COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

HAWLEY.

Low Water In The Paupack-Other Notes of Interest.

Mrs. Augusta Keyes of Church street has been entertaining her niece and husband of Lestershire, N. Y., and nephew, Marcey Ely of Honesdale.

The families of Dr. J. E. Tether and Ralph Turner are summering at

Lake Winola

Miss Lizzie Guinn, accompanied by her guests, Isabelle Ferguson of Port Jervis, Isabelle Robertson of Brooklyn and Effie Roe of Lebanon, Mo., also members of William Guinn's family and Mrs. Miles Wilds and children composed a picnic par- children of Brooklyn. ty that passed Wednesday up the Gustave Kleman of New York arrived Thursday for a short stay on his farm at Fowlertown.

Owing to Saturday afternoon being a half holiday and, in consequence, no electrical power available. Dreamland now gives a midweek performance Wednesday afternoons.

Adam Steltz and family have the following visitors: Mrs. John Goeckler and little daughter, Clara Agnes, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Lauretta Beilman of New Britain, Conn.

land, is visiting friends in Pittsburg and Massillon, Ohio.

James D. Ames succeeds C. Houck in the First National bank. Mr. Ames's position in the silk mill will be filled by Ray Cross.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Voigt and little son, Arno, have been visiting with the lawn. Mrs. Voigt's brother, Thomas Shanley, in New Haven, Conn., returning Saturday.

Mrs. Brigham returned to her Her little daughter, Alice, was christened in the Presbyterian church Sunday, July 10.

Mrs. Harriet Ames and son, Gaston W., have returned from a visit with New Jersey friends.

Mrs. Friend Tuttle and Mrs. Wesniece and her children of Port Allegheny.

Mrs. F. W. Suydam, son Durland and servants will go to Big pond this week to occupy her cottage during the remainder of the summer. Mr. Suydam will drive to his business mornings, returning to the pond in the evening.

Owing to low water in the Paupack, the silk mill company have put in their flashboards.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hardler Friday.

Chester Pennell of Ariel Junction was in town Saturday.

M. J. McAndrew, ticket agent at the West Hawley station, was elected meeting of the borough council.

home of Henry Eck at Tafton.

ride to Big pond Friday evening. Mrs. James Drake and daughte Gertrude, passed Saturday at Lake- Dreher. They came by automobile. ville.

STEENE.

Ice Company To Prohibit Fishing? -Hay Heip Scarce and High.

The Bobolink is through having and will now help his neighbors out Mrs. J. H. Greene, has been serious-Samuel Arthur of Carbondale visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Arthur, at Steene Sunday, Gaylon Perry of Carbondale visited friends at Steene Sunday.

William Wood is doing Edward Keen's having by contract. Hay is a good, fair crop in this section. Thomas Arthur is looking after the Cole brothers' haying. He says the grass is so heavy it takes two teams to handle the machine and two men to follow it to keep the grass away for the next round.

Mrs. J. E. Haley is on the sick list. John Batron, who has been seriously sick the last two months, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Thomas Arthur is visiting a few days with friends at Carbondale. Miss Florence Dennie was the lucky contestant for the Steene school teachership the coming sea-

Farmer Dennie has let his big job of haying out to two boys. He says they will make it all right if he gives them time. Help is scarce in the hay field. Good men are demanding $2 per day and board. It is reported that the Lake Lodore Ice company will allow no more fishing on their several lakes in this section and will ask the law to uphold them. Henry Hogencamp's new barn, 30x40, is completed. He will now proceed to fill it with hay and grain.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Williams of Carbondale are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hubbard.

Mrs. Frank Chapman returned to her home last week, after visiting a week with friends in Wilkes-Barre and Carbondale.

ORSON.

Grange Activity-Hine Reunion_3 Samuel L. Gilmore of Louisville Suc-Local Improvements.

State Lecturer E. B. Dorsett of Mansfield spent several days in town Louisiana district, died at his home at work. At the open session in the Albina Springs after a prolonged illevening at the Grange rooms after ness.

the lecture ice cream and cake were served Philadelphia. Miss Johnson of who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Whipple, has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Mantle, son Norman and daughter Gladys. Honesdale, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned. Master Harold Katz is at the home of D. J. Hine. Mrs. A. F. Hine is at the home of her sister, Mrs. Irvin Blanchard.

In Cooperstown, N. Y. The Hine reunion will be held this year in Palmer's grove August 9. A special program is being arranged. It is expected they will meet at the home of one of the neighbors.

