LOCAL MENTION.

—A sprinkling of ashes or sawdust on icy pavements would not make your neighbor want to indulge in profanity.
—The fortune left to the mother Christian Science church by Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, its founder, is reckoned at nearly $2,000,000.
—Elmer B. McKee, one of the best known newspaper men of northeastern Pennsylvania, died last Tuesday night at his home in Towanda. For many years he was the editor and proprietor of the Towanda Daily Review.
—The Rileyville L. T. L. Dramatic Club will produce the temperance drama, "Out in the Streets," at the Calkins church Friday evening, Dec. 30. Specialties will be introduced between the acts. Curtain rises at 8 o'clock. Admission, children 15 cents, adults 25 cents.
—Things are "looking up" politically in Wayne county among the candidates, and about the first of the year it is likely the initial preparations for the primaries of Saturday, June 3, will be opened, although for months past the intention of a number of aspirants for county offices had been known.
—Last Thursday evening the New England society of Northeastern Pennsylvania held its twenty-fourth annual banquet at the Hotel Jermy, Scranton. About 120 descendants of the Pilgrim Fathers enjoyed "the feast of reason and flow of soul," Honesdale being represented by Henry Zenas Russell and John D. Weston.
—"Ring down the curtain. We can't sing tonight." That's what happened to the College Days Co. who were booked for the Lyric on Xmas afternoon and evening. Far be it from that they couldn't sing in the afternoon. This so-called musical comedy was the poorest thing that ever came to Honesdale. Plainly speaking it was "Punk."

—The indications are that the bill increasing pensions of Civil War veterans on account of age will come up for consideration in the House early in January. It is estimated that the passage of this bill would add $44,000,000 to the pension roll. Representative Cooper, Wisconsin, last week introduced a resolution designed to expedite the passage of the measure.
—The School Directors' Department of the State Educational Association will meet in the fifteenth annual convention in Assembly Hall, High School building, Harrisburg, Pa., Thursday and Friday, Feb. 2 and 3, 1911. The following have been elected as delegates from Wayne county: E. R. Bodie, Prompton; R. B. Simons, Sterling; W. W. Lesher, Sterling; James Moylan, Canaan; Robert Whittaker, Dreher. This is an important meeting and it is the desire of school men to have all the delegates present.
—The traveling public will save more than $1,500,000 annually as the result of an order issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission Monday, reducing the charge for upper Pullman berths to 80 per cent. of the charge made for lower berths. The commission also gave tentative approval to a new schedule of rates fixed by the Pullman Company, reducing the cost of lower berths to $2 for a 12-hour ride. The reduction will affect every line over which Pullman cars are operated in the United States except the New Haven, the Great Northern and the Milwaukee railroads.
—Will the actions in equity brought by the Attorney General's Department for the recovery of millions of dollars alleged to have been wrongfully taken in the furnishing of the Capitol be settled before the present administration goes out of office? This question is being asked on Capitol Hill many times a day as the days of the Stuart administration draw to a close. While Attorney General Todd denies that any overtures have been made to him, and the people about his department will not talk of the matter, it is generally known that settlement is in the air. That some "feelers" have been thrown out is pretty generally believed and it would not be surprising to hear of the matter being taken up at no far future day. As the prosecutions were instituted in the administration of Governor Stuart, it would be only reasonable to suppose that General Todd would desire to bring them to a conclusion which would be fair to all parties before he retires from office.

