REPUBLICAN PARTY

67th YEAR.

HONESDALE, WAYNE CO., PA., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1910.

NO 76

TENER COMES ON SATURDAY

Accompanied By Reynolds, Houck and Wright, Congressman Who Is Candidate For Highest Office In State Will Arrive From Carbondale That Morning--To Speak In Court-house In Afternoon.

Saturday, the day on which Congressman John Kinley Tener of Carbondale, Republican candidate for governor, and three other men who are with him on the state ticket for high offices this election has arranged to visit Wayne county, is bound to be a red letter day for Honesdale Republicans and for the Republicans of this corner of the state as well. The visit of the Tener party is not to be a long one—the candidates for governor and lieutenant-governor and got his first notice from State Chairman Walton, has been busy arranging this meeting, will meet the Tener party at the train. Prominent Republicans, members of the county committee and other party workers, will be with him at the station when the train lands the four ticketmen in Honesdale. Mr. Tener and his companions will be given an auto ride, it is expected, and then they will be taken to the Allen house to eat dinner.

At the courthouse meeting Homer Greene will preside. He promised Chairman Simons Tuesday that he would be the chairman on condition that his remarks should be brief. Mr. Greene is deeply interested in the Tener campaign and will do all the work for its success which he may be able to perform without severe bodily exertion, for the lawyer-author has not felt strong since he recovered from his serious sickness of a year ago. He tried at first to get Mr. Simons to excuse him, but, when Mr. Greene noted the extreme reluctance with which Mr. Simons accepted his declination, he decided to undertake the task.

The Maple City Five and Drum corps will furnish some of their stirring music and there will be life enough, oratorically and otherwise, to suit even the most strenuous campaigner. From all the boroughs and villages of Wayne county people are planning to come into Honesdale to hear Mr. Tener and Mr. Reynolds and Mr. Houck and secretary of internal affairs and state treasurer are due here on the Delaware and Hudson train at 9:55 and they go away at 4:30—but during those six or seven hours the four distinguished members of their party in this state expect to shake hands with several hundred loyal Republicans as well as with a few hundred Democrats and a sprinkling of Prohibitionists and Keystone party men, besides making speeches—short ones—from the bench in the Wayne county courtroom.

The courtroom will hold something like 500 people—that is, it can accommodate this number with seats. There is not likely to be anything more than standing room when, at 2:30, the meeting is called to order. The women are to be given the choice of seats, and the fair auditors are urged to come in early and avoid the rush so far as they can. The county committee are very anxious for the women to be there. John K. Tener is a good-looking man, whom pretty much everybody, men as well as women, seem to like personally—and there are other reasons.

Alleged Deal in Favor of Berry.

Burton L. Rockwood, chairman of the Prohibition state committee, in a statement said the Keystone party was trying to sandbag Madison F. Larkin, Prohibition candidate for governor, off the ticket and substitute William H. Berry.

While in Pittsburgh Mr. Rockwood said he was told a movement was on foot to have Cornelius D. Scully withdraw as candidate for state treasurer on the Keystone ticket to allow Mr. Larkin to take his place. The vacancy left by Larkin, he said, was to be filled by Berry.

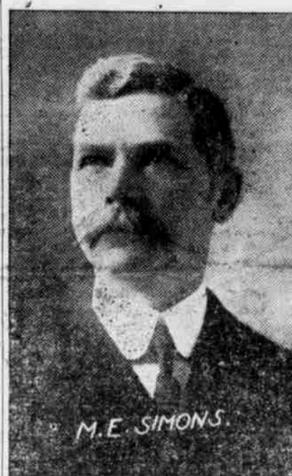

Copies of two letters have been sent out by Mr. Rockwood, which he believes tend to prove that such a movement was on foot. One of these letters is addressed to Mr. Larkin by S. E. and J. B. Hoover of Glendale. They urge him to withdraw in favor of Berry, and contend that such a step would advance the cause of the Prohibition party.

In reply Mr. Larkin says that his withdrawal would be ruin to the Prohibition cause. He also declared that Berry was a perpetual candidate for fifteen years and that he was a traitor to the Prohibition cause.

WHAT TWENTY BUSHELS OF OATS WOULD BUY THEN AND NOW.

FARMER: "To-day under Protection, my 20 bushels of oats are good for 2,300 shingles or 357 feet of spruce lumber. Fourteen years ago, the same oats would buy only 1,500 shingles or 270 feet of spruce."

Chairman of the Republican County Committee.

But Grim Will Stand Pat.

While members of the Keystone party who believe their fight is hopeless with Berry as their candidate want him to quit and are suggesting several men as available to succeed him, none of the influential Democrats will admit that the withdrawal of Grim to permit of a fusion nomination is being seriously considered.

Test Case Against Keystone Party.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 22.—The test case involving the question of the right of the Keystone party managers to dictate the nomination of candidates for congress, state senate and the legislature throughout Pennsylvania was filed in the Dauphin county court.

