MR. WINT, the piano tuner, will be in Honesdale the week beginning February 6th. Leave orders at Hotel Wayne. 2t.

LOCAL MENTION.

—Candlemas Day will be observed next Thursday in the local Roman Catholic churches. —The Daughters of America met at the home of Willis Bishop Wednesday. Tea was served by Mrs. Bishop. —Installation services of Captain Ham Post, No. 189, will be held on Friday evening, Feb. 3, at the Post rooms. All veterans are requested to attend. —About $400 was realized Wednesday evening at the annual supper of the young ladies of the Sodality of St. Mary Magdalene church in St. George Hall. —The many friends of Real Estate Man Millard F. Dorin are pleased to see him on the streets again, after being confined to the house by a severe spell of sickness for several weeks. —Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Abraham, Damascus, are leaving shortly for the South, where they expect to spend three months at Orange City, Florida. Mrs. Abraham, who has been favoring the readers of THE CITIZEN with a highly interesting and instructive weekly letter, on Sunday school work, has secured Miss Carrie Clark to take charge of the department during her absence. —A new weather prophet has arisen in Nantucket, Mass. This is what he has to say about the weather: According to the codfish there isn't going to be any more severe winter along the New England coast. The cod are still in the shoal waters and the Nantucket fishermen say that whenever the fish haunt the shoal water until after Christmas a mild winter may be expected. Cod were never more plentiful off the end of the island than this year. —Frank Mills, aged 65 years, was found lying in front of F. W. Bunell's hotel on Willow avenue Wednesday night about 9 o'clock. Patrick McCarthy and Henry French, who were on their way home, heard him groaning and upon investigation found him unconscious. He was carried to the Delmonico hotel and Dr. McConville was called, who found marks on his neck where he had been run over by a buggy. His skull was crushed as though by a horse's hoof. People living in East Honesdale are aroused on account of the nature of Mr. Mills' injuries and there is some talk of an investigation. —In the winter when the ground is exposed, freezing and thawing, you have more sickness than when the ground is covered with snow and you have steady cold. This soft weather is a sure enough grip breeder. Lots of things are called 'grip' by the laity that are not. The characteristic symptoms are fever, headache, legache, backache, muscular pains, soreness of the muscles with catarrhal symptoms of the air passages, usually followed by bronchial troubles, by pneumonia. 'La Grippe' is the French word. The American word is 'influenza.' In formation furnished a reporter of THE CITIZEN in quest of information as to what caused La Grippe. —The financial report of St. Mary Magdalene church, Rev. J. W. Balta, J. U. D., Rector for 1910, shows receipts for pew rent of $1,234.44, and for salary, $1,045. The Christmas collection amounted to $468.00. The total receipts from all sources, for 1910, were $5,022.88; expenditures, $3,575.21; cash on hand, Jan. 1911, $917.87. There is a debt resting on the church of $6,000. The parish statistics for 1910, show 32 baptisms, 12 marriages, 31 children to first communion, 184 class of confirmation, 150 children at school, about 200 families. Three societies are connected with the parish, viz, Knights of St. George, membership 60. The officers are: President, L. C. Weniger; vice-president, Frank Holl; treasurer, Phil Mang; secretary, George Stahl; director, Edward Deltzer. The altar society, with a membership of 130, has these officers: President (to be elected); secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ellis Dorbad; consultants, Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Anna Beck, Mrs. Brunner, Mrs. John McKenna, Mrs. John Dorbad, Mrs. Frank Soete, Mrs. Robert Murray, Mrs. John Bangert, Mrs. George Rickert. The officers of the B. V. Sodality, which has a membership of 92, are: President, Anna Wasman; assistant, Amelia Depner, Margaret Denk; treasurer, Sister Milburgis; consultants, Mary Herzog, Martha Balles, Eva Seltz, Mary Wasman, Ida Hook, Anna Rose, Christina Holl. A mission for the parish, conducted by the Franciscan Fathers, Clemens and Benedict, is to take place between May 28 and June 11; the first week to be for the women and the second for the men of the Parish. The trustees of the church are: Right Rev. M. J. Hoban, D. D., Robert J. Murray, president; Edward Deltzer, vice-president; Joseph A. Fisch, secretary; Rev. J. W. Balta, J. U. D., Rector, treasurer.

