CENT A WORD COLUMN

FOUND-On road between Pond containing stuff evidently belonging to a doctor. Finder may have same by proving property and paying for given by Wayne county people. John H. Weaver. 1t

FOR SALE-High bred trotting and pacing horses, brood mares and colts. A number can show 2,30 or better. A chance to get a good horse worth the money. J. J. Jermyn, 119 Wyoming avenue, Scran-

FOR SALE-My residence on eight sleeping rooms, five living rooms, three sun parlors, billiard and bath rooms. Everything in first class condition. M. J. Kelly.

LOST-Between Honesdale and Pond No. 1, on Beech Grove road, Sunday, case with medicines and instruments. Finder please return to Dr. McConvid.

FOR SALE-Kelly & Steinman brick factory building, including en-gine, boiler and shafting. Inquire of J. B. Robinson

ALL KINDS of legal blanks, notes, leases, deeds, warrants, bonds, sum-

FOR SALE-A walnut upholstering of sofa and two large enairs. Inquire Citizen Office.

LOCAL MENTION.

An exchange says that one-third of the fools in the country think they can beat a lawyer in expounding the law. One-half think they can beat the doctor in healing the sick. Twothirds of them think they can put the minister in a hole in preaching the gospel, and all of them think they can beat the editor in running a newspaper.

-The Kennedy reunion at Uniondale comes Thursday, Aug. 18.

-Mrs. Cummings has received and two horned toads.

-The Honesdale-Hawley automobile was out of commission a few hours yesterday while new tires were put on.

-Whatever your politics, The The latest and most comall at the cost of less than 3 cents per week. Subscribe today.

-The band concert to advertise the Shoemakers' picnic at Lake Lodore today drew a good crowd to the station last night, for all there was a smart rain falling. The candles and the rockets went up well. Carbondale comes here Saturday for the fourth game in the series tiger, attacking Mrs. Lesch at Hill- ing and settled. side Park, N. J., Saturday. The animal badly tore her left arm. Mrs. gave several performances with the animal here last winter.

-The fourth annual pienic of Wednesday, Aug. 17. Dinner will be served on the grounds. The Honesdale Fife and Drum corps will be present. A ball game will take place. Everybody is invited.

*-Four wagonloads of gypsies went through Hawley, White Mills and Honesdale to the fairgrounds Monday. They had eight handsome horses and a dozen comely women. In the woods near Indian Orchard one wagon lost a couple of nuts and the train was held up an hour to search for them.

-Wholesale prices on all grades in an increase in the retail price the Produce Exchange It was said the increase in price of milk by local dealers had nothing to do with of the market tub butter had adand fancy prints had increased to 32 cents, from 31 cents, wholesale. This is a high price for butter at this time of the year, but the season during which the price of butter increases is approaching and the advance is merely a little premature, it was said by dealers.

-E. E. Long, the Geneva, N. Y., mowing machine salesman who for the past five weeks has been work- It is one of the few links that bind ing this county, caught a finger in primitive pioneer days with the one of his own machines last week and he had to lay over in Honesdale people living in Pittston today who Saturday to have the injured diget treated. He sent for Dr. Harry B. launched. The close association of Searles, who bound up the finger Sunday afternoon at the Commer- Pittston from a river ferry hamlet cial hotel. Mr. Long, one of the to a city of enterprise and importmost jovial of traveling men, ance makes its history a constituent laughed loud and long when told part of the history of the city, and by some local men in Landlord the lnauguration of a new epoch in Weaver's office that the coroner had the life of the Gazette makes this a been summoned to attend to his fitting time for retrospection. The injuries. Among Wayne county Gazette is one of The Citizen's most farmers as well as through a wider appreciated exchanges and we are territory in which he operates Mr. glad to know the Pittston paper is Long has made a great many per- not only influential politically but Baltimore are visiting Honesdale line to Nova Scotia and the Bay of sonal friends.

concert at Bethany Saturday evening in the Presbyterian church. proceeds are for the benefit of the old cemetery fund.

-The Enterprise Grange will hold No. 1 and Honesdale, Sunday, satchel their picnic at Taylor's grove, Torrey, Wednesday. A good dinner will be served and several talks will be -Labor Grange, No. 1063, will hold their picnic at Burcher's grove, Calkins, Aug. 17. Dinner will be served and there will be music by the Honesdale Drum and Fife corps.

