Believes In Education.

For his clean-cut, manly and frank discussions of the issues of the campaign, Candidate Tener has been commended upon every hand. He does not hesitate to express himself freely upon all questions and is taking the people into his confidence as he goes from place to place, meeting the voters face to face, and grasping them by the hand and impressing all with his candor and sincerity.

In chatting with a well known educator the other day, Mr. Tener said:

"I firmly believe that education, coupled with good sound common sense, will do more to obliterate the thought of anticipated and imaginary dangers in the future than any other agency that can be invoked. I am a firm and everlasting believer in the cause of education. It has served where modern equipment in the hands of a well-drilled militant force would have been without avail and has done more to make the United States the wonderful nation that she is than anything we have ever known.

"Build school houses, have compe tent instructors, interest the youthful minds, and happiness and clean, godly lives can be the only result."

WILLIAM F. BAKER.

New York Police Commissioner, Who Faces Removal.

New York, Sept. 20.-John Purroy Mitchel, the acting mayor, has gone to St. James seriously bent on asking Mayor Gaynor to assent to the removal of Police Commissioner William F. Baker. Before he left the city hall Mr. Mitchel told the reporters that he had no doubt of his own power of removal, but that he wanted to keep the promise he had made not to remove of Mayor Gaynor's appointees without Mayor Gaynor's consent.

Mr. Mitchel made little effort to evade inquiries as to the object of his journey to St. James. He did not care to say in so many words that he was going to ask for Baker's dismissal, but he did say that such was the natural inference to be drawn.

He made it plain that he believes the responsibility for the ineffective police work relating to gambling and other matters which was brought to his attention by Commissioner Fosdick's sleuths lies on Baker's shoulders. He thinks Commissioner Baker has been insubordinate, and he carried to Mayor Gaynor a letter Baker had written to him declining to take the blame for open gambling and street walking and laying the conditions to the embargo on precinct plainclothes men. The acting mayor thinks that this complaint is a reflection on Mayor Gaynor, since it was Mayor Gaynor who forbade the use of such agents.

Mr. Mitchel said that he would make Police Commissioner Baker's letter public and that he would have no statement to make until later regarding his conference with the mayor. He intimated that the statement would have to do with the matter of Baker's removal.

CAVALIERI THE VICTIM.

Mr. Chanler's Property So Involved That She Can Get Very Little.

New York, Sept. 20 .- Within two days Robert Winthrop Chanler or his attorneys will file a paper with the county clerk of New York revoking the power of attorney he gave Lina thousands he pledged her in their famous ante-nuptial agreement.

In the contest between the American awyers of Chanler and the French maitres retained by the diva the the Americans have found another loophole, and when Cavalleri gets here to "take over" her "dot" she will find that Chanler has left her nothing at all except pretty promises of all his wealth, without even the semblance of a chance to make them good.

Mme, Cavalleri-Chanler is about to sail to New York with the full expectation that "Sheriff Bob" will rus back to her arms and importune his trusices and his family to make a "decent settlement" at least. She imagines, despite his debts that she never knew about and the entailments which were told first last week, that she still has a chance to win out by $5,000 or $10,000 a year anyway, even if the Chanler family remain obdurate and refuse to donate a cent,

But it happens that E. E. Perkins, the lawyer of the Chanler estate, and Mr. Harris, the personal lawyer of "Big Bob," held a long and important conference.

They agreed that the income from nine-tenths of the property "Bob" tried to give to Cavalleri couldn't be collected by her in many, many months, because it had been willed to him for purposes of income only; also, much of the remainder of his income is so tied up that the opera singer will find It unremunerative.

Lodge Overcome After Few Puffs at Republican Outing.

Boston, Sept. 20.-Senator Lodge was overcome at the Republican outing in the same manner that he was once when a boy behind a barn. A big cigar in both cases proved his undoing.

This is not very complimentary to Councillor J. Stearns Cushing of Norwood, who furnished the cigar, but the senator thinks that he probably got the black sheep of the cigar box.

Senator Lodge was not very well when he started for the Norwood outing. He had eaten something that did not agree with him and his stomach was a trifle disordered.

He was taken into Mr. Cushing's parlor, where tobacco smoking was tabooed, and after sitting in an easy chair for ten minutes recovered en tirely.

LANDLADY REVEALS PLIGHT.

Mrs. Jackson at Inquest Reveals Distraught Condition of Girl Typist as Latter Awaited Alleged Poisoner's Fulfillment of Promise to Wed.