Mrs. E. P. Harlow entertained her mother and sister from Brooklyn, Y., recently, and has now with her another sister, Mrs. McKeon, and Miss Wanda Keeney is teaching at the stone schoolhouse. Miss Irene Kadz and friend from Scranton are visiting at the home of D. J. Hine. Mrs. Moser and three children of Crawford, N. J., are at the home of

H. Lee. Mrs. H. G. Palmer is quite sick. John Lewis has much improved his mill, having built an addition and given it a coat of paint and a name. Orson hardly needs an improvement society, as most of the people here seem to work along that line. The Mutual Milk and Cream com-Eugene Bea, the vocalist at Dream- pany are making vast improvements. With W. G. Mosher and Smith Hine as overseer and manager, everything is progressing finely. The young people of the Epworth league will hold a literary social at the home of D. P. Hine Friday night. Ice cream and cake will be served on

Mr. and Mrs. Salisbury and Mr. and Mrs. Larson of Thompson spent Wednesday with friends.

Mrs. Fred Waden and two daughhome in Port Jervis, N. Y., the first ters, Grace and Lillie, of Jermyn are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mrs. Waden has been in Palmer. poor health some time.

Mrs. Charles Young, who is spending the summer at her parents' home, spent the past two weeks in the metropolis and on her return ley Pierson are entertaining their brought with her Mr. and Mrs. Bundy, who will board at Hotel Sillsbee.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mosher spent several days in New York last week. Miss Margaret Smith and Esther Lloyd are the teachers in the school.

Miss Marie Thorn of Philadelphia visitors at the summer home of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Evans.

DREHER.

Birthday Party For Old Vet-Quarantined for Diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Batzel, residing near Angels. entertained about 20 relatives and friends Satborough treasurer at the recent urday evening in honor of Mr. Batzel's 59th birthday. The evening Mr. and Mrs. Kinnie and their was pleasantly spent in a social way two children passed Sunday at the and a rare treat of ice cream, cake and other good things followed. Mr. The Elite social club took a joy- Batzel is a veteran of the war.

Henry Eck and family of Hawley re visiting relatives and friends in Miss Martha Seigel of Carbondale is the guest of J. W. Kerr and fam-

July 15 Justice of the Peace H. M. Jones, at the residence of J. P. Eck. married Walter D. Eck of Dreher and Mrs. Belle King of Scranton.

Harvey Greene, son of Mr. and ly afflicted with a carbuncle on his left eye. Drs. Gilpin and Simons, also Dr. Kerling of Gouldsboro, were called in consultation, and for a time his condition was serious, but at present he is improving. His eyesight will be affected, however.

Ward Gilpin of Duluth, Minn., has been seriously sick with diphtheria and is under the care of Dr. Gilpin. In company with his mother, Mrs. Bell Gilpin, he is visiting at home of Aleck Kilpin and family, where the patient is quarantined and cared for. Mrs. Gilpin also has a light attack of diphtheria.

Leon Gilpin of Laanna, Pike county, who was quite badly burned with business course at the Eastman Busipowder by the premature discharge ness college, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. of a cannon July 4, is rapidly recovering, though he will carry the gaged in business with his father unmarks of the powder in his face for some time.

Haying is in full blast and everyone is unusually busy.

WHITES VALLEY.

Mrs. William Glover has returned after spending several days in Carbondale with her daughter, Mrs. Nelson Hutchins.

Mrs. William Fitze, daughter Madeline-and son William, are visiting 1909 he represented Wayne county at O. C. Miller's.

Mrs. L. E. Perkins and son, Gordon, of Forest City, are being entertained at D. E. Hacker's.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Russell left last week for New York, where they will spend several days with friends before returning to Augusta, Ga.

Erwin Dunning of Pleasant Mount called on friends here Sunday. William Hauser, who has been at his home sick, has recovered and returned to Forest City.

CONGRESSMAN DEAD.

cumbs.

New Orleans, July 19.-Congressman Samuel L. Gilmore of the Second and saddened Thursday night at 9 o'clock to learn over the telephone that Mayor William C. Ames was dead at his home in Hawley after 7.30 and the family were at the bedside when the sick man breathed his It had been known in Honesdale and Hawley for several days ago. that Mr. Ames was seriously sick, but hope for his recovery was held out by the doctors and it was believed the patient would rally. Mr. Ames made a brave fight for gained before the operation was altogether too great. He had a sinking spell early in the morning of the day he died and then the family was probably near.

