—Richard H. Brown was unanimously elected Chief Engineer of the Honesdale Fire Department, fifty votes being cast for him at the special election held in Town Hall Monday evening.

—Prof. John M. Dolph, formerly principal of Honesdale public schools from 1878 to 1884, is reported seriously sick at his home in Port Jervis, where he has been principal of the Port Jervis school since leaving Honesdale.

—A teachers' institute will be held by the teachers of Pleasant township Saturday, December 10. The new course of study will be the chief topic of discussion. Patrons and friends of the schools are invited to be present.

—The officers and teachers of Grace Episcopal Sunday school will entertain the parents of the scholars of the school Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., in the Sunday school room. A "track-meet" will be held, which promises to be very amusing.

—While the census shows a healthy gain in the state as a whole the detailed figures show that there has been a falling off in many counties. These are mostly in the northern tier, in Bradford, Forest, Fulton, Juniata, McKean, Montour, Perry, Pike, Potter, Sullivan, Susquehanna, Union, Wayne, and Wyoming.

—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Greene, 1752 Main street, received the startling news, last Friday night, of the dangerous illness of their daughter, Miss Margaret, who is attending St. Agnes school, Albany, N. Y. The surgeons wired Mr. Greene that an immediate operation for appendicitis was imperative. Mr. Greene left Saturday morning for Albany.

—E. P. Kingsbury was last Friday night elected treasurer of Union Lodge, No. 291, Free and Accepted Masons, for the forty-eighth consecutive time, exceeding the record for continuous service among the Masons of this state. If not of the entire country. Mr. Kingsbury was elected first in 1862 after having served his lodge as worshipful master for a term.

—County Chairman B. F. Killam, of Paupack, states the annual farmers' institute for Pike county will be held in the Hemlock Grove church, Greene township, Jan. 4 and 5, and in the Paupack M. E. church, January 6 and 7. The speakers will be J. T. Campbell, a Crawford county farmer, who has been exceptionally successful in poultry culture; M. H. McCallum, farm and garden superintendent of the state asylum at Wernersville, Pa.; S. Woodman, who is engaged in general farming, fruit growing and market gardening in Bucks county.

—Last Friday, Rev. C. C. Miller, the popular pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, received the sad intelligence of the death of his brother-in-law, Charles Gilham, which occurred Thursday. Mr. Gilham, who is a married man of 35 years, was taken with pneumonia last Monday. He was a clerk in the Keystone National Bank, Reading. A wife and three children survive to mourn his untimely end. Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Miller and son, Franklin, left Sunday morning to attend the funeral services, which were held Monday in Reading.

—Miss Davis, San Francisco, speaks on missions in the M. E. church next Sunday.

—James Ashby has purchased the dry business for many years, conducted by Theo. Herbol.

—Representative-elect H. Clark Jackson, Tyler Hill, was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday morning.

—The Honesdale office of the Scranton Truth has moved from the Sharpsteen store to the Foster building.

—The regular monthly meeting of St. Philomena's Relief Society has been postponed until further notice.

—The wife of Rev. A. J. Van Cleft, former pastor of the local M. E. church, is seriously ill at her home in Great Bend.

—"Park Lake" was the rendezvous all day Sunday of scores of our boys and girls eager to enjoy the first real skating of the season.

—Sheriff M. Lee Braman is only entertaining four guests at the Wayne County Jail viz: Mrs. Leona Lord, Samuel Reed, George Adamitis and Race Schimmell.

—C. J. Gage, of the firm of Lyman and Gage, left last Saturday for his home at New Milford, after spending the Fall in Honesdale, purchasing and shipping apples.

—Miss Vinney Cody has returned to her home in Bethany after a six weeks' case caring for Martin E. Galvin, the South Main street hardware merchant, who was operated on for appendicitis.

—County Commissioners T. C. Madden, Newfoundland; James K. Hornbeck, Equinunk; John E. Mandeville, Hawley, were in town Tuesday and held an all-day session at the Court House.

—"This is my weekly letter home," remarked one of our residents to a CITIZEN man the other day, as he wrapped up his copy of the people's favorite paper, THE CITIZEN, and mailed it to the "folks" far away.

—Martin Knorr, of Caynon county, Idaho, son of J. M. Knorr, of Carley Brook, was married to Miss Pauline Lehman, of Girdland, by Rev. Mr. Springer, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Cadwell, Idaho.