London, Sept. 20.-Something of what Ethel Clare Leneve suffered as, half mad with jealousy, she impatiently waited the fulfillment of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen's promise to make her his wife, was revealed at the last session of the inquest into the death of Bel Elmore, with the murder of whom th doctor and his typist are jointly indicted.

In her distress Miss Leneve confided in her landlady, Mrs. Jackson, and the story that the latter told on the witness stand rivaled the most sensational evidence introduced at the murder trial.

Mrs. Jackson said that the accused girl gave up the room which she had occupied at the home of the witness on March 12, explaining that she was leaving to be married to Dr. Crippen.

Until the first week in February Miss Leneve had slept regularly at Mrs. Jackson's. After that she stopped at the house only occasionally. She said that she spent the other nights at the homes of friends. On one occasion Miss Leneve mentioned having been at the Hilldrop Crescent home of the Crippens early in February to help the doctor in a search for a bank book which showed an account of $1,000. She added that a diamond tiara and rings had been found in the house, and that the doctor had raised $850 on

About the middle of February, the witness said, Miss Leneve appeared most miserable and depressed. Such was her state that Mrs. Jackson followed the girl to her room to learn if possible the source of her trouble. Miss Leneve, the witness said, was in a terrifying state of agitation. Her eyes seemed fairly starting out of her head. The girl talked of death and threatened suicide by poison. The landlady insisted upon an explanation, telling the girl that she must have something awful on her mind to be in such a condition. The witness testified that the other replied:

"Would you be surprised if 1 told you that it was the doctor and Miss Elmore? He was the cause of my trouble when you first knew me. She is his wife, and when I see them go away together it makes me realize my position as to what she is and what I

Mrs. Jackson asked, "What is the use of you worrying about another woman's husband?"

To this Miss Leneve answered; "Miss Elmore has been threatening to go away with another man. Dr. Cripper has been waiting for her to do so when he would divorce her." Selicitor Newton, who is looking out for the interests of Crippen and Miss Leneve, closely cross examined Mrs. Jackson, suggesting that her lodger's excitement was due to the landlady having resurrected a trouble which the girl experienced during her earlier association with Crippen, but the witness maintained the correctness of her evidence as given.

ROOSEVELT SEEKS AID.

President Taft at New Haven Regarding State War.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 20.-Colonel Roosevelt came to President Taft for ald in his fight against the organization in New York state. The conference took place in New Haven, where President Taft was attending a meet ing of the Yale corporation.

The colonel made no specific request for action on President Taft's part, but it was apparent that he and his friends had sought the conference for the moral effect that it would have in the New York state contest.

The president made it clear to Mr. Roosevelt that he is in sympathy with his fight against the bosses, but he also told the colonel plainly that he would not mix up further in the New York state situation. He told Mr. Roosevelt that he would stand square ly on the letter which he had written to Lloyd C. Griscom soon after the meeting of the Republican state committee in New York city.

Although Mr. Roosevelt's supporters to declare that their opponents would be outvoted in the Saratoga convention, the impression prevailed that Colonel Roosevelt and Mr. Griscon now find themselves in a mighty tight hole and that they had turned to the meeting with Mr. Taft as a possible means of saving the day. Mr. Roose velt's followers professed to be entirely satisfied with the outcome of the meet ing with Mr. Taft.

manner manner JAMES S. SHERMAN.

Vice President Who Faces Strong Revolt In His Home County.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 20.-Vice President Sherman is having today a fight for his political existence. The opposition to him as candidate for temporary chairman of the Republican state convention at Saratoga centers in the primary contest today to elect delegates to that convention from Oneida county.

It is generally agreed that the vice president will win in the First assembly district, and it is believed he will carry the Third district, but the Sec ond district, in which Mr. Sherman's home is located, is in some doubt. The progressives, led by former As semblyman Hart and Senator Daven port, have trained their heavy artillery on the Second district, and the closest fight in the county will probably be waged there. The "old guard" figures on getting about 65 per cent of the delegates in all the assembly districts, which will result in the Sher man forces controlling the three district conventions and sending their delegates to the state convention.

The Era of New Mixed Paints!

This year opens with a deluge of new mixed paints. A con who attended the conference continued | dition brought about by our enterprising dealers to get some kind of a mixed paint that would supplant CHILTON'S MIXED PAINTS. Their compounds, being new and heavily advertised may find a sale with the unwary.
