Subscribers who are in arrears will confer a favor by settling up for their paper as soon as possible. —M. J. Lightinger is rebuilding the Poyntelle hotel, which some months ago was consumed by fire. The structure will cover the old foundation but will be two story instead of three, as formerly. Contractor Bloxham has the contract. —What is more appropriate for a Christmas present than a year's subscription to THE CITIZEN to a friend or relative who has moved away? Twice a week they are reminded of the giver and interested in the news of the home folks. Come in and see our Circulation Manager! He will do the rest! —Cows require from one to eight ounces of salt a day. The more concentrates they are fed the more salt they require. It should be where they can have access to it every day. According to experiments made at the Wisconsin agricultural station about two ounces a cow a day is the average amount required. —Horace Wizzard, son of Fred Wizzard, was operated upon at State Hospital, Scranton, Friday, for appendicitis. Dr. P. F. Griffin attended him here. His brother, John Wizzard, went to Scranton with him. He is getting along nicely. Mr. Wizzard and family wish to thank the kind neighbors and friends during sickness and death of daughter a month ago, and also at this time, for their sympathy. —Cornelius Bull, for many years a leading attorney in Pike county, died of apoplexy Tuesday afternoon, December 6, in his law office. He was within a month of being 66 years old. His son is district attorney for Pike county. Mr. Bull was prominent in politics, and once was a presidential elector on the Democratic ticket. Friends at various times urged him to seek congressional and judicial honors but he always declined. He was also a well known Mason. —State Secretary of Agriculture N. B. Critchfield has issued a pamphlet showing the work of his department in the marketing of fertilizers sold in the State this year. In all 1,809 samples were taken, one-third of which were analyzed, and in general they were found to comply with the requirements of the State law as to branding. Years ago it was not uncommon for fertilizers to be sold which were not as labeled, but this practice has been broken up, arrests having followed where it was shown that the labels did not correspond to the goods. —The organists and choir leaders of the various churches throughout the city are making great preparations for the services on Christmas day. The splendid musical programs that are rendered at the Honesdale churches at the Easter and Yuletide seasons have attracted attention throughout the entire county and this year, judging from the work that has already been done, will be no exception to the usual high standard of musical programs that have been produced by the people of real talent and ability in the musical line. —Proposed advances in express rates for the transportation of liquor in packages and jugs, that were to have become effective December 15, were suspended last Wednesday until April 14, by an order of the Interstate Commerce commission, which will make an inquiry into the reasonableness of the proposed increases. The action was taken on complaint of S. L. Clarke and many other liquor dealers of Virginia and North Carolina against the Southern express and all other express companies, alleging that the proposed rates would increase the cost to consumers in two states $100,000 a year. —Farmers' Week at The Pennsylvania State College will be held this year December 19th to 24th, inclusive. A splendid opportunity is offered to all farmers interested in a better agriculture. Lectures on live topics will be given by men who have practical experience as well as scientific knowledge. In addition to the lectures, many practical demonstrations in judging dairy cattle, beef cattle, horses, sheep, swine and poultry will be given. The program is so arranged that any individual can attend lectures during each period upon the subjects which interest him most. Many of the speakers are men of national prominence in their respective lines from this and other states. Every farmer, who can possibly do so, should arrange to spend at least a part of the week in getting into touch with this practical course which is offered. —Ladies' Kid Gloves, Embroidered Handkerchiefs, and Purse suitable for Christmas gifts at Menner & Co's stores. 9914.

