Don. CENT A WORD COLUMN anineal. ICACIERCICACIÓN DE LO DE IF IT'S A DOCKASH that is all previous year. you need know about a stove. Join the DUCKASH army and be happy. MURRAY CO., Honesdate, Pa. 9412 IF IT'S COUCHES, see them at Brown's Furniture store, 93012 FOR SALE OR RENT-One-story factory building 125 by 75 feet. Covered with Century (fire proof) shingles. New steam heating plant. some. 200 feet of shafting and 2 motors. Apply the Herbeck-Demer Co. 1f IF IT'S leather and wood dining chairs, go to Brown's Furniture 93coli EXTENSION TABLES best and cheapest at Brown's Furniture 93eol: Largest variety at prices to interest you at MURRAY CO., Honesdale. PA. CUTTERS, BOBS trips. KITCHEN CABINETS on sale at Brown's Furniture store. 93012 Weiss. IF IT'S CHINA closets, on sale at Brown's Furniture store, 93012 FOR RENT-7 rooms and bath, gas and furnace. 616 Church street. Inquire at house. SIDEBOARDS that are sideboards at Brown's Furniture store, coi2 FOR SALE-Kelly & Steinman brick factory building, including engiue, boiler and shafting. Inquire of 50tf J. B. Robinson.

IF IT'S Buffets-call at Brown's Furniture store. 93eo12 store.

store.

cows; 1 Percheron colt, 18 months d. W. P. Downing, Beach Lake. —Otto Visit FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE four old.

BLANKETS, ROBES, HARNESS and HORSE GOODS of all kinds can be found at MURRAY CO., Hones-9412 dale, Pa.

LOCAL MENTION.

--- Christmas comes next.

Edson Blandin, Scranton, was a business caller in town last Wednesday.

-William H. Krantz has resigned as a member of Board of Directors of the Dime Bank.

-Isaac F. Tibbits, a prominent business man of Reading, is spending several days in town.

-Joseph W. Hunter, State High-Commissioner, spent Tuesday way in Honesdale inspecting the new state road which has just been completed.

-The Navy cadets beat the Army cadets at foot ball by 3 to 0 last Saturday. It was hard fought bat-tle, and won by a Navy cadet kicking a field goal.

-The Lestershire Endicott Record last week issued a splendid colored Thanksgiving number, brimful of news and running over with advertisements.

-Harold Yerkes, Olaf Spettigue, Jr., R. B. Brenneman, Honesdale, and Cyrus Brenneman, West Virspent last week hunting at ginia. Lord Valley, Pike county, Harold Yerkes had the good fortune to shoot a deer.

-Edson R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick V has been with the Trader's National tigue, Sr., Mr. Everett Spettigue, Mrs. Bank, Scranton, for several years, Grace Seaman, Miss Anna Seaman, has been promoted from a clerkship to the delight of his many friends.

-The owner of the talking dog -Hurrah! Our flag floats on," has refused $15,000 for the 103,992,667 American citizens.

the management of the Commercial Eim City, Notel. Her sons are associated with ____A ch

-Pennsylvania leads in the poul-try business. Over 12,000,000 fowls treasurer. alsed this year and 75,009,000 dozen of eggs produced. That is going

-Two of the High school teachers at Newton, New Jersey, are Wayne county girls-Miss Nellie Brennan, of Pleasant Mount, and Miss Jennie Osborne, of Ariel.

-J. Owen Olver, Beach Lake, is the newly appointed carrier of Honesdale R. D. 4 route. A circuit of 25 miles and a clientele of 250 amilies, are included in his daily

-Misses Carrie Weiss and Tillie Weiss returned home from New York, Tuesday, where they had been called by the sad news of the death —In S of their brother, Attorney Samuel

-The Epworth League had Thanksgiving social in the Methodist church which was a very en-joyable affair. Misses Brown and Hiller deserve great credit for the social success of the affair.

-St. John's Guild, composed of sixty-five Lutheran young men, re-cently elected these officers: Presi-dent, Royal Reichenbacher; vicepresident, Olaf Highouse; secretary, John Pohle; treasurer, Geo, A. Rippel.

-Active preparations are being made by the various Sunday schools of Honesdale for the celebration of the festival of Christmas. It is said

State Hospital, Scranton, Tuesday night. de was 71 years of age. The funeral was held Friday by Rev. B. Ripley, and interment was at Indian Orchard.