-Protection Engine company No. 3 will hold their regular meeting for August Wednesday evening instead of Tuesday. This is done in order that the members who may attend Wood avenue, house containing the Shoemakers' picnic may be present.

> -In the case of Albert A. Fitze vs. John T. Mills, both of Clinton, which was heard before Arbitrators J. Adam Kraft, Buel Dodge and F. W. Bunnell, the board has filed a finding for the plaintiff as to the land. The defendant, counsel said today, will take an appeal from the decision of the arbitrators.

-The Detroit convention being now a matter of history, the members of Scranton lodge of Elks, No. 123, are looking forward to the annual state reunion to be held in Bradford Aug. 23-25. An urgent invitation to send a delegation to monses, constable bonds, etc. Citizen march in the parade that will be one of the main features of the reunion is under consideration.

-The Susquehanna county fair is ed, parlor set of furniture consist- to be held Sept. 15-18. The Susquehanna County Agricultural society has survived 63 seasons and is still in the arena. As Susquehanna county can always produce the goods for an interesting agricultural exhibition, the Montrose fair will undoubtedly be one of the features of the fall for all time.

-Samuel B. Rambo, superintendent of the State capitol, who has just returned from a vacation trip to the lower reaches of the Susquebanna, is of the opinion that it is one of the great fishing streams. Mr. Rambo is one of Harrisburg's most ardent disciples of Isack Walton and has fished from the "falls" at Rockville down to the mouth of from Arizona friends two tarantulas the "wide-reaching" river of Indian

-Eli LaForge of Port Jervis, the conductor of the train that blocked the North street crossing of the Erie at Middletown twenty-five minutes Thursday morning, appeared in Citizen is the ideal paper for your Recorder's court, that city, Friday morning. He explained that he had plete news, the freshest locals and a train of 87 cars and that while it was on the North street crossing a drawhead pulled out and it was impossible to move the train any sooner than it was done. He paid a fine of $5.

-Four youngsters from 15 to 18 who had been following up a number of Honesdale workmen on the street and yelling "Scab" at them were pulled by Policeman Canavan. of five. The visitors will drive to who took them before Justice Robert Honesdale and the game will be call- A. Smith Monday afternoon. They Carbondale has secured got off with $2 fine apiece and the some new blood and will make a judge told them that next time the desperate effort to capture this penalty will be a good bit stiffer. The quartet were given time to raise -Sunday's New York Journal the cash and one of the lads dropped ount of Prince, a Bengal into Justice Smith's office this morn-

-County Commissioner John J. Durkin of Lackawanna said Satur-Lesch, who is a Honesdale woman, day that the county would probably build a public layatory either in the basement of the courthouse or on the courthouse square in Scranton. Labor Grange, No. 1053, will be held Mr. Durkin said that when the imin J. M. Burcher's grove at Calkins provement is ready a matron will be put in charge of the place. Mr. Durkin declared the county was as much interested in the success of the movement instituted by Selectman P. P. Jordan Thursday night as was the city.

-Myron E. Dodge, who five weeks ago was operated on for appendicitis by Dr. A. W. Smith of Scranton and Dr. H. B. Ely, said Saturday that he feels pretty good nowdays and can take slow, easy walks with his cane without getting About the middle of the month, Mr. Dodge thinks, he will be strong enough to be the clerk of the of butter jumped a cent a pound Allen house again, but he will have Thursday, and the raise will result to confine himself to the desk part of the job for a time. Manager of from 2 to 4 cents a pound. At Lord will have plenty of porters within call, for Mr. Dodge cannot pick up bags and bundles for a while yet. The friends of the young the price of butter. At the close man are glad to greet him on the street after his serious sickness. vanced to 31 cents, from 30 cents, He took it philosophically and in that way made all the better recov-

> -The Pittston Gazette has completed the sixtleth year of its publication. Established in 1850, the first issue was Friday, Aug. 2, It has the unique distinction of being Deposit, N. Y., Sunday. the oldest newspaper in continuous publication under the same name in the Wyoming anthracite coal field. hustling present. There are few were there when the Gazette was the Gazette with the growth of successful moneywise.

vorce libel against Phoebe (Owens) Ham, alleging that the woman, whom he married April 12. 1902, deserted him Sept. 17, 1904.

-The Misses Flynn were given a surprise farewell party at their home on Main street Monday evening, Y., is visiting his mother on South About 35 young folks were present, and a most enjoyable evening was -The ninth annual reunion of the Stalker family will be held Aug. 31 at the home of John Stalker at Hurd, N. Y. The president wishes everyone to make an earnest effort to be present if possible.

