

A CHAT WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

INDIAN ORCHARD.

Auto Has Badly Missed—No High School For Berlin.

Several farmers in this vicinity have sown buckwheat in their cornfields. Corn does not promise to be a normal crop this year. Potatoes are very poor. Oats look well but many claim the rust has affected them. Rye promises to be a good crop, and hay is doing better, but will not be so good as last year. Everyone should come to the Grange picnic on the Fourth. There will be a flag-raising, races, dancing, ball game and speeches. William Avery is picking and marketing a fine lot of strawberries.

The public have been lost during the past week on account of the large auto being out of commission. W. H. Hall is painting and decorating the interior of the Baptist church at Damascus.

H. H. Crosby is treating his house to a coat of paint, which adds much to its appearance. The women met with Mrs. H. H. Bunnell Wednesday last. All had a good time. Mrs. Joseph Atkinson of White Mills spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. O. D. Henshaw. Roy and R. E. Bayly of Laurella were business callers at the Altoona farm Wednesday.

J. I. Henshaw is spending his vacation with his parents in this place. William Jay of Canada is visiting his aged parents at Vine Hill.

At the meeting at Beach Lake Monday evening of last week it was shown that Berlin could not support a high school at present. One of the speakers said that during the past year the school board had saved or rather run the school with $400 less than the previous year. Henry Miller of East Berlin lost a horse while at Honesdale Thursday last. Mr. Miller is an industrious, honest young man and all are sorry to learn of his loss.

Mrs. May Richmond of Honesdale is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira K. Bishop.

Edna Toms of Honesdale is spending her vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henshaw.

HAWLEY & WILSONVILLE

Big Pond Popular—Clearing Paupack—Rattler Killed—New Hotel Man.

Lydia Wheeler is spending some time with her friend, Mrs. Addelton, in Dalton. Mrs. George Pelton went to Arlington Thursday to visit her sister, Mrs. Gilbert Pennell. Marilla Pennell, who has been critically sick several weeks, is still in a precarious condition. She now requires the constant attention of a trained nurse.

Mrs. Kathryn Riddle is sojourning among Wilkes-Barre friends. Mrs. Hannah Layton has gone to Bohemia to spend the summer. Sam Miller made a business trip to New York the latter part of last week. He with his brothers, Louis and Abe, will go to Narrowsburg this week to open a clothing store. Annie Hardier and a young woman friend from Honesdale were Sunday visitors at the home of Henry Hardier on Bone Ridge.

Miss Winner of Pleasant Mount is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Herman Harnes. Grant Williams and A. Baird are carpentering at Big Pond. Henry Hardier, Jr., has purchased a D. J. Branning his driving horse, one of the finest roadsters to be seen these parts. Henry, who is employed in the Keystone glass works and boards with his parents on Bone Ridge, will now drive to and from his work. Buggy, harness and sleigh went with the deal.

Annie Gagner is entertaining her niece, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simonson of Honesdale. Mrs. Josephine Whitney of Honesdale met with the women of the Presbyterian Aid society Wednesday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Suydam.

While automobiling Tuesday of last week George Murphy killed a large rattlesnake on the Bone Ridge road, just above P. J. Keary's farm. The snake measured four and one-half inches over all and contained nine rattlers.

Henry Von Frank's two teams and a force of men have been cleaning the Paupack of snags and logs as far as Rohan's Landing. They now have the river in shape for the passage of their motors. It is a delightful trip on a hot day to sail up and back on that shady avenue of water.

On Friday the business of Hotel Belvidere will be conducted by a new proprietor, W. E. Martin of Wilkes-Barre has purchased the stock and lease and will run the house.

The Hawleyites who have summer cottages at Big Pond are spending their spare time getting them in readiness for July and August. This resort grows more popular each year. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Adams were angling in the Paupack Friday afternoon.

WARREN MURPHY OF THE STATE COLLEGE IS AT HOME FOR THE SUMMER.

Mrs. J. W. Stickney of Baldwin, L. I., is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Knapp, for several weeks.

Miss Gertrude Drake is visiting her sister, Kathryn, at the state normal school in East Stroudsburg. Miss Verna Drake is home from Kingston.

Miss Eva Harnes has returned from Winwood. John Switzer and W. C. Knapp are jurors at Honesdale.

Miss Angela McAndrew, an East Stroudsburg normal student, is at home until September.

The rooms of S. T. Palmer on Chestnut street, recently vacated by Mrs. Delvan Woodward, are to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crabbe.

TYLER HILL.

Summer weather has come on at last.

Potatoes and oats seem to be doing good work in the growing line, but corn has not come up well, owing to the heavy rains which caused it to rot. Many farmers have been forced to plant their corn over. Bert Bush and daughter, Marie, of Conklin Hill were in town Wednesday.

Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Dietrich of Pleasant Mount, who have been visiting friends at Damascus, spent Wednesday with friends at Tyler Hill. Mr. Dietrich was for three years principal of the Damascus High school, and Mrs. Dietrich also taught a year at the High school. They have a host of friends in this vicinity.

Harry Pethick of Tyler Hill, who recently graduated from Wesleyan university, will serve in the capacity of principal of the High school for the ensuing year. M. S. Van Campen, the present incumbent, has a school on Long Island. The local friends of Mr. and Mrs. Van Campen join in wishing them good luck and all are very sorry at their departure.

Joseph Johnston left Thursday for Lake Huntington, where he will spend the summer. There is a third member of Frank Welsh's family. It is a boy. Mrs. George Tyler is caring for Mrs. Welsh.

Rev. A. D. Minch gave a lantern lecture, "Ten Nights in a Barroom," Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served on the lawn after the lecture. A large crowd was present and the receipts amounted to about $26. The funds will go towards painting the Baptist parsonage.

Kennedy Johnston attended David Orr of Calkins the two days immediately preceding his death Tuesday evening. Mr. Orr died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Abram Sisson.

STERLING.

Literary Entertainment and Social—Handsome Monuments—Vacation Notes.

A literary entertainment and social was given by the Ladies' Aid on June 29. It was well patronized and a success socially and financially. Miss Edith Simons of Newfoundland kindly gave a number of recitations that were well received and Jerald Butler and a number of others are deserving of special notice, but we can only say that all did well and everybody appeared to enjoy the occasion. About $23 was realized.

Last week Mr. Holgate, agent for Martin Caulfield of Honesdale, erected a fine granite monument for Miss Minnie Yates to the memory of her parents. James L. Noble also had a monument erected for Frederick Lloyd.

Last week Royal and David Cross arrived home from Cornell university and Floyd and Estella Cross from Wyoming seminary, where Miss Estella graduated. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cross were present at the graduating exercises, also at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Madden at Scranton.

Anna Simons is dressmaking at J. E. Cross's and Mrs. Neville is also there.

Mrs. S. N. Cross spent Sunday and Monday with New Jersey friends. Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Townsend of Scranton spent two days last week with Sterling friends.

The school board have levied a 13-mill tax for school purposes and seven mills for building for 1910.

DAMASCUS.

David Orr, Old Resident, Dies and is Buried—Funeral Friday.

David Orr, a highly respected citizen of Damascus, died of heart trouble at his home last week Thursday after a short sickness. He was born in Ireland, of Scotch parentage, April 15, 1832, and came to New York at the age of four. He resided there until eight years of age, when he came to Damascus and lived with his uncle until, at the age of 22, he married Emily Lovelass. Then he purchased a farm, or what was to be a farm, and by the labor of his own hands hewed it from the heavily timbered forests. He labored hard and the fruit of his labors can be seen in his beautiful farm home.

Industry, frugality, and upright, honest dealing with his fellow men was the strong characteristic. A member of and strong believer in the teachings of the Presbyterian church for 50 years, he had an incentive through life to do right. He was a man of fine health and strength, never having employed a physician until his last sickness except for a broken arm two years ago. Being temperate in all things, his was a life worthy of emulation. Many a young man would do well to follow in his footsteps. A devoted husband, a loving father and a kind neighbor was the man we will sadly miss in our homes, our church and our neighborhood. His wife, one son, W. D. Orr, one daughter, Mrs. A. E. Sisson, and a host of friends mourn his departure. The funeral was held at the Union church Friday, just four years from the day his only granddaughter was laid to rest. Rev. Bell and Rev. Coleman officiated.

Mr. Orr had taken THE CITIZEN ever since it started and was always a firm friend of the paper, on which he generally made it a point to call when in the borough.

GOULDSBORO.

Steel in His Eye—Mr. Hawk Gets Washington Job.

Rollaand Hawk left last week for Washington, D. C., where he has secured a good position.

Howard D. Smith of Scranton spent Thursday as the guest of his parents, "Squire and Mrs. George G. Smith.

The Misses Jennie and Emma Eschenbach of Scranton, trained nurses, are spending a vacation as the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Eschenbach.

Mrs. William Baskin and daughter, Miss Rebecca, of Drifton spent several days last week as the guests of the family of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Fairless.

Ernest Edler is suffering much inconvenience from a painful accident. While cutting off a bolt in the Lackawanna yards a flying piece of steel lodged in his right eye. He was taken to Moses Taylor hospital, Scranton, where the splinter was removed.

The Odd Fellows will have their picnic at Union park on the Fourth.

BOYDS MILLS.

No Celebration of the Fourth—Lantern Lecture Is Good—Wilcox's Tumblie.

