A bill that comes under the interesting class is that of Represen-tative Johnson, who makes eavesdropping a misdemeanor and pun-ishable by a fine of not more than $500 and imprisonment of not more than two years and not less than six months. This bill provides that it is unlawful in the night time to loiter about dwelling houses or on the premises of another without lawful business, the entering the premises of another or the watching the inmates of a dwelling or listening to their conversation. Under this act all these things may be done in the daytime without fear of breaking the

To the Parents and Young People of Honesdale: We beg to inform you that we have arranged for the presentation of "A Trip to the Moon," a classical and refined Musical Spectacle of high order to be given under the auspices of the Village Improve-ment Society. We solicit your kind co-operation in this matter, as it is not only a benefit for us, but to each and every person taking part. Young people will have the advantage of a training in physical culture and elocution, become easy in manner and learn that modest self-confidence characteristic of well bred per-ns. Knowing how anxious parents feel regarding the welfare and advancement of their children, we deem it proper to state that rehearsals are so arranged as not to interfere with general school work and are under the direction of a representative of the New York Lyceum sentative of the New York Lyceum Entertainment Bureau and chaper-oned by the Young Ladies' Amuse-ment Club of our town, organized especially for this entertainment. Kindly give us your assistance, co-operate with us, as the cause is one musical treat the grandest in the history of our town. All rehearsals will be held in the Lyric hall. e'clock at Lyric Hall.

Ex-Senator General E. B. Hardenbergh was on the Hill last night .-(Tuesday's Harrisburg Telegraph.)

It was learned to-day that the State Legislative Commission on Codification of Election Laws would ready to report in a fortnight and no effect. will recommend some radical chan-ges in the election laws of such importance that the legislative program cannot with any degree of certain-ty be mapped out until the nature of these changes are made known. One change can be said with assurance and that is the primary election will be changed from the spring until the fall. The intimations of what the commission will recom-mend, which have come to the ears of the committee, has caused it to withhold any action on questions referred to it. Already a bill is in course of preparation, providing for the fall primary, according to the Harrisburg Telegraph. There has been some contention among the members of the commission and a desire to recommend some changes which would revolutionize the election system in this state. A compromise has been affected by the more conservative members with the result that the report will not be as drastic as at first feared. The organization leaders are well satisfied with what they know of the recommendations and are preparing bills to meet the recommendations so far as they are known. All legislation affecting the election laws will be gone over by the committee and be reported out at the end of the two weeks' time.

This has been given as well be gone over by ary 22, which gives promise of being a brilliant social event. This has been given as authentic by a member of the House.

In the southeastern section of the State where the deadly San Jose scale has worked greater damage probably than elsewhere within the boundaries of this Commonwealth, destroying entire orchards so that farms are now without fruit trees of any kind, the owner of one of these treeless homes in Bucks county has decided to again plant an orchard, and writes to Prof. H. A. Surface, state zoologist, for a list of the best varieties to plant in that county. following reply was sent him: The Replying to your letter making inquiry as to the ten best varieties of autumn and winter apples for home use in your region, I would recommend the following: Smokehouse, Grimes, Golden, Jonathan, Rome Beauty, Boyne Rome Beauty, Bonum, Mother, Lady's Sweeting, Pound, York Imperial and Stayman's Winesap. The last one is the very best in quality, while the next to last is the poorest in quality in this list, but is the best keeper and one of the best bearers, and is one of our most profitable commercial apples of Southern and Southeastern Pennsylvania.

"In addition to this list of fall and winter apples, it appears that a person should plant the following for summer use in the home or-chard. Among these should be: Yellow Transparent, Early Ripe, Red Astrachan, Sweet Bough, Wealthy, Maiden Blush, Summer

She is pleased that her husband's writings and his fight for equality have been recognized, but she does not wish for any honors herself and insists their quiet little home, in a one story building on a cliff overlooking the Tagus, in Cruz Quebrada, shall not be disturbed. The home is modestly furnished, but cozy. The Bragas never have been wealthy. Their income, though small, has just been enough to support them. "We married for love." said Senhora Braga. "We always have been poor and always happy with each other, except for our great sorrow that we now are childless, for we are ever mourning the loss of our son and our daughter twenty years ago. My girl would have been forty now, and I should have had grownup grandchildren around me."
