

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.
STERLING.

The "O. M. Convention" Has Good Effect.
Special to The Citizen.
Sterling, Pa., Oct. 31.—After months of fine weather, we are now having some days that are not so pleasant.
At F. G. Swingle's vendue on the 26th, most of the things brought a fair price.
John G. Catterson's health is not good of late.
L. F. Ammerman had the misfortune to fall off a load of lumber and quite badly injure one ankle.
Percy Musgrove has been living at Niagara Falls for some time past, but is now spending a few days with Sterling friends.
A couple of months ago Ray Stevens had a horse that run a nail into its foot, and the animal does not improve very fast.
Our faithful and accommodating mail carrier, Grove Shearer, is taking a fortnight vacation—if he can stand so long a rest—and P. M. and John Gillner are enjoying a pleasant vacation also.
On the 23rd, Rally day was duly observed in the Sunday school, and everything passed off nicely. The church presented the appearance of a county fair, and we had the best collection of fruit, grain, and vegetables in the church that we ever saw in Sterling.
On Sunday evening the Ladies' Aid gave a "harvest home supper" and realized about $15.00. We also had a number of songs, solos, etc., and the readings, declamations and masquerade parade and exercises were greatly enjoyed. Everybody voted the whole performance a success.
The "Old Maid's Convention" set a number of the bachelors a-thinking and now reports says one fair young Twig is blooming for one sturdy farmer, and in another case the climax is reached and Frank E. Kendrew and Miss Katie M. Neville were united in the holy bonds of matrimony this week. Congratulations. One evening a number of their friends called upon the happy couple and gave them a welcome.
Mrs. O. W. Noble, of East Honesdale, is the guest of her brother, Albert Bortree.

WHITES VALLEY.
Special to The Citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. William Spry have left their summer residence here and gone back to their winter quarters at Wilkes-Barre.
George Buckland, of Waymart, formerly of Carbondale, met with a very painful accident last week while shingling a house at Waymart. Mr. Buckland had placed a 20-foot ladder against the building thinking it safe and all right. He started for the roof. When getting almost to the top the ladder slid and went to the ground, carrying Mr. Buckland with it. It was thought at first that he was seriously injured. No bones were broken, but he was terribly bruised and shaken up.
Farmer Denny raised a fine crop of potatoes this season, but Merchant Dimond wouldn't risk but a few bushels as he hasn't forgot the egg deal yet.
Butcher Arthur is very busy of late, bleeding hogs.
A large hoot owl was captured in the Bobolink's sugar bush Saturday, measuring three feet and eight inches from tip to tip.
Last Thursday morning a large silver gray fox came within 40 rods of the Bobolink's residence, picked up a fine, big rooster, and walked away at his leisure.

Elsa Brown, who teaches the Ashland school, spent Sunday with Minnie Hocker.