—Clarence Callaway has been appointed superintendent of the National Elevator Works. —Quite a number of Honesdale people wore a pink carnation Sunday in honor of the anniversary of the late President William McKinley. Mr. McKinley would have been sixty-nine years of age, January 29, had he lived. —Due to the recent thaw and heavy rains, the Lackawanna rose rapidly Saturday morning and for a time threatened to overflow its banks. With the control of this raging stream the town council have wrestled for many years. —A "cut glass trust" is among the possibilities of the leading industry of Wayne county. It is rumored that a number of the smaller concerns are to be absorbed by the largest two corporations engaged in the manufacture of cut glass. —According to the latest census, there are 186 Protestant denominations in the United States, and sects are constantly on the increase in spite of all the talk of unity. There are sixteen kinds of Baptists, thirty-four of Lutherans, fifteen of Methodists, and twelve of Presbyterians. —John Long, Hanover, Great Sachem of Pennsylvania, will be here next Thursday night to officially visit Oslek Tribe No. 318, I. O. R. M., install the new officers, and talk on the unwritten work. After the session at Freedom Hall, the members will banquet. —A twelve-team baseball league is among the possibilities in Wayne county. The towns mentioned in connection with the proposed association are: Honesdale, Hawley, White Mills, Arkel, Waymart, Aldenville, Pleasant Mount, Damascus, Shehawken, Equinunk, Lake Como and Lakeville. The proposed trolley will touch many of these towns. —Out in the state of Washington, where women have the right of suffrage, there is liable to be trouble over the full exercise of the rights that usually go with the ballots as the women object to jury service. The courts have difficulty enough with men on this jury business but what they are to do with the women is now giving considerable uneasiness. —The State Board of Agriculture selected Lancaster as the place for meeting in 1912 at their annual sessions held at Harrisburg last week. The following officers were elected: Vice-presidents, George G. Hutchison, Warriors Mark; A. J. Kahler, Hughesville, and Peter Gearhart, Clearfield; executive committee, H. E. Conrad, West Grove, chairman; J. A. Herr, Mill Hall; A. P. Young, Millville; Matthew Rodgers, Mexico; M. M. Nagney, Millroy; R. J. Weld, Sugar Grove, and D. A. Knuppenburg, Lake Carey. Governor Tener is quite ex officio. —Quite unique is the record of Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart, retained by Governor Tener as the head of the National Guard of the state. General Stewart recently, for the fifth time, was sworn in as the commanding officer, next to the governor, of the citizen soldiery of Pennsylvania. In point of service, General Stewart is the oldest officer at the head of the department at the capitol. He served two terms as secretary of Internal Affairs, resigning in 1895 to accept the adjutant generalship in Governor Hastings' cabinet. He continued in the position during the Stone, Pennypacker and Stuart administrations. General Stewart fought in the Civil war and was in active command of the Pennsylvania troops during the Spanish-American war. He is a past grand commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. —Two weeks later than last year will come the first day of the holy season of Lent this year. Last year, the Lenten season opened February 13th. This year the opening day will be March 1. Easter Sunday this year will fall on April 16. The time of the Lenten season is regulated by the moon. Easter Sunday annually falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon coming later than March 21. The first full moon after March 21 this year will be on April 13. The season of Lent is the most important in the calendar of the Catholic church. It is observed with special services Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Sunday, Passion Sunday and Palm Sunday are the most prominent days of the season. Good Friday is the most sorrowful day in the church, this marking the anniversary of the death of Christ upon the cross. The most joyous day is Easter Sunday. —The Fifth Annual Banquet of The Wayne County Pennsylvania Society of New York City will be held on Wednesday evening, the eighth of February, 1911, at seven o'clock at the Hotel Manhattan, corner of Madison Avenue and 42nd street, New York City. Among the guests of honor and speakers will be: Homer Greene, Litt. D., lawyer and author, Honesdale; Right Reverend M. J. Hoban, Bishop, Scranton Diocese; Hon. Charles T. White, Tax Commissioner, President, Delaware Valley Society; Hon. William A. Prendergast, Comptroller of the City of New York. The price of the dinner tickets has been fixed at four ($4.00) dollars each. The committee will, after February fourth, assign the seats to the members and their guests in the order of priority of application, and as near as possible to the location desired. Members are requested to write the full names of their dinner guests on the application blanks in order to facilitate making out the table diagram and printing a list of the names of the members and guests of the society. All communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Society. The officers of the association are: Geo. R. Valentine, president; D. Minor Lake, 1st vice-president; Wm. A. Lobb, 2nd vice-president; Luke Levy, 3rd vice-president; Isaac W. Seeman, treasurer; Edwin P. Kilroe, Ph. D., historian; Clarence J. Knapp, sergeant-at-arms; Chas. S. Penwarden, secretary, 11 Nassau street. The Board of Directors are: Geo. R. Valentine, chairman; Henry S. Hand, Hiram Sherwood, William W. Starbuck, George F. James.

