Jesse Wood of Waymart has been admitted to the City Private hospital in Carbondale for treatment.

The annual picnic of the Ladies' Improvement association of Texas No. 4 will take place Saturday, July 23, in Bellevue park.

The Wayne Cut Glass company, which was transferred from Honesdale to Towanda, having been acquired by Towanda capitalists, is doing a prosperous business already. Large orders have been booked, and the quality of work turned out is said to compare favorably with any in the country.

Hon. B. E. Brown, a former associate judge of Pike county, who for several years has been conducting a resort at DeLand, Fla., with his son Robert arrived at Milford, July 1 and will manage The Homestead this season. His father, A. D. Brown, is not enjoying his usual good health and under the doctor's orders is taking a rest from business.

Binghamton, N. Y., expects to welcome one of the largest crowds in its history in September, when the annual Binghamton fair will be supplemented for the first time by the "Carnival Bingo." The big fair will be held Sept. 27, 28, 29 and 30, and the carnival will be held on the nights of Sept. 28 and 29. It is planned to make Binghamton hum by day and howl by night. Excursion trains will run all four days.

At a meeting of the committee in charge of St. Paul's Evangelical church excursion, which will be held at Lake Lodore on July 14, arrangements for the event were practically completed. This is the fifth annual outing of this Scranton parish and as in previous years a complete success is looked for. A committee of 12 men and 17 women are in charge of the arrangements and they are working zealously toward this end. Michael Volz, as chairman, Edward Kroll, secretary and John Roth, treasurer, are at the head of the committee.

Many are making arrangements to attend the outing given at Lake Lodore July 29 by the Druid Societies and Glee clubs of Carbondale and Olyphant. A great many games are being arranged to help pass the day in a pleasant manner.

Patrick J. Mannion, the genial and obliging clerk at the Harrison house, Carbondale, has resigned his position to accept a more lucrative one with Frank P. Grown. He will be succeeded by Frank O'Neill, a former hotelkeeper of Pleasant Mount.

The First Aid society excursion to Lake Lodore will go today from Jermyn and it is expected there will be a big day. The First Aid from Mayfield will also run an excursion to the same place and one of the features of the big event will be a ball game between clubs representing the two places.

Mifflin streets never were in a better or more satisfactory condition. They were prepared before the oil was applied, it was judiciously spread, and the result is no dust and a hard, smooth roadway. The council merits the thanks of the public, and the V. I. A. is also included for its generosity, for this excellent condition. The side streets also will be treated and practically the whole town will be dustless.—Pike County Press.

The friends, and they are numerous, of a successful salesman in town announce that on a recent Sunday he drove over to Callicoon, N. Y., in a smart livery rig with red wheels and rubber tires, only to find his petticoat partner of previous outings had married since last time. He says it is a grave mistake to suppose the roses never bloom but once, and that he will get another charmer somewhere, in Callicoon or another town.

Mrs. Peter McAndrew died at her home on Scotch street in Olyphant, Thursday afternoon after a few weeks' sickness. Deceased was born in Ireland, but came to America when a young woman. After residing a short time in Hawley she moved to Olyphant, where she had resided ever since. She was a kindly Christian woman and was held in the highest esteem by everyone. Only eight weeks ago she buried her son, Jail Warden John McAndrew. Two daughters, Mrs. Mary Dietrich and Miss Nellie McAndrew, and one son, Michael McAndrew, survive her.

The man who wrestles with the cow and learns the calves to suck, who casts the corn before the swine, is now in the greatest luck, for butter's on the upper grade, veal's higher than a kite, pork is climbing up the scale and beef is out of sight; eggs he gathers every day from his Poland chicken coop are almost worth their weight in gold and we are in the soup. His corn brings him a fancy price, it's rising every day and he rakes in all kinds of men for a half load of hay. The farmer is in the saddle and when he comes to town the rest of us by right should go way back and sit down.

The latest smallpox victim in the Mid-Valley district is Arthur Thomas, son of Thomas R. Thomas of Gravity street, Olyphant. The Thomas residence has been placed under quarantine. The case has been reported to Dr. J. C. Riffner and is being attended by Dr. R. J. Lloyd and Dr. W. W. Jenkins.

The origin of the case was traced to a visit young Thomas paid to his brother in Jermyn. Soon after the visit the older brother was found to be a smallpox victim, but he is better now. It is only a slight attack, and no great danger is feared. There is only one case under quarantine in Dickson city. Alfred Hawrank, the victim, is progressing nicely.

