LOCAL MENTION.

—Our town is noted far and wide for its hospitality and cordiality. Man meets his fellows here with a "Good morning, James; how are you feeling this morning?" while the answer is wafted back on the morning breeze "Quite well, I thank you." The good women, as they toil during the greater part of the day in looking after the domestic duties, hum a merry tune the while, because "love lightens labor." And over their teacups at an afternoon function, or around some family circle banded together as a club, they discuss topics alone intended to elevate their race.

—The Business Men's association had no quorum Wednesday night and held no meeting.

—John Hull, a farmer, and Miss Florence J. Marks, like the groom a resident of Galilee, were married Saturday at Carley Brook by Rev. J. B. Zweig. They will keep house in Damascus.

—William Randolph Hearst, the New York newspaper man, has accepted an invitation to address the labor men of Scranton Labor day. The meeting will be held in the morning on the courthouse square.

—The Erie railroad has been advised of the delivery during August and September of 25 new coaches for suburban service. These coaches will be 68 feet long, with steel underframes, wide vestibules and have a seating capacity of 72 persons.

—The Allentown fair will not have any flying men this year, the fair management refusing to pay the $10,000 originally demanded by Wright brothers and Glenn Curtiss. Then the usual vaudeville was engaged. Now the flyers have come down to $6,000, but it's too late.

—George Bergman ran a big splinter into his wrist at the Penwarden Manufacturing company's shop in East Honesdale Monday. The splinter went in right above the artery. Dr. McConville took the splinter out and dressed the wound. Mr. Bergman will be at work next week. It is expected.

—All lovers of music, and especially those who knew Prof. Thelle of New York when he had a class here, will want to go to the Baptist church Friday evening, Aug. 19, and listen to the violin and song recital given by him and his wife. They come under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society. Admission 25 cents.

—Fourteen young men in Honesdale and one in Hawley who answer to the name of William have organized a Willie club. Here are the officers: President, William F. Bales; vice-president, William Decker; secretary, William Keich; treasurer, William Kropp. They will meet Wednesday night to arrange for an outing.

—Owing to the poor exhibition given by the Carbondale team at the new West Side park, Carbondale, recently, there will probably be several changes made in the line-up. Manager Nick Murtagh is discouraged over the loss of the game with Honesdale Sunday and has decided to get several new players. He says he intended to circulate a subscription paper among the business men of the city to raise money to enable him to secure the best players obtainable in the valley.

—John Mitchell will not be governor of the state of New York, says the Carbondale Leader. In the first place he has only lived in the state two years. The residence requirement is five years. Mitchell would make a fine governor, but his enthusiastic boomers must remember that New York is not a mining state and we doubt very much whether the admiration for him runs as strong among the farmers as we who live among the miners think it should. Everybody has not our viewpoint and perhaps the people outside of the labor union territory do not think our John is as big as we do ourselves.

—Married, at Sherman, Scott township, Aug. 2, by Rev. William C. Dodge, Miss Ethel Wayman of McClure, Broome county, N. Y., and James Wilson of Sherman.

—The United States government paid $453.10 and the state $545.40 to the 13th company for the nine days' tour of duty at the July camp of instruction in Gettysburg.

—A B. Warman, the Scranton laundryman, who is passing the summer in his cottage at Maplewood, on the border of Lake Henry, caught a Lake Erie catfish in its waters Wednesday that weighed 10 3/4 pounds and was 22 inches in length.

—Telegrams of condolence continue to pour in on Congressman Charles C. Pratt of New Milford, whose wife, Mrs. Lillie B. (Goff) Pratt, died Monday in Ithaca, N. Y., where she had gone to spend August with her daughter. Col. Pratt married his wife Aug. 15, 1875, in Binghamton, N. Y. They had four children—Harriet L., Ezra G., Grace I. and Helen L.

—At 6 o'clock tonight James Murray will appear against Charles J. Weaver before Justice Smith. Murray claims Weaver hit him and gave him a bad cut under his right eye. The trouble started Wednesday in the defendant's place of business and the latter, it is understood, will claim Murray came toward him with a stone in either hand and that the blow was struck in self-defense.