Pike is the least populated, having but 13 people per square mile; Wayne has 35; Susquehanna, 46; Wyoming, 36; Monroe, 37, and Sullivan, 24. —A public action sale of cut glass, will be held Thursday afternoon and evening, December 22, in the Marshall Store Co. Building, Aldenville, rain or shine. The afternoon sale will be from 3 to 6 p. m., and the evening hours are from 7 to 10 p. m. This lot consists of a general line of firsts and seconds. —Harry J. Atkinson, of Hawley, has sold the Flemings pine lumber tract in Paupack township to Emmons L. Peck, formerly of Hancock. It is said, for something like $30,000. It is the finest tract of pine in Wayne county, and will cut some 3,000,000 feet of lumber. It is a second growth lot of pine. —William F. Hornbeck informs the Hancock Herald that his father, J. K. Hornbeck, of Equinunk, one of Wayne County's Commissioners, has given him a present that is a "present." It is a White Steamer five-passenger auto, which he purchased in New York City last week. The auto arrived in town Monday. —The barn of Alonzo Williams at Beach Lake which he has just completed, is one of the most up-to-date buildings of its kind. Mr. Williams has taken advantage of all the known modern improvements and devices, and has completed a building which shows that our Wayne county farmers are keeping pace with the improvements of the age. —State automobile license No. 1 will go to Sheriff Harry S. Bridler of Doylestown in 1911 and his record will thereby be maintained. When the law first went into effect the sheriff asked for No. 1, and as he was first he secured it. Now he is to the front again. No. 1 will be sent to him on December 31 and he will sport the yellow tag with the big 1. —Contractor Adam Schroeder, Captain John L. Huff, Messrs. Jacob F. Schroeder, Dale Schiffer, E. F. Schiffer, Conrad Schroeder, William MacMillan, who are in charge of the construction of the new Armory building spent the week-end and Sunday in Scranton. (N. B. Scranton papers please copy. Note also that all the above-named are Scrantonians, save Mr. MacMillan, who is a loyal and enthusiastic resident of Dunmore.) —J. B. Oliver, Omaha, Nebraska, was a pleasant caller at THE CITIZEN office, last Monday. Mr. Oliver is a native of Bench Lake, and a son of Richard Oliver. Thirty-one years ago, he went to Nebraska, settling at Omaha. Mr. Oliver is engaged in the carpentering and building business, in which occupations he has been unusually successful. His many friends are glad to welcome him East again. Somehow or other, when our Wayne county boys leave the old shire, they always go ahead, and do things, and win a name for themselves, acquire an abundance of the "wherewithal of life," and add fame and lustre to good old Wayne! "Here's to Good Old Wayne! Drink Her Down!" Drink Her Down!" (In "cider," of course.) —According to the Scranton Truth Wayne county Democrats are so well pleased with the showing made by Judge A. T. Searle since his taking a seat on the bench a year or so ago that many of them are thinking of endorsing the Honesdale man. Judge Searle is serving out the unexpired term of the late Judge George S. Purdy. The Republicans endorsed Judge Purdy when he was a candidate, and the Democrats are thinking of reciprocating next June. Judge Searle presided specially in the Lackawanna county court during the week, and as on his former appearances on the bench here made a very favorable impression with the bench and members of the bar generally. He is to sit in the Carl Howe case at Honesdale next month, Howe's attorney having secured a change of venue. —Menner & Co. stores have a fine lot of new shirt waists suitable for Christmas gifts. 9914.

Ross, Honesdale, left on the 12:25 D. & H. train, Monday, for the Hahnemann hospital, Scranton, where she will probably submit to an operation for appendicitis. Miss Norton has been making her home for the past few months with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ross, East street. —County Auditor M. J. McAndrew Hawley, has resigned on account of his business interests. His position with the Erie Railroad is such that he can't get away. S. T. Palmer, Hawley, who has been the general Erie station agent there, has offered his resignation to the company, which has been accepted. Mr. Palmer is a well-known railroad, and resigns on account of poor health, to live a retired life. A new county auditor will not be appointed until late in December or early in January, when his services are needed. —State Treasurer C. F. Wright, Susquehanna, is being highly complimented for the manner he is conducting his office. Harrisburg papers say it is conducted like a bank. For the first time in many years there are no accounts in the treasury more than thirty days overdue. Some of the long due accounts which he has collected have been owed by townships for highway construction, dating back to Treasurer Berry's administration. Mr. Wright is a thorough business man and any thing he is connected with has to be run on a business basis. —The Rev. Geo. S. Wendell, the popular pastor of the First Baptist church, presented each of his members Sunday, with a handsome engraved card of "Christmas Greetings." The greeting reads as follows: "Christmas gifts for thee, Grand and free! Christmas gifts from the King of love, Brought from His royal home above; Brought to thee in the far-off land, Brought to thee by His own dear hand. Promises held by Christ for thee, Peace as a river flowing free, Joy that in His own joy must live, And love that Infinite Love can give, Surely thy heart of hearts uplifts Carols of praise for Such Christmas gifts!" —Havergal. —The line of fine furs for Ladies' and Misses at Menner & Co. stores are especially suitable for holiday presents. 9914. —The Seelyville Basketball team will hold a dance at the Fire Company's hall on Friday evening. 21.

William Conkling, of Jenkins' Music Store, spent Sunday with his family in Port Jervis. Mrs. Carl Motaska, of Scranton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fish, of Eleventh street. Clarence Wright has rented rooms in the Schoonover dwelling on Park street and will move therein in January. John A. Kimble, manager of the Wayne Cut Glass Company, Towanda, was in town, Thursday evening, on business. Misses Rose and Mary Flynn, who have been residing in Scranton for some time, are again making their home in Honesdale.
