their cousin, Mrs. Caroline Burdick, Carbondale, held at Clinton, on Sun-fer and Jake Jerico.

stein, Mr. and Scranton.

On Saturday evening, December

Those who ate Christmas dinner

LOOKOU'L.

ficient Sunday School Superin-

Now that the old year is past, and e enter upon the new year-1911-a musical prologue, "Star of The Sea," by LaFord Teeple, violinist, and Miss Helen Rutledge, organist;

singing, "Merry Christmas," by the school; invocation, by the pastor,

Rev. Frank W. Contant; recitations, by primary classes, which were well due Grant Hawley, superintendent, for the interest be has in Sunday

BOYDS MILLS.

Labor Grange Elects Officers-L. T.

L. Dramatic Club Give Fine Entertainment—News Nut-shelled,

Boyds Mills, Pa., January 3.—The Christmas exercises at the Union program was a cantata entitled "The New Santa Claus." The church was number of young people at her home

the Street delightful time.

church passed off very nicely.

York City selling raw furs

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Teeple spent a few days in New school work.

Robert

Santa made his usual

Special to THE CITIZEN.

'Like fogs that rise,

Like storm and snow,

Come and go.

The Christmas seasons

Lookout, Pa., January 3.-

THE WEEK IN WAYNE

WHAT THE FOLKS IN THE SHIRE ARE DOING.

GOULDSBORO.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Gouldsboro, Jan. 5 .- Saturday was advertised to be South Sterling's day" and it evidently was. It started the members of the A. D. K. camp, No. 422, P. O. S. of A., after which the Ladies' Ald society, of the M. E. church served a chicken supper, followed in the afternoon by an enter-'Fun on the Podunk Limited." was presented. The play was repeated in the evening and an oyster supper served. The affair proved a success in every way, the hall was filled to its fullest capacity and a large sum realized. The proceeds were for the benefit of the band. The sleighing was excellent and large parties were present from the surrounding towns. There were two loads from Goulds-boro—in one was Mrs. Charles Ed-wards, Mrs. G. A. Kerling, Mrs. A. L. Rhodes, Mrs. S. D. Adams, Misses Mary Hager, Bessie, Grace, Anna and Helen Smith, Rose Courtney, Messrs. Edward Shinnerling, George Edwards and Wilson Newell. In the other load were the Misses Bertha and Grace Crooks, Annabell Wright, Florence Conklin, Belle Gilpin, Elia load were the Misses and Harriet Newell, Sallie Marshall; Messrs. Daggers, Crooks and Bend-Everett Smith and son, Benjamin, of Gouldsboro, furnished the Rev. and Mrs. P. S. Lehman entertained a number of young folks at a New Year's candy pull, on Saturday . All had a most delight-Those present were: Helen afternoon. Crooks, Margaret Newell, Margaret Matthews, Cassie Colyer, Mary Edwards, Madge Edwards, Vivian Colyer, Evelyn Colyer, Jessie Matthews and Susie Rhodes, Madeline Matthews, Carl Hoffman, Ross Simons, Charles Simons, Walter Edwards, Joel Boucher and Burton Colyer, Ered Phodes and Harald Edwards. Fred Rhodes and Harold Edwards spent Saturday in Scranton. the nine-year-old daughter of Frank Bender, underwent an oper-ation for appendicitis on Monday. Dr. G. A. Kerling, assisted by Dr. Wilson, of Moscow, performed the opera-

Miss Mary Hager, Roselle, N. J., who has been spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. S. S. Hager, returned home, Tuesday. Miss Emma Bates returned on Monday, having spent the holidays with her parents at South Sterling. Miss Mary Scull spent the with her father at Peckville.

Miss melen Smith reopened her school at Clifton Monday.

Misses Grace Crooks and Geraldine Kelley have returned to Stroudsburg, where they attend the S. N. S., having spent their vacation with Miss Marilla Fairless has returned from a visit with friends at Freeland, and reopened her school at Lehigh Glen.

M. M. DuTot was home from Dnville, N. J., to spend New Year's with his family.

M. E. Smith spent the first of the week with friends in Scranton, and attended the Bachelors Ball. Mrs. Lincoln Scott and Mrs. Harry Stevens and children spent New Year's with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Henry, at Klondike.

the C. P. Matthews' Feed Store.