—Henry Doudican, who has been playing third base for Carbondale since the beginning of the season, has signed a contract to play that position with Bloomsburg in the Susquehanna league. He left for that place Wednesday. Doudican is considered one of the fastest amateur players in the valley and his presence on the Carbondale team will be greatly missed, as he was a great favorite with the fans. He was with the Honesdale team last month on the Sullivan county trip and played third base.

—William Campbell of Dyberry, accompanied by Dr. Harry B. Searles, will go to Scranton Friday to have his right arm examined with the aid of the X-rays. Mr. Campbell bumped his elbow against the door jamb at his house as he leaned out to shake an umbrella. He came to Honesdale and saw Dr. Ely and Dr. Nielsen. Neither would say positively that Mr. Campbell's arm is broken, and then he went to Dr. Searles, who after an examination proposed the X-rays to ferret out the cause of an unusual case.

—Two men well known in the borough, one a janitor, the other the son of a business man highly respected in Honesdale, had some words on Main street near Sixth street corner Wednesday night and the words paved the way for blows, there being an old grudge of some sort between the two. The janitor hit right out from the shoulder and his antagonist went down two or three times. In the melee an umbrella was wrenched out of shape and a stone went against a store window. No warrant up to noon today.

—The boys who were fined by Justice Smith Monday for shouting "Scab" at some glass factory help have paid their bills. Policeman Canivan, who arrested them, had the money Wednesday afternoon and went to the office of Justice Smith to pay it over, but the court had gone home for the day. Justice Smith, one of the game old men of Wayne county, has been somewhat under the weather for a week and generally quits an hour ahead of time. He said today he feels better, but that he is not quite himself yet.

—Lieut. Guy Ralph of the Erie police got to Honesdale on the way freight Wednesday noon and remained until the 4.30 D. & H. train, on which he went home to Dunmore. When asked about the alleged wild man at the Erie pockets the lieutenant grinned and said there was nothing doing. When asked about the quest for more Erie car thieves at Hawley he answered that the case stood about where it has stood, but that the three or four missing men were still being looked for and would, he thought, eventually be landed. Harry Close, the young fellow who, according to Chauncey Tyler and two or three others arrested, broke the seal and got into the car after the cases of beer, has never been caught. He is a sort of a tramp and for a while he hung around Long Eddy, but he is not believed to be anywhere near Long Eddy now.

—The group photograph of the Skat club, taken at their Sunday outing at First pond, shows 18 handsome men and 12 homely ones. William J. McKenna, Robert Cohen O'Connell and Mike Bregstein beam invitingly on the south end of the line and at the other extremity of the group John H. Weaver, the second heaviest man in the party, knits his brows with characteristic ferocity, though all the friends of the Wayne house landlord know well enough he wouldn't scowl at a cat intentionally. Dr. McConville looks thin and sad in the middle. It was a huge mistake for the photographer to pose the doctor sideways. The picture is nicely mounted and every man Jack in the crowd except one or two wore the smile that won't come off when the man behind the camera pressed the button. One of the men without a smile is the man who sild to first base and twisted his ankle on the way.

—The body of Mrs. Helen M. Gilchrist, whose funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. B. Cody at Bethany Wednesday afternoon at 4, was sent to Wyoming on the 6.55 train this morning for burial. Mr. Gilchrist is buried in Wyoming.

—The road supervisors of Texas at their meeting with State Engineer A. W. Long at the courthouse Wednesday seemed to favor asphalt oil for the Seelyville state road, the state to pay one-half the cost, or $150, and the township the other half. Supervisor Smith was not able to get to the meeting and the matter will not be closed up until the other supervisors have seen him. It is believed $75 can be raised from the automobile people's contributions, as the owners of buzz wagons would be substantially benefited by the road's treatment of asphalt oil.

—A subscriber once received a dum through the postoffice and it made him mad. He went to see the editor about it, and the editor showed him a few dums of his own—some for paper, one for type, one for fuel and several others. "Now," said the editor, "I didn't get mad when these came because I knew that all I had to do was to ask several reliable gentlemen like you to come and help me out, and then I could settle all of them." When the subscriber saw how it was he relented, paid up, and renewed for another year.

