—Over 300 citizens have already signed a petition asking the court to appoint viewers to erect a foot-bridge across Park Lake between Court street and Dyberry Place.

—Reserved seats for the lecture by Dr. Amsbury on Thursday night are on sale at Chambers' drug store. Take your ticket with you when you go and get a reserved seat.

—Cards have been received from Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frederick Wright, Susquehanna, announcing the marriage of their daughter, Florence, to Dr. James Hutton Curtis, on Thursday, January 5, at Susquehanna.

—On account of the revival meetings now in progress the lecture at the High school Thursday night will not commence until 8:35 o'clock. This will give people an opportunity to attend the church service and still not miss the lecture.

—"More popular than Capt. Hobson, Dr. McIntyre or Col. Bain," is what a Chautauqua manager said of Dr. Amsbury, who is to lecture at the High School next Thursday night. Reserved seats now on sale at Chambers' drug store, 50 cents.

—If the people of Honesdale do not take more interest in the High School Lyceum Course, the High school will lose about $200. The auditorium seats over 600 and it ought to be filled at the lecture, on Thursday night, by Dr. Amsbury.

—At the annual meeting of the Honesdale National Bank held this (Tuesday) morning, these directors were elected: Henry Z. Russell, E. F. Torrey, Horace T. Menner, Louis J. Dorfinger, Andrew Thompson, Homer Greene, James C. Birdsall, Edmund B. Hardenbergh, and Philip R. Murray.

—Mrs. Joseph A. Bodie entertained Thursday evening in compliment of Miss Bessie Ham, who is to be married January 17, to Frank Huggins. The invited guests were Messames Louise Snydam, Edith Hill, Rebecca Fuller, Eleanor Peterson, Mary Bentley and Misses Mary Menner and Grace Salmon.

—At the annual congregational meeting of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, held last Sunday, these officers were elected: President, Edward Welsh; treasurer, Conrad Roeschle; secretary, Theodore Dreyer; trustees, William Haggerty, G. Wm. Peil, George Ripple and Irvin A. Hartman. A new constitution was also adopted.

—The well diggers who are staking an artesian well for John Strongman, New York, at his summer home in Bethany, had the misfortune to lose their drill. It became disconnected from the drill rope and fell into the well, a distance of 165 feet. Mr. Long, the driller, has gone to East Stroudsburg for tackle to fish the drill out.

—The managers of the High School Lyceum course, have been unfortunate in the matter of weather for the first two numbers of their course, and consequently have had very small audiences. The next number will be given Thursday night, and it is desired that the auditorium be filled. Tickets for the three remaining numbers are only 75 cents; for Thursday night, 40 cents.

—George A. Glenn & Co., a Philadelphia contracting firm, having failed to complete its contract at the new State hospital for the criminal insane, at Farview, within the specified time, January 1, this year, the state commission that is supervising the work of construction has declared the contract forfeited and is now getting ready to advertise for bids for the completion of the contract.

—Word has been received of a slight improvement in the condition of Coe Lemnitz.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church meets with Mrs. N. Holgate, Thursday.

—The Business Men's Association meets Wednesday evening at the usual time and place.

—Read the notice about Veteran Bolckom, and send him a postal card with your greetings.

—It is rumored that M. D. Kelly and Clinton Doyle, Nicholson, will lease the Commercial Hotel.

—The annual meeting of the Greater Honesdale Board of Trade will be held Friday evening.

—Wayne County Pomona Grange, Number 41, will meet with Hope Grange at South Canaan, Jan. 20.

—One day last week seven shares of Wayne County Bank stock, par value $100, were sold for $650 each.

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gregory, River street, are rejoicing over the advent last Monday of a baby daughter.

—The Honesdale National Bank declared its usual dividend of 5 per cent. regular, and 2 1/2 per cent. extra.

—The Ladies' Aid of St. John's Lutheran church will serve coffee and luncheon Thursday afternoon at the church parlors.

—George Lighthizer, Sr., Friday evening fell at the corner of Dr. C. R. Brady's home and received a slight injury of the head.

—Mrs. C. J. Weaver and family have leased rooms in the Doherty apartment on Eighth street and will occupy same immediately.

—A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schuller, of 134 Wildwood avenue, Upper Montclair, N. J., January 3, 1911. Both parents were former Honesdallians.

—County Detective N. B. Spencer on Saturday quarantined the Van Steenberg home in Texas No. 4, where their fourteen-year-old daughter, Alice, is suffering from typhoid fever.

—The annual meeting of the Honesdale branch of the W. C. S. P. C. A. will be held Friday afternoon, January 13, at 2 o'clock at the City Hall. All members are requested to be present.