Leslie Latham. Buffalo, spent Christmas week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Latham and New Year's with his brother, Albert, at Binghamton. Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Van Buskirk and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Staples, Scranton, were the guests of their mother, Mrs. E. Staples, the first of Mrs. R. B. Decker is critically ill at her home on Main street.

George Bedell, Factoryville, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. Wilson Eilenberger at Sunny Crest and Mr. and Mrs. David Ellenberger. Mr. and Mrs. George Wardell, Scranton, have returned home, having spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore and sister, Mrs. M. M. DuTot.

Mrs. M. M. DuTot.
Mrs. M. M. DuTot entertained at luncheon on Wednesday Mrs. W. E. Catterson. Binghamton, N. Y., Mrs. George Wardell, Scranton, Mrs. M. E. Smith and Mrs. G. A. Kerling.
Harry Decker has returned to Newark, N. J., after a visit with friends here.

friends here. Miss Mary Harvey, who has been quite sick, is convalescing. Harold Edwards and Fred Rhodes spent Saturday in Scranton Mrs. Friend Flower is quite sick.

RUTLEDGEDALE.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Rutledgedale, Pa., January 3 .-Miss Daphine Seybolt, Brooklyn, N. Y., spent the holidays with her moth-Mrs. George Lauson. Mrs. Millie Wickham, Scranton, passed Xmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rutledge. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. William Canfield, a daughter.

held last Monday evening at the the county to adopt the graded les-church passed off very nicely. A sons. pleasing program was presented to a large audience, and a well-loaded tree, and visit from Santa Claus de-lighted the little ones.

Miss Anna Gregg, who is attend-ing school at Susquehanna, is at the home of her parents, S. N. Gregg and wife. She, with her brother, George, visited their sister, Mrs. Otis Olsen, at Fosterdale, for several days last Miss Kate McLain and niece, Au- again in the near future, gusta Drum, are visiting friends in Amelia and Margaret

New York city.

Mrs. A. G. Rutledge's.

The White Ribboners held a Mother's meeting at the home of Mrs. Clara Abraham on December 31.

They expect to have a public meet- Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gustin spenting in the church on Friday evening, Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. January 6.

Charles Martin, Kingston. Mr. Gus-The pupils of Miss Clara Gaston's tin returned home Tuesday. Mrs. school had a nice entertainment and Gustin will remain at Kingston for tree on the Friday afternoon preceding Xmas. The teacher presented Mr. and each pupil with a gift and box of candy, and she was the recipient of several gifts from her pupils.

HAWLEY.

Special to THE CITIZEN. Hawley, January 4.—Verna Bennett has returned from Ledgedale where she passed the holiday vacation at the home of her aunt, Mrs.

Mrs. Albert Oschman and little son, Edward, are making an extended visit with her relatives in New York. Miss Matilda Racker is confined to the house with an attack of rheuma-

Miss Olga Buck returned to her school duties in New Jersey Monday morning.

Lela Atkinson, who is studying to be a trained nurse in a New York on Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Wal-hospital, was at the home of her ter Gustin were: Mrs. V. Wildenfather, George Atkinson, for her holiday vacation.

Miss Henrietta Buck returned from Pittsfield, Mass., on Sunday evening where she spent a week with her sis-

Mrs. Maileo Bishop is very sick at Hotel Denison. Dr. Rodman is the attending physician.

On January 1, 1911, S. T. Palmer's resignation as general agent for the Erie Railroad company at this place took effect. He has served that company in the above named capacity for 40 years. On April 1 Mr. Palmer and family will leave Hawley and will lo-cate on a farm near Binghamton, where he will devote his time to till-ing the soil. He has purchased a ing the soil. He has purchased a large, well cultivated farm at that place. Mr. Palmer's inclinations, like Washington's, has always been lead-ing to agricultural pursuits. He will be succeeded by M. J. McAndrew will be succeeded by M. J. McAndrew will be succeeded by T. J. Oldfield, who has and enjoyed by all present. The been freight clerk for a number of programme entitled "The Promised Courses of the Christmas entertainment held in the church, was largely attended and enjoyed by all present. The been freight clerk for a number of programme entitled "The Promised Christmas entertainment held in the church, was largely attended." years and is a young man who has King" was well rendered. Opening, filled that position most acceptably.

WAYMART.

District Institute. Special to THE CITIZEN.

