

WEATHER FORECAST: Rain.

THE CITIZEN is the most widely read semi-weekly newspaper in Wayne County. Luster now than at any time in its 68 years' history.

The Citizen.

WEATHER FORECAST: Rain.

GOOD MORNING, D... ers! Are you go... tend the Union Rev... ings, at the Central... church this week.

68th YEAR.

HONESDALE, WAYNE CO., PA., FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 1911.

NO. 8

NO "HEART BALM" FOR JOSEPHINE!

Jury, Out All Night, in Famous Alleged Breach Of Promise Case, Brought By Josephine Olszefski Against William F. Taylor For $10,000, Finds Verdict For Defendant.

"When Thou saidst seek ye me... My face, I said Lord Thy face will I seek." Sunday P. M., February 11, 1906.

A. Dr. Corson, Waymart, and his daughter and my father. Mr. Taylor went to Philadelphia the day before to arrange for the funeral.

January 5, 1907. Josephine went with the corpse to Philadelphia, and after the burial she stayed at Mr. Taylor's house in Philadelphia.

JANUARY COURT PROCEEDINGS

APPOINTMENTS MADE -- ACCOUNTS CONFIRMED--A NUMBER OF CASES SETTLED OR CONTINUED.

THE GREAT BERMUDA CONTEST CLOSES PROMPTLY AT 10 P. M. ON MONDAY EVENING

Rapid Gains In Votes Show Many Surprises in Today's Results--Contest Closes Promptly at 10 P. M., Monday Night, January 30--Names of Judges Announced--Winners of Competitive Ballot Announced today--Miss Purdy of District No. 1 and Miss Lehman of District No. 2 Pass Million Mark--Who Will Be The Next?