LOCAL MENTION.

—The Wayne County Savings Bank on Tuesday declared the usual semi-annual dividend of 12 per cent.

—The household goods of Fred Lee have been packed and this week some time will be shipped to Towanda, where Mr. Lee is cutting glass.

—Corn is coming finely now, the dry, hot weather that preceded the Fourth showing the crop ahead so fast Wayne county farmers can almost see the blades grow while they wait.

—Married, at Allentown, July 5, Harry W. Pruemers of 315 Sixteenth street and Miss Julia Gieseke of 1227 East street. Both are very popular young people and their many friends join in extending congratulations.

—Borough Tax Collector Schuerholz has bills out announcing that all taxes paid on or before Sept. 24 will be entitled to the customary reduction of 5 per cent, but that all taxes paid from Sept. 24 to Jan. 28 will receive no reduction.

—Mrs. C. C. Miller and son, Frank, got here from Allentown on the 3.15 train Wednesday. The German Lutheran parsonage is not quite ready for them, so Mr. Miller took his wife and boy to the Wayne hotel, where he has stopped since he came to Honesdale.

—It would not be amiss for the town council to post notices at the entrances of our town, warning autos to keep within the speed limit regulated by law. Put up notices according to the act of assembly, black and white letters not less than six inches in height.—Milford Dispatch.

—Judge Henry Wilson is moving his law office to the Dimmick offices next the postoffice. He has been in C. C. Jadwin's building 40 years as lawyer-editor and lawyer, and his departure seems like the disappearance of a part of The Citizen's office furniture. The management and employees of this paper expect to miss his delightful personality, but they are glad that, having decided to go, he is taking his desk, his books and his convivial accomplishments to a spot not five minutes' walk away. E. A. Penniman, who has been close to the judge since 1870, will have "desk room" at the new headquarters, and he has consented, as a special favor to the editor of The Citizen, to call two or three times a day for a cluster of state exchanges with which to while away leisure minutes. The Woman's National Daily of St. Louis, a Journal Mr. Penniman particularly admires, will be laid out every day where the gentleman can readily find it. The ex-editor keeps sharply in touch with the topics of his time and a day without plenty of Pennsylvania papers would be a day in Tophet for Penniman. No wishes save good ones go with the two old boys as they leave the home of years behind.

—The Carbondale Presbyterians had their picnic at Lake Lodore on the Fourth.

—In the Presbyterian church Sunday Dr. Swift will take for his topic "The Cup of Elijah; a Story and a Vision."

—Miss Edith Tolley has just completed a thorough course in book-keeping, comprising single and double entry.

—Miss Minnie Counterman of Waymart, a niece of the bride, was one of the flower girls at the Horrow-Hockrine wedding last week in Tobyhanna.

—Services at the First Baptist church as usual next Lord's day, 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. The pastor will preach at both services. The Bible school meets at 11.45 o'clock.

—Several changes in agents are being made on the D. & H. The agent at Peckville, B. C. Leach, is let out, and F. H. Surine of Jermyn succeeds him. Leon Edwards of Mayfield succeeds Mr. Surine and George Gibb of Winton succeeds Mr. Edwards.

—Good cigars and good nature are in evidence today wherever Ben Robinson, the amiable insurance man, takes his way. At midnight Tuesday Mrs. Robinson presented her husband with a bouncing girl baby and the joy of its paternal parent is unconfined.

—William H. Hawken, Eugene V. Coleman, William H. Seltz, George Rodine and John Gogard of the Irving Cut Glass company are at Duck Harbor on a fishing trip. Hawken and Seltz went to the fishing grounds in an automobile. The party will be gone only a few days, but the five men expect to bring the auto back full of fish.

—The Scranton Lace Curtain company is after a trademark. Any individual knowing a word short and suggestive of the excellence of the company's products stands a chance to win $100 in gold before Sept. 1. The contest is open to anyone and contestants are permitted to submit as many names as desired. The selection of a winner has been left to a special committee, of which former Mayor J. Benjamin Dimmick is president.

—Frank P. Kimble has bought all the stock Nelson J. Spencer owned in the Honesdale Herald and Mr. Spencer got his check for the amount Tuesday. Mr. Spencer was editor of the paper up to June 10, when he left to go into the job printing business with his brother George. He said yesterday that he was suited with the terms he had been able to make for the disposal of his interest in the business, and that his new enterprise is coming nicely.

—Mayor A. L. Sahn and City Engineer Benjamin Anthony of Carbondale went Tuesday to Harrisburg, where they consulted State Health Commissioner Samuel Dixon relative to the sewer system in the city. Several sewers are being held up at present, awaiting permits from the state health authorities, and the visit of the mayor and city engineer was for the purpose of getting permission for a stated period to have several sewers built throughout the city.

—The contractors on the Dyberry state road continue to have trouble getting the help they need. They could make some sort of time if they had 50 men on the job, but there are seldom more than 40 available. The day after the Fourth the force fell down to 17. The next day is rose to 27. The firm advertised for help and there was some new blood obtained that way, but yesterday George Seaman, who all along has given the preference to local labor, was forced to put on some Italians. From this time forward, Mr. Seaman said yesterday, his firm will hire any man they can get, in order to press the job along and make a dollar if they can.

—Scranton Elks are going to the national convention of the order at Detroit next week with a well-developed boom to make J. D. Jones esteemed grand loyal knight. They will wear badges setting forth that they want Mr. Jones for this high office and present indications are that he will get the place. He is now grand esteemed lecturing knight. It is expected that enough Scranton Elks will take the trip to make a good showing in the big parade. There will probably be about 25 from there in attendance. Some will go on the special train to be run by the Binghamton lodge, and one party is going to make the trip by auto. The others will go on the regular trains.