-Mrs. Dieffenderfer addressed three large and enthusiastic audi-ences in the First Presbyterian church last Sunday on "Home Mis-sions," Her vivid descriptions of life in Alaska, Porto Rico, and Utah charmed all who had the pleasure of hearing her. -The Waymart High School bave arranged for a splendid course of entertainments. The first will take place on February 22, and will be intervals. Principal Watkins has shown excellent judgment in the se-lection of the entertainments, and they should be generously patron-ized. Secure your tickets early

-Merchant Charles W. Dein's meat market on Main street was the centre of attraction last week, the carcasses of several large deers hanging in front of the show window being the objects that caused many passersby to stop, look and inquire. It appears that the deer were ship-ped here by the four famous Wayne county hunters: John Burcher, Robert Breneman, George M. Genung and Isaac Sandercock.

-Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Spettigue, Jr., gave a dinner party at their home Jr., gave a diffiner party in onor of Mr. on Thanksgiving day in honor of Mr. William Seaman of Oklahoma City, who has been visiting his mother. Wise a fine buck—actually killed by bullets from the trusty Winchester in the hands of the Honesdale phy-for Mrs. Grace Seaman, and sister, Miss Anna Seaman. There were present dinnor guests O. M Mr. Seaman and William Seaman. responsible position with the Okla-

-Hurrah! Our flag floats over -The Bachelors will entertain at

The pension roll is decreasing, their second monthly dance in Lyric on business this week, -Mrs. H. B. Searles is packing vious year. --Mrs. C. J. Weaver has assumed moving to her father's bungalow in A charter has been granted to her in the management of the busi-ness. the Union Cut Glass company, of which W, J. Keltz is president and Leonard Guckenberger secretary and "The Thief" which is booked for the Lyric this evening played to the largest and most appreciative audiach-are Lyric Theatre, New York.

> -If anybody connected with the Waymart High school calls on you to buy a ticket for their entertainment course, don't hesitate. It's a good It's a good investment for you and them.

-The supper given by the Ladies' Aid society of Seelyville was a decided success from every standpoint. The menu was good, the service excellent and the attendance was up to expectations. The receipts netted

-In St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, Thanksgiving Day morning, before an unusually large congregation, Pastor C. C. Miller delivered an able and eloquent Ger-man sermon in keeping with the spirit of the occasion.

-William Farrell, who lives at Mt. Pleasant, fell from a loaded wagon and was badly hurt. It is thought a sudden fit of dizziness seized him, and this with the jolting of the wag-on caused him to fall. He is under Dr. Ely's care and is coming around alright.

-One of the deer which is hung up in front of Dein's butcher shop was killed by every Honesdale hunter who has visited Pike county latewhisper how they did the deed, with the request not to say anything about it to any one elem about it to any one else.

"The Nigger," a great drama of the South, came to Honesdale Friof Bohemia, north of Kimbles Sta-tion, Pa., died of septicemia at the said that it captivated a most apwitnessed the great play left the playhouse thoroughly convinced that it was one of the best plays ever placed before the Lyric footlights. -The revenues of the state are to ents, Dr. and Mrs. Pierson B. Peter-increased ten millions of dollars son, 1126 Main street. be increased ten millions of dollars by an act which the Republican legislators are to try and pass at the next meeting of that body. The plan for raising same is to tax automobiles, anthracite coal and corporations. The increased revenues are to be used for school purposes and for increasing teachers' salaries.

-J. B. Starnes, a well-known work upon a house in Seelyville, he slipped and fell to the ground. "I never even hurt myself," he said in describing his miraculous escape to a CITIZEN man. "I went home to bed, and slept all day, and woke up next day feeling all right, but rather stiff."

Dr. H. B. Ely, Deputy Postmaster J. N. Sharpsteen, both of Hones-dale, and Dr. O. E. Marcey, of Scranboarded the 2:50 Erie train ton. Monday afternoon for Kimbles where they went to hunt deer in the wilds of Pike county. The 6:56 Erie of the same evening carried the worthy hunters back to the Maple City along with a fine buck-actually killed by bullets from the trusty Winchester sician. Surely some hunting for about two hours in one afternoon,

Prof. Davis spent Sunday in Scranton. Leo Levy, New York, is in town

F. A. Jenkins spent Tuesday in Waymart on business. Charles Griffin returned to Schenectady on Sunday last.

Leon Kaiz was the guest of New York relatives last week. C. L. Dunning was a business caller in New York last week. Miss Georgiana Martin spent Sunday with Scranton relatives Horace Brown and bride returned Monday from their honeymoon. Emil Herbeck returned Monday from a business trip to Hallstead.

