

Unable to get either President TAFT for an Old Home week visitor or GLENN H. CURTIS to do some Fourth of July flying at Towanda, the City of Promise is up against it for absence of celebrities. Mr. Curtis, however, intimates that he may get out that way later. Towanda lives in hopes.

Which is worse, mud or dust? Well, we have had no dust yet.—Country correspondent of Altoona Mirror.

And, ordinarily, we're not bothered by any superfluity of dust over here in the northeastern corner of the state—at least, not during a June that elects to slop and sozzle all the time!

Col. TEDDY was not home to pitch hay at Sagamore hill last summer, but on shipboard he made up for lost time by pitching coal with the stokers and when he gets back to the comparatively quiet shades of Oyster Bay he may, we presume, pitch into that long-neglected woodpile, even if he doesn't pitch into the New York political situation.

Mr. GOOD ROADS JONES, named on both tickets over in Susquehanna, seems bound to get a third term at Harrisburg anyhow, a rare honor, by the way, in the county to the west of us. Mr. JONES, by virtue of his persistent, intelligent and effective advocacy of modern highways more than by any other service to his constituents, has made them realize he is the right man on the right job when he represents Susquehanna at the capital. And then, when one comes to analyze his unusual success, it must be taken into consideration that he's a real Wayne county boy by descent; a writer on JONES for the news columns of the local papers put it happily enough when he said the candidate "is one half Wayne." Why seek for explanation further?

Kentucky census enumerators who worked over-time to find Uncle Sam the facts he wanted have effected an organization to press their claims for pay, held up, as they declare, until a special appropriation bill can be put through Congress. We like their spunk and we hope those Blue Grass census men will get their money, but they are not the only men with a grievance along the line of census pay held up. The men appointed to get the names and ages and occupations and all that in some of the Pennsylvania mining districts where foreign population is rife worked until they sweat blood some days. These men, like their kicking brethren from Kentucky, earned their money twice over and should have received it before now. It's a lame excuse on the part of the government that pensions and the claims of United States commissioners are paid quarterly.

Prunes now are included in the bill of fare at Reading jail. Must remind some of the sheriff's unbidden guests of old days in a boarding house.

Says the Philadelphia Inquirer: In a few months several thousand young college graduates will discover that the world has not been waiting for them, and they will have to hump themselves to get into the procession. The university perspective is different from that of a hard-working world.

Precisely. Some of the young gentlemen who had to tug, haul and shove to make a nine hat go on commencement day can slip their craniums into a six-and-three-quarters next October.

The howl of the Democracy can be heard all over Pennsylvania because C. LaRue Munson refused to be offered up as a sacrifice on the altar of the decayed political policies of his party. For months the hungry heelers of Munson's party, had waxed gleeful over the prospect of tapping the barrel of the man, who spent a small fortune trying to be elected a Justice of the supreme court. Mr. Munson, no doubt, as he realized the attack that would be made on his bank account, did have, (as he claims), an attack of heart disease.

WAYNE KNOWS BENNETT.

Man Who Got Gov. Gillett To Forbid Fight Has Spoken Here.

Congressman William S. Bennett of New York, the man who more than anybody else stirred up Gov. Gillette of California to take steps to keep the Jeffries-Johnson fight out of San Francisco, has a great many Port Jervis and a number of Wayne county friends. He has made political speeches in Honesdale. Mr. Bennett is a bright young lawyer of vigorous personality.

"Bennett," said a man who knows the New York congressman, politically and otherwise, "went to the Presbyterian convention at Atlantic City and talked to the California governor, who was there, on the subject of the coming fight. It is said he gave Gov. Gillett to understand that the governor's failure to take steps to suppress the fight so far as San Francisco is concerned might lead to an effect to have the Panama canal exposition, which that city wants, sent somewhere else, but I don't know how true this may be. Anyhow, it is generally believed it was Bennett who got the governor to do what he has done."

New York sporting men, however, including constituents of Mr. Bennett, are willing to bet money that Jim Jeffries, who used to be champion heavyweight, and Jack Johnson, who holds the title now, will fight in San Francisco on July 4, Bennett or no Bennett, governor or no governor.

HARMON SEES LEADERS.

Democratic Presidential Possibilities. Prepares For Ohio Nomination.

Layton, O., June 21.—Governor Judson Harmon, Democratic presidential possibility, is today conferring with Democratic state leaders. It is believed certain that the governor will be renominated at tomorrow's session of the Democratic state convention. It is not believed that he will meet with the slightest opposition.

The governor is the guest of John A. McMahon, a Democratic congressman in civil war days and since then a silver haired wheel horse of his party in the state.

In the first Cleveland administration Mr. McMahon was offered the portfolio of attorney general by President Cleveland, but could not accept it.

Governor Harmon when not surrounded by his friends has given much attention to the finishing touches of his speech of acceptance which he will deliver before the convention.

It is short and vigorous and denounces the tariff policy of the Republican national party and in partport if not in actual phrase declares that only the Democratic national party can be trusted to revise the tariff in the interests of the great mass of the people.