James T. Nulty of Philadelphia is the plaintiff. He claims to be the authorized candidate of the Keystone party for state senator in the eighth Philadelphia district, and that Senator John T. Murphy, the regular Republican candidate, for whom papers have been filed also under the Keystone name, is not the choice of the Keystone party under the party rules and the law.

The case will be heard Saturday. Upon the outcome of this case will depend various controversies of a similar character.

—Everybody will be at the fair this year.

HON. C. F. WRIGHT, Republican Candidate for State Treasurer.

Elks to Honor John K. Tener.

SCRANTON, Sept. 22.—Scranton Elks are planning to show John K. Tener, the Republican gubernatorial candidate, one fine big time Friday evening, following the big mass meeting at the new town hall.

Politics will be forgotten at this affair and good fellowship will reign supreme. A committee is now working out the details for the reception. It will be held at the Elks' home.

Mr. Tener is very popular among the members of Elks lodge, No. 123, of this city. He is one of the popular members of the order in the organization, and has been grand exalted ruler.

Mr. Tener in Carbondale.

CARBONDALE, Sept. 22.—Hon. John K. Tener, the man who will be next governor of Pennsylvania, accompanied by State Treasurer C. Fred Wright, Hon. John R. Farr and others will be in the city Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock and will hold a reception at the American hotel. It will be a good opportunity for the voters to meet face to face the man who will be governor and also Mr. Farr, who will probably be the next congressman. County Chairman Edward A. Jones will also be with the party. The voters of the city are invited, irrespective of party, to attend the reception and meet Mr. Tener.

More About That Hendricks Apparatus.

The Carbondale Leader interviewed several of the Honesdale delegation that went over the Moosicks Monday to negotiate for the Hendricks fire company's $4,500 outfit. Here is what they said:

"I think it is a very unwise move on the part of the city of Carbondale to abolish the Hendricks Hook and Ladder company. You have a fine apparatus here, a well trained team of horses and an experienced driver, and the equipment should never be allowed to be sent out of the town."—John M. Lyons.

"We are after the entire outfit. We want the horses, truck and also the new city ambulance."—Mayor John Kubbach.

John E. Brown of Carbondale said: "The abolition of the Hendricks Hook Ladder and Chemical company is by no means due to public opinion, but it seems to be a case of where the public has no say in the matter."

UNITED STATES POSTOFFICE.

By direction of the postoffice department, the attention of patrons of this office is invited to the advantages of providing facilities for the receipt of their mail by erecting conveniently accessible boxes or cutting suitable slots in their doors. Such action would enable the postmaster to give a prompter and better delivery service with the means at his disposal, since the carriers can cover much more territory in less time if not compelled to wait for an answer to their ring. Private receptacles for mail are also a great convenience to the householder, obviating the necessity of responding to the carrier's call at inconvenient moments and permitting the safe delivery of mail in the absence of members of the household. They also prevent the occasional necessity of a carrier's proceeding on his route without delivering mail because of failure to answer his ring within a reasonable time, and enable him to make deliveries to patrons living on or near the end of the route at an earlier hour.

It has been shown by actual experience that the benefits derived by patrons of city delivery from the use of such receptacles far outweigh the small expense involved. As this office is interested in furnishing the best possible service at the least expense, your compliance with the foregoing suggestions will be much appreciated.

BERRY TO GET OUT OF RACE?

Predicted That Keystone Candidate For Governor, Realizing Absolute Hoplessness of His Effort, Will at Last Moment Withdraw from Contest with Tener, Grim and Larkin--No Report from Chester Man.

FUERTH IS LOSER

NAME OF JACKSON WILL GO ON KEYSTONE TICKET AS CANDIDATE FOR MEMBER OF LEGISLATURE FROM WAYNE COUNTY—HONESDALE MAN HURRIED PAPERS TO HARRISBURG WITHOUT THIRD PARTY'S NAME.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 22.—The campaign committee of the Keystone party has decided that the name of H. Clark Jackson of Tyler Hill, Damascus township, shall go on the Keystone ticket as legislative candidate from Wayne county and that the name of Leopold Fuerth, who has all along felt confident he would be the Keystone candidate for Harrisburg from this county, shall stay off.

Mr. Jackson is the Republican candidate. He was nominated at the June primaries. Mr. Fuerth is the Democratic candidate.

Mr. Fuerth, as soon as the third party, now the Keystone, called its Philadelphia convention in July, had Prothonotary M. J. Hanlon prepare papers to preempt the name of the new party, a space for this being left blank, and sent them to the prothonotary of Dauphin county at Harrisburg. The name of the new party adopted and its nominations made, the name was wired to Harrisburg by one of Mr. Fuerth's friends, a political and legislative writer on a Philadelphia paper, and the name was filed in at the capital.

HON. LEOPOLD FUERTH.