—Katz Bros. underwear sale will start, Saturday, February 4. —The cost of the jury in the case of the Commonwealth versus Leona Lord was $1,135.65. —Hawley Stars will play the Seelyville Basket Ball team at the latter place on Wednesday evening. —Two "knights of the road" enjoyed a comfortable night's lodging in the "town lockup" several nights ago. —Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murtha, of River street, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hessling, of Grove street, a son. —The Wednesday night prayer meeting service at the First Presbyterian church, will appeal especially to Sunday school teachers. —Applications for liquor licenses should be filed on or before February 11, with M. J. Hanlan, Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions. —In a fire early Sunday morning, a boy's bungalow, near the Traceyville creamery, Freathy's flat, was burned to the ground. The origin of the blaze is not known. The loss is $200. —Alex F. Voigt will remove to Hawley about February 1. He will occupy apartments over Nell's market. Mr. Voigt is the father of the well-known Hawley doctor, Dr. A. C. Voigt. —Professor W. P. Bradley, Wesleyan University, lectures on "Liquid Air" at the Damascus Baptist church on Friday evening, Feb. 3. Don't forget the date. The experiments will please and entertain you. —Examinations in all grades were held at the High school last week. Forty pupils are required to make up an hour daily in their studies, because they didn't come up to the requirements in their last month's reports. —The series of union revival meetings which have been conducted for the past three weeks in the First Baptist, First Presbyterian and Central M. E. churches, came to a close Sunday evening with a largely attended union service in the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. G. S. Wendell preaching. Six converts have been received as the results of these meetings. —There is considerable unrest among the cut glass workers in Honesdale at present. One of the concerns employing a large number of men, made a considerable reduction in the price paid their men for making bowls, directly after the holidays. A petition was circulated among the employes, asking them to agree to the proposed reduction. A good many refused to sign it, and it is said a number of those who would not accept the new scale were discharged. —Cashier C. S. Houck, of the Hawley Bank, has been notified by Charles L. McKeehan, secretary of the State Board of Law Examiners, that he successfully passed the final examinations taken before that board at Wilkes-Barre, December 6 and 7, 1910, for admission to the bar. For several years past Mr. Houck has devoted his spare time to the study of law and the news of this merited success after years of hard work will be gratifying to his numerous friends here.—The Hawley Times. —The stockholders of the Honesdale Realty company met recently and elected directors for this year. The following were chosen to fill the vacancies caused by the death of L. M. Atkinson and removal from Honesdale of M. J. Kelly and Samuel Katz: W. A. Gaylor, C. J. Smith and William Katz. Other members on the board were re-elected. After election the board organized by electing the following officers: President, T. B. Clark; vice-president, L. J. Dorflinger; secretary, M. J. Hanlan; W. A. Gaylor, treasurer. —The Horace Greeley Memorial Committee is appealing for funds for a monument in honor of the editor-statesman, in sums of $1 each. Donors will have their names placed in sealed boxes in the crypt when the corner stone is laid on February 2d, and a century later their heirs will be reminded of the fact. The monument is to be at Chazy, N. Y., home of the editor. Greeley was a familiar figure in Pike county in the forties. He was a great man and his memory should be perpetuated. Jacob Erlich, 40 West 20th street, New York City, is treasurer of the fund. —Sheriff M. Lee Braman left for Philadelphia Monday morning with Mrs. Leona Lord, who was sentenced to an indeterminate sentence of from three to twelve years, at hard labor, at separate and solitary confinement, in the