

SEVEN DAYS IN WAYNE

WHAT THE FOLKS IN THE SHIRE ARE DOING.

MAPLEWOOD.

Special to THE CITIZEN.
Maplewood, Feb. 23.—Mrs. Alba Black visited Scranton relatives the forepart of the week.

Many friends of William Sharpe gathered at his home Tuesday evening and enjoyed a song service. Mr. Sharpe is confined to his bed and is very feeble.

Rev. L. H. Yergie leaves soon to attend the annual conference at Williamsport.

New York parties have been through the country picking up table beets at $1.75 per barrel. A shortage in the crop causes the heavy demand.

G. M. Black is home from Scranton for a week or two.
Miss Lee, our popular principal of the graded school, is able to be out again after a few days' illness.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church met at the home of James Powell last Thursday.

The Young Men's Bible Class of the Grace Sunday school met at the home of Guy Black, Friday evening and studied the lesson. Election of officers for the ensuing year was held and resulted as follows: F. S. Keene, president; O. P. Sharpe, vice-president; Lyle Keene, secretary; Howard Gromlich, treasurer. The class will meet at F. S. Keene's next Friday evening.

Theodore Klein, of the State Grange, addressed a meeting at the school house Saturday night. A Grange will be instituted here next Saturday evening if a suitable meeting place can be secured.

Ex-Bishop W. F. Hill will be the new presiding elder of the United Evangelical church.

Adelaide Mitchell led the Christian Endeavor meeting, Sunday night.

Miss Lee is still confined to the house by severe illness.

Many of our young people attended the play at Hamlin Friday and Saturday nights.

Sugar making will be in order, if present weather prevails.

SOUTH CLINTON.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

SOUTH CLINTON, Pa., February 20.—There will be an oyster supper at John Neely's, Thursday evening, March 2, for the benefit of the basement fund. We hope to make this event a financial success. Come and help in the good cause and show your appreciation. If stormy, the supper will be served on the following evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stanton, Rev. and Mrs. Baker and son, Leroy, spent a very enjoyable day at the home of G. W. Lee, Washington's Birthday.

The Ladies' Aid society's social held at the home of H. Bullock, was a success in spite of the stormy weather.

The ladies of this place are going to organize a thimble tea for the benefit of the basement fund. Another announcement of this will appear later.

S. B. Swingle has purchased a new saw with the new fixtures attached and now can do the work of two men.

PAUPACK.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

PAUPACK, Pa., February 28.—Miss Nettie Case is employed by B. F. Killam.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hopps and children are spending a time with Mrs. Hopps' parents, George Ansley and wife.

Mrs. Bennett spent Wednesday in Hawley. We are glad she can go out.

Mr. Frivelpiece, of this place, had the misfortune of hurting his foot, while working on the mill.

Miss Frances Killam is home for a short time. From here she will go to Wilkes-Barre.

We all hope the good sleighing will last.

Miss Blanche M. Fowler spent last Saturday and Sunday in Blooming Grove, with friends.

Miss Mabel C. Stark, teacher of White school, spent Saturday in Honesdale.

The pupils that attended the White school every day this month were: Anna Gumble, Edith Gumble, Edna Singer, Alice Singer, Gertrude Fowler, Lawrence Singer, Willie Singer, Fred Singer and Leland Singer. The first three girls have attended school every day in the term so far.

CENTERVILLE.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

Centerville, Pa., February 28.—Thursday, February 16, being a very nice day the Centerville school went for a sleighride and visited the High School at Newfoundland. All enjoyed the afternoon very much and reached home about six o'clock in the evening. Those who went in the sleighride party were: Thomas Garrity, William Laird, Homer Frisbie, teacher, George Simons, Clarence Smith, Henry Murphy, Nettie Marjory, Nora, and Beatrice Kimble, Margaret and Jennie Marshall, Elizabeth Garrity, Loretta Walker, Anna Mae Sterner and Edna Becker.

