Henry Harder, whose illness we mentioned last week, succumbed to that dreaded malady, Bright's disease, Saturday at 1 p. m., Nov. 5, at his home on Bone Ridge. The deceased was born in Germany. When 18 years of age he came to this country. For many years he has owned and operated successfully his farm on Bone Ridge, which he made very productive by his own methods, coupled with unceasing toil, ably assisted by his wife and children. During the dull season on the farm, he was busy making farming implements at which he was successful.

The funeral of Elias Swingle was held at the home of his uncle, Edward Swingle, on Friday at 10 a. m. The cortege later proceeded to the M. E. church at South Canaan, where Rev. Thomas Hooper preached a very interesting and consoling sermon to the friends of the departed. Interment was made at East cemetery.

Revival meetings commence at Gravity M. E. church, Sunday evening, November 20, continuing for two weeks by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Morrison.

Temperance keeps the senses clear and unimpaired. It appears with life in the face, and decorum in the person; it gives you the command of your head; secures your health; and preserves you in a condition for business. Oh! Temperance thou fortune without envy; thou universal medicine of life; that clears the head and cleanses the blood, eases the stomach, strengthens the nerves, and perfects digestion. Above all, let the poor hang up the amulet of temperance in their homes.

Attorney Taylor, of Wilkes-Barre, addressed an Anti-Saloon League meeting at Gravity, Thursday, November 31, at 8 p. m. Services for November 13, East Canaan M. NEWS FROM HAWLEY

Heavy Snow Storm at Hawley—Death of Henry Harder.

Special to The CITIZEN.

Hawley, Pa., Nov. 8.—Thursday's snow storm did considerable damage here by way of felling many fine shade trees. Nearly every tree bears traces of the unusually heavy weight of snow. From midnight until the following evening, the electric power was out of business, closing all shops depending on it until Saturday. Lines were down and the linemen are still busy repairing the damage.

Richard James, of Bohemia, was a week-end visitor of friends in town.

Mrs. Lange and little son, Russell, of Brooklyn, arrived on Friday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Reuben Ames, and other relatives.

Mrs. Rudolf Kahleis, of Woodland avenue, recently fell down stairs and broke her arm.

Cathleen Keary, a little miss of 2 1/2 years, while playing about the barn where her uncle was carpentering, unseen by him, got too close to the axe he was using, and nearly severed the end of her finger.

Little Mary Barrett gave a party to her young friends Thursday evening. Among them was a Sweet Marie singer who delighted the company with several fine selections.

Mrs. Mary Pennell went to Ariel Tuesday to pay a visit to Mrs. Jane Killam.

On Wednesday night, the Odd Fellows initiated two new members. After the degree work was over, the Noble Grand, Carl Racker, served a toothsome spread, to which all did ample justice.

Richard Phillips, of Paupack, is clerking for Merchant Fred Swingle, of the east side.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Wall are entertaining guests from out-of-town. Among them is Mrs. W. H. Crocker, of Boyd's Mills, a sister of Mrs. Wall.

Henry Grover, of Dunmore, enjoyed a few days' gunning in this vicinity, the latter part of the week, stopping with Mrs. Alice Degroat.

Herman Eberding moved into his new house last week.

Rudolf Karbis has severed his connection as bookkeeper for the Atkinson Lumber Company.

Harry Stone made a business trip to White Mills on Saturday.

USWICK & LAKEVILLE.

Special to The CITIZEN.

Uswick and Lakeville, Nov. 8.—Henry Harder, an aged farmer of Bone Ridge, died on Saturday, Nov. 5. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn their loss: Edward and Henry, of Hawley; Frederick and Annie, of Waymart; and Elizabeth at home. Funeral services were held at Hawley Monday, between the hours of two and three in the Methodist church. Interment was made in the Methodist cemetery at that place. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church. The bereaved family have the sympathy of their friends at this place.

Lulu Cortright went to Toledo, Ohio, on Wednesday last.

On Thursday, the snow commenced falling at this place, and continued through the night. It was 16 or 18 inches deep on Friday, and Mr. Dopp, assistant mail carrier on Hamilton route, experienced considerable difficulty in making the trip to Hawley, on Friday morning, as the snow drifted in places. It was 3 1/2 and 4 feet deep in the road, between Mr. Haney's and Mr. Jordan's. He drove into a drift and could not get through it. He had to get out of the wagon and lift the wagon around and turn around, and go back, and drive through the drift. One of his horses fell down three times. He arrived at Uswick postoffice at ten minutes of 12, nearly 2 hours late. Between Mr. Ruescher's and Wilsonville he found two large trees across the road, blocking the whole road, but he drove around past them, and proceeded on his way arriving at Hawley at 2 p. m.

Everyone has been snow-bound at Uswick since Thursday, but people began to get out again on Sunday.

Mrs. H. W. Clark, of Paupack, has been visiting Mrs. Charles Utt, Mrs. Charles Crane, and Mrs. S. R. Crane during the past week, and called on Mrs. Olmsted on Saturday, as she was returning to her home at Paupack. She also attended the Ladies' Aid at Mrs. A. Goble's, at Lakeville, on Wednesday. There were about thirty people who attended the Aid. Among them were some of the Uswick people, Mrs. Kizer, of Hawley, Miss Myrtle James and friend, of Cherry Ridge, Mrs. Myron Locklin, of Forest City, Frank James, of Ariel, Rev. and Mrs. Purkiss and others of Lakeville. The men who attended the Aid put a new roof on the parsonage.

Henry Groner, of Pittston, arrived at the home of his friend, C. H. Pennell, of Uswick, on Thursday for a few days' sport hunting rabbits.

Harold Crane, of Scranton, spent a few days of his vacation at his home at Uswick, the latter part of last week.

After having had such fine weather this autumn, this cold weather and snow came very unexpected. Some of our neighbors have their corn out in the fields yet, while others have some of their potatoes in the ground, and others were plowing and picking stones.

Edward Smith, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has sold his farm at Uswick to a party from New York.
