DREHER.

Special to The Citizen. Dreher, Pa., Oct. 24.—Absalom Phillips met with a painful accident on Tuesday of last week. He was engaged at picking apples and in order to have the ladder stand firm, which he was using, he blocked one end of it up with a small stone. He slithered from the ladder to a limb of the tree and when he got back on the ladder the stone had rolled from under it and allowed it to tip, throwing him to the ground, a distance of about twelve feet, spraining one knee, besides a number of other bruises. He is unable to move and is under the doctor's care. Mrs. Amelia Graser lost a valuable hog a few days ago. It was operated on a short time ago by Thomas Simons and the operation did not prove a success. John Singer and family have moved to the Nelson house on the old north and south turnpike to Scranton. The chicken supper, given by the Ladies' Aid society, at the Union church last Friday evening, was a real success, financially and otherwise. The sum of $15.14 was added to the treasury. We neglected to mention in our last epistle that Raymond, John and Mamie Hause, Maurice Gilpin and Rose Angel, were in attendance at the Wayne county fair on Oct. 4th. John Hazleton and Edgar Cross trapped a 60-pound cub bear about 10 days ago and disposed of it to some down county meat drovers. A baby has returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Heffley. He has been employed for some time at Saranac Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Searle, of New York city, are guests of Mrs. Carrie Voeste and family. Alfred Walters is doing quite an extensive business in gathering and shipping ferns and other varieties of vines and leaves, used in the cities for trimming and decorating. He has several men employed and is shipping to New York city. Mr. Walters is in Sullivan county, Pa., at present looking after his business in the same line. Edward Hay, residing on the property of T. H. Gilpin in Dreher, and William Heberling of Greentown, were driving a pair of colts a few days ago, when they suddenly made a start, throwing both men from the wagon, breaking Hay's arm near the wrist, and dragging Heberling for some distance, bruising him considerably. Both men were pretty well shaken up. Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Brown, of Easton, were guests of Mrs. Jane Brown on Oct. 22nd and 23rd. Mrs. David Hause is under the care of Dr. Gilpin, suffering from a feminine weakness. Clyde Burrus had the first husking bee of the season last Thursday evening. The corn crop is good and we are liable to have more husking bees. Mrs. James W. Gilpin and daughter, Sioux, both of Greentown, Pike county, started Oct. 17th for Southern California. A Young People's society, Christian Endeavor, has been organized at the Union church, with a membership of 26. The following officers have been elected: Mary Hause, president; Alice Cross, secretary and organist; Harvey Crow, treasurer; Rose Angel, corresponding secretary, and assistant organist. Meet every Sunday evening. Mrs. John Nelson, of Scranton, spent several days of last week as the guest of Mrs. Jane Brown and family.

BRAMAN AND KELLAM.

Special to The Citizen. Braman, Oct. 24.—We are having beautiful weather and the farmers are busy gathering apples and delivering them to Hankins where they are shipped by the carload. The highest price paid is thirty-eight cents per one hundred pounds. The largest crop of buckwheat we have heard of this year was raised by D. M. Stalker, four hundred and ninety-four bushels. If there is any one in the county can beat it we would like to hear from them. Mrs. Warner Adams and two daughters and Miss Elma White, of Port Jervis, visited their mother, Mrs. Mary White, recently. Mrs. William Lawrence, of Matamoras, spent last Friday and Saturday at S. F. Lawson's. Mrs. Mary White is spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Barriager, in Forest City. Mr. and Mrs. William Adams are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl born Oct. 13th. They now have a nice family, two boys and two girls. Frank Bauner, an operator near Susquehanna, is home with his parents for a two weeks' vacation.

BETHANY.

Special to The Citizen. Mrs. George Hauser and Fred Hauser spent last Sunday at the Fitzze home in Whites Valley. Edwin Day, of Rileyville, and Miss Florence Kessler, of Rutledgedale, were united in marriage at the manse Tuesday, Oct. 18th, at 11 o'clock by Rev. J. B. Cody. There were a few friends in attendance. Miss Cody is in Honesdale in attendance on Mr. Galvin who underwent an operation for appendicitis Thursday. Mrs. Ben Blake has been indisposed for the past week with an attack of acute indigestion, but is improving. Harry Pethick, of Hawley, came Thursday to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. Lavinia Pethick. Mrs. L. Pethick spent Sunday in Hawley. Mrs. Woods left for New York Saturday to visit her son. A week ago Sunday the iron that holds the bell in the Presbyterian steeple broke, and the sexton has been unable to ring the bell for two Sundays. It will soon be heard again. Supper will be served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hauser on Friday, October 28. All are invited. Price, 25 cents. Mrs. Larkin and Miss Boyd arrived Saturday evening at the parsonage and were in attendance at the morning service at the M. E. church. Miss Boyd preached one of her plain, good sermons to a large congregation. Rev. Signor will take them to Alden-ville to hold meetings there for two weeks. Charles W. Sutton has accepted a position with Martin Caulfield of Honesdale. Martin Heft has been helping Henry Bennett. Mrs. Robert Robertson and Miss Mattie Strongman moved on Tuesday to their pleasant home in Honesdale. Professor Oday and Lawyer Searle of Honesdale passed through here on a hunting expedition Saturday. Mrs. James Johns, who has been confined to the house with a bronchial affliction, is able to be out. The fore part of last week the many friends of Mrs. Starnes of Honesdale, mother of J. V. Starnes of this place, were alarmed at her serious condition, but we are glad to hear that she is improving. William Bodie, of Haines, whose sudden death occurred Friday evening, was well known here. His sons, Joseph and Ernest, live here. The funeral will take place Monday afternoon at two o'clock, burial in the glass factory cemetery. Mrs. Alvora, of Carbondale, and Miss Jennings, of Prompton, spent Friday with Mrs. James Johns.