HAWLEY'S MAYOR FAILS TO OBSTRUCTION OF THE BOW-ELS-WAS IN HONESDALE FORTNIGHT AGO AND WAS NOT FEELING WELL THEN.

A little more than two weeks ago Mr. Ames was in Honesdale on business. He looked after his errands here as quickly as possible, for he did not feel well that day and, while Tyler. Later, however, he found he he did not complain much to Honesdale friends who inquired about his health, he admitted he was not home and rest.

Mr. Ames was taken with abdomi- her house. nal pains on the train Wednesday while returning from a business trip to Scranton. Dr. Rodman was called as soon as Mr. Ames got tile drain from my mother's house home and found the cause to be ob- to the highway. We commenced to his condition became so serious the doctor advised an operation as the only means of saving his life. Dr. W. Smith of Scranton was telegraphed for and he, assisted by Drs. Rodman, Wall and Catterall, all of Hawley, performed the operation. Upon opening the abdomen they found general peritonitis had already developed and therefore they did not ascertain the cause of the obstruction, as it was then known the chances of recovery were very poor.

W. C. Ames was born in Hawley and had spent his life there. The off the blow. The hoe handle conditions contained therein. family was among the early settlers crashed down on my head, cutting and Mrs. Emmanuel of Pittsburg are of that borough and have been my hat. I got a skull wound, too. identified with it and prominent in its development practically since the town was founded. The triumvirate. Jacob and Reuben, engaged in the on my face. He gave me a black lumbering, farming and mercantile business for years and in addition were large dealers in cattle at a time when droving was in vogue and profitable. They also bought and baled for the market large quantities of hay, and in these various industries did a large business. Later the firm was dissolved and the partnership affairs divided among the three.

John H., the father of William C., engaged in business on his own account. William was educated in the

WILLIAM C. AMES

After completing his studies he entil the latter retired, about 13 years ago. He then purchased from J. F. Drake his livery business, which he had conducted since with marked success Mr. Ames had a genial and open disposition, which made and retained friends. In local affairs he served as a member of the town council and mayor. These positions he filled with satisfaction to borough residents and credit to himself. In as a delegate in the Republican state convention. Mr. Ames was one of Wayne's staunchest Republicans as well as prominent citizens. This year he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for rep-Jackson of Damascus, who was nominated.

Mr. Ames leaves his widow and two children, John and Louise. His brothers are Homer of Hawley and Erasmons of Dunmore.

The funeral was held from the house in Hawley Sunday afternoon at 2 and scores of friends, personal as well as business and political, came to pay the last tribute to the memory of one of Wayne county's most popular men. The services were conducted by Rev. Lucas of the German Lutheran church and Rev. Ripley of the Methodist church. Burial was in Hawley.

SIKE LORD IS LIKELY TO GO WANTS FRANCHISE

(Continued from Page One).

RALLY AFTER OPERATION FOR said, "own and live on properties that adjoin each other. The property my mother owns was formerly that of Mrs. I. L. Burcher, who was Honesdale friends were surprised formerly Mrs. Abner Hill. There is an unsettled dispute as to the boundary line between these properties which has been handed down for an operation for obstruction of the many years. Silas claiming the line howels. The end came peacefully at as surveyed encroaches on his property. A. V. Tyler made a survey

"This survey of Tyler did not satisfy Silas. It came within seven it shall obtain a franchise, and that feet of my mother's house, which it shall pay for damages caused by was then owned by Mrs. Hill, now the grading. It is also stipulated life, but the headway the disease had Mrs. Burcher. Lewis Collins, the county surveyor, was then engaged ches on either side of the track on Summer Gowns to run the lines, and his survey, it any street where the city shall pave seems, brought the line within five were given to understand the end feet of my mother's property. This evidently was not satisfactory, for the ordinance was referred to the Engineer Sandercock was next em- committee on railways. Two routes ployed to make a survey, and this are provided for in the ordinance, confirmed the one made by Mr. had made a mistake, so he resur- Front to Meadow avenue, along veyed and in so doing brought the Meadow to Moosic street, along Moovigorous and that he wanted to go line further over onto mother's property and within three feet of

"On the day of the fight, July 12, ton Railway company. Sam Reed and I started to lay a Silas and William had gone to work for Mr. Tyner, but they got a telewords started.

"I was in the ditch, which was erty, about 15 inches deep. William usually thick handle. He hit me I was momentarily stunned and at that moment William jumped down John, the father of William C., on me and commenced to rain blows eye, too.

