Death of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Dein.
 Mary Elizabeth, widow of the late Lewis Dein, died Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock from a complication of diseases at her home in Maple Avenue, Seelyville. She was 76 years old, having been born at Easton July 25, 1835. She had been a great sufferer for the past nine years from heart trouble, but the immediate cause of her death was an attack of bronchitis, which set in four weeks ago. Her maiden name was Goodman. She was the oldest of eleven children of Hiram and Maria (Major) Goodman. On December 12, 1852, she was married to Lewis Dein, Honesdale, who for more than fifty years, conducted a meat market in the Maple city and died November 26, 1904. She came here 70 years ago, and lived almost all her life either in Seelyville or Honesdale. She was the mother of seven children, three of whom survive her. They are: Charles W. Dein, Honesdale, Mrs. Emma H. Johnson and Mrs. Mary E., wife of H. E. Basset, all of Seelyville; two brothers, Frank Goodman, Rockford, Ill., Charles Goodman, Pendleton, Ore., one sister, Mrs. Joseph Menner, Honesdale. Funeral services will be held in her late residence, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Will H. Hiller, pastor of the Central Methodist Episcopal church, of which church she was a devout member, and in whose aairs she took a prominent part, until prevented by failing health, officiating. Interment will be made in Glen Dyberry cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Dein lived to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary, December 12, 1902.

LOVE AND LOVERS

BY "SALLY."
 My dear young girls, you cannot be too careful of the young men who call at your house. Always make it a point to introduce them to your father and mother. They are always a better judge of young men than you give them credit for. If they object to any of your gentlemen callers, take their advice, because they wouldn't object if they did not have good reasons.

A girl who signs her letter F. W. writes: "Dear Sally—A young man whom I like but do not love calls on me frequently and escorts me home from business. He is very attentive. Do you think he is in love with me and if he is what am I going to do?"

Perhaps the young man merely admires you and doesn't love you at all. Girls often make that mistake. But if you fear making him unhappy do not allow him to see you so often.

A girl who signs her letter S. M. T. writes: "Dear Sally—For some time I have been keeping company with a young man and recently we had a quarrel. He was very rude but now he wishes to apologize. What shall I do?"

Accept his apology but do not be friends with him any longer. Any man who is rude to a lady is not a gentleman.

Catarrh Goes
So Does Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup and Asthma.
 You can easily tell by reading the symptoms below, whether you have catarrh or not:
 Offensive breath, frequent sneezing, discharge from the nose, stoppage of the nose, huskiness of the voice, tickling in throat, droppings in throat, a cough, pain in chest, loss of strength, variable appetite, spasms of coughing, low spirited at times, raising of mucus, difficulty in breathing, loss of vital force.
 G. W. Pell has a sensible remedy (money back if it fails) for catarrh, called HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-mei) which is a vaporized air, so antiseptic, that when it is breathed over the inflamed and germ-infested membrane, it kills all germ life, gives relief in two minutes, and cures catarrh.
 The price, including hard rubber pocket inhaler, is only $1.00. The inhaler will last a lifetime, so that should you need a second bottle of HYOMEI, you can get it for 60 cents.
