

SEVEN DAYS IN WAYNE

WHAT THE FOLKS IN THE SHIRE ARE DOING.

HAWLEY

CENTERVILLE.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Centerville, Pa., February 18.—William Marshall of this place, who has been working on the ice at Gouldsboro for some time, returned to his home on Saturday last.
 Mrs. Samuel Kimble and children, Mrs. John Becker and daughter, Edna, also Homer Frisbie, of this place, attended church at Ledgedale Sunday, February 12th.
 Friend Walker and William Gerity, Hub, visited at Mrs. Eliza Garity's on Sunday last.
 Walter and Andrew Van Lewen, Ariel, passed through Centerville today.
 Peter Torney, Ledgedale, visited at R. Marshall's on Sunday evening.
 Nettie G. Kimble, who has spent the past four weeks in Scranton, visiting at her aunt's, returned to her home here Monday, February 13th.

BRAMAN AND KELLAM.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Kellam and Braham, Pa., February 20.—No church last Sunday as nearly every house has sickness and the doctor's overworked.
 Heenan Cole has pneumonia.
 Mr. and Mrs. David Stalker and Frank Lawson have the grippe but are better at this writing.
 Miss Emma Woolheater returned to her school last Monday having been home for two weeks helping to care for her sister and niece. Some very nice logs are being drawn to the saw mill at Kellam.
 Frederick Hineman from Port Jervis was calling on friends at this place recently.
 Mr. and Mrs. Arville Keys from Cochecon, spent last Saturday and Sunday at the home of his father.

PAUPACK.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Paupack, February 21.—Mrs. Ludwig and daughter, Ruth, also Mrs. Arter and son, Harold, left this place on Tuesday last on an extended trip.
 We are glad to hear that Mrs. Bennett, also Mrs. R. G. Phillips, are improving from their recent illness.
 Mrs. J. G. Killam returned to her home last week, after spending a few weeks with friends in Scranton.
 The Ladies' Aid was entertained by Mrs. H. Fowler on Thursday, February 16.
 The foxes are getting quite bold. One was seen walking in one of our neighbor's yards recently.
 Mrs. C. E. Williams spent part of the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Gilpin, of Hawley.

SIKO.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Siko, Pa., February 21.—Our winter is here at last.
 Fred Eldred is drawing hay to town.
 Fred Smith, who has been sick, is able to be out again.
 Mrs. Charles Brees, Carbondale, and Miss Mable Schimmel, Walter Schimmel and Earl Mac Arthur, of Honesdale, spent Saturday at the home of J. D. Copeland.
 John Heller made a business trip to Honesdale Saturday.
 Miss Florence Mac Arthur and John Coggins, Honesdale, spent last Sunday at the home of J. D. Copeland.
 We are glad to know that our minister, Rev. J. B. Cody, is again able to attend to his duties.
 John Eggleton is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.
 Mrs. Fred Weinman is recovering from an attack of rheumatism.

BETHANY.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Bethany, Pa., February 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Starnes and two little girls of Carbondale came Saturday to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Starnes.
 Mrs. Judson B. Faatz left Saturday to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. Meyers, at Montrose.
 Miss Cody is in Honesdale caring for Mrs. Bush, who is seriously ill.
 Miss Clara Balloo, Honesdale, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Edgar Ross.
 Jasper Faatz, Scranton, and Mrs. Bolcom, Honesdale, spent Sunday with their father, Mr. Charles Faatz and wife.
 A dinner will be served at the home of Mrs. W. J. Ogden, Pleasant Valley, Thursday, February 23, at noon, for the benefit of the Bethany Presbyterian church.
 Ernest Paynter, Carbondale, visited relatives here over Sunday.
 Mrs. Henry Bennett entertained the Misses Slayton, Ball and Gilchrist at dinner Thursday.
 Edna Blake has been spending the past week with Helene Purdy of Seelyville.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Smith spent last Sunday in Hawley, visiting Mrs. Smith's brother, Harry W. Pethick and family.
 Mrs. J. J. Hauser and Mrs. Henry A. Bennett spent the day with Mrs. Robertson and Miss Strongman recently at their pleasant home in Honesdale.
 A. O. Blake spent Sunday in Mount Pleasant at the Kennedy home.