—William Skelton, a veteran of the Civil war, who has been sojourning at the home of Jacob Bates, of Bethany, called on friends in this place enroute to Montrose to visit his brother and relatives in New Jersey.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Greater Honesdale Board of Trade will be held on Friday evening this week at 7:30 sharp. Members please note the change in the hour from 8 o'clock to 7:30. Important business.

—Mrs. Charles Rockwell delivered a highly interesting lecture before a large gathering of the members of the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served.

—Keen interest is being manifested by the lovers of the National game in Honesdale over the announcement that the Chicago-Athletic world's series will be shown at the "Lyric" on Thursday evening, Dec. 15.

—"Best I ever saw." "Dandy." "Very good." "The best I ever saw." are a few of the many favorable comments made by theatregoers on the Lyman H. Howe moving pictures, at the Lyric Theatre, last Friday evening. Only a small crowd enjoyed their intellectual appeal, however.

—Frank A. Jenkins, Joseph A. Bodie, Jr., Honesdale, and Harry Madden, Scranton, entertained the teachers and students of the Hawley High school last Friday afternoon with vocal solos, tracts and instrumental selections. In the evening the trio were given a royal reception at the home of A. K. Killam.

—THE CITIZEN has been informed that the price of the new state road was only about $19,500. Our esteemed contemporary, THE WAYNE COUNTY HERALD states that the final settlement will not vary much from the contract price of $22,248. Can't we get together on our figures Brother Rhamanthus Mortimer Stoeker and strike an "average" price?

—Druggist G. W. Pell wrote Monday that Mrs. Pell, who has been in Jersey City the past few weeks, will undergo an operation Monday. Eminent surgeons claim that it would be impossible to bring Mrs. Pell home and that he only hope is in an early operation. Her many Honesdale friends sincerely hope and pray that the operation will be successful and that she will soon be able to return to her home fully restored to health.

—Progressive luncheons are out of the ordinary run, even in Honesdale town. Exceptional interest attaches to the "travelling dinner" tendered Miss Bessie B. Ham, 202 Ninth street, in view of her engagement, recently announced, to Frank Hugos, the scientific chicken farmer of Norfolk, Virginia, formerly of Wilkes-Barre. Miss Ham is a very popular trained nurse, and her many friends are exceedingly loath to lose her to "ole Virginia." Three-and-one-half hours of gastronomic delight were spent in her honor, from 2 to 5:30 o'clock, last Saturday afternoon. Course refreshments were served by the way—the "restaurants" and the "fare" they served being arranged after the fashion hereinafter mentioned.

—Course One—oyster cocktail—Miss Grace Salmon; course two—soup—Mrs. Charles T. Bentley; course three—Maryland chicken, sweet potatoes, etcetera—Mrs. John T. Fuller; course four—fruit salad—Mrs. P. B. Peterson; course five—ice cream, cake—Mrs. W. J. Bird-sall; course six—coffee and favors—Miss Mary A. Menner. (N. B. Please supply the word "etcetera," after each course. It was a "mere man" who gave the story to THE CITIZEN representative, and of course a man couldn't remember all the delightful side-dishes and accessories, so dear to the feminine heart.)

—This (Tuesday) evening, St. John's Lutheran Guild meets.

—Menner & Co's stores are well supplied in every department for the holiday trade.

—On December 15, Dr. A. J. Wine-brake, Scranton, will address the Wayne County Medical Association.

—Birdall Bros. Co., Seelyville, are erecting on the site of the old saw mill, a large frame two-story building, size 50x70, to be used for storage purposes.

—Special efforts are being made to wipe out the $4,000 debt resting on St. Mary Magdalen's church, and to that end a liberal "Christmas collection" is asked for.

—"Things are NOT different now," as far as the Honesdale doctors are concerned. The fees, viz, $1 for office, and $1 for house calls are the same as they were in 1870.

—The Local Register of Births and Deaths for the districts of Honesdale, Prompton borough, Texas, Oregon and Berlin townships reports for the month ending November 30, a total of ten births and ten deaths.

—Thursday, December 8, being the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, and a holy day of obligation, masses will be celebrated at the usual hours in St. John's and St. Mary Magdalen's Roman Catholic churches.