Waymart, Pa., January 5.—A district institute will be held at Waymart, Friday evening and all day Saturday. The program is as fol-Saturday. The program is as follows: Friday evening, at 7:45 o'clock: music; recitation. Alice Hileman; lecture, "Problem of the Two N's," Dr. A. B. Bun Van Or-mer; solo, Percy Miner.

Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock:
devotional exercises, Rev. Burch; music; supervised play, Edna Hauenstein; The Parents In The School, Mary Mubraney; Essentials of Suc-Gladys Mauenstein; discussion of above by Prof. H. A. Oday, Davies, Richwine, County Superintendent J. J. Koehler and Prof. Howell. "Dickens as a Teacher." Dr. Van Ormer; Influence, Rebecca spent New Year's with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rhodes.

Seldon Sebring has succeeded George Elienberger as manager of the C. P. Matthews. discussed by following teachers: Miss Stanton, Miss Nichols, Miss Bortree, Mrs. Bronson, Miss Palmer, Mr. Pennell.

The program bids fair to be in-teresting and worth hearing.

LAKE COMO.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Lake Como, January 5.—Mrs. J. Jaycox is spending a few days in Binghamton with her sister, Hattie, who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lake have returned after visiting friends in Binghamton, last week.

Mrs. Richard Sherman and Mrs.

Decker spent Monday with Mrs. Jessie Conklin.

The Ladies' Aid will have a clam chowder supper Saturday night, in the Ladies' Hall. All are cordially invited. Miss Higgins, New York, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Minnie Hand, Binghamton, spent Saturday and Sunday with her

DAMASCUS.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Damascus, Pa., January 5 .- Mrs. Carrie Burcher, of Middletown, N. Y., aged 73, widow of the late Walter V. Burcher, was buried from the ter V. Burcher, was buried from the Baptist church Saturday, December

Everyone was pleased to see the West Chester students and other familiar faces, again, for the holi-

Last Sunday the Baptist church had the most largely attended communion in many years. Eight new members were welcomed. Their Bible school also celebrated its first anniversary January 1. It boasts of three things, viz: a Cradle Roll and Home Department, both older than nfield, a daughter. their mother, and first in the town-The Xmas exercises which were ship, and one of the first schools in

RIVERDALE.

Birthday Party—Christmas Guests—News Items.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Riverdale, Pa., January 5.—The Rev. R. L. Pfeil, Carbondale, preachvery interesting Christmas mon at the Lutheran church on Mon-We hope to have him with us Scranton, are spending their Christing the holiday week.

mas vacation at the home of their A. M. Clark, who was employed Miss Clara Grube, New York, is at mas vacation at the home of their

Dr. B. G. Hamlin, Scranton, spent

Boyd Clark was home on his

Norman McIntyre is visiting rela-

Lillie Sheard has returned to Bloomsburg State Normal school after spending her Christmas vacation

HAMLIN.

Booklovers' Club Meets—Holiday Guests—Westers Folks Spent Holiday Time In Old Shire.

Hamlin, Pa., December 31.-Chas. Coursen, Scranton, spent two days of last week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Noble and son,

Warren, Detroit, Michigan, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wright, Scranton, called on friends in this vicinity dur-

Christmas vacation, last week.

ves in this vicinity.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

with her parents.

Christmas at his home here. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Van Sickle, of Scranton, spent Christmas with Mrs. Van Sickle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boyce. Services were conducted in St.

John's Episcopal church, Thursday pany, evening, December 27, by the Rev. A Robert Blickensderfer, rector of St. ity has David's church, Scranton.
Mrs. Amos Olver entertained the Dooklovers' Club, on Thursday after-noon, December 29. About fifteen Mrs. were present and spent a delightful Mr. and Mrs. William S. Martin, Mrs. V. Wildenstein, John and Geo. Hauenstein attended the funeral of Millard Spangenberg, Scranton, Millard Spangenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Spangenberg, on Wednesday C. R. Spangenberg, on Wand Thursday of last week.

Mrs. C. M. Loring is entertaining Miss Orpha Ammerman, Hawley, during the holiday week.

Day Edwards is recovering from 24, a party was given at the home of John Hauenstein in honor of his an attack of diphtheria.