Boys, and possibly some persons that have left boyhood behind, have broken a number of the benches in the Honesdale parks. The Ladies' Improvement association plans to put a stop to this bench-breaking business by installing benches of concrete that can't be smashed or whittled. It is intended to have at least a dozen of them as an experiment, and more if they fill the bill. Two benches at the golf grounds were broken and some in Riverside and Central parks got the same medicine from occupants who did not know enough to take as good care of public property as they would of their own. All the benches in Central park have been whittled more or less and rowdies have dumped considerable dirt into the fountain. The police have been notified to get the guilty parties but so far there have been no arrests.

J. N. Welch caught four rats in a trap that he set in his office last Thursday. He says his place used to be ratless, but that since Judge Wilson and E. A. Penniman, the judge's pal of years, commenced to take their traps out of the office next door, the rodent population has been coming across in great shape and finally he had to get a trap and some cheese to terminate their unwelcome sociability. There was a time, some years ago, when the office of The Citizen was a prime stamping ground for rats, and one memorable night the steel jaws of an automatic gathered in 27 of them and cleaned out the whole rat colony for a season. The rats emigrated to the judge's law office on about the time he dropped his newspapering and, now that he has moved, they have gone on up the line to stop with Mr. Welch. The insurance man says he will exterminate the whole tribe if he has to fire the building in order to smoke the black and gray miscreants out of their fastnesses.

There will be an ice cream social on H. E. Decker's lawn in Calkins Friday, July 22, the proceeds to go to the Sunday school.

The Association of Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., composed of five counties in northeastern Pennsylvania, will meet in Honesdale Saturday at 2 and 7:30 p.m. Violet Rebekah Lodge will welcome all visitors of the degrees.

Friday the 12:25 D. & H. train took a party of 39 women and three men from Honesdale to Waymart, where the 42 happy pilgrims ate a splendid dinner at H. C. Ensign's. Mrs. William G. Jenkins arranged the outing, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all hands.

The Crown Cut Glass company has been granted a charter. This plant has a capital of $5,000. The incorporators are R. E. Fasshauer, T. N. Walsh, Peter E. Weidner, W. D. Bonear, Honesdale, and William Heney, Seelyville.

The Merry Heart club returned from an enjoyable week at Packem Inn, their camp at Elk Lake, on Friday. The following were the campers: Tom Prosch, Dr. Dick Bishop, Harry Krantz, Jackie Reif, Billie Ward, Tackie Hawken, Trixie Charlesworth and Jimmie Jacob.

The following are camping at Elk Lake this week: Misses Marie Bracey, Margaret Donnelly, Lillian Barber, Frances Demer, Helen Oaks, Mae McGraw, Hortense McKenna, Vera Tuman of Scranton. They are chaperoned by Misses Alice McKenna, and Essie Kelly. On Sunday they entertained Misses Mame Demer, Marie McDermott, Bessie Kelley and Elizabeth Barber.

William Weaver, whose health is not what his numerous Wayne county friends could wish, returned Tuesday to Middletown, N.Y. He does not walk downstream, but, by the advice of his physician, remains in his room much of the time and gets plenty of sleep and freedom from business bother. Everyone who knows Mr. Weaver will be glad to see him restored to his old-time robustness and vigor.

Fred C. Hand, past exalted grand ruler of the Scranton lodge of Elks, has denied the story that the Elks would construct a 10-story building, for some time at least.

"There has been no meeting of the committee," he said, "and nothing has been done about it and won't be for at least a year. When the thing is decided bids will be advertised for, but the size of the building or the material has not even been discussed."

In Maennerchor hall Thursday night Fred Foster, formerly of Honesdale, now of Scranton, will wrestle Miles Fitch of Carbondale for $50. Both will weigh about 130. Old Honesdale and White Mills friends of Foster will, they say, be on hand to howl for him, and Carbondale will send down a Fitch delegation. There is considerable interest in this match. Both men are clever on the mat, and there has been some betting in both places at even money.

Scranton's new and largest hostelry, Hotel Casey, is expected to be opened for business by Oct. 15. The opening may come Oct. 1, but present indications are that it will not come before Oct. 15. The furnishings have all been ordered and are ready to be delivered on a couple of days' notice. They are among the finest ever put into a hotel and will cost about $100,000.