Carr, of Dunmore, was a recent business caller in town. H. H. Tyler, of Scranton, is at present in a sanitarium at Hartford, Conn. His many acquaintances hope he may be benefited. Mrs. W. D. Yerkes spent last week in Honesdale as the guest of her son, W. J. Yerkes. Miss Florence C. Skinner spent a part of last week in Honesdale as the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Williams. Miss Mabel Skinner returned home Thursday evening, after a delightful visit at Hackensack, N. J. Merlin Ilman came home from New York last Thursday. Mrs. L. Mortridge has a new piano. Miss Bessie E. Skinner leaves this week for New York city for an indefinite stay.

CENTERVILLE.

Special to The Citizen. Mr. and Mrs. John Becker and daughter, Edna, are visiting friends in Scranton. Anna Walker returned home on Saturday after spending a few days in Scranton. Mark Swingle, of Ariel, visited at R. Marshall's on Tuesday evening, Oct. 18th.

Quite a number from here attended the "shoe social" at the Arlington school house Thursday night. All report a good time. Margaret Marshall visited at J. F. Walker's Wednesday, Oct. 19th. John Belcher, of Scranton, spent a few days last week at J. F. Walker's. Fred Becker called on Lakeville friends recently. Nettie Kimble visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kimble, recently. Walter and Andrew Van Leuren, of Ariel, called on Centerville friends last Sunday. It was a very rainy day here on Saturday last.

ARIEL.

Ariel, Pa., Oct. 24.—Misses Denise and Dessie Swingle, of Twin Maples, called on their friend, Miss Katie Field, who has just returned from the S. D. A. Industrial school of Tennessee, N. Y. Katie is a fine young lady and we are glad to see her smiling face in our midst once more. Walter Swingle and son, Mark, attended the sale at Treslarville. Mark will be the coming auctioneer when he gets his voice trained. Gray squirrels and pheasants begin to look scarce. I wonder why? Byron Trester and wife attended the funeral of Charles Williams at Hamlin Thursday last.

Watch Your Buttermilk!

Long Eddy, Pa., Oct. 24.—The family of Walter Kessler, who lives on Cole's Flat, across the Delaware river from Long Eddy, were all poisoned the fore part of last week from drinking soured buttermilk and eating cooked stuff that had been made from the buttermilk. One little girl five years old, died immediately after drinking the buttermilk, while a little boy thirteen years old, drank so much of the buttermilk that he was only slightly affected, it acting as an emetic. The oldest girl, eight years old, is now lying at the point of death and the prospects are that she will not recover. The doctor has given up all hope of saving her. The buttermilk had stood in a tin milk can, and as it soured the acid absorbed the lead from the can. Different estates were made with the buttermilk and it was some time before they knew what caused the sickness. As a result those that were sick kept getting worse and finally the whole family became ill. Mr. Kessler has the sympathy of the whole community in his bereavement and it is hoped that the remaining members of his family may quickly recover.

—We do good job printing here. The prices are right. Treatments nicely done here. Come in and give up a trial order. We will be pleased to greet you.

IN THE COURTS JURORS BUSY

At this time the jury who were out in the case of Commonwealth vs. Allen Bodie, on the charge of alleged assault and battery, brought in the verdict that the defendant was found "not guilty," but ordered to pay four-fifths of the entire costs, and the prosecutor, Osmond Neal, one-fifth of the costs.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Joe Kelly, Lewis Dexter, William Wright and Oliver Wright was then taken up. The case was the alleged taking of beer in Hawley from a car on July 1. R. M. Salmon, Esq., addressed the jury. The case which began late in the morning session was started, and would likely occupy all of the afternoon session.

The first witness called was Chauncey Tyler, who testified that he was in Hawley on July 1 around 10 p. m. After supper at the hotel he went down town. He started for Taft, laid down, went to sleep. He got to Hawley July 1st in the morning.

At this juncture the jury in the Henry Thompson case brought in a verdict of guilty on the second count of the indictment, i. e., larceny. Chauncey Tyler then testified further. Lawyer Harnes made several objections as to the trial of the defendants on two separate indictments at one time, but was finally overruled by Judge Searle. Chauncey Tyler testified that Harry Klouse broke open the car. The beer was drunk a quarter of a mile from the car, which was standing on the freight track in the West Hawley yards, and was an Erie refrigerator car. Two cases of beer were taken. Tyler admitted making a confession before Squire Aamerman on July 21. Tyler said Joe Kelly was not there on the night the car was broken open, nor were Ollie Wright or William Kelly. On July 1, Tyler said he was in Hawley drinking up to 10 p. m. He had supper at Lewis Dexter's. He then detailed his movements that evening. Harry Klouse went into the car on the night of June 30. Two cases were taken out that night. Tyler said he saw H. Klouse take hold of handle of car and open it. Court adjourned until 2 p. m.