Eastern Penitentiary, for the part she took in the big fight at Equinunk, July 12, 1910, when her brother-in-law, Silas E. Lord, was killed. Mrs. Lord is fifty-three years of age. Her confinement in the Wayne county jail for the past six months has greatly broken her down in body and spirit, and the opinion is freely expressed that she will never live to complete her sentence. —The Wayne County Co-operative Association held its quarterly meeting and annual election of officers at St. George's hall, Main street, last Thursday evening. President John Weiser called the meeting to order and outlined the business for the evening. He spoke briefly on the Co-operative movement, the success and growth the company had enjoyed and said it was the object of the company to invite the members and friends to the meetings and socials that they might become better acquainted with its methods and join the large number of patrons. Secretary Leon H. Ross read the minutes of the last meeting after which the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: John Weiser, president; P. J. McCarty, vice-president; Leon H. Ross, secretary and treasurer; James Monaghan, auditor; John Seltz, F. Weniger, L. Weniger and H. E. Cross, directors. The other officers whose terms have not expired are: John Boss, G. P. Ross, Paul Knorr, Peter Sutton, directors, and Fred Seltz, auditor. After the election the members and their friends enjoyed dancing and were served with an oyster supper.

—Mrs. Noyes, Eleventh street, is seriously ill. —Richard Brown continues to be seriously ill. —It is a sure sign that Spring is coming, when boys and girls may be seen daily going up and down Main street on roller skates. —There will be a donation at the Presbyterian Manse, Bethany, Friday night, February 10, for Rev. J. B. Cody. —A number of Honesdale young people have received invitations to the Carbondale Cycle club's annual dance on Friday evening of this week. —It is possible that a religious census of Honesdale will be taken in the near future. A number of the clergy consider it an excellent idea. —Miss Stone, the accomplished violinist of Carbondale, played at both services Sunday in the Grace Protestant Episcopal church before large congregations. —Mortimer Clark Addoms, Jr., Mrs. L. M. Lawson of New York, and Fred Addoms, Denver, Col., were out-of-town relatives present at the funeral, Saturday afternoon, of Mrs. Otis Avery. —Rev. J. W. Balta, J. U. D., rector of St. Mary Magdalene Catholic church, delivered a strong sermon Sunday evening before a large congregation on "Secret Societies," showing the relation of the church to them. —Harry P. Deck, of this place, who received the contract for the plumbing and heating for the new state armory, has completed his work in a most satisfactory manner. Electrical workers from Scranton are now at work on the structure. —The Bachelors are planning to make their third dance of the series at Lyric Hall this (Tuesday) evening, a great success. Without doubt the hopes entertained by the non-Benedictines have met popular favor this winter. Their last dance of the series, which will be held the latter part of February, will in all probability be the greatest event of the social season. —At the revival services Friday evening, Mrs. Harry Rockwell sang a beautiful solo, with rare taste and in excellent spirit. At the same service, Mrs. Rockwell and C. J. Dibble rendered a duet. Sunday night Mrs. Rockwell and Mr. Dibble sang again. A male quartette, Rev. A. C. Oliver, C. J. Dibble, Joseph Bodie, Clarence Callaway gave a splendid selection, also. —Funeral services for Will Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bishop, who died at Indian Orchard Friday morning, aged 29 years, were held from his late home Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. A. L. Whittaker officiating. Services were also held at the Indian Orchard school house and interment was made in the Indian Orchard cemetery. —The annual meeting of the Honesdale Union-Stamp Shoe Company was held on Thursday afternoon last and the following board of directors was unanimously elected: C. F. Bushwaller, P. A. Brunner, C. B. Boyd, Fred