PERSONAL MENTION

J. Sam Brown has returned from Scranton.

Miss Helen Oaks visited friends in Hawley Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Eberhardt of Allentown are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Miller. Mrs. Miller is their daughter. They go home Friday.

Mrs. Rose Coogan of Cottage street, Mr. and Mrs. James Barry and daughters, Mary and Emma, Misses Louise and Mary Coogan of Brooklyn street, and John Coogan of Spring street are sojourning for the month of August at Lake Como. * * *

Edna Loomis is spending the week near Sherman in Wayne county.—Carbondale Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. William Adams, the former an old comrade from Philadelphia, are visiting Capt. S. F. Wells. Mr. Adams is the only survivor of the post where Capt. Wells captured a lieutenant and three privates. Mr. Wells was in the second Pennsylvania heavy artillery, one of the big regiments of the war—a regiment so large it had eventually to be cut in two.

Edmund Finnerty, who is working for Collier's Weekly in Scranton, was in town the fore part of the week in the interest of that company.

John G. Wilkin and A. F. Servin left Saturday for Hancock, where they will commence a canoeing trip down the Delaware. The end of the trip will be at the Delaware Water Gap. They expect to be absent about two weeks and are anticipating a most enjoyable trip.—Middletown Times-Press.

T. H. Goodnough, wife and son of Coalinga, Cal., are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Goodnough of Girdland. Mrs. Goodnough will leave for a visit with her people at Cherry grove, Warren county, Monday, and Mr. Goodnough will join her next month after which they will return to California.

—Dr. Ely said today that Dr. Peterson, the attending physician, has reported the case of Thomas Murphy of Tanners Falls as one of smallpox and that he had confirmed Dr. Peterson's report. Granville Bodie, the first man to be taken sick, boards with Murphy, who commenced to have chills and fever and to break out about a week ago.

John Theobald, who played third base for the Fats at the Skat club's outing Sunday and exerted himself to put up a winning game, both on the bag and at the bat, is taking a little vacation in the "sad sea wave" locality, say on the coast of Jersey. He went Monday and may not be back to business until the tail end of the week. He may do some fishing all along the coast between Barnegat light and Cape May and he will also tramp the famous boardwalk at Atlantic City in a strenuous effort to knock off a few pounds of superfluous beef.

Many Desks Make Lighter Work.

Clerk George P. Ross of the county commissioners has had another desk, a small one, set up in his office. When entering judgments he has to have two or three large books open before him and to put them on and off one desk meant a lot of work. The other desk cuts out much of this extra work.

As Mr. Ross was descending upon the advantages of this new arrangement to a caller Wednesday Attorney Frank P. Kimble came in and observed that it's no snap job to pull the heavy books in the registrar's office off the shelves.

"They weigh several pounds and to haul them up and down on a hot day is a good deal like pitching hay. It's work," he said.

Mr. Ross will not take his new desk to the ballgrounds with him Saturday when he goes to score the Honesdale-Carbondale game.

Coming to Wayne County for a Week.

Dr. B. Golden, Optometrist, (Eye Sight Specialist) who conducts optical parlors at 20 North Main street, Carbondale, and who formerly practiced his profession in Honesdale and Hawley, where he has hundreds of satisfied patients, will be at the Allen house, Honesdale, Monday, Aug. 14, at Tom Gill's hotel, White Mills, Tuesday, Aug. 16 and at the Parkway hotel, Hawley, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. Dr. Golden will bring his full equipment along with him, and although he has about 60 appointments, he will be able to wait on all who call that gave use for his services. Dr. Golden needs no introduction in Wayne county.

SAVE THE STREET TREES.

Injurious Forms of Mutilation That Should Be Prohibited.

Trees, especially in large cities and along roadways, are subject to many forms of mutilation. Homes are allowed to eat the bark and new wood; telephone and telegraph companies cut away indiscriminately, and when sidewalk or paving is to be laid the roots are hacked and cut away without any regard for the tree.