Mrs. Samuel Tolley and daughter, Edith, spent Sunday in Scranton. H. Z. Russell and daughter, Mar-lette, spent Thanksgiving in New York

part of the week

Raymond Bodie, of Scranton, was the guest of his parents here the latter part of the week.

Miss Jessie Williams, of Carbondale, passed Sunday with Miss Bes-sle Tompkins of this place. Judson Smith, of the Consolidated

Telephone Co., Carbondale, spent Monday in town on business. Mrs. Lina Oram, of Carbondale, is isiting her cousin; Mrs. Frederick C. Farnham, on North Main street.

Mrs. S. A. McMullen, Jr., passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Dennis, of Carbondale

Miss Faith Clark has returned to her school duties in New York after spending Thanksgiving with her parents here.

Miss Antoinette Durland, who is attending Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, John O'Connell returned Friday from a two weeks' trip in the interest of the National Elevator and Machine company.

Miss Wilhelmina Smith entertained the members of Episcopal choir preciative audience and those who at her home on Church street, Thursday evening.

David Peterson, a student at Lehigh University, spent the Thanksgiving recess as the guest of his par-

William L. O'Connell, Treasurer of the National Elevator Company, New York city, was in town spending Thanksgiving with his parents at their home on Court street.

NECROLOGY.

Polley was a very popular young man and enjoyed a wide circle of friends who deeply mourn his early departure. Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at Ham-

An estimable woman, Miss Susan Bryant, died this morning, Nov. 29, at four o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ruth Dix in Bethany. She has been ailing for some time and for the past two weeks her condition has been serious. Complication of diseases part of the Stephen Torrey farm. She was a good woman and bore her sufferings with patience and fortitude.

win Bryant, in the Soldiers' Home in Virginia, and Amzi Lark Bryant, in the real estate business in Scranton.

The funeral will probably be Thurs-will have charge of the funeral.

Andrew Hansen died of

J. Samuel Brown, undertaker, o'clock, aged twenty lin.

Llewellyn Elton Polley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Polley, died at his parents' home in Seelyville, Tuesday morning, at half-past ten Seelyville, again be a candidate for the years and three months. The immediate cause of his death was tuberculosis. Until recently he was a clerk in Bregstein Bros. clothing store. Mr week here caring for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hurley, who has been sick with pneumonia, ing relatives and friends in Hones-dale this week on her way home

H. P. Maxwell, Pittsburg, has been

Mr. Maxwell is a clever checkexhibitions of his skill at the Thanksgiving at Hawley as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beardster, Miss Annie, and son Charles, Susquehanna, spent Thanksgiving Paul Loris, of Scranton, was a and the week-end with the former's business caller in town the latter sister, Mrs. James P. Kelly, of sister, Mrs. James P. Kelly, of Church street.

dents of Honesdale.

Miss Anna Ward returned to Scranton Monday after passing the

Mrs. D. Daniels, Scranton, is visit-from a visit with her daughter. James Palmer and family at Hawley.

spending several days in the Maple City. Mr. Maxwell is a clever check-er player, and gave soveral interest-Hotel Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Collum and daughter, Martha, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Ridgeway and son Helmar, spent

Mrs. Martin O'Malley and daugh-

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brecht, of Scranton, were recent Honesdale visitors. Mrs. Brecht was formerly Miss Bessie Croghan, daughter of Mrs. Marcella Croghan, former resi-

Prof. and Mrs. R. T. Davies spent Thanksgiving with the former's relatives in Montrose. Mrs. Davies went to her home in Washington, D. C., where her husband will join her for the Christmas holidays.

John W. Lewis and family, of Orson, wish to extend an expression of thanks to those who so kindly aided them during the illness and sudden death of his wife on Nov. 22, 1910.

-Sign of success-the Bell telephone

A CARD OF THANKS.

B. PETERSON, M. D. 1126 MAIN STREET, HONESDALE, PA. cound Ear a specialty. The fitting of glass-given careful attention.

CONTRACTOR AND A DESCRIPTION

GUARANTEED Water Bonds TO VIELD From 5 to 6 per cent. In denominations of 100, 500 and 1,000 If interested call on or address D. D. WESTON, Office: Foster Block 9th and Main St. Honesdale, Pa. 71116 BENJ. H. DITTRICH. - - -THURSDAY, DEC. 1st E. J. CARPENTER PRESENTS THE N. Y. LYRIC THEATRE SENSATION. IHE -BLUE-MOUSE

BY CLYDE FITCH 14 MONTHS IN NEW YORK 6 MONTHS IN CHICAGO Prices: Main Floor 1.50, 1.00 & 75c. Balcony 75 & 50 Gallery 30 Sale Starts at the Box Office at 9 a. Wednesday, Nov. 30.