At the same time the governor is giving much attention to the tariff plank to be adopted by the convention, believing that this plank should reflect in every particular his speech of acceptance.

It is apparent that Governor Harmon is to make his campaign on state issues largely, but feels that the national planks for the platform to be adopted by this convention are to be examined closely by Democrats in other states.

At today's session of the Democratic convention a fight is going on over the selection of state committeemen and control of the party machinery.

COLLISION IN FOG.

Ten Drowned When French Steamship Sinks.

Holyhead, June 21.—The British steamship Yews and the French steamship La Rochelle collided near the Skerries, on the Anglesey coast, during a fog. The Frenchman was sunk, and ten lives were lost.

CRIME SUSPECTED

Grice Arrested After Disappearance of Family.

HUSBAND'S STORIES CONFLICT

No Trace of Mrs. Grice Found Since She Left Her Home in Lancaster With Her Baby Last Thursday Night.

Lancaster, Pa., June 21.—J. C. Grice of Sharpsburg, Md., twenty-two years old, a member of the graduating class of the Millerville State Normal school, has been arrested in connection with the disappearance of his wife and their baby. Mrs. Grice, before her marriage last summer, was Miss Ellen Dorsey of Sharpsburg. She is twenty years old.

Last Thursday night Grice, it is charged, took his wife and baby away under circumstances that excited suspicion, and the police were notified. He explained that Mrs. Grice had gone to Sharpsburg to visit her mother, who was seriously ill.

Police investigation shows that the mother was not sick and that the daughter failed to arrive at her home nor has a ticket been sold at the Pennsylvania railroad office that Thursday night to the place Grice said his wife had gone been yet turned in.

No trace of Mrs. Grice has been found, and the police are working on the theory that the woman and baby were murdered and their bodies hidden. No motive, however, is given for such a crime.

WILL OUTDO UNIVERSE.

Atlantic City Preparing For Wonderful Aviation Meet.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 21.—Atlantic City is preparing to outdo the entire universe in up to date matters by holding a sham battle of airships and navy in the air over the ocean aviation week, which will happen from July 4 to July 11 inclusive. The Atlantic City Aero club has sent an application to the powers at Washington asking for a warrant to shoot up an airship fleet, which will be directed by Aviators Curtiss, Hamilton and Brookins, the last named a pupil of the Wrights, who has been doing distinguished stunts with aeroplanes recently in Indianapolis.

Atlantic City wants the navy department to put the warship of Young's pier for the airship week and has made rules whereby each airship pilot will be supplied with three bags of sand stamped with a mark assigned to each aviator.

The attack is to consist of an attempt to drop one of the sand bags, supposing it to be a high power bunch of explosive, upon the warship's deck from an aeroplane. The sand bag, of course, is supposed to contain enough destructive stuff to transfer the sea fighter from surface service to the fleet of Admiral McInty.

A prize of $1,000 will be awarded to the first aeronaut who succeeds in dropping one of the sand bags on the ship's deck. John J. White of the Hotel Marlborough-Blenheim, who is president of the Atlantic City Aero club, got up the communication.

557 MILES IN BALLOON.

Aeronauts Caught by Storm in Kentucky Mountains—Forced to Land.

St. Louis, June 21.—Lieutenant H. Eugene Honeywell, pilot of the balloon Centennial, and William F. Assman, his aid, who sailed in the craft from here Saturday to win the Lahm cup by covering 622 miles, telegraphed from Winchester, Ky., that a severe storm in the Kentucky mountains forced them to land last night, when they had covered 557 miles.

MYSTERY CLEARS.

Police Think They Have Cleared Sachs Murder.

SUSPECT HAD VICTIM'S RINGS.

Two Italians Being Held—They Are Suspected of Having Murdered Aged Jewish Peddler and Placed Body in Trunk.

New York, June 21.—The police today think they have cleared the mysterious Sachs trunk mystery which has engaged the attention of almost every detective on the New York force since last Saturday.

They have arrested Federico Piedzurro, an Italian, and two rings found in his possession have been identified as the property of Moses Sachs, the Jewish jewelry peddler, whose body was found hidden in a trunk at 51 Goerck street last Saturday.

Mrs. Moses Sachs, wife of the aged victim of the crime, identified two of the rings found on the suspect. Her identification is positive.

Mrs. Sachs, who has wept constantly since the fate of her husband became known, broke down when shown the jewelry. Piedzurro was trying to dispose of the jewelry, which consisted of one ring with three small diamonds, a red stone ring and a snake ring with two small diamonds, when arrested with Pietro Carilli, a companion.

"These two belong to my husband," she said when shown the ring with three diamonds and the one with the red stone. "He has had the one with the three diamonds a long time. He told me it was a hard luck ring that he could not dispose of. Once he sold it and it was returned to him by the purchaser. This was a few weeks ago. My husband polished this ring up only ten days ago, and I saw this one and the one with the red stone in his hands. I am positive they are his property."

