The Western Union Telegraph Company inaugurates today a new form of telegraph service called the Day Letter which, we believe, will immediately commend itself to you as affording decided economic and profitable advantages to the business community. The Day Letter is designed to be the day companion to the Night Letter which doubtless you have already used on many occasions.

The rate charged for a Day Letter of fifty words or less is one and one-half times the Night Letter rate, and for each additional ten words or less one-fifth the initial charge. For example: the New York-Chicago Night Letter rate is 50 cents; the Day Letter rate is one and one-half times that or 75 cents, with 15 cents for each additional ten words. The New York-San Francisco Night Letter rate is $1.00; the Day Letter rate $1.50, with 30 cents for each additional ten words.

Day Letters should be written in plain English; code language and code words not accepted. They may be filed at any time and are to be transmitted as the facilities of the Company may permit during business hours, full rate telegrams having priority of transmission.

As the wires of the company are in much demand during the mid-day hours it is advisable that Day Letters be filed as early in the day as possible. Day Letters will be accepted at all offices of the Western Union for transmission to any of its offices in the United States.

The Day Letter and Night Letter give to the United States the cheapest telegraph service in the world, and enable the business man to conduct his correspondence by wire with all the advantages that result from saving of time, elimination of distance and the immediate attention invariably accorded to telegrams.

Under orders from Washington, all postoffices of the country are now required, for a time, to count every piece of mail passing through the office, and classify the same, weighing and making a record of the weight of each class of mail. This extra work causes considerable delay in delivering the mail.

Governor Tener has put the stamp of his approval on the idea of establishing a hospital at Farview for the care of the criminal tubercular of the state as proposed by Senator Walter McNichols at Harrisburg Tuesday. Recommendations providing that a committee composed of Dr. Dixon, head of the State Health Bureau, and the wardens of the Eastern and Western penitentiaries visit Farview and select a site have been made. It is said that at present there are several hundred prisoners suffering from tuberculosis in the two penitentiaries. Farview would be an ideal locality for such an institution and the foresight of Senator McNichols in introducing such a resolution is to be commended.

"When I love thee not, chaos is come again." Dr. Charles Rods, pastor of Cumberland Street Methodist Episcopal church, Philadelphia, says that chaos has come again—as far as Protestantism is concerned—especially the Methodist section of it. He walls, like a modern Jeremiah:

Our Church has showed a gain of less than one per cent. in a year. There is an average of one convert to each church and pastor.

Only one-third of the children of the land are in the Sunday schools. One-third of them are converted. Of those converted, only one-third are trained to accomplish anything for the Church.

The poor, distraught mourner is so engrossed with his tribulations that he cannot see that he uses language that indicates the cause while he rails against the effect.

The individual liberty which Luther and the old reformers won for mankind has finally thrown Protestantism into chaos. Individual liberty has degenerated to such an extent that preachers and people are concerned chiefly with the individual interpretation of the Scripture rather than the upbuilding of the Church.

The local Church to-day is a mob, and not an army. Like a mob, they know how to break each other's heads. There is no great Christian army fighting for Christ, because there is no army spirit.

Chaos has come again for his Church, and logically Dr. Rods ought to get away from her, for evidently he loves her no longer.

Precepts for Lent—1. Make good use of the regular and special services of the church, Sundays and week days, 2. Set apart the closing moments, each day, for conscientious self-examination, 3. Pray oftener than at the beginning and end of each day, 4. Read the Scripture lessons for every morning and evening indicated in the Church Book, 5. Refrain from worldly amusements and frivolous companions, whose tendency is adverse to all that is serious, 6. As a personal religious discipline make a real self denial each day during the sacred season, and deposit the money thus saved on God's altar at Easter, 7. Forgive all persons who may have trespassed against you and in case you have wronged any one seek reconciliation, 8. Last but not least, let the grateful love of your heart to your suffering Saviour be the conscious source of each and all of these actions.

Daily Collect—Almighty and everlasting God, who hastest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent; create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GEOGRAPHICAL ODDITIES.

Some Peculiar Facts About These Great United States.

The following collection of geographical peculiarities about the United States and places therein embodies certain unique points well worth remembering.