INDIAN ORCHARD.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Indian Orchard, Feb. 20.—We are having a fine run of sleighing again which seems to put life in all kinds of business especially lumbering which is carried on quite extensively at this place, there being three sawmills near us, P. Hollenbeck's on the Brook road, Minor Brown's at Swamp Brook, and W. J. Bearnes' at Chestnut Lake, all of which are doing considerable work.
 Mrs. William Peggall, East Honesdale, accompanied by her daughter and son, visited her father, er, S. Saunders, who is staying at the home of W. D. Buckingham on the Chestnut Grove farm, on Sunday.

John R. Buckingham and family, Ateo, were entertained at the Chestnut Grove farm on Sunday last as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Buckingham.

Samuel Saunders is visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. D. Noble, Fallsdale.
 Ina Mitchell, teacher of the East Beachlake school, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends at this place.

There are still several cases of grippe in this vicinity. This disease has handled several of its victims roughly.

The new telephone company is progressing nicely, several having their poles on the ground in readiness.

One of the largest and best local institutes ever held in Berlin was held at Grange Hall on Saturday last.

Arthur Oliver was a pleasant caller here last week. He says that his company, the Borden's, are doing a great business.

Messrs. Roy Dayly, Jos. Schwarz and Lewis Gray filled their ice houses last week.

E. E. Avery and wife of the Bethel fruit farm, entertained relatives from Scranton last week.

We spent a day at Welcome Lake last week. There are some very fine boarding houses at that place, especially those owned by Messrs. Virgil Case, Ezra Case, and Ernest Miller. Another large and commodious house is being built for Farrington Case.

W. H. Marshall spent Tuesday last with his father, T. B. Marshall, who is living with his daughter, Mrs. C. O. Blake, Bethany. Mr. Blake is extensively engaged in raising Holstein cattle and Shropshire sheep.

The Ladies' Aid held at the home of Mrs. A. M. Henshaw on the first inst. was well attended. All present had a very enjoyable time. Their next meeting will be with Mr. William Seymour at the M. E. parsonage, Beach Lake.

Fred Schwarz and wife, who have been spending some time with the latter's relatives at Cherry Ridge, are now at the former's home, at this place.

Mrs. Smith, who has been very sick with rheumatism, is regaining health.

Thomas Ham and daughter, Irma, spent Sunday last with Hawley relatives.

ALDENVILLE.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Aldenville, Pa., Feb. 20.—The funeral of the late Mrs. N. O. Walker was held from the Baptist church on Sunday afternoon. The edifice was more than filled with the sorrowing friends and relatives of the deceased.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid society held an oyster supper at James Moore's on Friday night of last week; a most enjoyable time was spent and thirty-six dollars added to the treasury.

The semi-annual meetings of the Baptist convention of Wayne county pastors was held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons and evenings of last week. Rev. Small of the Hawley Baptist church, Rev. Wendell of the Honesdale church, Rev. Minch of the Damascus church; Rev. McHuen of the Lake Ariel church, and Rev. Baker of the South Clinton church were present and each in turn delivered powerful sermons.

Arthur Hopkins, Seelyville, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hopkins.

The friends of Mrs. Lillie Drake Vanderberg will be pleased to learn that she is making fine progress toward recovery from her recent operation at Wilkes-Barre Hospital.

On Friday last the Coggins school of which Miss Anna Kennedy of Creamton is teacher, and the Edendale school of which Miss Mary Mulrany of this place is teacher, were treated to a sleighride. They visited the Choyne school of which Miss Gladys Haunstein is teacher, contests in the different grades from representatives of each school took place.

BEACH LAKE.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Beach Lake, Pa., February 21.—On February 14th the W. C. T. U. ladies and their husbands met at the home of Mrs. Mary Neal. After partaking of a delicious dinner provided by the ladies the following program was rendered: Singing; invocation; Scripture reading, Psalm 91; prayer, Rev. Seymour; roll call; minutes read; address, Rev. Seymour; singing; address, Mrs. Mary Neal; singing; recitation, "When Our Ship Comes In," by Mrs. J. B. Wilmarth. The day was enjoyably spent by all present.