"Well, at this point mother heard the fracas and ran out of the house. She tried, of course, to protect me back and head. Mother claimed she was on her own property at the time Richard Ham. and was simply trying to protect me.

Hawley schools and later took a was in the trench, partly, with Wilceeded in turning William over and Rock farm at having. getting on top myself, and at that he agreed to stop. "Mother did not see Reed and Silas fighting, for her time and at- at Narrowsburg, N. Y., Saturday. tention were taken up with my fight with William. She did not strike doing Mr. Tuthill's having. anybody, at any time or in any way, but she says that while William and I were fighting she picked up a hoe, intending to hit William, but Reed, after he finished his fight with Silas. came up and took the hoe away from her. It was then that she saw Silas Thomas Ham, has returned. Lord had been struck and hurt, for he was bleeding, but it all happened while her back was turned and while she was engrossed in the scrap in the ditch between Millard and myself. "The whole affair did not occupy more than three or four minutes and everybody in it was too busy with his own part to see anything outside the range of his own trouble, for liam and I and one between Reed and Silas. The fight between William and I very naturally took up all my mother's attention."

At Madisonville Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ives are entertaining her mother, Mrs. Kramer of Newfoundland, also Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith and son of Stroudsburg.

Robert Pitman is home from a fortnight's trip to New York, Rhode Island and Boston. He enjoyed himself, and at the Rhode Island resentative and ran second to H. C. beaches he put on a fair coat of tan.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hawken and daughter of East street returned home the first of the week from Beach Lake in their automobile in 20 minutes, after a few days' outing at the West Shore house.

William H. Swift and family have gone to Lake Minnewaska, a cool spot among the hills of Ulster county, N. Y. Dr. Swift and his family here. will join the William H. Swift remain all through August.

Rev. James Rainey, pastor of the Aldenville Baptist church, was pleasant caller in town Saturday.

"My mother and Silas Lord," he SCRANTON AND LAKE ARIEL ROAD TAKES FIRST STEP TO-WARD GETTING INTO SCRAN-TON-TWO ROUTES PROPOSED AND BOTH ARE PRESENTED TO ELECTRIC CITY COUNCIL.

> A special from Scranton says: The Scranton and Lake Ariel Railroad company Thursday night took the first step toward securing a franchise from the city for entrance over the streets of South Scranton as far as the Spruce street bridge.

An ordinance was introduced by and staked the line over 10 years Albert Davis of the Fifth ward at the request of the company. The measure provides that the company shall grade all streets for which that the railway company shall pave between its tracks and 12 hereafter, or where there may be pave at the time the streets are occupied. Upon motion of Mr. Davis, either or both of which may be used by the company in its plans. One route starts at Front street, along sic street to Pittston avenue, along Our Store at Mid-Summer Pittston avenue to the Spruce street bridge, where it is proposed to gain Clearing Prices. the use of the tracks of the Scran-

The other route the promoters have in mind begins at the intersection of Moosic street and Stone avenue, after making the trip from struction of the bowels. Thursday dig a ditch which, we claim, would Pittston avenue to Moosic street. come within the three-foot limit. From Moosic street the route runs along Stone avenue to Hemlock street, to South Quincy avenue, along Willow street to Crown avenue, phone call that Sam and I were dig- along Crown avenue to River street ging the ditch. They hurried home to the old road leading to Lake and as soon as they came a war of Scranton, along that road to the intersection of the old abandoned Cobb road, and thence to the Hill prop-

The management must file an accame up with a hoe that had an un- ceptance of the franchise within 60 days of its approval by the mayor, and must deposit a bond of $10,000 and I tried with my arm to ward to ensure faithful performance of the INDIAN ORCHARD.

Saturday's rain greatly refreshed vegetation. Most crops are doing well: hay is a better crop this year than it was last year.

The Berlin school directors met at Laurella Monday and hired the following teachers: Freddie Frey, East Berlin; Anna Smith, Troop's Corners; Ina Mitchell, East Beach Lake; Miss Dexter, Beach Lake; O. D. Henfrom William's onslaught. Silas shaw, Vina Hill; Edith Marshall, came up then and hit her on the Laurella; Miss O'Neil, Swamp Brook. William Cosgrove and family of White Mills are with Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. May Richmond of East Hones-"Just then Reed came up with a dale was a visitor at the home of hoe and began to attack Silas. I her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Ira K. THURSDAY, AUG. 11, 1910, 2 P. M Bishop, Sunday, liam on top of me. I finally suc- assisting W. C. Spry of the Old Red Mrs. Stearns of Scranton, has been visiting her niece, Mabel Gray, has returned.

