LOCAL MENTION.

—Everybody is invited to come to our fair and meet your old friends and have a reunion you will never regret. This is your fair. Come and enjoy it.

—Lawrence's band, which played at the Bethany entertainment 10 days ago, will be at the Wayne county fair in October.

—Married, at the Methodist parsonage, by Rev. W. H. Miller, Saturday, Aug. 20, Miss Laura E. Jones of Scranton and W. H. Howell of Dunmore.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Bassett of East street entertained the Knockers club Monday evening. Games and refreshments were in order until the good-night hour.

—The Seelyville fire boys will have another of their dances and socials Friday evening at their hall. These entertainments are always enjoyable and successful. The firemen of Seelyville are excellent entertainers.

—The right hand of former Sheriff William B. Roadknight is still painful, but the swelling is going down. Mr. Roadknight's pet bulldog, an animal that is counted one of the Roadknight family, took too tight a grip of his master's hand as man and dog mixed it up in play, and the former will remember the scuffle for some time. Mr. Roadknight had Dr. Ely and Dr. Searles. The latter cauterized the wound.

—Rev. Christian C. Miller, the new Lutheran pastor, is a clergyman always on his job. When he goes out with his family there is a pad and pencil left hanging under the mailbox beside the parsonage door and callers are given an opportunity to record their wishes. Mr. Miller is making a great many friends in Honesdale and the vicinity of the borough. He is an affable, democratic man who assimilates easily with people of all denominations. As a preacher he is forceful, fluent and not afraid to call a spade a spade. Mr. Miller and his wife and boy like Honesdale. The parents of Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Eberhardt, who came from Allentown to see their daughter, son-in-law and grandson, were much impressed by the beauty of the town and the cordiality of the people.

—The business men of Honesdale borough have formed a Board of Trade which is actively engaged in promoting the business of the borough. The board has been recently formed, it gives promise of accomplishing a great deal in an industrial way. Would it not be a good time to form a similar organization here? We should strive to secure industries for Archbald, which depends solely on its great mineral wealth of coal. At this time of the year, when business is not very brisk, the business men of the town have time, and we hope to see them take steps towards organizing a Board of Trade, a Booster's club, or some like organization, whose purpose and aim will be to make Archbald bigger, better and busier. Observer, in Archbald Citizen.

—Anna Ettinger is the latest typhoid patient to be reported.

—If you want to see your friends and have a good time, come to the fair of 1910.

—Robert Menner of Yale university will hold an Episcopal service in the Presbyterian church at Waymart next Sunday at 3 p. m. All are invited to be present.

—The Honesdale postoffice has located Coxton lake and delivered the letter directed to a party calling that place his address. Coxton lake, it appears, is a bit of water near Starrucca. "Kenjockey, Pa." is still in the dark.

—On account of the 10-days' excursion from Binghamton, Salamanca, Meadville and other western points on the Erie to New York there were three sections of Erie train No. 8 and two sections of Erie train No. 6. All the trains were well patronized.

—August Bregstein, who promised to return in August when he left town last April, is again selling goods in the store of Bregstein Bros. He looks well and says he feels well. His Honesdale friends are glad to greet him after his absence of four months.

—This has been a great year for huckleberries. Over a half a hundred tons from the Moosic mountain were shipped from the Peckville and Archbald stations. The berries were handled in 15 quart baskets and wholesaled at $1.25 per basket. They were shipped to cities in New York state principally.—Peckville Journal.

—Last spring the village fathers placed sign boards at the borough limits on all roads entering the village, directing automobiles to slow down to ten miles an hour. This warning is daily disregarded and our officers should see that it is complied with before somebody is either seriously or fatally injured.—Hancock Herald.

—The blackberry crop, like the huckleberry crop, is heavy all through the northeastern counties, particularly Wayne and Pike. Lake Ariel and Hoadley boys and girls are making very fair money picking and shipping to Scranton, Hawley and Honesdale, and all across the mountain to Carbondale the berries are big, rich and meaty. Every train takes berry-pickers with well-loaded pails into Carbondale and many of them go on to Scranton. The blackberries are said to be biggest in the neighborhood of Panthers bluff, but mammoth fellows can be found all over the mountain.