Mr. and Mrs. Uri Everett are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Becker, of this place.

Anna Walker, of this place, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Royal Fowler, at Hawley.

ALDENVILLE.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

ALDENVILLE, Pa., February 28.—The members of the senior class of the high school, together with their principal, Prof. Richwine, and Miss Marguerite Kennedy, teacher of the under grades, were agreeably entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Snedeker, of White Oak Farm, on Wednesday, February 23. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Several from this place attended the box social held in the Edenville school district on Friday evening.

They report a pleasant time. Something over eleven dollars realized.

Another enjoyable affair was the dinner held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Dieterick on Thursday last, by the Baptist L. A. S. The sum of five dollars and ninety cents was added to the treasury.

Rev. Rainey preached to a fine congregation on Sunday morning from the text: "God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of Jesus Christ."

Prayer meeting this week on Thursday evening at G. H. Knapp's.

The Choyne school was treated to a sleighride on Wednesday last.

F. M. Gaylord is somewhat improved.

The sap works are being opened up about these parts and soon we expect the maple sugar parties, socials, etc., will be right in season.

LOOKOUT.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

LOOKOUT, Pa., February 28.—Ewan is the name of the new post-office near the South Branch creek, three miles from Equinunk. Frank Ewan is postmaster. At present they will have mail service three times a week and will be supplied by the mail carrier on route from Hankins, via Lookout, and terminate at Ewan.

A petition is being circulated and largely signed for a station at Kellam Bridge on the Erie Railroad, which if it proves successful, will be a great accommodation to the people of the town of Fremont Center and all along the line on the Pennsylvania side. At present there is only a flag station. We think it would be a benefit to the Erie railroad to give us an agent.

The ladies of our little hamlet presented Frank Bruce with a "sunshine box," consisting of some thirty pieces, one for each day of the month. Frank has been a helpless invalid for the past six months. Mrs. F. W. Contant, wife of our beloved pastor, was the solicitor. He also has a new invalid wheel chair. It is the wish of a host of friends that it may bring some rays of sunshine and cheer to one so sadly afflicted.

Frank Lester, the hustling farmer, is rushing the season somewhat. He has at present two large incubators running at full blast. If nothing happens, he expects to hear the chickens sing before the robins return.

Miss Helen Rutledge spent a part of last week with her aunt at Hancock, N. Y.

A jolly sleighload consisting of the entire school at Lesters, taught by Miss Hazel Hopkins, visited the Cole school, taught by Russel Clark, on Washington's Birthday. The team, a pair of fine matched blacks, owned by Albert Galloway, was driven by his nephew, Elwood Stalker.

GOULDSBORO.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

GOULDSBORO, Pa., Feb. 24.—Charles W. Garagan, the modest but genial host of the St. Charles hotel, usually wants to spend his birthdays in a quiet and unostentatious manner. This year, however, he was denied such a desire for this forty-seventh birthday was the cause of some forty friends gathering at his hotel from Wilkes-Barre, Pittston and Scranton, to celebrate so auspicious a time in his life. A dinner was served in his honor and any one who has ever dined at the St. Charles knows that for good, substantial eating his table is an attraction that encourages patrons to come from afar and causes the traveling public to tarry awhile that they might enjoy another meal. Emerson has said that he who does something better than any one else causes a path to be made to his door, even if he lives in the woods. So it is with the St. Charles Hotel. They cook just a little better there than anywhere else.

They prompt your appetite with those delicious and wholesome things that one does not seem to be able to get anywhere else, and there is an air of good management about the place which bids you stay longer than you intended. Having lived forty-seven years, Mr. Garagan's friends felt that the gift of an easy chair might have some charm for him, for when one draws near the half century mark he deserves some suggestion of rest. A bouquet of flowers was also a means of showing the high regard in which he is held by his many patrons. Among those who were present were: Misses Margaret and Isabel Scrimgeour, West Pittston; Mr. and Mrs. George Drake, Sr., Mrs. Thaddeus Stewart and daughter Sarah, Miss Mary O'Hara, Old Forge; Mrs. M. J. Garagan and Mr. and Mrs. Addison Keesler, Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bryden, Mrs. Catherine Root, Miss Mary A. Bryden, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Foster, Donald Foster, Elsie Foster, Catherine Foster, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peck and son Kenyon, West Pittston; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Williams, Wilkes-Barre, and Daniel Foley, Gouldsboro.