As the result of this identification the police were more convinced than ever last night that they have arrested the two men who can solve the murder mystery.

New light was shed on the case by Paul Sachs, son of the murdered man, who followed his father's trail after the body was found. Paul and his brother, Irving, found that the old man when last seen alive was heading for the butcher shop of Pietro Frumfreddo.

"An Italian told me my father said he was going to Frumfreddo, who was a customer of his," said Paul Sachs. "I went around there and Frumfreddo said he didn't see my father. He said his place of business was closed for about an hour and that the old man may have called while he was out."

The police have discovered that both Piedzurro and Carilli had dealings with Sachs and knew that the old man carried valuable jewelry with him during his tours of the tenement districts. Detectives at work upon the case are now confident that they will be able to fasten the crime upon the two Italians.

PREDICTS ANGLO-GERMAN WAR

Justice Brown Says Only Disarmament Can Prevent Clash.

New Haven, Conn., June 21.—Justice Henry B. Brown of the United States supreme court made an address before the graduating class of the Yale law school in which he denounced as fallacious the theory that preparedness of a nation for war supplies the best assurance of peace. He referred to Great Britain and Germany and their preparedness for war to emphasize his point.

"The most strained relations of the present day exist between the two powers best prepared for war," Justice Brown said. "It is a general rule that the man who is fully armed and prepared to defend himself is oftenest called upon to do so. The old adage that the man who is looking for trouble is apt to find it is as applicable to nations as to individuals. It is probably only a question of time when England and Germany will either come to blows or agree to a cessation of naval construction, an example which other nations will hasten to follow."

FOR WORLD PEACE.

House Passes the Bennet Resolution for an American Commission.

Washington, June 21.—The resolution introduced by Representative Bennet of New York providing for the appointment by the president of a commission of five distinguished Americans to confer with foreign governments on the subject of the establishment of worldwide peace has been passed by the house.

This is the commission which, according to a recent declaration of President Taft to Chairman Foster and other members of the house foreign affairs committee, will be headed by Colonel Roosevelt.

GERMANS RESENTFUL.

Indignant Because of Hint That Drink Made Kaiser Sick.

Berlin, June 21.—Much indignation is expressed by the newspapers of this city over the suggestion which comes from the celebrated Dr. Doyen of Paris that the kaiser's ailments are due to alcoholism.

MARGARET ILLINGTON. Actress Decides to Return to Forsaken Footlights Again.

New York, June 21.—Margaret Illington, the former actress who, when she divorced Daniel Frohman and became the wife of Edward J. Bowes, declared stage life was abnormal and that she craved for sock darning, domesticity and children, has suddenly decided that darning socks is not what it is cracked up to be and as no children have been born of the second union she will become an actress again.

The announcement was made that Miss Illington would open in Denver in August and play an extended tour. Edward Ellsner, it is said, will be the producer of the play as well as be Miss Illington's manager.

RYAN SEEKS HEALTH.

Multimillionaire Sails For Europe For Indefinite Sojourn.

New York, June 21.—Thomas F. Ryan, multimillionaire, sailed today on the steamship Mauretania for an indefinite sojourn in Europe in search of health.

The financier's intimate acquaintances have heard that he is in urgent need of a long rest. They have been deeply concerned over reports that have reached them during the last few days regarding his condition.

Wall street has heard that Mr. Ryan is on the verge of a nervous breakdown. It is known that for the last six months he has been far from being in robust health.

OFF FOR HARRISBURG.

Wayne Delegates at Capital to Name Next Governor.

William H. Bader and Brock Leshner, Wayne county's delegates to the Republican state convention, are in Harrisburg, where tomorrow or next day they will help nominate the next governor of Pennsylvania. Former Auditor General Edmund B. Hardenbergh is also at the convention.

The absolute finality of Secretary of State Philander C. Knox's refusal to consent to the use of his name for governor leaves the field clear for Congressman John K. Tener of Washington county, who, it is predicted, will be named on the first ballot.

The friends of speaker John F. Cox and Senator Crow, the latter from Fayette county, say their men are still in the race, but the nomination of Mr. Tener is regarded as a certainty.

Banish Catarrh

Breathe the Hyomei for Two Minutes and Stuffed Up Head Will Vanish.

If you want to get relief from catarrh, cold in the head or from an irritating cough in the shortest time breathe Hyomei (pronounce it High-o-mey).

It will clean out your head in two minutes and allow you to breathe freely.

Hyomei will cure a cold in one day. It will relieve you of disgusting sniffles, hawking, spitting and offensive breath in a week.

Hyomei is made chiefly from eucalyptol, a soothing, healing, germ killing antiseptic, that comes from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia where catarrh, asthma and consumption were never known to exist.

Hyomei is pleasant and easy to breathe. Just pour a few drops into the hard rubber inhaler, use as directed, and cure is almost certain.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomei costs only $1.00 at druggists everywhere and at W. G. Peil's. If you already own an inhaler you can get an extra bottle of Hyomei at druggists for only 50c.