—Members of a band of gypsies were arrested by game wardens from Bangor at Clark's Summit, charged with fishing on Sunday, fishing with a net, and fishing for trout after the close of the season. The offenses complained of were committed near Bangor a week ago, and the arrest of the offenders was after a three-day chase across the country. Twenty-five gypsies are in the tribe. Three were arrested. Arraigned before a justice, the gypsies were fined $285. This is believed to be the same band to which belongs the young woman who stole $27 from the bar at the Halfway house here, a theft that was followed by a chase from Honesdale to Pond No. 4, at which point the gypsies were compelled to disgorge Mr. Potter's $27 and the fees of the officers and the cost of the officers' rig into the bargain.

—The former victims of hay fever dread the approach of all the glamor of August and September, when the joyous sunshine, the mellow fields, the ripening gardens and harvests forecast for many people suffering and anguish, says the Scranton Times. Those who are immune and unfamiliar with the ravages of hay fever naturally disregard its existence, and why should they not? But many are assured of six weeks of poignant distress unless they can get away to a corner of the country where the dust and the pollen do not abound. A dry harvest season abounding in pollen from plants like the golden rod, the wild aster, and the rag weed fills the atmosphere for miles with a fine mixture, invisible to the eye, but vicious in its attacks on the sensitive mucous membrane of the nose and throat. Science has wrought wonders. It has transformed the surface of the planet, and has dissected and remade man, but it holds up its hands in utter incapacity to cure a simple case of sniffles.

—Mayor John Kuhnach disposed of the cases of the two men, an old one and a young one, who came to Honesdale from Damascus Thursday and tried for a time to give the Wayne capital a bright coat of vermilion. The men were arrested by Detective Spencer about sundown that day, after they had raised a rumpus in several saloons, and they had a hearing before the mayor that same night. The older of the pair, a man with a red mustache, got a fine of $5. He sent for the money, got it, and left for Damascus Friday noon. The fine of the younger man was remitted after the mayor had given him some fatherly advice touching the excessive indulgence in liquid nourishment. The boy, who is only 16, promised to take care of himself, and then he too went home to Damascus. Saturday Mayor Kuhnach had another young drunk before him. He read the fellow a lecture, told him the best way out this time would be to take the pledge, and later learned to his satisfaction that the mayor's advice had been taken. The lad went to Father Hanley and took the pledge.

—The Correll family reunion will be held at Nay Aug park Wednesday, Aug. 31.

—Rev. G. S. Wendell will conduct services and preach at the Berlin Baptist church Sunday next at 2.30 p. m.

—Services will be held at the First Baptist church Sunday at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. The pastor, Rev. G. S. Wendell, will preach. Sunday school at 11.45 p. m.

—Timothy D. O'Connell found out the name of the young fellows who stole a small quantity of liquor from his saloon on South Main street. An empty bottle discovered in the loft of a barn was the clue. The youngsters will not be prosecuted, but Mr. O'Connell has notified one of them never to darken the door of the American house again.

—Mayor John Kuhnach, who spends much of his time driving, extended his route Sunday by going to Lake Como and Niagara. He covered something like 50 miles of Wayne county roads and Monday was willing to be quoted as saying that he not only had a bon ton outing the day before but that he found a great many good pieces of road up the county.

—Jacob Theobald, the barber with the fine disposition, has put a new sign, a tasty blue and white affair, over his door to notify people that Mr. Theobald has been there 15 years and is still staying faces and cutting hair at the old spot. Bart. Mitchell painted the sign and it is one of his best jobs. He has done a good bit of nice work in the sign-painting line for Honesdale business men since he came here a few weeks ago.

—The Kirsham Motor Manufacturing company of York is said to be desirous of locating in Scranton. The report is to the effect that the company is negotiating for the purchase of the plant of the Kemmerer Iron company, which occupies the old South Mill site. The company will employ 400 men if it gets the plant, for which it has said to have offered $100,000. The company has enjoyed much prosperity and regards Scranton as a good place to manufacture motors.

