An Ocean Voyage!
The golden dream of every girl, every woman.
To make that dream come true the CITIZEN offers five trips to the Bermuda Islands absolutely free to the girls and women of Honesdale and vicinity.

Every woman has, some time in her life, dreamed of taking a trip on the ocean.
Perhaps she hasn't been able to save money enough for the trip. Maybe she did not want to go alone. Then again maybe she "never found the time." But without doubt she has often dreamed of such a trip and wished fortune might arrange it for her.

Fortune Has Arrived.
Well, Fortune has arrived! Its other name is THE CITIZEN.
During this fall when the wintry breezes of Pennsylvania begin to blow and your friends at home are making preparations for heavier clothing THE CITIZEN is going to take you to the famous Bermuda Islands, the "land of the Lily and the rose," the place where the temperature remains the same the year around.

Remember all the expenses will be paid by THE CITIZEN from the time you leave your doorstep until you return home.
Just think of it! Five most popular and respected young women will be on the ocean, warm and comfortable or having a good time in the never changing climate of Bermuda, while the employees of THE CITIZEN are at home making a paper that justifies this enterprise--on an Eleven Day Personally Conducted Trip to Bermuda--ALL AT THE EXPENSE OF THE CITIZEN.

Almost Beyond Belief.
Surely this trip is almost beyond belief, isn't it?
Maybe we are going too fast for you to fully realize just all we have said. Read over the full conditions and then make up your mind to be one of the party by sending in your name.

Know how long this trip will last? Almost TWO WEEKS. And all the cost of travel, carriages, hotels, even "tips," that bugbear of the tourist, will be borne by THE CITIZEN.
No women need fear embarrassment of any sort on this trip, even though she be alone. The conductor of the tour is an experienced individual with broad shoulders to bear all the trouble burden; all "Our Tourists" will do is to absorb the pleasures.

It reads like a fairy tale, doesn't it? Like putting on a wishing ring, or rubbing Aladdin's lamp or sitting on the enchanted rug.

But it isn't a fairy tale. It's actual FACT as you will discover for yourself if you are one of the fortunate.

Now read every word and then decide that you will be one of our guests.

Bermuda, "An Ocean Paradise."
The Islands of Bermuda are not so well known. Although they have been immortalized in song and story, it is only of late years that American tourists have come to realize what a wonderful resort they are. Truly "an ocean paradise." Tom Moore, the great Irish poet, sang of Bermuda as "These leafy isles upon the ocean thrown."

Like studs of emeralds o'er a silver zone."
Many others equally enthusiastic, but less gifted, have re-echoed his praises.

The Citizen Tourists.
The CITIZEN Tours to Bermuda are for eleven days, personally conducted and include, in addition to transportation, hotel accommodations and an excellent program of drives, excursions, water trips, etc., as follows:
Carriage drive to St. George's, the Caves and the Devil's Hole.
Admission to Joyce's Duck, Admiral Cave or Crystal Cave.
Admission to Tom Moore's house and admission to Devil's Hole.
Carriage drive to Gibb's Hill Lighthouse.
Steamer trip to Submarine Gardens and admission to Aquarium.
Moonlight or Searchlight Trip to the Reefs.

The Submarine Gardens viewed from glass bottomed boats, are a kaleidoscopic marvel. Here are most exquisitely tinted growths that are to be found at the bottom of the sea, and in and out among the wonderful flora dart fish of every hue and form.

The Bermuda Trips.
The expense of sending five young ladies on an eleven-day trip to Bermuda is great but THE CITIZEN is willing to pay royally to find out just who have the regard and respect of their neighbors in this town and surrounding territory.

This is the biggest prize a newspaper in a city the size of Honesdale in Pennsylvania ever paid for information of this character.
The preparations for this contest have been far more elaborate than those preceding any contest ever conducted in this part of the state.

It is a big game and it is going to be most interesting.
Read the rules of it below, then read about the trips. Cut out the nomination blank and fill it out with your name or that of a friend.

As soon as it is convenient for you to do so, call at the office of the contest manager in THE CITIZEN building and he will tell you all about the competition and HOW YOU CAN WIN.

It doesn't cost anything to send in a nomination. We want real live bona fide hustling contestants.

These rings will be on display in a few days. Watch for a full description later.

EPISCOPALIANS HOLD CONVENTION IN HONESDALE

Autumn Meeting Scranton Archdeaconry In Grace Church, Tuesday--Dr. Israel Tells How It Feels to Be Elected a Bishop Churches in Prosperous Condition--Two Bishops Speak--Appropriations for Mission Work.

The autumn meeting of the Archdeaconry of Scranton was held in Grace church, Honesdale, Rev. A. L. Whitaker, rector, on Tuesday. Opening services were held on Monday evening, November 21, in Waymart, White Mills and Indian Orchard.