Mrs. Hiram Wood entertained the Ladies' Aid Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Mr. Amasa Keys has been very sick the last ten days with grip.

Dell McIntire is slowly improving.

Mrs. Will Oliver and Mrs. Wesley Vanwert invited a couple of sleigh loads to go to Damascus last Saturday to spend the day with Rev. Coleman and family. Mr. Oliver and Mr. William Dunn taking the crowd. The following were in the crowd: Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Elery Crosby, Mrs. H. E. Wells, Mrs. Wesley Vanwert, Mrs. David Dilleuth and daughter Marie, Mrs. Jake Hiller, Mrs. Tom Trevorton, Mrs. William Downing, Mrs. J. B. Wilmarth, Mrs. Prower Budd, Mrs. John Neal, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davey, Mr. and Mrs. William Ives, Rev. and Mrs. Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. William Oliver.

The revival services will be continued this week in the M. E. church. This will be the third week er, S. Saunders, who is staying at the home of W. D. Buckingham on the Chestnut Grove farm, on Sunday.

John R. Buckingham and family, Ateo, were entertained at the Chestnut Grove farm on Sunday last as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Buckingham.

Samuel Saunders is visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. D. Noble, Fallsdale.
 Ina Mitchell, teacher of the East Beachlake school, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends at this place.

There are still several cases of grippe in this vicinity. This disease has handled several of its victims roughly.

The new telephone company is progressing nicely, several having their poles on the ground in readiness.

One of the largest and best local institutes ever held in Berlin was held at Grange Hall on Saturday last.

Arthur Oliver was a pleasant caller here last week. He says that his company, the Borden's, are doing a great business.

Messrs. Roy Dayly, Jos. Schwarz and Lewis Gray filled their ice houses last week.

E. E. Avery and wife of the Bethel fruit farm, entertained relatives from Scranton last week.

We spent a day at Welcome Lake last week. There are some very fine boarding houses at that place, especially those owned by Messrs. Virgil Case, Ezra Case, and Ernest Miller. Another large and commodious house is being built for Farrington Case.

W. H. Marshall spent Tuesday last with his father, T. B. Marshall, who is living with his daughter, Mrs. C. O. Blake, Bethany. Mr. Blake is extensively engaged in raising Holstein cattle and Shropshire sheep.

The Ladies' Aid held at the home of Mrs. A. M. Henshaw on the first inst. was well attended. All present had a very enjoyable time. Their next meeting will be with Mr. William Seymour at the M. E. parsonage, Beach Lake.

Fred Schwarz and wife, who have been spending some time with the latter's relatives at Cherry Ridge, are now at the former's home, at this place.

Mrs. Smith, who has been very sick with rheumatism, is regaining health.

Thomas Ham and daughter, Irma, spent Sunday last with Hawley relatives.

ALDENVILLE.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Aldenville, Pa., Feb. 20.—The funeral of the late Mrs. N. O. Walker was held from the Baptist church on Sunday afternoon. The edifice was more than filled with the sorrowing friends and relatives of the deceased.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid society held an oyster supper at James Moore's on Friday night of last week; a most enjoyable time was spent and thirty-six dollars added to the treasury.

The semi-annual meetings of the Baptist convention of Wayne county pastors was held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons and evenings of last week. Rev. Small of the Hawley Baptist church, Rev. Wendell of the Honesdale church, Rev. Minch of the Damascus church; Rev. McHuen of the Lake Ariel church, and Rev. Baker of the South Clinton church were present and each in turn delivered powerful sermons.

Arthur Hopkins, Seelyville, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hopkins.

The friends of Mrs. Lillie Drake Vanderberg will be pleased to learn that she is making fine progress toward recovery from her recent operation at Wilkes-Barre Hospital.

On Friday last the Coggins school of which Miss Anna Kennedy of Creamton is teacher, and the Edendale school of which Miss Mary Mulrany of this place is teacher, were treated to a sleighride. They visited the Choyne school of which Miss Gladys Haunstein is teacher, contests in the different grades from representatives of each school took place.

