SOUTH CANAAN.

"How To Meet Days of Mud and Snow"—Read On—The Value of Cheerfulness in South Canaan—And Elsewhere.
Special to THE CITIZEN.
 South Canaan, Pa., Dec. 3.—Rev. Thomas Hooper is reported on the sick list.
 Quite a good many turned out for the Union Thanksgiving service, which was held at the Free Methodist church, South Canaan on a Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Brother Hooper having charge of the service. The program was as follows: Hymn by the congregation; prayer by Rev. Wagner; Governor Stuart's proclamation read by Rev. Hooper; sermon by Rev. E. W. Morrison of the South Canaan M. E. church, subject, "Thoughtfulness versus Thankfulness." Psalm 26:7; Father Ena occupied the pulpit with the brethren of the ministry. He is the priest of the Greek Monastery at South Canaan. He made a short address felicitating the congregation at his pleasure in being present; benediction by Rev. E. W. Morrison.

 Mr. Loren Reid, who has been ill for some time, is reported to be considerably better at this writing.
 Friend Brisling's little baby is very sick with bronchial trouble.
 Mrs. Theo. Shafter is visiting her friends at Port Jervis for a few days. These are days of mud and snow and the only way to meet them is by being cheerful. There is no greater virtue than cheerfulness. This quality in man among men is like sunshine to the day, or gentle renewing moisture to parched herbs. The light of a cheerful face diffuses itself and communicate the happy spirit that inspires it. Why not make earnest effort to confer that pleasure on others? Half the battle is gained if you never allow yourself to say anything gloomy. If you can put one touch of a rosy sunset into the life of any man or woman I shall feel that I have worked with God. The mind that is cheerful at present will have no solicitude for the future and will meet the bitter occurrences of life with a SMILE.

DECEMBER.

December is here—
 The last month of the year,
 What a beautiful sight
 In its mantle of white.

The sleigh bells do jingle,
 Our ears, with cold, tingle,
 And from head to toe
 We are covered with snow.

When naught can be seen
 But a mantle of green;
 I'm sure we appear
 Very happy my dear.

A change in the weather
 Will do us all good.
 We'll lay off our bonnet,
 And put on our hood.

We'll lay off our frown
 And put on a smile;
 Take off the wheels
 And try runners a while.

Orpha Swingle, Author.

BIG STEEL MEN MEET.

Wages Won't Be Lowered, Although Business Is Slack.
New York, Dec. 1.—Representatives of practically all of the steel manufacturing companies in the United States at a meeting here discussed business. There have been meetings of steel men that were largely attended, but none before in which so many companies were represented.
 The meeting was held behind closed doors. Judge Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel corporation, said:
 "Representatives of 95 per cent of the manufacturers of steel in America discussed the condition in this particular line and expressed opinions concerning current prices."
 One of the men participating in the conference said that the fact that the mills were running but 50 per cent of capacity told a story of much idle labor. He said no reduction is contemplated by any of the companies in the near future.
 Judge Gary announced the details of the working of the $12,000,000 employees' pension fund.

What God Does for You.
 I made a muddle on a girl,
 Though courage I did lack,
 And, dear, she was so braisic that
 I had to driver back.

Then after put-ting back the child
 Straightway began to ball,
 But still I lofter dearily, so
 It would not do at all.
