CLINTON.

Fourth Was Safe and Sane. With Good Entertainment—Notes.

Everybody knows the weather in Wayne county Monday. The excessive heat of the day before made the morning seem cool.

The gathering at Moosic Grange hall passed off pleasantly and we have no casualties to report. The speaker of the afternoon was Mr. Dorset, the State Grange lecturer, whom the Grange was very fortunate to have for the day. He gave a short address in the evening. The drama given was good. Mr. Kerney deserves praise for his kindness in taking part. The whole affair was laughable.

BEACH LAKE.

Boy Has Close Call From Injury—Valuable Horses Die.

Another Fourth has come and gone and nothing very eventful has happened in this community.

The little three-year-old son of T. Treverton had a very narrow escape from death. He rushed in front of a high swing that two men were swinging and that had four persons in it. He was struck and thrown a long distance, and was picked up bruised and bleeding, but it was soon ascertained that no bones were broken.

Some of the visitors entertained at present are William Babcock and daughter Nellie, Mrs. Brong and daughter, Nellie, also her brother, Mrs. Susie Budd and William Sitgraves and Herman Van Wert and wife, all of Peckville; Mrs. Twining and daughter, Adelaide of Binghamton, N. Y.; Bert Hiller of Honesdale, Mildred and Gilbert Oliver of Green Ridge. Absent from home are Mabel and Bessie Decker, Ira Mitchell and Mrs. Nelson McIntire.

Daniel Oliver, Sr., lies at the point of death. He is a man over 80 years old and has always been a strong man, but time will do its work.

W. Van Wert's team of horses died very suddenly Saturday night. They were all right in the morning and he went to Narrowsburg and got a load of boarders in the afternoon. He drove to Honesdale and on his way home one died. When he got as far as W. Dunn's the other one gave out and after suffering two or three hours he expired. They were a valuable team and Mr. Van Wert feels the loss greatly. Just at this time of the year the loss is greater than at any other time.

Delbert McIntire is a great sufferer from rheumatism.

John Gregory spent Sunday with his family at this place. He has employment at Peckville.

Frank Warfield sold his valuable horse, so he and a number of others attended the horse sale at Narrowsburg Saturday.

It is getting very dusty. We would be glad to see the "natural sprinkler" in use again.

Franklin county, and was apparently started by a spark from a locomotive. Two other forest fires in the Adirondacks were reported.

There has been no rain for two or three weeks in the Adirondacks excepting small local showers. The state forest, fish and game department is making preparations to meet emergencies in case serious forest fires should develop on the state preserves. Observation stations on lofty points and all the fire patrolmen are on the alert.

Curtiss Estimates His Speed Between Eighty and Ninety Miles an Hour.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 7.—A big breaker that ran up on the beach just swiftly enough to catch with its spray the whirling wheel of Glenn A. H. Curtiss' aeroplane split a blade on his propeller and forced him to drop quickly to the beach. After the propeller had been fixed Curtiss took his seat and soared off over the ocean in a sharp breeze. With the wind behind him in the long stretch down the beach Curtiss estimated that he reached a speed of between eighty and ninety miles an hour.

Norwich, N. Y., Quaker Sold His Cattle to See the Jeffries-Johnson Bout.

Utica, N. Y., July 7.—Lorenzo Reynolds, a Quaker of Norwich, sold his cattle for $700 and started for Reno ten days ago to see the prizefight. His family fear he has met with foul play, for in addition to two postcards, the last one bearing date of Chicago, the only trace of him is his return ticket, picked up in the Chicago stockyard and returned to Norwich where he bought it. He had all told about $800 with him, and his family think he was murdered and robbed.

Eight fine bass were caught by Ludwig Weichsel. His act probably saved other stills and oil tanks from exploding.

Munson Says That Judges Loaf.

A Cape May dispatch says: The Pennsylvania Bar association at its sessions here rejected the code of ethics submitted by its committee on that subject and accepted the minority report, which favored the adoption of the code prepared by the American Bar association. There was a spirited debate on the subject, during which some of the speakers urged that neither be accepted.

Judge Robert Ralston, of Philadelphia led the attack on the proposed code, while it was defended by Alexander Simpson, the chairman of the committee which had prepared it.

C. La Rue Munson of Williamsport in speaking on the subject said there should be embodied in the code an injunction binding upon the judges that they should be diligent in discharging the duties of their high office.

"I know of a certain judge in Pennsylvania," said Mr. Munson, "who has sat upon the bench for nine years and it is a fact that there are about twenty cases that came before him early in his career that he has not yet disposed of."