BEACH LAKE.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Beach Lake, Pa., February 21.—On February 14th the W. C. T. U. ladies and their husbands met at the home of Mrs. Mary Neal. After partaking of a delicious dinner provided by the ladies the following program was rendered: Singing; invocation; Scripture reading, Psalm 91; prayer, Rev. Seymour; roll call; minutes read; address, Rev. Seymour; singing; address, Mrs. Mary Neal; singing; recitation, "When Our Ship Comes In," by Mrs. J. B. Wilmarth. The day was enjoyably spent by all present.

Mrs. Hiram Wood entertained the Ladies' Aid Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Mr. Amasa Keys has been very sick the last ten days with grip.

Dell McIntire is slowly improving.

Mrs. Will Oliver and Mrs. Wesley Vanwert invited a couple of sleigh loads to go to Damascus last Saturday to spend the day with Rev. Coleman and family. Mr. Oliver and Mr. William Dunn taking the crowd. The following were in the crowd: Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Elery Crosby, Mrs. H. E. Wells, Mrs. Wesley Vanwert, Mrs. David Dilleuth and daughter Marie, Mrs. Jake Hiller, Mrs. Tom Trevorton, Mrs. William Downing, Mrs. J. B. Wilmarth, Mrs. Prower Budd, Mrs. John Neal, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davey, Mr. and Mrs. William Ives, Rev. and Mrs. Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. William Oliver.

The revival services will be continued this week in the M. E. church. This will be the third week er, S. Saunders, who is staying at the home of W. D. Buckingham on the Chestnut Grove farm, on Sunday.

John R. Buckingham and family, Ateo, were entertained at the Chestnut Grove farm on Sunday last as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Buckingham.

Samuel Saunders is visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. D. Noble, Fallsdale.
 Ina Mitchell, teacher of the East Beachlake school, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends at this place.

There are still several cases of grippe in this vicinity. This disease has handled several of its victims roughly.

The new telephone company is progressing nicely, several having their poles on the ground in readiness.

One of the largest and best local institutes ever held in Berlin was held at Grange Hall on Saturday last.

Arthur Oliver was a pleasant caller here last week. He says that his company, the Borden's, are doing a great business.

Messrs. Roy Dayly, Jos. Schwarz and Lewis Gray filled their ice houses last week.

er, S. Saunders, who is staying at the home of W. D. Buckingham on the Chestnut Grove farm, on Sunday.

John R. Buckingham and family, Ateo, were entertained at the Chestnut Grove farm on Sunday last as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Buckingham.

Samuel Saunders is visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. D. Noble, Fallsdale.
 Ina Mitchell, teacher of the East Beachlake school, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends at this place.

There are still several cases of grippe in this vicinity. This disease has handled several of its victims roughly.

The new telephone company is progressing nicely, several having their poles on the ground in readiness.

One of the largest and best local institutes ever held in Berlin was held at Grange Hall on Saturday last.

Arthur Oliver was a pleasant caller here last week. He says that his company, the Borden's, are doing a great business.

Messrs. Roy Dayly, Jos. Schwarz and Lewis Gray filled their ice houses last week.

E. E. Avery and wife of the Bethel fruit farm, entertained relatives from Scranton last week.

We spent a day at Welcome Lake last week. There are some very fine boarding houses at that place, especially those owned by Messrs. Virgil Case, Ezra Case, and Ernest Miller. Another large and commodious house is being built for Farrington Case.

W. H. Marshall spent Tuesday last with his father, T. B. Marshall, who is living with his daughter, Mrs. C. O. Blake, Bethany. Mr. Blake is extensively engaged in raising Holstein cattle and Shropshire sheep.

The Ladies' Aid held at the home of Mrs. A. M. Henshaw on the first inst. was well attended. All present had a very enjoyable time. Their next meeting will be with Mr. William Seymour at the M. E. parsonage, Beach Lake.

Fred Schwarz and wife, who have been spending some time with the latter's relatives at Cherry Ridge, are now at the former's home, at this place.

Mrs. Smith, who has been very sick with rheumatism, is regaining health.

Thomas Ham and daughter, Irma, spent Sunday last with Hawley relatives.