—At the regular meeting Monday night, Honesdale Aerie, No. 1858, Fraternal Order of Eagles, installed their officers for the ensuing year. After the meeting a progressive poloche contest was held followed by a sumptuous banquet.

—A $50 note struck off by the Confederate States of America, nearly 50 years ago and which has been doing modern duty as bonafide currency, has fallen into the hands of the Harrisburg police. It is known positively that the note changed hands half a dozen times within the past week, people receiving it in exchange for goods of value unsuspectingly.

—J. Freer, son of Oliver Freer, dislocated his shoulder last Thursday evening. He was coming down hill with a horse and buggy near Aldenville when the wagon skidded on the ice. Mr. Freer put out his arm to make a brake of the wheel, when a sudden jerk pulled his shoulder out of joint. Dr. P. B. Peterson gave him an anesthetic and reduced the dislocation.

—Samuel Morrison, who for ten years was chief plumber with a plumbing house in Philadelphia, and for the past sixteen years has held the same position with O. M. Spetigue, of this place, resigned his position on Saturday and will in the near future open a shop here for the manufacture of a patent boiler and steam apparatus. His successor has not yet been appointed.

—Leonard Seifing, representing the Orphans' Home and the Home for the Aged at Germantown, Philadelphia, spent the week-end with Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Miller. Mr. Seifing came here to look after the welfare of Mrs. Miller, sister of the late Helene Bodemar, and to make arrangements for her removal to the Home. This institution is an institution of the Lutheran church.

—The two cent club is a popular organization at Milton, there being five of these clubs in the town, which during the week distributed over $2,000 among their members. Each member begins with a deposit of two cents, and each Saturday two cents is added—thus, two cents, four cents, six, eight, ten and so on until the fifty second payment is $1.04, totaling $27.56, which comes in handy about Christmas. It is an excellent plan to save money for the holidays without any serious inconvenience.

—Paul M. Rainey, of West Hoboken, who is a son of Rev. Jas. Rainey, a former resident here, is inventor of a device for producing an electric spark in automobile engines which it is said will do away with the spark plug and its connecting wires and batteries. If it proves as successful in practical service as it now appears, it should materially reduce not only the cost of constructing automobiles, but trouble in running them. Mr. Rainey, in company with another young man, has applied for a patent on the device and will endeavor to put it on the market. He is also inventor of an improvement to telephone mechanism that commends itself to workers in that line.—Tunkhannock Republican and New Age.

—The father of the above named inventor, Rev. James Rainey, is now pastor of the Aldenville Baptist church, in this county.

Poultry And Pigeon Association Holds Annual Meeting And Elects Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Wayne County Pigeon and Poultry Association, held Saturday evening in the Court House, these officers were elected:

President, E. E. Kinsman, Cherry Ridge.

First Vice-President, F. B. Lord, Honesdale.

Second Vice-President, G. W. Swartz, Ariel.

Secretary, Edward Lindsay, Honesdale.

Treasurer, Geo. Erk, Seelyville.

Executive Committee: Henry Merman, Honesdale; R. F. Martin, Hawley; C. D. Fortman, Tyler Hill; Frank Schuerholz, Honesdale; W. H. Karslake, Niagara.

Between twenty-five and thirty fanciers attended the meeting. Rev. J. B. Cody, who resigned as president, on account of his professional duties taking up so much of his time, was elected an honorary life member. A committee was also appointed to meet with the Fair Committee at the Allen House, Tuesday morning, at 11 o'clock, with instructions to see if better quarters could not be had for poultry exhibits at the Fair. Last year, several valuable birds caught cold, on account of being 'showed' in a tent, and died.

Scranton Poultry Show.

Scranton, Pa., January 10.—With an entry list of over 3,000 chickens, rabbits, pigeons, cats and bantams and special features of country-wide prominence, the sixth annual quality poultry show of the Scranton Poultry and Pot Stock association, which opens a week from Tuesday in Town Hall, gives every promise of rivaling the Philadelphia and Madison Square Garden exhibitions. Approximately $5,000 in trophy cups and cash sums are offered as prizes to the winners of the various classes. The show will be most representative of the poultry and pot-stock raising industries of Lackawanna, Wayne, Wyoming, Susquehanna and Luzerne counties.

The holding of the show in Town Hall means that the society will be able to give an exhibition that will be the talk of this part of the state.

DIED AT AGE OF 117.

Lancaster Colored Woman Had Lived Under Every President.

Lancaster, Pa.—Mrs. Hettie Jenkin, colored, who claimed to be 117 years old, is dead. She was born in Mississippi a slave of parents brought from Africa as slaves, and she had lived under every President the United States has had.