At Waymart, Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock, evening prayer was celebrated in the First Presbyterian church, followed by addresses from the Rev. Rogers Israel, D. D., rector St. Luke's, Scranton, and the Rt. Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Bethlehem.

At White Mills, Monday evening, evening prayer was conducted, with addresses by the Rev. Edward D. Johnson, secretary of the Archdeaconry and the Rev. John Talbot Ward, rector St. Clement's, Wilkes-Barre.

At Indian Orchard, in the school house, Monday evening, addresses were delivered by the venerable D. Webster Coxe, D. D., archdeacon of Scranton, and the Rev. Henry B. Smith, rector Christ church, Stroudsburg.

Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, in Grace church, the Holy Communion was celebrated, and the sermon preached by the Rev. W. W. Williams, St. Luke's, Scranton.

The business session of the archdeaconry was convened at 11:30 a. m. Archdeacon Coxe presiding. Prayers were made, and the clergy roll called.

Those present were: Bethlehem: Rt. Rev. E. Talbot, D. D., LL. D. Scranton: Rev. W. B. Beach, Rev. Robt. Blickensderfer, Rev. Rogers Israel, D. D., Rev. R. I. Murray, Rev. W. W. Williams. Wilkes-Barre: Rev. E. R. Noble, Rev. J. T. Ward. Milford: The Ven. D. W. Coxe, D. D. Towanda: Rev. E. A. Gernant. Plymouth: Rev. J. H. Griffith. Sayre: Rev. H. L. Hannah. New Milford: Rev. E. A. Heim. West Pittston: Rev. E. D. Johnson. Jermyn: Rev. C. B. Mee. Carbondale: Rev. John Miller. Troy: Rev. R. K. Tucker. Dunmore: Rev. Richard Whitehouse.

Honesdale: Rev. A. L. Whitaker. The minutes of the 234th session, held at Carbondale, were read and approved. Cordial greetings were extended to three of the clergy, who had entered the archdeaconry since the last meeting. They are: Rev. Richard Whitehouse, Dunmore; Rev. Robert Blickensderfer, Scranton; Rev. John Miller, Carbondale. In welcoming them, Dr. Coxe referred to "the spirit of unity and brotherly love which has always characterized our clergy." No committees were ready to report; and no election of officers is made at the autumn session.

The appointment of a place for the next meeting of the Archdeaconry was the next item. It was decided to hold the next meeting in Carbondale, the third Monday in January. Rev. Dr. Rogers Israel, Scranton, said, "I am not sure I know where I will be at in January, so I can't extend an invitation."
Rev. W. E. Daw and Perot had left the Archdeaconry within the past biennium, to accept calls in New Jersey. The secretary was instructed to write them. Visiting clergy, Rev. Mr. Wehr, Rev. Howard Diller, Pottsville, were welcomed. The list of preachers for next meeting was announced as consisting of Revs. J. A. Brown, D. W. Coxe, S. D. Day; of Exegetes: Revs. R. I. Murray, H. B. Smith, R. K. Tucker. The book reviewer will be "the oldest one in point of residence who is willing to take the task."

The committee on the choice of a text for exegesis reported progress. As the whistles blew, and the clock struck the hour of noon, the Lord's Prayer and the Prayer for Missions was offered. In referring to the question of appointments, Rev. Dr. Israel said: "I believe if all of us did what we could there would be no shortage."
The matter of co-operating with the Reading Archdeaconry in the carrying on of the work among the Deaf Mutes evoked considerable discussion. It was finally decided that the work of issuing a pamphlet be left in the hands of a committee, Rev. Dr. Rogers Israel, Scranton, Rev. E. R. Noble, Wilkes-Barre, and that the archdeaconry back them up financially. Reference was made to the excellent work done by Rev. Smilan, in this line, in Wilkes-Barre. A list of parishes contributing to this work, and the amounts they raised was read by Rev. Dr. Israel, the total being $165.60 or just $84.40 short of the amount apportioned. Of this amount Grace, Honesdale, gave $5; St. Luke's, Scranton, $51.60; St. Stephen's, Wilkes-Barre, $50.

A committee of three, Revs. J. H. Griffith, Plymouth, A. L. Whitaker, Honesdale, E. D. Johnson, West Pittston, was appointed to draw up suitable resolutions on the recent election of Rev. Dr. Israel to the Bishopric. Archdeacon Coxe said: "I consider we are sharing the high honor which has been conferred on our distinguished brother at Scranton." The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote.

Dr. Israel, who was visibly overcome with emotion, said: "I suppose I ought to say something. Three weeks ago if I had been asked if I would be elected as Bishop, I would have said "Yes." I have been so elected, and I think the most miserable days I spent in my life have been those since."

