

LATHAM WAS NEAR DEATH

His Monoplane Is Wrecked When It Crashes Into Wire Fence. San Francisco, Jan. 11.—No record and no sensational flights were made at Aviation field, but Hubert Latham had a very narrow escape from death and his beautiful Antoinette monoplane was wrecked beyond repair.

DIES ON WIFE'S COFFIN.

Michael Ormond Expires in Church When Requiem Mass Ends. New York, Jan. 11.—A few minutes after the requiem mass for Mrs. Mary Ormond had come to an end in the Catholic church of St. Cecilia, Michael Ormond, the husband of the dead woman, died while bending over the coffin.

T. R. TO HUNT IN MEXICO.

This Time He'll Kill Wild Musk Hops Instead of Lions. Austin, Tex., Jan. 11.—It was announced here by Colonel Cecil Lyon, chairman of the state Republican executive committee, that Theodore Roosevelt will be his guest in Texas in the middle of March and will accompany him on a hunting trip to Mexico.

Sixteen Die When Vessel Sinks.

Vera Cruz, Jan. 11.—Nine passengers and seven members of the crew of the river steamer Usamacinta were lost by the sinking of the vessel in the Grijalva river near Arroyo Polo. Some of the passengers who lost their lives were prominent planters of that region.

Hanged the Clever Forger.

Of curious petitions against the death penalty being enforced one recalls the eighteenth century case of William Lyland, who was sentenced for forging a bill for £7,114 on the East India House. The forgery was a work of art, no less than thirty signatures were imitated, and at the trial not one of the victims could swear that the signature was not his own.

The Soap and Water Cure.

The traveler in the Himalayas must be prepared for surprises. Two days after the Hon. C. G. Bruce had reached Mana he received a message from a young lady saying that ever since she had seen him on the day of his arrival she had been ill.

WORKS DEFEATS SPALDING.

Los Angeles Judge To Be Senator From California. Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 11.—Judge John D. Works of Los Angeles was elected on the first ballot to succeed Frank P. Flint as United States senator from California. Judge Works received 92 votes on joint ballot, A. G. Spalding of San Diego got 21.

Works was a candidate of the insurgent wing of the party, but at the direct primary, while he received a plurality of votes cast, Spalding carried a greater number of congressional districts.

Senator Quay's Widow Dead.

Pittsburg, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Agnes B. Quay, eighty years old, widow of the late United States Senator Matthew Stanley Quay, is dead here. Senator Quay died in 1904.

Stockton Succeeds Havemeyer.

New York, Jan. 11.—The American Sugar Refining company directors have elected Philip Stockton, president of the Old Colony Trust company of Boston, a director to take the place of Horace Havemeyer, whose resignation was accepted last month.

A Famous Parlor Maid.

Sydney Smith, the famous author and wit, in describing his early married life in a Yorkshire parsonage told how he made a butler out of a village girl.

When the Danes Were Skinned.

In former times the Danes used to sail up the mouths of the English rivers to pillage the churches. When they were caught they were skinned and their skins nailed to the door of the church they attacked.

Were Kind to Him.

A West Philadelphia man who was severely injured some months ago when his horse took fright at an automobile and bolted, upsetting the carriage, has only recently been released from the hospital.

Beaconsfield the Dandy.

The dandyism Benjamin Disraeli affected in his dress is the subject of many pen pictures in Monypenny's "Life of Beaconsfield." At the age of nineteen he is described as wearing a black velvet suit with ruffles and black stockings with red clocks.

Four Hundred Years Before Peary.

The north pole is the place of greatest dignity in the world, and the people who dwell near it "have a wonderful excellency and an exceeding prerogative above all nations of the earth." How blessed we may think this nation to be, for they are in perpetual light and never know what darkness meaneth, by the benefit of twilight and full moons, as the learned in astronomy do very well know which people, if they have the notice of their eternity by the comfortable light of the gospel, then are they blessed and all of nations most blessed.

Where Once a Home Stood.

And what is more melancholy than the old apple trees that linger about the spot where once stood a homestead, but where there is now only a ruined chimney rising out of a grassy and weed grown cellar? They offer their fruit to the wayfarer—apples that are bitter-sweet with the moral of time's vicissitude.—Hawthorne.

Charity.

When thy brother has lost all that he ever had and lies languishing, and even gasping under the utmost extremities of poverty and distress, dost thou think to lick him whole again only with thy tongue?—South.

Woman Merchant Amazes Chicago By Her Ability

CHICAGO has a dry goods merchant who is continually amazing a city already noted the world over for its wealth and progressiveness in that line. One reason for this wonderment is that the merchant in question is a woman.

Mrs. Mollie Netcher, owner of one of the largest department stores in the country, is the woman who has caused this amazement, her latest strategic move being the purchase of some State street property, in the heart of the Chicago shopping district, for $2,900,000.

Spanish Nougat.

Ingredients are one and a half cupfuls of brown sugar, one-half cupful pale sirup, one-half cupful water, white of one egg, one teaspoonful vanilla, one cupful chopped mixed nut kernels.

A Good Dessert.

Souffle of Apples With a Border of Rice.—Prepare the rice in cream, etc., as for rice cake, and keep it in a strong, solid substance. Dress it round a buttered dish about three inches high; give it a nice shape, level and smooth.

Filled Cookies.

Cream together one cupful of sugar and two-thirds cupful of butter, add one egg, two-thirds teaspoonful cream tartar, one-third teaspoonful soda, four teaspoonfuls sweet milk, one teaspoonful vanilla, flour to make stiff; chill, roll very thin, put filling on one cookie, lay another over it; bake in quick oven.

Fine Peanut Wafers.

One quart of peanuts, one-half cupful of butter, one cupful of granulated sugar, one and one-half cupfuls of flour, two-thirds of a cupful of milk and one teaspoonful of vanilla. Chop nuts rather coarsely, cream the butter, add the sugar gradually and beat until very light. Add milk and flour alternately, then the vanilla, beating continually. Drop on greased tin from the end of a knife, placing them very far apart. Do not bake more than six at a time, as they are to be doubled over while hot, and they harden quickly.

Devil's Food.

Boil one cupful of bitter chocolate, one cupful of sour milk, one cupful of brown sugar and set aside until cool. Beat to a cream one cupful of granulated sugar, one scant cupful of butter; add three eggs, well beaten, and one cupful of sour milk. After this has been beaten add your cold chocolate, one teaspoonful of vanilla, two and one-half cupfuls of flour, sifted, with a teaspoonful of baking soda. Be sure to use baking soda and not baking powder. Then beat all together. Bake in layers in a hot oven.

Rocks.

One and one-half cupfuls of brown sugar, one cupful of butter, three eggs, two and one-half cupfuls of flour, three-fourths cupful of raisins, one cupful of chopped walnuts, one teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of cinnamon and two tablespoonfuls of molasses. Drop in teaspoonfuls.

Used Instead of Bonbons.

Large raisins seeded and stuffed with minced walnuts make a nice sweet to serve instead of bonbons at the end of a dinner.

the business experience. Her field was their home and children. It is said that the husband, who had a phenomenal rise in the commercial world, owed much of his success to his wife's sage advice, but that embraced all her knowledge of business.