—All the banks will be closed on January 2—New Year's day.
—W. G. Doney, Seelyville, fell on the ice and broke his wrist.
—The Greek restaurant is closed. The Sheriff has an execution against the proprietor.
—The Knights of St. Paul will meet Thursday, December 29, at 7:30 p. m., in Grace church Sunday school room.
—The advance sale of seats for the Robertson in the "Passing of the Third Floor Back" gives promise to a season record breaker at the Lyric.
—The Presbyterian Sunday school held their Christmas festival on Tuesday evening. A pleasing program was presented. Children and parents all had a good time.
—Adam Pride, the old veteran, who resides on Spring street, is very ill. He has lost his eyesight, being totally blind, and old age with all its infirmities is fast overcoming him.
—Protection Engine Co. No. 3 held their annual social on Friday evening at the engine rooms. Members and their wives and lady friends are expected to be present.
—Isaac R. Kimble, who live on the State road between Honesdale and Seelyville, while out walking Saturday evening, about 8 p. m., fell and broke his hip. He was hurt badly.
—Mr. Joseph Strassner, the well-known tailor of Main street, while on his way home Tuesday, fell on the sidewalk in front of Miss Petersen's residence and cut his head badly.
—At Grace Episcopal church: New Year's Eve, 7:30, half-hour service; New Year's Day, 10:30, Holy Communion and sermon; 12 M., Sunday school; 7:30 p. m., Evening Prayer and sermon.
—Appropriate services were held in the Honesdale churches on Christmas day. The musical programs were very elaborate, and the rendition of them was a treat to the different congregations.
—They are cutting a channel through the ice on Park Lake so as to be ready in case of a thaw. The town council does not intend to have any blockade in the river which will cause trouble and damage.
—The members of the Baptist Sunday school will hold their annual Christmas social on Thursday evening, December 29, at 7:30 o'clock. Refreshments will be served and a general good time is expected in the chapel.
—The useful life need not necessarily be a brilliant one. Frequently it is lived in obscurity. But the impress it makes upon the human nature by which it is surrounded will count for good through all the coming years.
—The "College Days" troupe gave a matinee on Monday afternoon and the play was so far below being interesting that Manager Dietrich cancelled their evening engagement. The troupe is stranded here, and looking for means to get out of town.
—The only clergyman who will sit in the House of Representatives at Harrisburg during the coming legislative session is the Rev. Thos. J. Ferguson, a Presbyterian minister, who was elected as a Republican over Rev. R. E. Campbell, Democrat.
—Monday was a day of downfalls, and many of our good, staid people sat down upon the sidewalks of our town very unceremoniously. The snow that fell covered the ice-lad walks, and it was a common sight to see some of our people fall to stand on slippery places.
—H. H. Wilcox, Clinton, recently killed a crossed Berkshire and Tamworth pig a year old that dressed 780 pounds and a full blood Berkshire of the same age, that weighed 500 pounds. The Tamworth hog was introduced to this vicinity by W. C. Norton and is said to produce a fine quality of ham and bacon as well as running well to quantity.
—The Christmas service at Grace Episcopal church was most laudable for the day on which our Savior was born. Special music was under the leadership of Miss Mabel Broad. Solos were rendered by Miss Jennie Hageman and Charles Truscott. Rev. Albert Whittaker delivered an eloquent sermon at the morning service, using as his text, "Let us now go even now unto Bethlehem." The Christmas Carols were sung by the Sunday school at 5 p. m. at which time the Christmas candles were given to the children.
—The annual meeting of the State Teachers' League of Pennsylvania will be held at the Lochiel hotel, Harrisburg, on Thursday, December 29, when matters pertaining to the advancement of the proposed school code and teachers' retirement fund legislation will be discussed. The league, which was organized in Harrisburg a year ago, is composed of representatives of various teachers' societies throughout the State. The date has been fixed because it is expected that most of the State's school teachers will be in Harrisburg for the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Educational association.
—The Bond family, consisting of twenty-four relatives, had a family reunion and on Christmas day the party gathered around a special feast most tastefully gotten up by Mrs. Mary A. Weaver, proprietor of the Commercial hotel. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Coleman, daughter Vera and two sons, Floyd and George, Nynck, N. Y., and the following Honesdale relatives: Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hawken and daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bond and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Bassett, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Spetigue and Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Penwarden, and daughter, and Mrs. Emma Martin.