Dr. Coxe replied: "You have the profound affection, confidence and prayers of those who know you. We have had great comfort in the advice and help you have given us. You have our prayers and hopes."

A vote of thanks was also extended to the rector, wardens and congregation of Grace church, for their hospitality.

The committee on "White slave and social evil conditions" was on motion discharged, and a new committee on "Social Service" created, whose duty it will be to present reports from time to time, as deemed expedient.

Archdeacon Coxe then read his report, which was in the main, a summary of what the Board of Home Missions did at their last meeting. There is still a debt of $2,000 which it is hoped the parishes will shortly liquidate.

These appropriations were made for the Archdeaconry of Scranton: Pleasant Mount, Dundaff and Forest City $300.00 Providence and vicinity 200.00 Peckville and Jermyn 100.00 Pittston and vicinity 200.00 Wilkes-Barre and vicinity 400.00 Oakland and Susquehanna 200.00 Stroudsburg and vicinity 300.00 Taylor, St. Davids (Scranton) and vicinity 350.00 Canton 75.00 Troy 300.00 Olyphant and Dunmore 300.00 Great Bend and New Milford. 200.00

$3,125.00
Special work was carried on very successfully during the summer at the rate of $25 a month, mostly by students, at these places: Sterling and Hamilton, Rev. R. Blickensderfer, Rev. L. B. Skeen; Wyalusing and Stevensville, Clarence R. Wagner; Dingman's Ferry, Ray Eltingham; Susquehanna, Thos. J. Dewees.

Leonard Hall will shortly receive a bequest of $5,000. The Rev. D. S. Day, Forest City, said Dr. Coxe, "had a very prosperous year. The church was rebuilt and renovated. The church at Dundaff was made to look almost like a new church. Rev. Day preserves our congratulations and appreciation." $500 has also been set

IT BRINGS THE SHOPPERS OUT

Merchant Says Average Shopper Heads the Announcements Before Leaving Home and Then Maps Out a Route--Interesting Facts For Buyers in Columns of THE CITIZEN.

With Christmas less than six weeks off, the fall shopping season is rapidly approaching its zenith. A backward season which found summer lingering in anticipation of a brisk fall trade quieting to the merchant who had unpacked his fall and winter stock early in anticipation of a brisk fall trade. Week after week the balmy weather of the early fall months prompted the average folks to cling to their summer toggery as long as possible. And they did. The result was reflected in the stores and the season opened slowly.

With the coming of the snappy cool weather of the past fortnight came also a change and the shopping section of the city these fine afternoons is filled with a busy throng of buyers. Mingling with the resident shoppers daily may be seen hundreds and hundreds of folks from the surrounding territory giving the city a truly metropolitan appearance.

It is with no little pride that it may be said of Honesdale that for ordinary or even special requirements the shopper need look no further. Every want can be taken care of by the merchants of this place, and it is a noteworthy fact that shoppers from many another community, realizing this fact, set apart one or more days in the season to visit the stores of the Maple City.

"And say, perhaps you think the average shopper nowadays doesn't know just what he, or she wants," said a well known merchant to a CITIZEN man yesterday. "Just ask any of the clerks and they will tell you that, in a majority of instances, the prospective buyer mentions some special offering which has been advertised and these are the little things that convince the dealers that their appropriations for advertising are bringing results. Very few shoppers start out from their homes on blind shopping trips these days. They scan the announcements in the papers before starting away and usually have a route mapped out and know just what they are going to ask to see when they come in the door. This is the modern way and it makes it easier for the shopper for the merchants and for the clerks."

The columns of THE CITIZEN just at this season of the year are replete with interesting news facts for buyers and the thrifty housewife who is beginning to figure just how much her exchequer will permit her to appropriate for a gift for father, mother, son, daughter, uncle, aunt, cousin, grandfather, grandmother or friend, is keeping a close eye on the announcements. The live merchant is wide-awake to this condition of affairs and just as important as opening the door of the store for business each morning is his heart-to-heart talk with his customers through the columns of the most widely read newspaper in Wayne.

aside for use at Stevensville, Wyalusing, Springville and Tunkhannock. Rev. Howard Diller, Pottstown, was then introduced. He suggested the advisability of having the Board of Missions secure a layman to inform the vestries monthly of the progress made by the various parishes in making up their appointments.

Charles J. Arnold read his report as treasurer. The balance on hand April 18 was $23.16; the total receipts were $43.16; disbursements, $42.06; balance on hand $1.10. It was brought out that the clergy were paid mileage to attend conventions.

Adjournment was made at 1 o'clock, and a dainty luncheon was served the clergy and delegates by the Parish Aid society.

The afternoon program was as follows:
2:30 p. m. Missionary Address, The Right Reverend Robert L. Paddock, D. D., Bishop of Eastern Oregon; Exegesis, Acts 1:11, Rev. Ellis