Better Cigars For the Money.

adv.

The price part is important ; but it is not everything. In fact it is the easiest part of our duty to the public. By buying direct, selling direct, and by conducting business under the most nonia Monday morning at his home on Terrace street. Mr. Hansen was economical conditions, we can handle the BEST GRADE OF born in Germany April 22, 1845. CIGARS at the LOWEST PRICES. For example :

and came to America when nine years of age. Forty years ago he Robt. Burns, Perfecto, 4 for 25c-$1.55 box of 25.

A. O. BLAKE, the cattle dealer, who will office of Register and Record-

-The Whatsoever Circle will hold their church fair and supper in the homa-Gas and Electric Company. M. E. parlors Thursday, December 1, afternoon and evening. Fancy articles, aprons and candies for sale. The Household booth will be a specialty. An unusually good menu will served. Price 40 cents. First table at 5:20.

---Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Freeman, his way by his unfailing courtesy Baltimore, Md., are spending some and politeness, and his many friends time as the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Freeman. Mr. Freeman has been very successful pany whose business interests he is since leaving Honesdale several years ago, and his many friends are Messrs. Simons and Green, long absence.

lehem diocese, at the fifth annual convention held lately at West Pitts-ton. H. W. Stengal, at the site-ton. H. W. Stengal, H. W. Stenga meeting, was elected a member of came near being the victims of a the executive committee.

The Keystone Guard, another of the 5-year dividend paying insurance companies, has gone out of existence by consolidating with the American Patriots of Springfield, III. This Illinois association is very strong financially, and will meet all the obligations of the "Guard" in the same manner as they have discharged them heretofore.

hundred and sixty-three million galarettes and over 400 million pounds of plug, fine cut smoking and chewing tobacco. This is what the government reports.

temporarily assigned to Hazleton. number.

-It's "Manager" Louis Smithing now, his official position with the Bell Telephone Company having been advanced from agent to local be manager of the Honesdale district which embraces all of Northern Mr. Smithing is winning Wayne.

so successfully advancing.

Scrandelighted to see him again after his long absence. the guests of Miss Luethel Kelz, Friday.

serious accident. Seated in their vehicle, a one horse buggy, they had reached Church street near Seventh, when a big red touring car came dashing along at a mile-a-minute rate, scaring the old stald horse, which was attached to the buggy, to such an extent that he raised up his fore legs, and when he brought them down to terra firma, one leg was between the buggy and whiffle-

In this hobbled condition, he -1910 was the banner year for drinks and smokes. The following figures show the consumption. One running gear, went only half a tree. running gear, went only half a block. Before halting, Miss Lillian hundred and sixty-tirtee infinite and sixtyanimal to a standstill. Miss Alma re-mained in the wagon, and managed by dexterous handling of the reins to keep him far enough away from the curb, which was lined with -Bishop M. J. Hoban has ap-pointed Rev. J. W. Balta, D. D., to them, which was a miracle, as the succeed the late Rev. William Das-sell as pastor of St. Mary of Mag-dalen, Honesdale. Dr. Balta was stationed in Weston, Luzerne coun-ty, as rector of the Sacred Heart church, where he has done excellent work among the foreign-speaking the foreign-speaking the sacred statistical statistics of the sacred statistics of work among the foreign-speaking people there. He is a graduate of the University of Appolinaris, Rome. Rev. C. P. Wassenkuhn, Hazleton, has been named to suc-ceed Dr. Balta, Father Wassen fording well. The young ladies, however, were considerably shaken up, but remained perfectly cool, while the horse had every appear-ance of being close to a nervous breakdown, but at last accounts was fording well. The young ladies, ceed Dr. Balta. Father Wassen-kuhn came to Scranton from Pan-ama several months ago and was Jr.

PERSONAL MENTION.

C. J. Gage spent Thanksgiving with his family in Scranton.

A. O. Blake, Bethany, was a caller in town last Friday. Archie Bayless, Susquehanna, is visiting in the Maple City. Miss Emma Furie, Equinunk, was caller in Honesdale, Friday. H. E. Riefler transacted business was the cause of death. Miss Bry-ant was a daughter of the late Wal-ter and Margaret Burley Bryant who in Forest City last Wednesday. Miss Matilda Reynolds, Tunkhan-nock, is visiting friends in town. were among the pioneer residents of Bethany and built their home on Mrs. John B. Strongman, New York city, is visiting in Honesdale.