Amos Olver is enjoying a of John Hauenstein in honor of his daughter, Ciara's, eighteenth birthday. Games were played, and delicious refreshments served. Those who enjoyed the ocasion were: Gertrude Ihlefeidt, Gladys and Pearl Hauenstein, Mamie Schafer, Margaret and Ciara Hauenstein, Mr. and Mrs. Waller Gustin Clarence Bond Waller Gustin Clarence Bond from his cousin from Omaha, Neb. It seems that the cousins have not met before in thirty years, and are joying the opportunity of recalling old times at this hollday season. Mr. and Mrs. Max Simons, Peckille, ate Christmas dinner with C. L. Walter Gustin, Clarence Bond, Charles and Arthur Holford, Charles Simons and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Alt entertain-Ihlefeldt, Will Hauenstein, Harold and Walter Wildenstein, John Schatained a sleigh load of the members of the Alt family at Christmas din-

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Abbey Charley Tiffany, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Spangenberg and Florence Spangenerg spent Christmas Day stein and children, Arlene and Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Martin, nome of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Abbey of the East Side.

Stacey Clark, Scranton, has been and Margaret and Clara Hauenvisiting his father, A. M. Clark. Mary Schafer has been visiting at #### USWICK & LAKEVILLE. Special to THE CITIZEN.

Uswick, Pa., January 3 .- We wish Splendid Xmas Entertainment-Efthe editor and all the readers of THE CITIZEN a Happy and Prosper-

> The schools at Uswick, Lakeville, and Bone Ridge were opened Monday, having been closed a week for the holiday vacation.

There was no service in the M. E. church here, Sunday evening, on account of the ley condition of the

We have had a thaw and some er of THE CITIZEN a happy and very prosperous New Year. rain. for which we are exceedingly thankful, as our wells are filling with water. The ground is beginning to break up, frost going out of ground. To-day the roads are almost impassable. Our assistant mall car-rier, Mr. Dopp, had considerable difficulty in making the trip to Hawley and did not expect to get the mail through to Hamlin to-night.

Mary and Sannie Miller, Hawley, spent last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Miller, Lakeville. Irvin Daniels spent Xmas at Ledgedale. C. Schwarting has secured a posi rendered. Dialogue, "Christmas Shopping," by Mrs. Lewis G. Hill, Miss Gadys Hawley, Miss Anna Knapp, and Roy Hawley. They ex-plained to the audience how hard. It tion at Rocky Glen for the winter.

Mr. James, Long Pond, lost a norse recently Mr. and Mrs. James Carefoot enwas to select a suitable Christmas tertained Mrs. S. Kimble, Scranton. Mrs. F. P. Woodward, Hoadleys, present. Instrumental music, "Meditation," Santa made blo visit, but did not stay long, as he and Mr. and Mrs. Mosher, Lakeville, had so many other schools to visit. The tree was well trimmed. and on Christmas Day. Mrs. C. W. Pennell, Uswick, en-tertained Mr. and Mrs. William Seemany presents were distributed among the children. Much credit is ger and daughter, Florence,

Christmas,

Mrs. M. H. Harloe, Ledgedale, en tertained Mr. and Mrs. Charles Utt. Mrs. William Utt. Mrs. Schwarting and her sons on Christmas. It is reported the Mrs. John Reer. Arlington, is a little better.

DREHER

A. D. K. Celebrate New Year's Day With Masked Parade And Vande-ville Entertainment—Blacksmiths Reaping Rich Harvest-Mild Winter Prophesied—New Year's Res olutions.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Dreher, Pa., January 3 .- The A well filled and many pronounced it D. K., an entertaining side issue of the best program ever given at this the P. O. S. of A., of South Sterling, had a masked parade, on horse back, from the hall to Newfoundland, on Scranton Decorating Art Company, is Saturday forenoon, and were accomputting the art glass windows in the panied by an impromptu band that made music after a fashion. They were a jolly crowd and the fun was much enjoyed by both on New Year's eve. All present the spectators and participants, spent a very enjoyable evening.

Flora Wood, who has been attendtheir return to the hall a chicken Flora Wood, who has been at the ing school at Matamoras, Pa., is spending her vacation with her parspending her vacation with her particle at this place.