Little Harry Ellenberger, who has been very sick, is some better.

Guy Sebring has been suffering from a very severe attack of quinsy at his home at the West End.

E. N. Adams, West End, spent Thursday with Mrs. S. A. Adams, at Hillcrest.

A large number attended the Washington birthday exercises given by the intermediate and primary departments at the school Wednesday.

Mrs. A. L. Rhodes and Mrs. G. A. Kerling spent Tuesday in Scranton.

Mrs. David Ellenberger and son Donald are spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Latham, at Binghamton, N. Y.

Mrs. S. S. Hager has been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. S. Wilson Ellenberger, at Sunny Crest farm.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Garagan have been entertaining at the St. Charles hotel Mr. Garagan's mother, Mrs. Garagan, Scranton, and sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Addison Keesler, Scranton.

HAWLEY.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

HAWLEY, Pa., February 28.—W. J. Keesler, vice-president of the Hawley Bank, who has been seriously afflicted with a bronchial ailment, following his physician's advice, will soon take a trip to the seashore in hopes that a prolonged stay there may effect a complete cure.

William Sheeley, Chestnut Avenue, is at the home of his son, Walter, at Port Jervis for treatment by a local physician for a stomach trouble of long standing. His wife, who accompanied him, returned on Monday.

Mrs. R. F. Martin treated her daughter, Elizabeth, and members of her class at school to a sleighride Saturday afternoon.

Miss Locklin, Lakeville, passed Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Addison Vicker and other friends of this place.

Mabel Lewis is very ill at her home on River street.

On Saturday T. F. Wall had brought here from the Westbrook dairy farm at Blooming Grove, a valuable new milch cow and calf which he recently purchased.

A bold midnight marauder attempted to gain an entrance into the home of Mrs. Decker on Spring street Friday night. He lighted a match to locate the door lock and was heard by Mrs. Decker's daughter, Mrs. Edith Kellam, and was frightened away by her call for assistance.

Miss Kathryn Drake, a student at the Stroudsburg State Normal school, paid a recent brief visit to her home here.

Mary Thielke accompanied her sister, Elizabeth, to her home in Brooklyn Saturday, February 18, where she will make an extended visit.

Miss Orra Rollison and Miss Elizabeth Gregg of the High school faculty, are in New York for a short time receiving instructions in first grade school work. Mrs. Mark Creasy has taken charge of Miss Gregg's room during her absence.

Miss Lena Poeppel, Brooklyn, was home on Sunday, February 19. She is completing a course in trained nursing in the Methodist Episcopal hospital of that city.

The Meyers building on Main Avenue, occupied by Jacob Adams as restaurant and residence, has been in the hands of contractors Murray and Strong, painters and decorators, J. W. Murray and Ralph Turner, for some time. The result is an addition of 20 by 20 feet of two stories at rear of building which dining room and sleeping rooms with all modern equipments. The inside walls and wood work of entire building were given attention, so that this popular hostelry presents a very handsome appearance.

Michael McAndrew, Marble Hill, who for the past fifteen years has so faithfully performed his duties as sexton for the Catholic church and rectory, has resigned owing to his advanced age. Thomas Drake will succeed him.

Mrs. K. Branning, White Mills, was a guest at the home of her son, D. J. Branning, during the week.