In some of our large progressive cities clubs have been formed with the aim of putting before the careless public ideas which will tend to put an end to all needless cruelty. Small cities and villages should heed this movement, as it is much easier to accomplish results in small places than in the larger and results are more noticeable.

An injurious method, which is not so noticeable and not so well known to the inexperienced, is that of improper pruning. A tree is not only injured by cutting off large branches, but when it is done so that large, ragged stumps are left the injury is incalculable. Although it is true that pruning must be practiced to produce a symmetrical shape, still the best rule is to prune as little as possible. This example should be followed by rural communities to protect these trees, which play such an important part in ornamenting and shading the principal thoroughfares.

SCRANTON BUSINESS COLLEGE.

The old reliable school, the Scranton Business College, Court House Square, Scranton, Pa., will begin its seventeenth year on Tuesday, Sept. 6th. Monday, Labor Day, will be Enrollment Day. Write for literature.

CONCRETE PAVEMENTS.

How They Are Becoming Popular in Small Towns.

The substitution of concrete for wood, stone and brick as a paving material has extended to all sections of the United States. For example, the following improvements are reported in a single day:

Calvert, Tex., which boasts of being the cleanest, prettiest town in central Texas, calls special attention to her cement sidewalks. Georgetown, Tex., recently laid four miles of concrete pavements. Peoria, Ill., is doing extensive work in the same line. Decatur, Ill., has been putting down concrete pavements and curbing. Elgin, Ill., has adopted ordinances compelling the use of cement in sidewalk construction. Des Moines, Ia., is paving a public square. Little Rock, Ark., is using concrete blocks. Orange, N. J., recently decided that only concrete shall be used for pavements. Springfield, Mo., has adopted the Hosam concrete street pavement. These are just a few towns, some of them not important to the outside world, but the improvements reported are characteristic of what is taking place everywhere, and hundreds of thousands of barrels of cement are used annually for this purpose where practically none was used a few years ago.

After noting the durability of concrete pavements comes the conviction that the same material would make a good wall, time proof floors and sills, indestructible posts and steps, etc., and in a few years the supply of cement will need to be largely increased by the demand for it in small towns and rural communities. The little town of Newberry, Ind., with a population estimated at 600, claims to have all the records in the state broken for extent of cement sidewalks in a town of its size. It has been incorporated only a few months and now has two miles of cement walks completed and six more miles ordered for completion before winter. If cement walks are a good thing for part of the citizens, they are good for all, according to the reasoning of the town board, consequently not a street in the little town will escape a sidewalk on both sides.

Don't let anything interfere with your regular hours of work and rest, but get plenty of sleep, especially what is called "beauty sleep," before midnight. Refuse to allow the mind to stiffen the muscles by the suggestion of age limitation. Age is a mental state brought about by mental conviction. You are only as old as you feel. Love is a great healer of all life's ills, the great strengthener and beautifier. If you would drink at the fountain of perpetual youth, fill your life with it.

OUTPUT OF FISH FRY FALLS.

Pickeral and Pike Perch Species in Which Drop is Largest—Trout Gains.

The semi-annual report of State Commissioner of Fisheries William E. Meehan will show the output of fish fry from the several state fish hatcheries for the fiscal year of 1916, running from Dec. 1, 1909, to December 1, 1916, will be approximately 70,000,000 less than during the preceding fiscal year.

The greatest decrease occurred among pickeral and pike perch, the pickeral decrease amounting to about 70,000,000 and the pike perch to about 76,000,000. Whitefish fell off 9,000,000.

The output of trout this year runs to 11,423,752 as against 9,373,625 for the previous year. This year's output of trout in this state equals the output of this game fish last year by the United States government.

The Pennsylvania outputs of the more important fish this year, in addition to trout, were as follows:

Pickeral, 223,100,000; yellow perch, 435,668,000; pike perch (wall-eyed pike or Susquehanna salmon), 32,129,000; shad, 19,000,000; lake herring, 120,983,000; whitefish, 38,250,000; blue pike, 143,750,000.