J. V. Starnes, Bethany, was a business caler in Honesdale last

She was grateful for all kindnesses. Oldest member of the Bethany Meth-odist church. Deceased was 79 years David McLaughlin, Equinunk. transacted business in town last Friof age last August and is survived by two brothers, Capt. Samuel Ed-

Mrs. Frank X. Soete has been entertaining Mrs. Kingston, N. Y. William Lange,

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mueller, Chicago, are visiting friends and relatives in town. Miss Anna Bigart, Carbondale.

spent last week as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. F. H. Thomas. County Superintendent J. J. Koeher was called to Bath last week by the serious illness of his father. Mrs. Katherine Bryden, who has been visiting friends in Buffalo, N Y., for several months, has returned home.

Miss Amy Clark, teacher of music in Honesdale High school, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with New Jersey friends.

Miss Sara Enniss, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dunning, has returned to her home in Matamoras, N. Y.

Miss Pearl Griffiths, of Carbondale, returned to her home on Wed-nesday, after a several days' visit with Miss Minnie Miller.

Walter Bigart, Dunmore, and Raymond Bigart, Carbondale, spent Thanksgiving as the guests of their aunt, Mrs. F. H. Thomas.

Dr. George Butler attended meeting of the Lackawanna and Luzerne County Dental Society in Scranton Monday evening.

vous Mine Host John H. Weayer, the was geniul proprietor of the Hotel not Wayne, spent Thanksgiving in To-

John, and Mrs. Peter Krantz, Mrs. Belinda Christine Kerstges, of Carbondale, Noyo de Monterey..... and Mrs. Adam Seehl, of Bingham- Counsellor ..... ton. Funeral service will be held at 9:30 a. m., Thursday, from St. Havana Ribbon.....

Magdalen's church. A requiem mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father J. W. Balta, D. D.

pneu-

Perfectoes, $21.00 box of 100. .....)

Domestic. All shapes and sizes, $1.90 box of 50.

F. W. SCHUERHOLZ, THE CIGAR MAN.

Bregstein Bros. A Store for Men and Children who Care What They Wear.

Our Fancy Blue Serge Suit | And yet, our best pleased cusat $16.50 in a High Art is a winner.

Our High Art Suit this season at $15.00 in all shades is a big hit.

Overcoats for Business or Dress wear from $10 to $25. English slip on coats from $5 to $18.

Our Black Silk Front Coat at $16.50 is a winner.

We have entered upon the task of supplying Clothing and Furnishings to the men of Honesdale with some very definite ideas of what they want. The man we expect to please is the man who really cares enough about what he wears to give some time and thought to his apparel.

The man who knows good style when he sees it, the man who Our Neck Wear: The finest in appreciates the touch of distinctiveness and the mark of originality, the man who knows that quality is a factor to be considered before the price is mentioned.

tomers will be also the men who are careful of their money. Such men will find in the Bregstein Clothing Store and in the Bregstein Furnishing Store for Men as perfect a combination of sure quality and fair price as has yet been attained.

Our Hat Department: We handle such makes as the Knox at $3.00; the Gold Band at $2.00; our Pencle Curl at $2.00; our Cap line for Men and Boys from 25c to $1.00 in grays, stripes and blue.

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

Fancy Shirts: The new Columbia Shirt from $1.00 to $1.50; the Globe Shirt from 50c to $1.00, Union made.

town; from 25c, 50c to $1.00.

Our Glove Department is the finest and the largest in town. We handle the Just Right Gloves from 25c to $2.50.

day afternoon in the Methodist church with burial in the family plot Methodist in Bethany cemetery.

Quickly Cured by a Pleasant Germ-Killing Antiseptic.

The little Hyomel (pronounce it High-o-me) inhaler is made of hard rubber, and can easily be carried in pocket or purse. It will last a life-gauze within, and now you are ready to breathe it in over the germ-infested membrane, where it will speed-ily bgin its work of killing catarrh HYOMEI is made of Australian eucalyptus combined with other antiseptics, and is very pleasant to breathe.

It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, bronchitis, sore throat, croup, coughs and colds, or money back. It cleans out a stuffed-up head in two minutes

Sold by G. W. Peil and druggists everywhere. Complete outfit, in-cluding indestructible pocket inhal-er and one bottle of HYOMEI, $1.

And remember, if you need a second bottle of HYOMEI, G. W. Peil will sell it to you for only 50 cents. Free trial bottle of HYOMEI from Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

time Into this inhaler you pour a few drops of magical HYOMEI. This is absorbed by the antiseptic