Rev. B. P. Ripley will conduct special services during Lent beginning on Ash Wednesday, March 3, with Holy Communion sermon on "Lent and Hints on Keeping It," Thursday, the subject will be "The Doctrine of Penitence and Forgiveness." Sunday morning next, "Theory and Practice of Self-Examination." Sunday evening, "Sermon to the Masonic Fraternity and Order of the Eastern Star on 'Masonry, the Mother of the Fraternities; Are Fraternal Organizations of Any Value To the Community?'"

The Home Missionary society will meet with Mrs. James Stevenson on Wednesday afternoon when important business will be transacted. All members are requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Seeger, Lakeville, attended Rose Rebekah Lodge here, Saturday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Rodman spent Friday at their cottage at Fairview Lake in Pike county.

Miss Anna T. Keleher, a nurse of the Jewish Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., is spending a few days at her home on River street.

"The Simple Life"—In Hawley. Everything moved along in the same genial, quiet, orderly way on Washington's Birthday, in just about the same manner that the people of Hawley have been accustomed to seeing it for many years past. This, of course, is characteristic of our people. In the evening there is always a supper followed by a dance for the benefit of one of the fraternal orders, completing the day's program. The absence of Old Glory floating to the breeze was most noticeable. We have not learned why so few were raised in honor of this patriot's birthday. The Odd Fellows' supper in their hall was quite largely patronized, and the dance which followed seemed to be the most enjoyable of the occasion.

On February 22, a large company of friends of Miss May A. Richardson gave her a delightful surprise at her home on Church street, this being her birthday. Coming as they did like a band of "Kentucky Night Riders" in such number, for a time it puzzled the Richardson family not a little to know just how to handle the jolly company. But Mr. and Mr. Richardson soon caught on and with the assistance of the victim of the hour soon had them all in their spacious house and in a comfortable way of enjoying themselves in which they surely did. Those present were: Mary Bowler, Gertrude Bea, Sylvia Rodman, Harriet McAndrew, Viola Crockenberg, Jessie Adams, Mabel Losey, Marguerite Kerling, Augusta Crockenberg, Helen Spring, Joseph Murray, George Murray, George Murphy, Allen Gilpin, George Jacobs, George Hittinger, Wilson Ames, Roland Snyder, Floyd Swingle, Austin Connors, Fred Bennett, John Ames, Frank Rowland,

George Gregg, Walter Quinney, Ed. Dapper.

Hawley Again Victorious.

The interscholastic championship game of basket ball played on Saturday night between the Hawley High school team and the Seelyville team resulted in their getting it "where the shirt fits the tightest." Score 16 to 17.

John Pennell visited his parents at Arlington on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Amanda Gimbley, Warren, who has been making an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Eckbeck, at Adella, leaves this week for New York city where she will spend two weeks. After that she will return to spend some time with her sister before returning to her home.

An unpleasantness occurred at the Eddy on Saturday to mar the quiet of the town. Mr. Lehman, proprietor of Park View Hotel, discharged his hostler for some cause and the man refused to leave the house, becoming boisterous. Mr. Lehman was compelled to call Policeman Richardson to put him out. The man was arrested but soon after released. He is a stranger in these parts.

BETHANY.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

BETHANY, Pa., February 28.—The Bethany school visited the Haines school, Thursday afternoon. Russell Starner took them over in his "bob." All had a delightful time.

Miss Ella Gammell returned home Thursday from an extensive visit in New Jersey, stopping at Hawley where she visited Miss Eva Harmes.

Mrs. J. B. Faatz returned home Friday.

The dinner at Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ogden's pleasant home in Pleasant Valley, Friday, was very much enjoyed by a goodly number. Christopher Bodie brought a sleigh load from Haines and Mr. Edgar Ross from here. The dinner consisted of chicken-pie and all the accompaniments, ending with desert of four different kinds of pie and two kinds of pudding. Proceeds, $7.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bodie and little daughter, Helen, spent Sunday in Honesdale with Mrs. Bodie's sisters, Mrs. Voigt and Miss Schoonover.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hauser, Honesdale, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Hauser.

Mrs. William Avery spent the week-end in Carbondale consulting a specialist.