David Orr, a highly respected citizen, passed away Tuesday of last week after a short sickness. The many friends of Mrs. B. F. Kimble will be glad to hear that she is recovering from her sickness. Walter Kimble is home on his vacation.

Mrs. Lavina Noble has been visiting her son, Arthur, in this place. Mrs. Caroline Eighmy and daughter, Miss Helen, spent a day at C. E. Clark's recently.

Mrs. W. D. Corr, who has been suffering from a nervous attack, is much better. Ward A. Wall was in Honesdale last week, serving on the traverse jury.

While tearing down an old building at John Orr's, Lon Wilcox fell from the roof, severely bruising himself and rendering himself unconscious. Dr. Loney was called, but not bones were found broken.

Morris Reynolds has returned from Binghamton. George Reynolds is working for S. A. Brush at Tyler Hill this summer.

Mrs. W. H. Crocker is recovering from her recent sickness. There will be no celebration of the glorious Fourth in our neighborhood. This will be a great disappointment to many, especially the younger children.

Lillie Sheard has returned from Bloomsburg, where she has been attending school. Edna Noble has returned from a visit in Scranton.

A lantern lecture, "Ten Nights in a Barroom," was given in the Ashland schoolhouse Thursday evening by Rev. R. D. Minch of Tyler Hill. Refreshments were served.

Children's day was held at Ashland schoolhouse Sunday. Bertha Wall has returned to the Metropolitan Training school on Blackwells Island, New York, after a week's stay with her mother.

BETHANY.

Children's Day—Plans for the Fourth—Notes From the Hill.

Perfect weather greeted Children's day and gave all who attended both services a smiling greeting. The Presbyterian church was trimmed elaborately with ferns, flowers and bunting and presented a very beautiful appearance, as did the Methodist. All took their parts well. It was the first attempt of some. Robert and Charles Paynter, little sons of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Paynter, sang a duet at both services. It would take too much space to give the programs of the exercises. Rev. J. B. Cody was unable to be present, as he accompanied Rev. Thomas Houston to Cold Springs for the morning service and the receiving of members into the church. Rev. W. B. Signor responded to the request for an address to the children in a very pleasant and helpful way.

Next Monday Bethany expects to be celebrating the glorious Fourth. The Methodist people have it in charge this year and they have made the following plans: Fantastic parade at 11; dinner at 12:15; District Attorney Simons of Honesdale to speak at 2. In the evening F. B. Cooper of Wilkes-Barre will give an illustrated lecture on "Ten Nights in a Barroom," also other pictures.

Mrs. Braman and daughter of Indian Orchard attended the Children's day exercises in the Presbyterian church.

It is expected Rev. Thomas Houston will commence his services in the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening next.

Mrs. William Fitze of Whites Valley spent several days with Mrs. H. N. Miller last week and called on friends here.

Mrs. Ann Kimble of Dyberry spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. E. W. Gammell.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid society met at Mrs. Lanna Pethick's Wednesday, when plans were made for the Fourth.

Joseph Clemo was brought home Wednesday. He continues to improve.

Miss Blanche Pierce of Honesdale spent Sunday with Marjorie Hauser. She sang at the Children's day exercises in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Miss Maud Bennett is spending the week with Mrs. E. W. Gammell. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Starnes and children of Carbondale and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Noyes and baby of Honesdale were guests at the Starnes home over Sunday.

ALDENVILLE.

David Hankins, who took a trip to Kutztown last week to witness the commencement exercises at the Keystone State Normal school, has returned.

Arthur Hopkins and Ada Hopkins have returned for the summer vacation.

W. Snedeker has a number of city boarders. Mrs. G. H. Knapp and mother, Mrs. Pethick, spent Saturday and Sunday in Carbondale.

G. H. Knapp took a trip to Scranton on Saturday. He was accompanied home by his daughter, Mary, who has been spending some time visiting in Scranton.

The ball team played Pleasant Mount on Saturday and won.

GALILEE.

Children's Day—Picnic on the Fourth—Personal Notes.

Miss Vera Rutledge spent last week with her cousins at Rileyville. The genial A. O. Blake of Bethany was through here last week buying cattle.

Miss Lorena Marks spent several days in Binghamton, N. Y., last week. There will be a picnic in the grove July 4. The proceeds are to apply on the minister's salary. Dinner will be served and Rev. Joseph Coleman will give an address. In the evening he will give a lecture entitled "Is Marriage a Failure?" Ice cream and cake may be had at any time.

Mrs. Nellie Berry and children of Scranton came here last Thursday and will occupy the house on the farm belonging to S. N. Gregg for the summer.

Miss Maud Wilmarth of Scranton is visiting her mother, Mrs. Martha Wilmarth.