A novel way to demonstrate the size of the State of Texas is to spread out a map of the union and stretch a string across Texas the longest way. Then, placing one end of the measure at Chicago, one will find that the other end will extend into either the Atlantic Ocean or the gulf of Mexico.

The two largest counties in the United States are Custer county, Mont., and San Bernardino county, Cal. Each of these is a little more than 20,000 square miles in extent, and the States of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Delaware and New Jersey could be put inside the boundaries of either of them.

The smallest county in the union is Bristol county, R. I., which has only twenty-five square miles.

About fifty miles from Durango, Colo., there is a point where four states meet. Here by stepping a few feet in either direction one can walk in four different commonwealths in as many seconds. These commonwealths are the States of Colorado, Utah and the territories of New Mexico and Arizona.

A nearly parallel case is at Harper's Ferry, where the train stops a few minutes to allow the passengers to alight and enjoy a view which permits them to look into three States, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia.

The highest and lowest elevations in this country are in California, within 100 miles of each other. The loftiest is Mount Whitney, 14,499 feet high, and the lowest is Death Valley, about 450 feet below the level of the sea.

Two Oceans pass, in Yellowstone park, is so named because, whenever there is a shower in the vicinity and a certain small creek overflows, its waters spread out over the edge of the continental divide and pass into tributaries of rivers which flow to the Atlantic and to the Pacific.—Boston Globe.

End Of The Short-Sighted Boss.

Richard Croker, interviewed at Palm Beach by the New York World, says Murphy should withdraw his support from Sheehan and allow the Democratic Legislature to elect a United States Senator. Coming from the source it does this opinion ought to have some weight with Murphy, but it probably will have none, for yesterday's papers printed an interview with Murphy denouncing Edward M. Shepard and the others who have sought to defeat Sheehan. This Senatorial struggle has shown how little there is in Murphy. There have been bosses who had a good many of the traits and characteristics, and much of the strength of leadership. These were dangerous, for when they are forceful and resourceful enough to be leaders, and are willing to use their strength to make themselves mere bosses, the danger is that they will maintain their hold for a long time. When a man is simply a boss, who has come into power by chance or through the process of elimination, then it is only necessary for him to betray his weakness through one failure and his power will leave him forever. Murphy has shown himself to be simply a bull-headed and rhinoceros-headed boss. He has none of the qualities of real leadership. If he had, he would recognize the fact that to force Sheehan either to victory or defeat will be fatal to his success in the future. To elect Sheehan will mean the driving away of thousands of votes from the Democratic ticket next year and possibly the defeat of the party throughout the country. The defeat of Sheehan, in spite of Murphy's continued and insistent support, will mean the breaking of Murphy's power in New York city, for the men whom he dominates, there are not the kind to be bossed by the man who fails in his undertakings. The only way, therefore, in which Murphy could save his face and his influence would be to withdraw his support from Sheehan and assist in electing a Senator who would be acceptable to the people generally. This, it is apparent, he will not do. Like the traditional beggar on horseback, he insists on riding to ruin.

The last year witnessed the overthrow of a number of bosses; the present and the next will be marked by the passing of many more.

BAD DREAMS

Nightmare, Restlessness and Night-sweats All Caused By Indigestion.

Half of the nervousness in the world, all of the disturbing dreams and nightmares can be ended in a few weeks by a simple, inexpensive treatment guaranteed by G. W. Pell. Upset stomach is the cause of nervousness and bad dreams. Your food is lying in your stomach undigested and fermenting; it is forming poisonous gases which irritate the pneumogastric nerve that leads direct from the brain, and ends in a network of tiny branches running through the stomach. It is also the irritation of this great pneumogastric nerve that causes headaches. Many times people have severe headaches and know they are caused by the stomach, but do not know how.

If you are nervous, have dreams or nightmares, and do not sleep sound at night, get a 50 cent box of MI-O-NA stomach tablets and take one or two after or with meals. MI-O-NA stomach tablets relieve distressed stomach in 5 minutes. Sold by G. W. Pell and druggists everywhere who guarantee MI-O-NA to cure indigestion, or money back.