Patrick Fives was obliged to go to Scranton Saturday to have his ear treated.

There will be special music at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning by Bessie and Lillian Henshaw and Elmer Lippert.

The many friends of Mrs. Charles Faatz are helping to make her a "sunshine" box. The first box will be given this week.

Wilbur Cody is on the sick list. Mrs. William Paynter has been spending the past two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Paynter and family.

We enjoyed reading Mrs. Abraham's letter from Orange City, Fla., and look forward with great interest to the next one.

Mrs. M. L. Slayton gave a five o'clock tea on Monday for Miss Ball and Miss Slayton.

INDIAN ORCHARD.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

INDIAN ORCHARD, Pa., February 27.—J. Nelson Garrett, Scranton, came over Saturday afternoon to spend Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Garrett, and sister, Mrs. W. H. Hall.

Miss Alice Collins, Carbondale, was a recent guest of Cora Weeks. Mrs. Bertha Kellam recently visited her sister, Mrs. W. Tuttle, and son, at Hawley.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henshaw attended the funeral of a relative, Mr. Thomas, at Peckville, Monday.

Hubert Wood, Atco, recently visited his cousin, Mrs. E. F. Mavor. Katherine Wagner spent Sunday with her parents at this place.

P. L. Braman and wife spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Garrett, at W. H. Hall's. Mr. Hall is at present employed in Scranton.

The friends in this vicinity of Mrs. Sarah Headley, Prompton, were very sorry to hear of the nature of her recent operation and hope for a complete recovery.

Mrs. R. Leftwich, who has been quite ill with La Grippe, is able to be around again.

Mrs. P. L. Braman recently spent a few days with her daughter at White Mills.

The L. A. S. met with Rev. J. W. Seymour and wife at the M. E. parsonage, Beach Lake, on Washington's Birthday. They were joined by a number of the members of the B. L. Aid and had a most enjoyable time. Four dollars and nineteen cents was cleared.

RIVERDALE.

Special to THE CITIZEN.

RIVERDALE, Pa., February 28.—Several from this place attended the funeral of Mrs. Augusta Deming at Maple Grove on Tuesday. She died of pleuro-pneumonia at the home of her oldest son, Wesley, of Scranton, at whose home she had been visiting for several weeks.

The Maple Grove Ladies' Aid society met at the home of Mrs. William Martin last week. The meeting was well attended, over eight dollars being added to the treasury.

Many in this vicinity are still afflicted with La Grippe.

Clara, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wildenstein, who has been very ill with pneumonia and inflammation of the bowels, is much improved.

Miss Margaret Hauenstein has returned home after spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Ernest Deming, Maple Grove.

Paul Thielfeldt, Belmont, spent

Death of Mrs. Brown.

(Communicated.)
In loving remembrance of Mrs. Duane Brown who died February 21, 1911, aged 38 years, 4 months and 27 days.

"Farewell! Yes, her burden is lifted, The rough places all are made plain— The sorrow, the trial, the suffering Can never disturb her again. With sweet childlike trust and submission She bent to the chastening rod, And now, in the fullness of glory, She rests on the bosom of God.

For her is the beauty, the brightness, The peace which God gives to His own; We dwell in the silence and shadows That hang round our desolate home. With hearts that are weary with longing And eyes that are saddened by tears, We gaze at the desolate future, And shrink from the on-coming years.

So calm, when shadows were thick—est— So patient, so cheerful, so brave— Strange, strange that so noble a spirit Should sink to the rest of the grave. But God, in His infinite wisdom, And infinite pity and love, Knew best when He gathered our loved one To shine in His kingdom above."

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Miss Ruth Lord, Middletown, passed the week-end with her parents here.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and friends.

Mrs. Brown was esteemed by all who knew her. There could be no better evidence of this than the beautiful floral tributes which she received, the casket being covered with flowers. Very lovely pieces were sent by the Siko Sunday school, W. C. T. U. and Pleasant Valley Grange as well as by relatives and