—The adjourned annual meeting of the Presbyterian church, Bethany, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 7, at 2 p. m. The ladies of the church will serve dinner in the church parlors. Important business will come before the meeting.

—The Anti-Saloon League Committee of the county are requested to meet in the Presbyterian church chapel, Honesdale, Friday, December 9, at 2 p. m. Rev. C. H. Brandt, of Wilkes-Barre, will be in attendance and will elaborate new lines of work. By order of Rev. J. B. Cody, chairman.

—Tuesday, December 13, Miss Mary Dasser, who for twenty-five years made her home with her brother, the late Rev. William Dassel, will sail from New York on the steamer Kaiser William der Grosse for Bremen, Germany, from which city she will go to the home of her sister, Mrs. Minnie Stickle of Driesburg.

—"That every man, woman and child of the parish may be in a 'state of grace,' Christmas morning, is one of my Christmas greetings to you," said Rev. J. W. Balta, D. D., rector of St. Mary Magdalen's, in the course of an eloquent sermon at the early mass last Sunday. The church was crowded to the doors, and it was almost impossible even to secure standing room.

—On Thursday, December 8, the annual bazaar of the St. John's Lutheran church will be held. There will be so many good things on sale that it is impossible to mention them all. It's a fact, though, that no bazaar previously held was so large an affair as this one will be. All members of the church are invited to attend and bring as many friends with them as possible. A general invitation is extended to be public. There is room for all.

—The election of officers for the Seelyville Sunday school held December 4, resulted as follows: Superintendent, J. A. Bodie; first assistant, W. J. Ward; second assistant, H. A. Robinson; third assistant, Lillie G. Eno; secretary, Flora E. Ferguson; treasurer, H. A. Robinson; pianist, Mary Holland; assistants, Flossie Polley and Anna Ordnung; librarians, B. F. Polley, William Hensey, George Schot, and Raymond Thayer; superintendent of Home Department, Anna Benney; chairman flower committee, Mrs. F. F. Polley; superintendent primary department, Emma M. Birdsell; superintendent Beginner's Class, Emma A. Smith; Beginner's assistant, Dora Kolmus; superintendent Cradle Roll, Helene Purdy; secretary, Lizzie Dankeberg; treasurer, Sasse Elgier; organist, Grace Erk; assistant organist, Dorothy Dolin.

—Probably the greatest assembly of men of the Methodist Episcopal church in Northeastern Pennsylvania will be the next meeting of the Men of Elm Park this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock in the Elm Park church, Scranton. It will be "Bishop Night" and a reception will be tendered Bishop E. H. Hughes, D. D., LL. D. Invitations have been accepted by over 400 representative men from the fifty churches in the Scranton district. Bishop Hughes will address the meeting on "Men's Work For Men," to be followed by an open forum and social hour. Refreshments will be served. Admission will be by ticket. The officers of the association are: President, W. L. Connell; vice-president, A. V. Bower; second vice-president, C. C. Laubach; third vice-president, H. C. Haak; secretary, W. S. Bartlett; treasurer, F. L. Meyer. The reception committee will consist of the cabinet, assisted by former President G. F. Royce, Rev. L. H. Rochester, D. D., District Superintendent L. C. Murdock, Captain W. A. May and W. J. Peck.

—William H. Bolt, a prominent piano and organ agent, Deposit, N. Y., aged about 75 years, froze to death last Friday as the result of being thrown out of his sleigh while trying to make a short cut to Poyntelle, Northern Wayne, through a field. The discovery of a lone horse attached to an empty sleigh led to the finding of his body. F. A. Tiffany, merchant at Poyntelle, along with Messrs. Floyd Knapp, Richard Beriman, Charles Arnold, C. R. Lee and W. C. Brownell, went to where the body lay. Nothing but Mr. Bolt's cap was to be seen. Dr. George C. Merriman was summoned and also Justice R. N. Lee, Orson, who acted as coroner. The remains were taken to Mr. Tiffany's store, where Justice Lee decided that death was due to exposure. No marks could be found upon Mr. Bolt's person to show that he had met with foul play. About $2 was found on his clothing. Mr. Bolt is survived by a wife and an adopted son.

—Rev. William H. Hiller, Messrs. J. A. Brown and Buel Dodge went to Scranton Tuesday to attend "Bishop night" at Elm Park church.