-The three Huycks, father and two sons, started Monday the job of putting slate on the eaves of the German Lutheran church, which was struck by lightning June 16. The job they consider a small one and it will be finished this week.

-Hull Bros. of Waymart are progressive farmers who are calling the attention of the outside world to the fertility of Wayne county soil by practically demonstrating that it is capable of producing results that at Laurel lake. pay. They have an immense amount of celery in good growing shape, as well as other vegetable plants.

-At the courthouse Wednesday afternoon the road supervisors of Texas township will meet to accept or reject the state's proposition, made through Engineer A. W. Long of the highway department, whereby state and township would divide the cost of oiling the Seelyville and Bethany state roads. The cost of the oiling would be $60 a mile.

-William Loeb, Jr., collector of the port of New York, was toasted as the "next governor of New York state," at an informal banquet in Kingston, N. Y., Saturday. The collector replied banteringly and did not commit himself. Judge Seeger was the banqueter who sprang the gubernatorial toast. The automobile party returned to New York.

-Labor day will be given an appropriate celebration by the labor of Timothy Gilhool, who was buried bodies of Honesdale. There will be in St. Rose cemetery after services two bands and a drum corps to sup- in St. Rose church. ply music for the parade and it is expected that there may be as many as 1000 men in line. Hawley and White Mills will be invited to march and also to take part in the picnic at Bellevue park in the afternoon.

-Mrs. Mary Ann Lutes, aged 80 children: Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Thomas Reynolds of Scranton, Mrs. Edwin Hoznall of Honesdale, Mrs. ming county, William and Joseph and Thomas W. Lutes of Potter coun-The funeral was held Monday. Interment in Vernon.

in the Wilkes-Barre Record's report of Roosevelt's tour of the Wyoming the children will be located at the Valley last week: "The party drove on straight to Pittston, a town of ber. Apparently the Record writer has little regard for Pittston or for accuracy. His petty attempt to belittle a neighbor is as uncalled our contemporary send its reporters up to Pittston to take a look around ty hamlets. sive community Pittston really is. Pittston Gazette.

-Henry Wenzel died at his home on Willow avenue Thursday after a sickness of five years, having been confined to his house two weeks. He was born in Germany in 1832, and was brought to America by his parents when a baby. He had resided in Honesdale nearly all of his life. He followed boating on the D. & H. canal a number of years. He leaves two sons, Andrew and Jacob, both of Honesdale, and two daughters, Lena, wife of John Carey, late of Taylor, and Miss Elizabeth, at home, and his widow, who was Anna E. Ripple.

-More than 700 people went to Lake Lodore to the Shoemakers' picnic on the special train at 1 o'clock There are 11 cars, all this noon. crowded. The 9 o'clock special of eight cars was not so full. The drum corps paraded for an hour at friends, while her husband journeyed noon and rode to the lake in the smoker of the special. The sun is ties, those of an express messenger drying up the mud, and the crowd at the lake this afternoon is one of the N. Y. Mr. Teeple is one of Wells happiest companies Wayne county has held for quite a while. There are plenty of games and sports on the program and the time is bound to be well occupied until the special leaves the lake at 7 tonight.

PERSONAL MENTION

William Pethick is visiting friends in Derby, Conn.

E. J. Huyek was at his home in Miss Ruth Lord has resigned her position with Menner & Co. Howard Hartung of Scranton is spending a few days in town. Michael Murran of Wilkes-Barre called on his parents here Sunday. Mrs. Russell T. Whitney

Scranton is visiting relatives here. Alfred Schueller of New York is spending a few days with relatives

H. W. Rowley of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting relatives on North Main Monaca Bracey returned Sunday evening from a six weeks' visit in Scranton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bergman of Honesdale

Mrs. O. L. Rowland has returned at Glenburn.

Charles Griffin of Schenectady, N. Main street.

Fred Butler of Scranton passed tension street. Miss Lela Gilhol returned to her home in Carbondale Friday, after a visit with Miss May Dunnigan. Charles Olsen left for New York Monday after a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Olsen. William Katz of the Katz Underwear company, was a guest of friends over Sunday at Harvey's

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mueller of West Pittston are the guests of Honesdale and White Mills rela-

Eben Keene has returned to his duties at the postoffice, after spending his vacation with B. H. Dittrich

Miss Anna Reed of Binghamton, N. Y., is spending a week's vacation with her father, Duane Reed of East Extension street.