BEACH LAKE.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Beach Lake, Pa., February 21.—On February 14th the W. C. T. U. ladies and their husbands met at the home of Mrs. Mary Neal. After partaking of a delicious dinner provided by the ladies the following program was rendered: Singing; invocation; Scripture reading, Psalm 91; prayer, Rev. Seymour; roll call; minutes read; address, Rev. Seymour; singing; address, Mrs. Mary Neal; singing; recitation, "When Our Ship Comes In," by Mrs. J. B. Wilmarth. The day was enjoyably spent by all present.

Mrs. Hiram Wood entertained the Ladies' Aid Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Mr. Amasa Keys has been very sick the last ten days with grip.

Dell McIntire is slowly improving.

Mrs. Will Oliver and Mrs. Wesley Vanwert invited a couple of sleigh loads to go to Damascus last Saturday to spend the day with Rev. Coleman and family. Mr. Oliver and Mr. William Dunn taking the crowd. The following were in the crowd: Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Elery Crosby, Mrs. H. E. Wells, Mrs. Wesley Vanwert, Mrs. David Dilleuth and daughter Marie, Mrs. Jake Hiller, Mrs. Tom Trevorton, Mrs. William Downing, Mrs. J. B. Wilmarth, Mrs. Prower Budd, Mrs. John Neal, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davey, Mr. and Mrs. William Ives, Rev. and Mrs. Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. William Oliver.

The revival services will be continued this week in the M. E. church. This will be the third week er, S. Saunders, who is staying at the home of W. D. Buckingham on the Chestnut Grove farm, on Sunday.

John R. Buckingham and family, Ateo, were entertained at the Chestnut Grove farm on Sunday last as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Buckingham.

Samuel Saunders is visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. D. Noble, Fallsdale.
 Ina Mitchell, teacher of the East Beachlake school, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends at this place.

There are still several cases of grippe in this vicinity. This disease has handled several of its victims roughly.

The new telephone company is progressing nicely, several having their poles on the ground in readiness.

One of the largest and best local institutes ever held in Berlin was held at Grange Hall on Saturday last.

Arthur Oliver was a pleasant caller here last week. He says that his company, the Borden's, are doing a great business.

Messrs. Roy Dayly, Jos. Schwarz and Lewis Gray filled their ice houses last week.

E. E. Avery and wife of the Bethel fruit farm, entertained relatives from Scranton last week.

We spent a day at Welcome Lake last week. There are some very fine boarding houses at that place, especially those owned by Messrs. Virgil Case, Ezra Case, and Ernest Miller. Another large and commodious house is being built for Farrington Case.

W. H. Marshall spent Tuesday last with his father, T. B. Marshall, who is living with his daughter, Mrs. C. O. Blake, Bethany. Mr. Blake is extensively engaged in raising Holstein cattle and Shropshire sheep.

The Ladies' Aid held at the home of Mrs. A. M. Henshaw on the first inst. was well attended. All present had a very enjoyable time. Their next meeting will be with Mr. William Seymour at the M. E. parsonage, Beach Lake.

Fred Schwarz and wife, who have been spending some time with the latter's relatives at Cherry Ridge, are now at the former's home, at this place.

Mrs. Smith, who has been very sick with rheumatism, is regaining health.

Thomas Ham and daughter, Irma, spent Sunday last with Hawley relatives.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Beach Lake, Pa., February 21.—On February 14th the W. C. T. U. ladies and their husbands met at the home of Mrs. Mary Neal. After partaking of a delicious dinner provided by the ladies the following program was rendered: Singing; invocation; Scripture reading, Psalm 91; prayer, Rev. Seymour; roll call; minutes read; address, Rev. Seymour; singing; address, Mrs. Mary Neal; singing; recitation, "When Our Ship Comes In," by Mrs. J. B. Wilmarth. The day was enjoyably spent by all present.

Mrs. Hiram Wood entertained the Ladies' Aid Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Mr. Amasa Keys has been very sick the last ten days with grip.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 East Beach Lake, Pa., February 21.—Amasa Keys is under the care of Dr. Parsell, Narrowsburg, N. Y. Nellie and Frank Frey are spending some time in New York.