"Fun on the Podunk Limited" was the half followed by an oys-The L. T. L. Dramatic Club, of Rileyville, gave an entertainment in the Union church Friday evening, December 30. The leading part of the program was a drama entitled twice. The dinner and the supper as well as the entertainment drew a big crowd and was altogether an enjoy-The following officers were elected able event. The Ladies' Aid Society by Labor Grange at their last meeting on Saturday, December 31: Master, Alonzo Wilcox; overseer, Earl Crocker; secretary, Florence Shead; treasurer, Ward Wall; lecturer, Mary Noble; steward, E. R. Dennis; about the M. E. church prepared the meals and the proceeds of the day are for the benefit of the new musical band being organized, the instruments for which are at the ball are ere long we expect to hear music by Noble; steward, E. R. Dennis; chap-lain, N. P. Dennis; assistant steward, Will Noble; lady assistant steward, Katie Rutledge; gate keeper, Searle Wood; pomona, Artie Wood; ceres, Eular Noble; fiora, Myrtle Reynolds. Alma Noble is visiting with friends at Peckville.

ere long we expect to hear music by the band. Everett Smith, Goulds-boro, will be the musical instructor. Hymen R. Miller, grocer and dry goods dealer, will start for California on Thursday, January 5, where he expects to spend the winter among the roses. His brother, Abe Miller. on Thursday, January 5, where he expects to spend the winter among the roses. His brother, Abe Miller, Many of our young people attended will rasurprise party at the home of Mr. sence. will manage the business in his ab-and Mrs. J. M. Burcher on Tuesday evening, December 27. All report a Richard Gilpin and wife, Greentown, formerly of Dreher, are enter-taining a little daughter, who arrived on December 18.

Miss Elizabeth Glipin, Lake Ariel, is spending the holidays among rela-tives and friends of this place.

A. E. Hause, South Bethlehem, is spending his holiday vacation with his parents and other friends in Dre her and vicinity.

W. G. Hause, Scranton, spent New Year's day in Dreher. Walter Eck lost another horse last week.

E. E. Bird is on the sick list. C. I. Bartleson is suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

Word has been received from Otis Smith, a patient in the State Hospital, Scranton, that his arm, which broken at Geo. Bartleson's saw mill December 15, is getting along nicely, and amputation is not likely to be necessary.

The blacksmiths are having a rich

A. M. Clark, who was employed at Matamoras during the summer, is spending some time with his sister, is imminent, and less sharp shoes will Mrs. Marion France. be required. Joseph R. Hause is doing blacksmith work for the Gouldsboro Ice C., and is likely to be employed there until the ice harvest is over.

Will Newell, Gouldsboro, spent part of Xmas in Dreher, in the interest of a proposed new railroad com-

A number of people in this vicinity have gathered their supply of ice for another season. Mr. Featherman has the creamery ice house filled with a good quality of ice. We have already enjoyed two months of fine winter weather with plenty of show and ice. Some one says "If the ice will bear a goose before Xmas it is not likely to freeze so hard after the holidays." Time will tell. will tell.

New Year's resolutions are in order, and we have a little verse that is safe motto or resolve and would three speakers are the same not be hard to live up to:

When hungry, of the best I cat, Both dry and warm I keep my feet, Protect my head from sun and And let few cares perplex my brain." Happiness and prosperity without limit for "1911" to THE CITIZEN, and its readers!

BRAMAN AND KELLAM. Cold Weather At Kellam-La Grippe Prevalent-Other News Items.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Kellam, Pa., January 3 .- There are a number of cases of la grippe in town. Those in the sick list are Mrs. John Ryan, Will Ryan, George Bar-ton, Mary Cargin and Clyde Stalker. Mr. and Mrs. John Skinner visited relatives at Peckville last Saturday and Sunday. George and Barton Cargin visited Arthur Stalker, Peckville, N. Y.,

Condition—Mr. and Mrs. C. Sarv. spent last week with his grandparents here. Mr. and Mrs. Harper Keys have a boarder come to stay; it is a ten-pound boy, arrived December 27, and Indian Orchard, Pa., Jan to care for it. They now have two Miss Emma Lester, who has been staying with Mrs. S. Bailey for some citing time near the Old Red Rock Farm, when F. W. Bunnell's young home of her father, George Lester, at Union.

So far we have not had much snow but pretty cold weather. It rained all day, New Year's, and those that have been obliged to draw water were very glad to see it.

WHITES VALLEY.