—Two young advertising distributors who went "up the county" last week with a double rig were overtaken by a violent rainstorm and tried to get shelter at a farmhouse. They did not get in, for the farmer and his family took them for spotters or suspicious characters, but they slept on the porch the balance of the night and tried to grin and make the best of it. They tell this joke freely, at their own expense, and say that next time they will take a tent along and sleep under canvas.

—George Keller, who was briefly "written up" in one of The Citizen's feature columns last week, informs the editor he has been an honest horse dealer for years, that he has brought more good horses into Honesdale than Lee Braman ever did or ever will, that he had a chance to knock Braman $200 worth on a horse trade this week and didn't accept the chance, that any official in the courthouse would promptly give bail for George Keller if he got pulled by Braman or any other officer, and that the first and last murder cases that he knows about in this county were from Manchester township. The courthouse family, from Squire Smith down, all like Mr. Keller and say that he never hits a critic in the back.

—The Nicket will be opened again, probably Saturday, though Fred W. Michels, who is interested, would not say for sure that everything could be made ready by that time. At their meeting with Mr. Groves, the lessee of the property, in Scranton Thursday Mr. Michels and Chris. Hartung made arrangements mutually satisfactory for the resumption of business at the little picture house. Mr. Michels in outlining his plans Monday said the Nicket would have a singer as well as a pianist and that illustrated songs would have a prominent place on the program. He added that he had contracted for plenty of the latest pictures and would make the house the equal of any place of its kind in this part of the state. He is advertising for a piano player and a singer in this issue of The Citizen.

—State Highway Engineer Arthur W. Long of Scranton is very optimistic over the prospect of the Dybberry state road reaching completion by Nov. 1. Seaman, Irwin and Brennen, the contractors, have had a tough job back along, for early in July they struck the vein of quicksand near the fairgrounds and about 100 feet of road went into the creek. The three members of this firm are energetic and persevering young men and they have not at any time been dismayed by quicksand or any other obstacles. J. M. Hale, the state road inspector, who is a good road builder and a good fellow, has worked harmoniously with the contractors, and Engineer Long has been helpful to both inspector and firm. Mr. Long is a quiet man with a large capacity for business. He is always ready to work all night as well as all day if need be. Mr. Long has his home in Scranton and he is well known through this highway district. He is also popular in Wilkes-Barre and Harrisburg. His work in his district is highly commended by Highway Commissioner Joseph W. Hunter, who thinks he has an able staff at present in all parts of this state.

—Warren Case of Indian Orchard, glasscutter, and Ida E. Case of Welcome lake, same name but no relation, took out a marriage license Monday. W. H. Howell of Dunmore, storekeeper for the Erie, and Mary E. Jones of Scranton took out one Saturday.

—Forest City will play ball here Saturday at 3 p. m. Forest City has won a series from Carbondale and should give Honesdale a good game. The final Carbondale game comes Sunday afternoon at Lake Lodore. The Honesdale team may run a special train to the lake that day.

—Alfred H. Oliver, who entertained the Oliver family reunion with such skill and hospitality at his bungalow last Friday, was suddenly taken sick Monday night and hurried to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry B. Searles, on Court street, where Dr. Searles saw him professionally. The doctor said this morning that Mr. Oliver has abdominal trouble, but is not a very sick man.

—F. C. Lutes, a landscape gardener from Tiffin, O., who has done much clever work around public buildings and also for parks in Toledo, Columbus, Cleveland, Cincinnati and other prominent western cities, is here to elaborate the grounds of St. John's church. J. A. Bodie has taken some photographs to facilitate the work of Mr. Lutes, who commenced work today and will be busy at the church some time.

—Relatives of Jacob Walters received a telegram Sunday morning announcing his death in Buffalo, N. Y., that day. Mr. Walters formerly lived in Honesdale and several years ago was in the employ of Kimble & Stanton, lumbermen. His death resulted from paralysis. He was 61 years old and leaves a wife and one son, Frank, both of Buffalo, also one sister, Mrs. Henrietta Swartz of Seelyville. The body will be brought to Honesdale Wednesday afternoon.