Scranton's handsome Hotel Jermyn will be closed for at least three months, beginning the first day of February. The lease of the present lessee, F. S. Godfrey, who has run the hotel since it was opened years ago, expires April 1.

Inasmuch as the Jermyn estate declines to take any of the hotel furnishings or stock of Godfrey's hands, he has decided to have an auction sale from February 1 until April 1. There are 204 bedrooms in the hotel, a number of parlors, bar room, billiard room, dining room, etc., which cost about $75,000 to furnish when the hotel was first opened. It is understood in Honesdale, and it is not generally denied in Scranton, that the Jermyn has been a losing proposition.

The first game of the Honesdale-White Mills series arranged Friday by Capt. Kupfer and the White Mills management at a meeting in the latter place will come Saturday afternoon at 3 and will be played here. The teams are matched for $25 a side. The Honesdale captain wants his home folks to turn out that day and give the visitors to understand Honesdale is a ball town where fast games between good teams are appreciated. Up to the present time the support has been a bit below Capt. Kupfer's expectations. He has put in a great deal of hard work personally to get his men in shape, and all his players have practiced diligently, with the result that the Honesdale nine today is in the pink of condition to put up a tough tussle with all comers on the diamond.

In Hessling, the older pitcher, and Gregor, the young southpaw who was used in one of the Dritton games on the Fourth, Honesdale has two clever boxmen, and the support given the pitchers is improving. White Mills will come to the county seat with a strengthened team, prepared to give Capt. Kupfer's boys a battle royal. They should not be greeted by a slim crowd.

Miss Alice Schoonover was taken to Scranton hospital Sunday to be treated for her eyes, which have bothered her for some time. It is hoped her sight can be saved.

On Monday evening Lucille Rowland entertained a number of friends at the golf links in honor of her friend, Miss Rosina Henley of New York. Helen Bertram greatly pleased those present with a number of vocal solos.

Jermyn is one of the three Pennsylvania towns that have made application for the establishment of a postal savings bank in its post-office. The other two are Pottsville and Myersdale. No bank will be established anywhere until fall.

Myron E. Dodge was operated on for appendicitis at Miss Hattier's private hospital on Eleventh street Friday, the surgeon being Dr. Smith of H. B. Ely. Mr. Dodge was very weak Saturday, but since then has been improving.

The Newburgh (N. Y.) News says that Hon. and Mrs. B. B. Odell, Jr., and daughter, Miss Estelle Odell will sail from New York for Europe Saturday, July 16, for a six weeks tour abroad. They will spend considerable time in Germany. Gov. Odell will not talk politics with anybody.

The crop of local humorists does not fall, even in dry weather. In the place of business of a certain tolerably well known citizen on Main street there hangs this sign, so plain and distinct that he who runs may read: We have four banks in Honesdale. Don't come to me for cash. I'm not a bank.

Miss Tillie Derrick, one of the alert, up-and-coming table girls at Landlord John H. Weaver's Wayne hotel, has given her notice for Saturday, when she expects to return to her home in Aldenville to work in the cut glass factory. She takes with her the best wishes of her employer and the patrons of the hotel.

The Skat club at a meeting Sunday elected Leopold Blumenthal vice-president to succeed Henry Schoell, who did not want another term, and Leo Freeman treasurer in place of John Crogan. The club's annual outing, bound to be a good one, is in the hands of a committee. The outing will come in August.

Enos W. Gregory, 41 years old, died at his home in Dyberry Monday afternoon after a lingering sickness. He was a glass cutter by trade and well known in Honesdale and vicinity. He is survived by his widow, five children and five brothers and sisters. The funeral will take place from his home tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

George Polley, about 17 or 18, living at Seelyville and employed by the National Elevator and Machine company, was taken suddenly sick in the postoffice Saturday morning at 10:30, just as the mail that arrives on the 9:30 train from New York and Scranton was being worked. He felt sharp pains in his head and fell to the floor. The lobby was pretty full, as it invariably is at the mid-morning mail, and in the crowd was Dr. Neilson. He had the lad taken out and laid on the platform in front of Chester A. Garratt's law office, where a score of men gathered around the stricken Polley and offered to help. Dr. Brady presently appeared and assisted. Within half an hour young Polley revived and was taken home in a carriage. He said his head had been bothering him several days.