Ray Bayly was a business caller

August Smith of White Mills is

C. T. Weeks has reshingled and repainted his house. This community was shocked to learn of the sudden death of Wilham C. Ames of Hawley. Many

Mrs. Wesley Tuthill of Hawley, who has been visiting her father. John Case of White Mills is as-were well acquainted with him.

sisting Earl Ham haying. Joseph Saunders of East Honesdale is helping his brother-in-law, W. D. Buckingham, of the Chestnut Grove farm.

BEACH LAKE.

A number of Mrs. Babcock's friends wended their way to Camp Comfort Monday, where se is rusticating, taking with them things there were two fights in progress at that delight the appetite, to surprise the same time-one between Wil- and enjoy with her her 61st birthday. Her surprise was great and her enjoyment seemed boundless. Mrs. Garratt presented to her in be half of the friends a cut glass dish. This surprise was so great that the tears filled her eyes as she tried to thank them. Those present were Mesdames Brown, Spry, Wheeler, John Neal, J. P. Budd, Ives, Seymour, Garratt, Bradbury, Dunn, R. B. Davey, Tom Treverton, Van Wert, Judson, Davey, Sharp.

J. P. Budd is working at his trade

White Mills. in Mr. VanWert has bought a nice matched team, but the family still grieves for the old ones that came to such an untimely death.

Mrs. Eberspacher is making her son in Honesdale a visit. Mabel Olver, who has been spending her vacation week with her relatives here, has returned to Scranton.

Arthur Hull of New York is spending a few days with relatives

Mrs. Leah Sterling and daughter. party at the lake July 26 and will Charlotte, of New York are stopping with Mrs. M. P. Kesler.

Edna Cornish of Nyack, N. Y., is visiting at the home of J. D. Weston of Upper Main street.

Menner & Co. will close out all summer goods at low prices, 51el4

LET US PRINT YOUR BILL HEADS, LETTER HEADS, STATE-MENTS, NOTE HEADS, ENVEL-OPES, CIRCULARS, ETC., ETC.

LADIES' WAISTS and

You'll be amply able to dress as you want to, if you take advantage of buying Summer Suits.

Dresses and Waists at

Sun Umbrellas and Parasols

will be very much needed during the hot weather. Our entire stock to go at great reduction.

Jabots and Collars

Also come in for such attractions. We are showing an immense line from 10c. upwards.

KATZ BROS.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE. By virtue of process issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Wayne county, and State of Pennsylvania, and to me directed and delivered, I have levied on and will expose to public sale, at the Court House in Honesdale, on

All that certain lot or parcel of Chester Calkins of Beach Lake is land situate in the township of Scott, in the said county of Wayne. bounded and described as follows. who viz: On the south by the public highway leading from Scott Centre to Starrucca: on the east by lands of D M Smith Gus Waldler and Comodore Tarbox; on the north by lands of Christopher Karcher, W. S. Burleigh and B. F. Tewksbury; and on the west by lands of Lena Warren and lands of George Tarbox, including a lane on the southerly side between the public highway and lands of George Tarbox, leading from the above premises to the creek, as now fenced in, containing one hundred and twenty-seven acres, more or less. Being same premises which William Curtis, by will dated June 12, 1888, devised to Lauren Curtis. And same which Lauren Curtis et ux. by deed granted to Sidney L. Spicer and Cervila A. Spicer. On said premises are house, barn and other outbuildings

Seized and taken in execution as the property of Sidney L. Spicer and Cervila A. Spicer at the suit of Lauren Curtis. No. 110 March Term, 1910. Judgment $1135. Kimble, Attorney.

TAKE NOTICE-All bids and costs must be paid on day of sale or deeds will not be acknowledged. M. LEE BRAMAN, Sheriff.

Honesdale, Pa., July 16, 1910. N THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE MID-DLE DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVA-

In Bankruptcy No. 1688. In the matter of BENJAMIN SKIER, Bankrupt. To the creditors of Benjamin Skier of Hawley, county of Wayne, and district aforesaid, a bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given that on the eighteenth day of July A. D., 1910, the said Benjamin Skier was duly adjudged bankrupt; and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at the office of the Referee in bankruptcy at his office in the borough of Honesdale, county of Wayne. and within the said district upon the first day of August at two o'clock p. m., at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a Trustee, examine the bankrupt and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting. W. H. LEE, Referee in Bankruptcy. Honesdale, July 19, 1910.