—The Scranton Truth's European party, of which Miss Mae O'Neill of Honesdale is a member, is home. The party includes Miss Gwen Powell, Miss Bell Post, Miss Mary Porcher, Miss Marie Diem, Mrs. Charles Riehl and Miss Gertrude Parry of Scranton; Miss Julia Walsh, Archbald; Miss Marie Loftus, Carbondale; Miss Mary Connell, Minooka; Miss Mae O'Neill, Honesdale. Miss O'Neill will reach Honesdale on the 7.31 D. & H. train tonight. She has been the guest of Scranton friends today.

—William Driscoll, unmarried, died in the state hospital, Scranton, Thursday, aged 34. Mr. Driscoll was born in Honesdale, where he remained until 20 years ago. While employed in Duryea he was in a runaway, the injuries from which resulted in his death. He is survived by two sisters and one brother in Scranton, Mrs. John Buerket, Miss Sarah Driscoll and Daniel, also one sister and brother in Honesdale—Mrs. John Loercher and John Driscoll. The body was brought to Honesdale Friday and the funeral was Saturday morning from St. John's Catholic church.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Murrin of Chicago, Michael Murrin of Wilkes-Barre and Mrs. H. E. Taylor and Miss Jennie Murrin of East Honesdale went to White Mills Friday and took a trip through the Dorflinger cut glass factory. The Chicago ballplayer and old friend of Christy Mathewson said the glass shop was one of the most interesting places he had ever visited. His bride and the other members of the party were also greatly impressed by the quantity and quality of work turned out. Mr. Murrin is enjoying his honeymoon in the East, and he adds that Mrs. Murrin, a Chicago girl, thinks Wayne county people and Wayne county scenery are both delightful.

—The Willie club is growing. At the last meeting, when ways and means for an outing were discussed, there were 28 Willies present to propound this portentous question. The club started in life with 14 members from Honesdale and one from Hawley. The 28 Willies are all very sociable men, and the club's outing will beyond question prove a delightful occasion. The place where it will be held has not yet been divulged, for the Willies, like the Skat club, have no regular press agent, and it is improbable that any writers for newspapers will be admitted to the grounds when the clam chowder, baked bluefish, roast chicken, sweet and white potatoes and other delicacies of the season are trotted out for the consumption of the members.

—The managers of the Keystone party have authorized a lawyer in Schuylkill county to institute criminal prosecution against the parties in that county who, in attempting to pre-empt the Keystone name, made affidavit to the papers, though leaving the name of the party blank. Those papers were sent to Harrisburg in that condition and the party name was filled in there as soon as it could be ascertained what name had been adopted by the Philadelphia convention. That is just the way Mr. Fuert's pre-emption papers were made out and filed. The affidavit was made here to the papers, with a place for the party left blank. Those papers were sent to a friend in Harrisburg, who filled in the name when he had ascertained it by a telegram from Philadelphia and then filed the papers. Lawyers maintain that it is forgery to make additions to an affidavit after it has been executed.

—Millard F. Dorin, who is always original, has put up a real estate billboard at the corner of Main street and Ninth, and on this board his bargains in houses, lots, farms and all the like of that will be exploited.

—A. J. and E. J. Huyck started Monday the job of re-slating the roof of the Methodist church. The steeple may or may not be re-slatted. The officers of the church will decide that matter in a few days, probably. A. J. Huyck in this connection found his opportunity to explain that he has no fear of steeples. "If they 'come up,'" he said, "we'll go up!"

AN EXTRAORDINARY OFFER.

The Citizen, which is now acknowledged to be the leading newspaper in Wayne county, makes the following offer:

We will send you The Citizen for one year (104 issues) for $1.50 and give you one dollar's worth of Citizen Coupons, which will be accepted as cash by the leading merchants of Honesdale.

Get an outfit today; it only costs $1.00; it's worth $1,000 to any catarrh sufferer. For sale by druggists everywhere and by G. W. Peil, who guarantees it to cure catarrh, croup, coughs, colds, sore throat and bronchitis. An extra bottle of Hyomel liquid if needed costs but 50c. The little hard rubber pocket inhaler you get with outfit will last a lifetime.

EVER INCREASING.

A bank account is like a snowball—roll it gently along and it will get larger (almost without your noticing it) as the days go by. Like the snowball, too, the hardest work is making the first deposit, giving it the first push, after which the initial impetus gains as the ball runs down, the bank account rolls up. We want to help you with your financial snowball.