—Although he is an undertaker, J. Sam Brown is well supplied with that saving sense of humor which makes life worth living to rational men. He figures he is $1000 better off today than he was Monday. Mr. Brown admired Jim Jeffries, and he admits that if he had put any money on the Reno fight his bet would have been planned to the boiler-maker whose powerful jolts put Jim Corbett and Bob Fitzsimmons out twice apiece. "That's what I call making $1000 by staying at home on a holiday," says Mr. Brown, who coupled this remark with an observation that no man careful about his dollars would bet without going to the training quarters to take a peep at the men. Little Jeffries or Johnson money was put up in Honesdale. The traveling men at the hotels all talked Jeffries, but they only wagered cigars. The conclusive victory of the Galveston darkey really surprised few sporting men hereabouts.

—The annual picnic of the A. F. of M. will be held at Bellevue park Saturday evening.

—Fred Michels, who put in a new bar last week, started Wednesday to put in a cellarway.

—Fred W. Butler has gone to Scranton, where he has accepted a position with C. E. Rogers, the jeweler.

—Rev. George S. Wendell will conduct public worship and preach a sermon at the Dyberry Baptist church Sunday at 2.30 p. m.

—The Nickeliet went into the hands of the painters and decorators Tuesday. They will work on it for a fortnight or more and make the little playhouse an up-to-date picture shop.

—Workmen employed by the state are tearing down the old dancing pavilion at Farview and the lumber secured in this way will be used in the construction of the new building for the state asylum for the criminal insane.

—A brush fire started by some boys on Second street Wednesday afternoon about 2 o'clock alarmed a few people on the street by threatening to spread, but the flames were promptly stamped out and the scare was all for nothing.

—About 30 friends of Mrs. Susan Jenkins will go to Waymart Friday on the noon train, and will take dinner at the Ensign house at 5.30 p. m., returning on the evening train.

—William Jacobs of Syracuse, N. Y., is visiting friends and relatives here.

—Local No. 92, American Flint Glass Workers' union, will hold their second annual picnic July 30, three weeks from next Saturday, in Bellevue park. Plans are now being made by the committee for a royal outing and there will be plenty of estates and an abundance of amusements for old and young. Sonner's full orchestra has been engaged for the music.

—As the paper goes to press the young folks of the Presbyterian church's Christian Endeavor society are setting their tables on the lawn for the ice cream sale, which is certain to be a success. The Endeavorers have the reputation of being tiptop entertainers when it comes to ice cream, and they will probably have a snug profit to encourage them when the books are balanced.

—Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Jermyn of Scranton entertained the following at a clam bake at their cottage at Lake Ariel: Misses Elizabeth Jermyn, Helen Bessell, Lillian Connell, Margaret Bessell of Scranton; Ellen Pomeroy of Reading, and Ned Jermyn, Wade Bunting, William Jermyn, Jack Jermyn of Scranton; Lew Wallace of Indianapolis, Ind.; Ed. Hoover and Morris Wilson of Chicago, Ill.

—As this city has attained a splendid reputation up and down the valley as being a fine town for baseball, Manager Murtha is daily receiving telegrams from the best amateur teams in this section of the state for games to be played with the newly organized team. Last night a game was arranged with the East Stroudsburg Normal school team, to be played at the new West Side park. Stroudsburg is one of the fastest amateur aggregations of ball tossers in this section of the state and in a recent tour through this section they demonstrated their ability to play ball. They played a 13-inning game in Honesdale and also played a very close game with the Archbald team.—Carbondale Leader.

—Farmer Dennie drove to Waymart one day last week and purchased a No. 1 hayrake, but before leaving town with his rake tied to the rear end of his wagon he stopped at Merchant Dimond's to inquire the price of eggs and, finding the egg machine was still out of repair but under way of being repaired, he made up his mind to hustle home and gather up a few dozen of eggs before the machine raised the price, not thinking of the rake until he arrived home, when, to his surprise, the rake was missing. Going back over the road about one-half mile, he found the rake turned out of the road in as bad a shape as the egg machine at Merchant Dimond's store, minus the tongue.—Steele correspondent.

—The Buffalo Giants, the fast team Capt. Kupfer expected to have here Saturday, cannot come. The captain got a telegram to that effect last night and at once commenced telegraphing and telephoning for a team, but up to today he had not succeeded in arranging a Saturday game and the probability is there will be none. A series with White Mills for $25 a side has been arranged and the first game will be played here July 16. The Honesdale team is a good aggregation for so small a place and should receive better support. The White Mills series will be worth seeing and the crowds ought to turn out and cheer the home nine. Capt. Kupfer would get Drifton here again, but the expense of procuring such a team is considerable. They came for the Fourth on a 60-per cent. agreement and the local management lost money.

Stomach Misery Over Six Years

Read what Mr. Hoffman, landlord of the Webster Hotel, writes:

"I suffered misery and intense pains from stomach trouble for over six years, and all the doctoring that I did or medicines I used were of no avail until about two years ago, when I used a treatment of Mi-o-na. The first few days' treatment helped me greatly and upon using it a while I was made entirely free from any stomach trouble or complaint whatever. Since the cure by Mi-o-na I have regained my weight, I eat and sleep well, am never nervous, and my entire general health is much better."—Max M. Hoffman, Webster, N. Y., Aug. 2, 1909.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets relieve distress in five minutes. They act like magic. They are guaranteed to cure sour stomach, gas eructations, heartburn, dizziness, biliousness and nervousness, or money back. For sale by druggists everywhere and by G. W. Pell for 50 cents a large box.

Try Booth's Pills for constipation; they never disappoint, 25c.