Will Frey has gone to Mt. Clemens, Mich., for his health.

Mrs. Amasa Keys' niece, Honesdale, is spending a few days with her.

Miss Ella Frey, Honesdale, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frey.

From in regard to the sleigh ride party to Damascus will be found in the Beach Lake items, as that letter was put in type before this one was received.

Lola Richards entertained Elma Hiller, Francis and Agnes Downing last Saturday at their Literary Club.

GOULDSBORO.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Gouldsboro, Pa., Feb. 20.—Much sympathy is felt here for William Crooks, familiarly known throughout Wayne county as "Uncle Billie," in the misfortune he met with Friday morning when he slipped on the ice near his home and broke his hip. As Mr. Crooks is 83 years old, the accident is a serious one.

Mr. and Mrs. William Munson, Scranton, have been spending a few days here. They will move here and occupy one of the Garagan houses.

Mrs. McCann, Scranton, visited her brother, Daniel Connelly, at Mrs. Ella DuToit's the last of the week.

Miss Martha Eschenbach, a teacher of Thornhurst school, and her pupils, visited Miss Ecken Smith and her scholars at Fayette school, Clifton, on Thursday.

Among those that spent Saturday in Scranton were Misses Marilla Fairless, Grace Dowling, Emma Bates, Rosebud Courtney, Anna Flower and Mrs. Joseph Matthews.

R. B. Decker and R. W. Balcom called on W. P. Latimer at Rockport on Sunday.

Death of Thomas Simons.
 Thomas Simons, aged eighty-four years, a life-long resident of Green-town, died February 11. Mr. Simons had relatives and many friends here.

Edna Knecht, of Pocono Summit, was a Gouldsboro visitor on Sunday.

David Midway, Moscow, was the guest of E. C. Shinnerling on Sunday.

George Edwards returned home Saturday from Scranton where he spent several days with friends.

Edward Shinnerling made a trip to Binghamton, N. Y., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Klein, residing near the Union church, are about to dispose of their house and some personal effects and will move to Easton during the month of March.

WHITES VALLEY.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Whites Valley, Pa., February 22.—Mr. and Mrs. E. Bates White, Lestershire, spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents here, and attended the funeral of Mrs. Walker at Aldenville and returned to Lestershire Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pay Dewell and daughter, Theima, have returned from German, N. Y., where they spent the past two months.

Mrs. T. A. Bell and daughter, Minnie, visited Sunday at G. N. Bonham's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bartholomew, Maple Grove, called on friends here last Thursday.

D. E. Hacker, who has been confined to the house the past week, is recovering.

Mrs. H. H. Fisher, who had the misfortune to break the eye end of a needle off in her right fore finger, had it located by use of the X-ray and removed by Dr. Lloyd, Forest City, who is still treating the finger which is slowly healing.

Mrs. William Glover, who was taken suddenly ill Sunday afternoon, is improving.

Mrs. Gardner has been quite seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Clift.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings returned home Monday after a few days' visit in Carbondale.

Fred W. White made a business trip to Scranton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hutchins returned home Saturday after spending the week with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. Glover.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
 Newfoundland, Pa., February 21.—Rev. A. E. Francke, who has accepted the call to be pastor of the Moravian congregation of Elizabeth, N. J., will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday morning. There will be no service next Sunday evening. Rev. Francke was much loved by the members of his congregation and will be sadly missed by the people of the vicinity. Rev. Edmund Schmarze, Bethlehem, will take Rev. Francke's place, serving Newfoundland from Bethlehem until June when he will take up his residence here.

On Sunday morning fourteen scholars of the Moravian Sunday school received the gold wreaths on their one-year pins for two years' faithful attendance at Sunday school.

The members of the I. O. O. F. intend to celebrate Washington's Birthday with an entertainment and oyster supper. This "good time" is for the Odd Fellows and their wives or friends only.

Mrs. A. Scheibert is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Thoma in New York City.

Mrs. William Heberling is in Ariel with her daughter, Mrs. Storm, who has the grip.

Dr. Henry Parsons, who is boarding at the Newfoundland House, has accepted the J