S. Cory, Wm. J. Lane, E. C. Mumford, Anthony Okowitz, F. A. Reitenauer, George P. Ross, John K. Seitz, Fred Seitz, Peter Sutton, John F. Tierney, John Weiser, H. M. Williams. This company is putting an excellent product on the market. At the beginning of the year they began making a fine line of Goodyear welts for men, and judging from the way orders are coming in they will soon have to employ more help. They have about 25 shares of treasury stock for sale, and it is a good investment for anybody who wants it. —Miss Eleanor D. Gill, White Mills, president of the Rebekah Lodge of L. O. O. F. of White Mills and Hawley, installed officers at Ustick and Lakeville in December. Miss Gill has been the honored president of the Rebekahs for the past two years and her appointment is a fitting recognition of her ability. The ladies of the Rebekah lodges know that Miss Gill is honest, truthful and has fine social, intellectual, and spiritual qualities. The officers installed by Miss Gill were: N. G. Miss Minnie Locklin; V. G. Miss Julia Welsh; R. S. Miss Maud Locklin; F. S. Mrs. Della Goble; treasurer, Miss Lena Osborne; trustee, Mrs. C. Glessenger; warden, Miss Jazel James; conductress, Miss Gladys Pennell; R. S. N. S. Miss Jennie Crane; L. S. N. G. Mrs. Osborne; R. S. V. G. Christina Glessenger; L. S. V. G. Minnie Miller; inside guard, Miss Evelyn Pennell; outside guard, F. B. Pennell. —Robert A. Smith, the grand old man of Wayne county, celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday Monday morning. "Squire" Smith has been a justice of the peace more years than he can remember and is a staunch Republican. Just to show him how much they like him the court house officials got up a birthday surprise party for him. The fun began at 11 a. m. Judge Henry Wilson, dean of the Wayne county bar, made the presentation speech. Men in all walks of life crowded the 'squire's little office room in the corridor. Judges, lawyers, clergymen, doctors, officials, politicians, reporters, etc., were "among those also present." Judge Wilson delivered a humorous speech in his inimitable style, felicitating the 'squire on his celebration of another anniversary of his birth. "The thing that makes a man old is getting birthdays," he said. Judge Wilson told the anecdote of Horace Greeley's going to live in Pike county, of his starting a farm and an association there, and of his going away in disgust with Pike, and stating it was "noted for producing rattlesnakes and Democrats." The story is that when the rattlesnakes heard of that they held an indignation meeting and objected to being classified with Pike county Democrats. "Now, if they had been Wayne county Democrats they would have been proud of it," said Judge Wilson. "Squire Smith was fairly overcome with emotion at the testimonials of his friends, which included burnt offerings in the way of several boxes of imported Havanas, and "other offerings" but managed to express his thanks for their kind remembrances.

No More Catarrh
G. W. Peil Has a Guaranteed Cure That Has Stood the Test of Time.
Catarrh cures come and catarrh cures go, but HYOMEL continues to cure catarrh and abolish its disgusting symptoms wherever civilization exists. Every year the already enormous sales of this really scientific cure for catarrh grow greater, and the present year will show all records broken. If you buy a HYOMEL outfit for $1.00 and hide it in a dark cupboard it won't cure your catarrh. If you breathe it daily as directed it will cure your catarrh or it won't cost you a cent. Ask G. W. Peil. If you have a hard rubber Hyomel inhaler somewhere around the house, get it out and start at once to forever rid yourself of catarrh. G. W. Peil will sell you a bottle of HYOMEL (liquid) for only 50 cents; start to breathe it and notice how quickly it clears out the air passages and makes the entire head feel fine. HYOMEL used regularly will cure catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis or sore throat. A complete outfit including a hard rubber pocket inhaler costs $1.00. No stomach dosing. Just breathe it. It kills the germs, soothes and heals the inflamed membrane.