Ada Gregg and friend from Lake Huntington spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Gregg. Mrs. George Roberts and daughter, Mildred, of Scranton are at Galilee for the summer.

Children's day exercises were held Sunday evening. A fine program was given to a crowded house. Two children were baptised.

A church picnic will be held July 4 in Abraham's grove at Galilee.

SHERMAN.

Mrs. George Snyder of Binghamton, N. Y., was here last week, calling on friends.

Mrs. James Arahall of New York spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Barlow.

Ernest Lang of Hancock spent Sunday in town. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanford of Orson visited at the home of Mrs. Frank Tarbox last Friday.

Rev. Mr. Moon expects to return from his vacation next Friday and will occupy his pulpit Sunday.

Mrs. W. O. Curtis expects to visit friends in Vallonia Springs and Centerville the coming week.

Rev. S. F. Wright of Ulster, Bradford county, has been visiting relatives and friends in town the past two weeks.

Walter Curtis is spending his vacation at home. Mrs. F. J. Reynolds spent last week in Binghamton, visiting her son, Davillo.

The hay crop is fine this summer, the best it has been for several years.

DREHER.

Some Crops Will Be a Fizzle—Picnic on Fourth—A Sick Veteran.

From nearly every section of the country the complaint is heard that the apple crop will be a failure this season. Pears and small fruits, from present appearances, will give a fair yield. Farmers are busy in the corn and potato field, cultivating and making preparation to sow buckwheat. Stalks of rye seven feet in length are not rare in this locality and the promise of a good crop is in evidence.

Newfoundland will have quite a number of visitors this week, who will be in attendance at the Christian Endeavor convention to be held in the Moravian church, commencing last night.

On July 4 the I. O. O. F. will hold a picnic in Dr. Simon's grove, near the hall. By way of entertainment there will be made by the Tannersville band, speaking by a prominent Odd Fellow from Philadelphia, a game of ball, plenty to eat and drink, and if the day is fair it will be a royal chance to meet your friends, neighbors and brother Odd Fellows.

The grove is not a great big affair, but there is room enough to have a nice time.

Robert Boyce came home about two weeks ago from Dr. Burns's private hospital in Scranton, where he was subjected to an X-ray examination to ascertain the cause of his sickness. His condition since his return home has been rather serious, but he is a veteran of the Civil war and not apt to "scare" easily. At present he is somewhat improved and wishes it stated that Dr. Burns and his assistants were very kind to him while under their care. The verdict after the X-ray examination gave Robert little encouragement for his permanent relief.

Miss Verna Hazelton is at the Mt. Pleasant house, Mt. Pocono, helping cater to the wants of the city people.

Misses Minnie Touser and Irene Callahan of Belleville, N. J., are spending their vacations with Miss Alice Cross.

Clyde Burns is on the sick list. He has a complicated complaint. William Zeigler and family have moved from Monroe county to the Levin Simpson farm in Dreher.

SOUTH STERLING.

J. M. Gilpin has gone to Westfield to attend the wedding of Dr. Gilpin's daughter Caroline.

Mrs. G. H. Lancaster has returned from a business trip to Philadelphia.

John Frey is making a great improvement on his home by erecting a new porch on two sides.

"Base Ball Boys" of South Sterling and Newfoundland had a very interesting game Saturday. Score 10 to 5 in favor of South Sterling.

S. Lancaster of Bradford county, nephew of H. A. Lancaster, is helping take care of Mr. Lancaster, who is still poorly.

Miss Lydia Robacker is in very poor health. Mrs. H. D. Bartleson is on the gain and able to sit up part of the time.

Grim Says at Bristol He'll Stick. Senator Webster Grim took a trip from Doylestown, where he lives and practices law, to Bristol, the Delaware river landing for Bucks county, Saturday. Political and legal business called him there.

"Will you pull out of the race for governor and let Berry run?" was one reporter's question. "No," said the senator, and he shook his head once. "I'll stay in the race. I got the nomination fairly, so I guess I'll stick."

"Do you expect to be elected?" was another question. "Every candidate," said Mr. Grim, "expects to be elected. Why not?"

He refused to say another word.

AT RILEYVILLE CHURCH.

Eighteen New Members, and 30 at Cold Springs, Because of Housdale.

The Rileyville Presbyterian church Saturday the women will serve a dinner at noon. In the afternoon and evening there will be a festival, for which one of the usual interesting programs has been arranged. The pastor's salary will get the proceeds.

Sunday was communion at Rileyville. As the result of the protracted meetings conducted by Rev. Thomas Houston, an eloquent preacher who is entirely blind, 30 new members were taken in on profession at Cold Springs chapel and 18 at Rileyville.

Mr. Houston will preach again Sunday. He has been at Siko this week.