When the Civil War began her owners moved to Charlestown, S. C., where she resided until five years ago, when she came here to live with her son, Samuel J. Ferguson, 52 years old. She outlived three husbands, twenty-four children, her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Three great-great-grandchildren survive. Until lately her physical condition was remarkably good.

COUNCIL MEET

Mr. Cuffed: "We really can't tell whether a channel benefits or not. Several years ago the Council spent $700 or $800, money just thrown away, to fix the dam so we could draw it down. It was a damage if anything. These freshets and wash-outs come. They come to railroads where they have the best of engineers."

"You'll hear so many people ask, 'Why don't you rebuild the Torrey Dam?' That's easy to talk. But how are you going to build a dam on some one else's property?"

"Everything that has been given to the town has been given by the Torrey family, except half of the public square given by the D. & H. Every place the Torrey family had anything to do it was laid out in good order. Only the Torrey family ever gave a foot of land to the borough."

The following bills were presented and on motion ordered to be paid:

|---|-----------|
| J. B. Robinson ($2,000 insurance for 3 years on City Hall) | $29.00 |
| Erk Bros. | 9.66 |
| B. F. Haines (election notice) | 2.00 |
| Fire Dept adv't | .35 |
| Chas. E. Gibbs | 2.20 |
| Graham Watts | 29.15 |
| Kraft & Conger (coal) | 3.40 |
| Telephone Co. | 29.00 |
| Farnham (insurance) | 3.00 |
| Fred Maurer (street work) | 14.86 |
| John Ashby (street work) | 2.86 |
| H. Knapp (street work) | .68 |
| T. Sweeney (street work) | 37.56 |
| L. Weidner (street work) | 25.00 |
| John Lyons (chief engineer) | 12.50 |
| J. F. Carroll (assistant) | 6.25 |
| Chas. Trescott (stoker) | 45.00 |
| J. J. Canvan (police duty) | 50.00 |
| Levi Degroat (police service) | 301.47 |
| Light bill | 29.00 |
| W. H. Stone (insurance) | 22.66 |
| Galvin & Theobald (range, etc.) | 623.00 |
| Bank Note | 600.00 |
| | $1223.06 |

Street Commissioner Weidner referred to manure piles at Menners, roads pretty near blocked over. "I went up and spoke to Brooks. He never stopped. He never gave me any answer."

It was claimed that the Fire Department can't get past with an engine.

It was decided that the secretary write a letter, telling of complaints from Fire Department, and that the manure be removed at once.

The place spoken of is on Sixteenth street right across from Reifer's.

The matter of asking the Electric Light Company to keep the lights burning longer in the mornings was considered. "It is as dark in the morning at 6 o'clock as at midnight," said one of the members.

It was decided that the Electric Light Company be asked to continue to keep the arc lights burning until 6:30 a. m., during December, January and February.

The Fire Department again came up for discussion.

Mr. Stocker: "You might as well try to interfere with the President of the U. S. It's such a delicate matter. Principal Oday runs things."

It was brought out that no returns of the election of the Fire Chief had been made by the Burgess, five days after the election, as the borough ordinance requires.

Adjournment was made at 9:30 p. m.

WYOMING CONFERENCE.

Bishop McIntyre Will Preside Over Session at Owego.

Bishop Robert McIntyre of St. Paul, Minn., has been appointed to preside over the annual Wyoming Conference to be held at the Methodist Episcopal church in Owego next March. The appointment was made at the recent meeting of the Board of Bishops held in Washington.

The conference will open Wednesday, March 29, and adjournment will probably occur on the following Monday, April 3. The day preceding the convening of the conference, the young men in the conference studies will be examined by the board of examiners.

The session of the conference of 1911 will probably be one of the most notable in its history. It will not only mark the sixtieth year of the conference since it was formed from the old Oneida Conference, but also the fortieth year since the dedication of the Owego church edifice. Reports of a most interesting nature will be presented of the first year's work under the four district plan adopted last Spring at Binghams. It is expected these reports will show a high water mark in all departments of conference activities.

Bishop McIntyre is recognized as one of the most eloquent men in the church, his reputation, both as a preacher and lecturer having become national before his election to the episcopacy, which occurred at the last session of the general conference at Baltimore in 1908. At the time of his election he was pastor of the First Church, Los Angeles, Cal.

Bishop McIntyre is of Scotch birth—his early training was in the Presbyterian church. At one period of his life he was inclined to be a skeptic. A most remarkable religious experience, however, prepared the way for his entry into the ministry. At the time of his election as bishop it was said of him that he had never yet found a building to contain the audiences that flocked to hear him.
