ICE CASE IS ON TRIAL.

Russell W. Whitney Asks Damages of $7,000 From Lake Lodge Company.

The case of Russell T. Whitney vs. the Lake Lodge Improvement company occupied the time of Judge Stewart and a jury all of Tuesday and Wednesday.

The case arises from a contract the Honesdale Ice company, which has been succeeded by Russell T. Whitney, made with the Lake Lodge company. The latter agreed to supply ice for six years at a stated sum, but this agreement was ignored when it came to the assignment of contract from the Honesdale Ice company to Whitney. THE CHANGE OF A LETTER.

At the period when British Columbia was threatening to withdraw from the Dominion of Canada because the Carnarvon settlement had been ignored by the Mackenzie administration the late Lord Dufferin took part in a public function in Quebec. While the procession was moving through the principal streets a gentleman, breathless with excitement, hurried up to his excellency's carriage to say a "rebel" arch had been placed across the road so as to identify the viceroys with the approval of the disloyal inscription thereon. "Can you tell me what words there are on the arch?" quietly asked Dufferin. "Oh, yes," replied his informant; "they are 'Carnarvon Terms or Separation.'" "Send the committee to me," commanded his excellency. "Now, gentlemen," said he, with a smile, to the committee, "I'll go under your beautiful arch on one condition. I won't ask you to do much, and I beg but a trifling favor. I merely ask that you alter one letter in your motto. Turn the S into an R—make it 'Carnarvon Terms or Reparation'—and I will gladly pass under it." The committee yielded, and eventually Dufferin contrived to smooth over the difficulties and to reconcile the malcontents.

HOWE'S GREAT LONDON SHOWS.

Stables a Veritable Horse Fair—Kentucky Thoroughbreds to the Front.

To select the kind of horses which have given Howe's Great Shows a national reputation for having the finest horses of any show on earth, much time, intelligence, patience and perseverance was required. For the baggage and heavy work the Percheron type of draft horse was selected, and for the hippodrome races was chosen thirty clean-cut Kentucky thoroughbred runners. Each year new stock is selected, always from the same breeds, and those that have been scarred, blemished or injured are culled out.

The mating up of the different teams is an object lesson to the eye, uniformity of size, color and style always predominating. When to the beautiful black, dapple gray and bay horses is added the cute Shetland ponies, it is not strange that the lengthy street parade of the Howe's Great London shows is a most imposing and pleasing sight.

When Howe's London shows exhibits here citizens will not only find the circus and menagerie exceedingly worthy of their patronage, but they will find that Howe's Horse Stables compose a veritable horse fair and they should always be visited. The visitor should not ask what becomes of these horses if they become crippled, as they will be displeased with the answer, which is that they are fed to the animals.