Special to THE CITIZEN. Whites Valley, January 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edwards and son, Winfield, who have spent several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Bon-nam, returned to Lake Ariel. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hutchins, Carbondale, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bryant, and Mr. and Mrs. George Clift and family were entertained at

William Glover's for Xmas dinner. Miss Sara J. Fisher, Emmittsburg, Md., visited her brother, H. L. Fisher, several days last week. Bonham Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonham spent Xmas at Richard Glanville's, Pleasant Mount. H. W. White returned Saturday from a business trip to Scranton.

Miss Edith Hull, Englewood, N.

I., and Miss Nettle Hull, Waymart, spent the Xmas vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hull. Misses Anna Fitze and Edith Spener are visiting relatives in Scranton.

Simon Pomery returned recently from Lanesboro. Mrs. Pomery will make an extended visit with their son, Howard, at that place.
Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Odell, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Miller and Mr. and Mrs.

Maple Grove. Nelson Crossman, Bucknell University, spent the holiday vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Bryant have moved to Aldenville where Mr. Bryant is employed in the Gummoe flour

Miss Edith Crossman, Honesdale, spent several days with her parents, recently. Odell returned from Mrs. Laura Conyne, who has been very ill, is recovering.

Condition-Mr. and Mrs. C. Spry Delightfully Surprised-Other News

STERLING.

Farmers' Institute Well Attended-

held at Sterling, Grange Hall, Monday and Tuesday, January 2 and 2, was in charge of a local committee consisting of A. C. Howe, R. D. Gil-itor. We have enjoyed a two-days' sea-gentlemen that have addressed the institute in other places of the coun-tended and everybody appeared to ered the closing address and his subject was "The Farm of Life." It was the best thing that has been delivered here in many years, and many thought Mr. Campbell should be preaching the Gospel, instead of rais-

Royal J. and David A. Cross re-turned to Cornell University.

Mrs. P. H. Howe and son, Charles, left for Philadelphia to-day to visit.

Cross also accompanied them and returned to the University of Pennsylvania to complete his dental course.

INDIAN ORCHARD.

All the sessions were well

T. Campbell, Hartstown, deliv-sion of the Farmers' Institute.

enjoy the occasion.

ing chickens.

January 5.—The Farmers' Institute

College Men Leave For

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Almae Matres.

Sterling, Pa., program of the their friends in that city.

Indian Orchard, Pa., January 5 .we understand is keeping them busy to care for it. They now have two in a very bad condition for several days, owing to the recent thaw. On Friday last, there was an nuch snow, fright and ran away. It first ran to It rained a barn owned by Earl C. Ham, upset the cutter, and started for home. Fortunately, J. W. Spry who has had considerable experience at herding in the West, was on hand, and captured the animal before much damage had been done.

Thirty of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spry's friends made them a surprise on Saturday evening last. An enjoyable time was spent at eating oys-ters and other delicacies. Music for the occasion was furnished by W. C. Spry's large phonograph. At midnight the guests began to depart for their several homes, wishing grandpa and grandma Spry a Happy

Year. Leo P. Weeks, of the Grand View Farm, is visiting friends in New York City. Ethel Ham, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ham, has returned to her school in Manchester township.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dain and son,

Honesdale, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their H. R. Bayly, East Honesdale, who, with his family has been visiting relatives here and at the Lake, has returned home. Charlie Weber and wife, who have been visiting friends and relatives in New York City, have returned to the latter's home at the Old Red Rock

W. C. Spry and family were roy-Charles Odell ate Xmas dinner with ally entertained at the home of Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartholomew, and Mrs. Carlton Brooks, East

Kathryn Wagner, Honesdale, visiting her parents at this place.

J. I. Henshaw, who has been visiting his parents, has returned to Lafayette College.

BETHANY.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Bethany, Pa., Jan. 5.—The Rev. Dr. L. C. Murdock, Scranton, will Prompton, after spending several preach in the Methodist Episcopal days with his aunt, Mrs. John Ro-church Sunday evening, Jan. 8, and will convene the last quarterly conference, Monday afternoon, January

A Clearing Sale

Between

Christmas and New Year

We will place our Entire Stock of Ladies Suits, Coats and Furs at a Tremendous Reduction.

$20. Ladies' Tailored Suits

At $10.98

$6. Cooney and Opossum Muffs in Brown or Black in Pillow and Rug Ply

At $3.98

$6.50 Opossum Shawl Collar

At $3.98

$1.50 Children's Angora Sets

At 98c.

KATZ BROS. Inc.