Fred Best, late of the Consolidated Telephone company, Carbondale, passed through Honesdale Friday on his way to Port Jervis, N. Y.

dale visited relatives here and attended the L. A. S. fair .- Lackawaxen cor. Milford Dispatch. Mrs. William F. Tyman leaves

Wednesday for her home at Far for a time was compelled to navi-Rockaway after a 10-days' visit at the home of Patrick Dunnigan.

Joseph Hessling was a business caller in Forest City Monday. E. E. Williams left Monday for Narrowsburg, N. Y., for a week's

Joseph Spellman was in Carbondale Monday to attend the funeral

Miss Grace A. Cory, Miss Amy Dodge, Miss Cory, Miss Helen Louise Fowler and Miss Margery Fowler are at Harvey's lake for a Hill was governor from 1885 to week. They will stop at the Oneonta house

W. L. O'Connell of New York got years, died Saturday at the home of to Honesdale Saturday night. He her daughter, Mrs. George Miller of will visit his relatives and shake president in 1876. On the topic 903 Park street, Scranton. The de- hands with his friends. Mr. O'Conceased is survived by the following nell is in the office of the National Elevator and Machine company.

"Pop" Teeter, the gamecock man and undertaker of Hawley, motored F. W. Osthaus of Thurston, Wyo- to Honesdale Friday night to see his found expedient for one of the parmultitudinous friends in this bor-Lutes of Vernon, Wyoming county, ough. He was looking for some dead state county to make the race for ones but he found some live ones.

County Detective Nick Spencer took an early train Friday for Lake -We find the following sentence Ariel, to remain until Wednesday with his family. Mrs. Spencer and lake until the fore part of Septeming in clerical duties in the Farm- ty, and there were big delegations be called Costume ers and Mechanics bank during the from Wayne county, several hunabsence of W. W. Baker, who with dred going from Hawley, the former for as it is unjust. We suggest that his family has been spending a parish of Rev. P. C. Winters, now few days in Canaan and other coun- pastor of St. Paul's.

Detroit all right. He mailed a De- tween the married man and single the real estate man got it today. Hilson, as stated at the time of his going, has a vaudeville engagement on a Michigan circuit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jones of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Fred Powell. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Penwarden of Carley Brook, Miss Lydia Reifler, Mrs. Emma E. Taylor, Mrs. Fowler and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Bassett are at Equinunk, where William A. Bleck, the affable village landlord, is exerting himself to give the party a model outing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Teeple of Jer- ture. sey City returned Monday after a few days with Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hawken of East street, Mrs. Teeple went as far as Middletown, N. Y., where she is visiting with home the next day to resume his dubetween Jersey City and Salamanca. Fargo & Co's efficient and obliging employees, who receives a week's recreation every twelve weeks.

John McCabe, employed by the New York, New Haven & Hartford road, is here to visit his brother and sister. Mr. McCabe says business in Connecticut, where he runs, is all right, and that the New Haven spent $4,000,000 for improvements last year and still handed quarterly dividend checks of 2 per cent, to its stockholders. The New Haven is controlled by J. Plerpont Morgan's firm, which is also the heaviest holder of Pennsylvania stock, and has been coming steadily to the front since Charles S. Mellen, a Morgan president, came from the Northern Pacific to the New Haven presidency in 1903. The late Edward H. Harriman was a New Haven director in the closing years of his life, but the New Haven is essentially a Morgan road and the desires of the little railroad Napoleon for an outlet to the Atlantic through New Haven, Providence and Boston were never realized. The New Haven has practically acquired the Boston & Maine, which controls the Maine Central, and in this way the Mor-Mr. and Mrs. William Hattler of gan roads run over the Canadian

Miss Nellie Farnum of Port Jer-Alford are spending several days in vis, N. Y., is with Honesdale friends this week

Rev. A. L. Whittaker left Friday from a week's vacation with friends to spend August on the Massachusetts coast.

Joseph Burns has returned to New York after a week's vacation with relatives here.

Mrs. William Osborn of Scranton Sunday with his parents on East Ex- is being entertained at the home of her brother, Albert Taebner, on Main street.

Miss Dorothy Rehbein and Mrs. Harry Rebbein and little daughter, Dorothy, of 145th street, New York, are being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rehbein of East George Murran of Chicago, formerly of Honesdale, is here on his Chicago Thursday. Mr. Murran was Honesdale's first baseman in the days of Christy Mathewson. He now covers first bag for the Chicago city league team and he leads in batting. They play three games a week. Mr. Murran is in the real estate business.

