

In lilac calice; Around her slender waist was tied An apron white as spert.

HE WATCHED HER PROM THE OPEN DOOR.

For in the sunny kitchen wide Of a farmhouse far away She cooked the turkey to a turn Upon Thanksgiving day.

HE watched her from the open door, For he was very shy, And all his manly courage fled Before her roguish eye. He lay awake the livelong night Until the east was gray And memorized a flowery speech To her Thanksgiving day.

A TRIM and dainty maid was she, "STAR of life, my heart is thine. Pray, wilt thou be my bride?" Was something like the way it ran, But now his tongue was tied, And though she sought to lead him on With looks and laughter gay, The sweet coquette, he only sighed On that Thanksgiving day.

BUT, lo, when from the even's depths The smoking bird she drew And dished it in a paper frill Upon a platter blue,

"OR, WILL TOU COOR MY TURKET, DEAR P The bashful lover seized her hand And dared at last to say, "Oh, will you cook my turkey, dear, On next Thanksgiving day?" -Minna Irving in Leslie's Weekly.

Will make a little dimmer.

The First Thanksgiving. The first Thanksgiving in New England is described in a letter written to a "loving and old friend" and dated at "Plymouth, this 11th of November, 1621." This "loving and old friend" is supposed to have been a certain George Morton, who had married a sister of Governor Bradford and who came over to Plymouth in July, 1623. The letter is signed E. W., and these are taken to be the initials of Edward Winslow Of the 102 emigrants who landed on the 11th (old style) of December, 1620, on the bleak coast of Cape Cod, almost one-half had died and nearly all of the remainder had suffered seriously from destitution and the rigors of the winter, for which they were ill prepared. The reward, however, of the industry of the few who were not disabled was so abundant as to call forth the thankfulness of this very religious colemy. The letter alluded to says: "You shall understand that in this little time that a few of us have been here we have built seven fiwelling houses and four for the use of the plantation and have made preparation for seven others. We net the last spring some twenty acres of barley and peas, and, according to the manner of the Indians, we manured our ground with herrings, or, rather, shads, which we have in great abundance and take with great case at our doors. Our corn did prove well, and, God be praised, we had a good increase of Indian corn, and our barley indifferent good, but our peas not worth the gathering."

A little clerk.

Thanksgiving. Let us give thanks! What! Anything to be thankful for. You have got What You can't be thankfu! for? Ob. may. That's no way

A little jerk.

A little dirk.

To feel about a good thing! Brace up and bring Yourself to the front. Don't growl and grunt And do the sorry stunt. Pull out of the ruck If you're down on your luck And reach for the skies that are blue. Get out of the shade Your troubles have made By heck, it is up to you! We know this is a vale of tears, Chuckful of woe and sorrow, And turkey that we eat today is not so good tomorrow. We know that labor is a cross, But still we have to hear it. We know that fortune breaks sometimes. And we cannot repair it.

Occasionally good things come our way. Don't they? Sure they do, And bully ones too. So let us growl and swear and kick On every day save one. On that one let us pause and thank The Lord for what he's done The way we thought he ought to do To square himself with me and you. We can stand for one Thanksgiving day, Can't we? By gum, If everything is on the bum We must be to blame some!

MINNESOTA'S TWO GREAT BAC : FIELD MEN.

Much credit must be given to Quarterback Johnny McGovern and Captain and Halfback Liste Johnston for the great showing of the Minnesota eleven this senson, Since the start the pair have hone bril liantly on the gridiron. The great ground gaining and kicking and dodging have been features JOHNSTON. of all the Gopher games. The pair are undoubtedly the greatest backs that ever appeared on a Gopher eleven.

Last season McGovern was the selection for All America quarterback, and the honors will be given to him again this year. Had Johnston not broken his leg in the game with Nebraska last year he would have undoubtedly been given a place on the All America, This year he is entitled to one of the halfback positions. All season he has shone brilliantly. He is one of the best dodgers that ever appeared on the western gridiron. Johnston, although not as spectacular as his teammate, McGovern, is every bit as valuable. Both boys are working their way through school and will graduate next year. Although his leg was broken in the game with Nebraska last season, the plucky halfback refused to remain in bed. His physician permitted him to sit in a rolling chair for a few days, but John ston had football on the brain. and the Gophers' games with Chicago and Wisconsin were at hand. He demanded that the doctors allow him to see the two games. His request was granted. During the game with Chicago Johnston was being rolled up and down the side line in a wheeled chair. So excited did he become at times that he could hardly keep his broken leg at rest.

KEEP YOUR BOWELS REGULAR IN NATURE'S WAY.

If your bowels did not move for a week or ten days you would be down sick. It's when your bowels do not move regularly at least once every day. You become con-stipated, your blood gets bad, and you feel sick all over. To avoid such serious conditions take Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills. They will drive bowel poison out of your system and establish regularity. These little pills are purely vegetable and work wonderful results in one night.

Remember that bowel poison is the direct cause of slow, wasting fevers, loss of memory, female weakness, nervous prostration and general debility. Bowel poison leads on to misery and death as surely as constipation or heart disease; the well-advised use of Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills will core and establish bowel, stomach and liver health. Sick at night, well in the morning. Physicians use and recommend. They form no habit. You should always keep them on hand. These little Vegetable Pills will ward off many ills.