The papers for Mr. Jackson were prepared by George P. Ross of Honesdale and sent to Harrisburg by Rev. J. B. Cody of Bethany, a close friend of the Republican candidate. The Jackson papers, Mr. Ross said Wednesday, were all kick-proof, for the name "Keystone" was in its proper place before they left Honesdale and that, Mr. Ross declared, is more than Mr. Fuerth can say.

The friends of Mr. Jackson have all along asserted their confidence that he would win the disputed place on the Keystone ticket.

Mr. Fuerth does not discuss the matter, though he showed his disappointment when asked about it. He said he still believed he'd be elected. He has had four terms in Harrisburg.

The Meeting at Orson Church.

ORSON, Sept. 22.—A meeting will be held at the Orson M. E. church Friday next. Rev. L. C. Murdock, D. D., superintendent of the Scranton district, will have charge of the services, which will begin at 10:30 a. m., 1:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Rev. James L. Race of Scranton, who was pastor here nearly 50 years ago, will speak in regard to the early history of Methodism in this section. Rev. Mrs. W. E. Blandy of Rowland will be present and help with her inspiring words and song. Other speakers expected are Rev. Jonas Underwood of Scranton, W. W. Wood of Honesdale, and the pastors of neighboring churches. All of these services will be spiritual, helpful and inspiring. Dinner will be served by the Ladies' Aid societies of the charge at 25 cents. Proceeds to be applied on the parsonage fund. All other entertainment is free.

[Special to The Citizen.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—A prediction that William H. Berry will not be a candidate for governor when the polls shall be opened for the casting of ballots on Nov. 8 next was made here Wednesday night by one who is in a position to know the inside workings of the independent political movement.

The question of his retirement was discussed at a conference in this city. Although emphatic denials are made by Thomas L. Hicks, chairman of the state committee of the Keystone party, and others that anything of the kind is contemplated, it is known that many who participated in the formation of the Keystone party are now opposed to the candidacy of Mr. Berry.

The statement that Mr. Berry will not be in the field in the closing hours of the campaign was not made with the thought that there is to be any fusion deal effected embodying the withdrawal of both Berry and Grim and an agreement upon another candidate whose name shall be placed at the head of both the Democratic and the Keystone party tickets.

TO MEET HOSPITAL DIRECTORS.

Women Interested in Project But Want More Light on Proposition.

At their meeting Tuesday in the assembly room of the Lyric the Ladies' auxiliary to the Honesdale Hospital association decided to appoint a committee of 11 to confer with the directors of the hospital association at a meeting Friday night at 8 in the city hall. At this meeting, the pro tem officers stated today, an effort will be made to determine the exact status of the hospital it is proposed to build here—to determine, in short, whether it will be a state institution, drawing regular support from Harrisburg, or a local institution to derive its support from nearer sources.

The president pro tem, Mrs. W. H. Swift, named the committee, the members of which are Mrs. Swift, Mrs. W. J. Van Kuren, Miss Tillie Weiss, Mrs. Leopold Fuerth, Mrs. Carl F. Prosch, Mrs. M. E. Simons, Miss Alice Birdsall, Mrs. Daniel Osborne, Mrs. W. T. Moore, Mrs. McKenna and Mrs. Tracy Lightizer. They will meet the directors of the hospital association, who are W. B. Holmes, Andrew Thompson, Henry Z. Russell, H. T. Menner (chairman), Frank P. Kumble, John Banker, F. C. White of Hawley, C. H. Dorringer of White Mills, T. J. Finerty, Martin Cauleff, Myron E. Simons, J. A. Brown, Leopold Fuerth, J. P. Katz and M. J. Hanlon (secretary).

Addresses favoring the hospital were made by Rev. Albert L. Whitaker, Mayor John Kubbach, Frank P. Kumble and Leopold Fuerth.

The main desire of the women, Mrs. Swift said today, is to see if the hospital is to be a state institution. She said the women are ready and eager to help raise the money, but they want a little more information.

Amos Ward Is In Office Again.

Health Commissioner Samuel G. Dixon has notified County Medical Inspector H. B. Ely that he has reinstated Amos Ward as health officer for Dyberry township.

Inspector Ralph Irwin of the state board of health, who was expected in Honesdale today, County Medical Inspector H. B. Ely having received a letter to that effect Wednesday, had not reached here this afternoon. He is supposed to have the results of the recent water and milk tests, which were sent him at Bedford, Columbia county, where Mr. Irwin went from Honesdale to put in a filtration plant.

Miss Lydia A. Rohrbacher, aged 59 years, of Newfoundland died Wednesday morning. Her grandfather was the original settler of that place. She is survived by three brothers, John and Henry of Sterling and Francis of Newfoundland, and two sisters, Mrs. A. E. Blair of Tobyhanna and Miss Annie Rohrbacher of East Orange, N. J. The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence. Rev. E. W. Webster will officiate.

—The National Elevator and Machine works are running night and day just now to keep from being swamped with orders. They have 150 men at work. The Diamond Cut Glass company has a lot of work and night work has been in order this week.