Miss Grace Leet and her cousin. Miss Cecil Folmsbee, of Syracuse, N. Y., who have been visiting relatives at Hawley, and Rowlands, Pa., for the past two weeks, have returned home. * * * Prof. and Mrs. T. N. Woodley, who have been spending some of their vacation at Beach mower. Bills were ordered paid Lake, Pa., and other places, have returned home .- Matamoras cor. Port William Wood and wife of Hones- Jervis (N. Y.) Union.

A. J. Huyck, the experienced slate roofer who has been working in Honesdale seven weeks, has been suffering from a rheumatic knee and gate with the aid of a cane Sunday he was a little better and Monday a great deal better. Mr. Huyck belongs in Deposit, N. Y. He has an exceedingly retentive memory for New York politics and is a particular admirer of former Gov. and United States Senator David Bennett Hill, who quit politics for good and all when in 1994 he succeeded in procuring the presidential nomination of Judge Alton B. Parker. Mr. Huyck formed the acquaintance of "Dave" Hill about the time the governor and senatorto-be was mayor of Elmira. Mr. 1891 and senator from 1891 to 1897. The Deposit man also knew Gov. Samuel J. Tilden who probably defeated Rutherford B. Hayes for of York state politics during the past 30 years Mr. Huyck is a vigorous and interesting talker and he is watching the state situation closely this year, as it may yet be ties to take a man from an upthe governorship.

Big Parish Picnic at Lodore.

More than 2,000 people went to Lake Lodore Thursday with the members of St. Paul's parish of Green Ridge on the annual excursion. The excursionists came from all parts other things that might Miss Florence Kimble is assist- of Scranton and Lackawanna coun-

At the lake there was dancing, a John Hilson, who worked for John ball game, races of all kinds and and priced very low when H. Heumann until Thursday, got to aquatic sports. In a ball game betheir high quality is considtroit postcard to M. F. Dorin and men of the parish the married men ered. beat the single men. The outing was one of the most successful ever conducted by the parish. Its success is in a large measure due to the hard work of Father Winters.

SCRANTON BUSINESS COLLEGE.

The old reliable school, the Scranton Business College, Court House Square, Scranton, Pa., will begin its seventeenth year on Tuesday, Sept. Monday, Labor Day, will be Enrollment Day. Write for litera-

H. D. Buck, Principal.

-Read the Citizen. It pays.

August Business of Borough Council.

The Thursday night meeting of the borough council heard a complaint by Chief Burgess John Kuhbach shout fast auto driving through the streets. He also called attention to the dangerous condition of sewers that empty into the Lackawaxen below the confluence of the Dyberry, The committee on fire plugs reported that all plugs were in good shape save the ones at the corner of Main and Eleventh and Church streets. New plugs were recommended placed at or near Park and Spring, at intersection of Main and High, and at Main and Fourteenth. The committee on horses to pull the engines and truck was instructed to arrange for some sort of service and report at the next meeting. Dr. R. wedding tour. He was married in Brady was again named as borough health officer. P. E. McGranaghan, who complained about the covering up of a leader to his building, was told this trouble would be remedied. The petition of C. C. Jadwin and others for an arc light at Main and Eighth streets was ordered investigated and reported to the September meeting. Treasurer C. M. Genung reported $86.88 on hand after paying July bills and $83.50 received from J. J. Canivan for dog taxes, also $25 from the Ladies' Improvement association for a horse lawnamounting to $591.69.

> -Ernest F. Dudley, Jr., will hold services in the Indian Orchard schoolhouse Sunday next at 2.30 p. m. All are invited.

Your Labor Day Costume

will not be complete without a pretty Sunshade, a nice Handbag, some attractive Hat Pins, and fancy Belt Buckles and those Accessories.

You will find them all here

One-Piece Dresses

Lawns and Lingerie Dresses, all New and Handsome Styles, to close out at half price. Don't fail to get a $10 Gown at $5.

Katz Bros., Inc.

Is Honesdale Progressing?

A recent count of Bell Telephones in Honesdale City shows that today there are nearly

Six Hundred Bell Telephones

in the local Bell System. Doesn't this splendid growth from but a few telephones a year ago spell

Progress for Honesdale

The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania

Honesdale, Pa.